Steve Takeuchi Wins Monthly Award; Writer (?) Apologizes for Pebble Woes

Steve Takeuchi, a veteran linksman but seldom heard of in major tournament play, gave the big boys of the SCNGA something to shoot at during the month of October—and no one could touch him.

Takeuchi, playing out of Fox Hills as a Top Notcher, came up with a sparkling 71 during club play for a fabulous 61 net, thanks to his 10 handicap. This was good for the monthly SCNGA sweepstakes ball prize.

In a deadlock for the runner-up spot were Ed Okuno of Brookside and long-balling Mike Matsumura. Okuno, playing out of Brookside, fired a 77-15—62, which would be good for the top slot in any other month—except October. "Wahoo", Max Flite's answer to Errol Flynn, had a 72-8—64 at Montebello. They tied via the course rating gimmick.

Tarzan Kaneko, Richard Iwamotoand Yasuo Yoshida were fourth place finishers in the 10th month competition with 63 nets. Kaneko, of Top Flite, had a 74-11, while Iwamoto and Yoshida, a pair of Orange Countains, had 69-6 and 73-10 respectively.

The Others

Barely out of the money despite sub-par efforts were Herb Isono, WLA, 70-6; Dan Hiura, Top Notch, a net 64; and Mits Motomo, TN, 70-5. Other fine scores included reports from Frank Kishi, WLA, 75-11—64; Ken Osajima, 72-8—64 and Dr. Paul Tsukahara, 73-13—65.

An Apology

An apology of sorts, whether it will do any good or not, is to be tendered here and now from the typewriter of the stupid ogre who authors this weekly treatise. (Wonder who the hell he is).

Altho we shoulda known better, for wont of space fillers for this page last week, we unthinkingly published some "side-bar" information for public perusal which should have remained unsaid.

(We might try to palm some of the blame onto host E. Nagao for slipping us the info, but that wouldn't be kosher either).

We're told, from all sorts of informants, that a number of gentlemen mentioned in the Pebble Beach rundown were displeased, if that be the proper word. PO'd would be a better vocabulary, I imagine.

Take Prexy Freddie Ikeguchi. He, like a good spouse should, split his winnings with the wife . . . which made her extremely happy and elevated him into the thoughtful category again, even after all these years of wedded bliss. But when she discovered how much Fred really picked up, all was not as cozy as before last week's CR reached the house.

Under perfect weather conditions (for penguins) — cold and windy), the scores sored.

Proud papa (of a new baby girl) and fresh off a turkey dinner, Francis Aoyama came up with a net 74 to tie for the top spot with Kesao "Pop" Karasawa. They split the top prizes but will playoff for the trophy next week.

Elections Being Held by SCNGA Clubs As 1966 Ikeguchi Regime Continues

Election of new cabinets and officers of the 14 SCNGA member clubs is taking up the thoughts of most members these days ("Now who shall we railroad into office this year?"). Then there are the usual Ham and Whiskey Shoots—but not much else as far as golf activity is concerned.

John Ty Saito, our illustrious handicap dictator, reports that the scheduled handicap meeting slated for this Monday at Rudi's has been cancelled.

Reason for the cancellation was to make way for the year-end general meeting of the SCNGA officers, board and club representatives.

The aforementioned conclave will be held Thursday, Dec. 16, at Tokyo Kaikan, according to President Freddie Ikeguchi.

Freddie reqeusts that each SCNGA club send its incoming president and handicap chairman. Those clubs which have not yet held elections for 1966 are asked to send their current office holders.

The tentative tournament schedule for 1966 will be outlined to the representatives, pending ideas for the coming year will be discussed, as well as handicap problems and other items.

And despite the objections of the current hard-working crew, it was noted at the last cabinet meeting that the current regime of Ikeguchi - Hayakawa - Tatsumi -Matsunaga will remain in office for another year to wind up the first two-year experiment of the SCNGA.

Dr. Paul Tsukahara, who can out-yank Cary Middlecoff and play ahelluva lot faster, has been elected president of the Top Notch Golf Club at its annual dinner party held Friday, Dec. 3 at Imperial Gardens Restaurant.

The Fox Hills boys have surrounded him with a cabinet consisting of Satsuki "I'm Always Getting My Car Fixed" Shigekawa, Tom Hirano, Clarence Hiura and Sueo Hirashima. They are vice president, secretary, treasurer and handicap chairman respectively.

Joe "I'm Always Serving" Kishi, Joe "Dependable" Ito and Beach "Gravel" Morita were tapped for board of governors duty.

The TN boys will also host their annual New Year's Eve dinner dance at Man Jen Low this year come the 31st. Ducats were passed out to members and another capacity crowd is expected.

On the golfing front, the Christmas Shoot for Booze and Hams is scheduled for Sunday, Dec. 19.

Western Club

Western Golf Club will hold its annual installation dinner for 1966 incoming officers this Saturday, Dec. 11. The dinner, previously scheduled for Fon's in New Chinatown, has been switched to the New Japan Restaurant on West Jefferson Boulevard, in case any stragglers haven't been notified of the change.

'66 officers will be headed by Shidow Hayashida, the new president. Cabinet members will include Chug Saito, secretary-treasurer; Tom Kuratani, handicap secretary; and Masashi Kkuino, tournament chairman.

SCNGA Discussing Trip To Japan Next October

Biggest news on the SCNGA front is the discussion now being held concerning the possibilities of lining up an Association-sponsored trip to Japan next year. John Ty Saito and Bob Uragami have been huddling with various people to set up the trip—with a letter having already been sent to every SCNGA member to get an idea of how many potential travelers there are.

Certain restrictions disallow any mention of the trip particulars—but everyone is kinda whoppin' it up in hopes that it will pan out.

More on the sojourn as things shape up.

General Meeting

As this is being written before the annual general meeting of the association (which was held Thursday night), we can't report on its proceedings . . . except to guess that not too much of an earth-shattering nature was on tap for discussion.

Fred Ikeguchi and his cabinet will continue at the post for another year. Tourney chairmen are diligently at work attempting to iron out a tentative tournament for next year. Certain revisions are contemplated—and needless to add —mainly for the benefit of the association and its enjoyment (ha!).

West LA

Roy Ito will head the West Los Angeles boys next year with Jim Fukuhara taking over as treasurer. Although I hear they haven't been informed, Mas Okamura informs this corner that Hugo Kayano and brother Kaz Okamura will be the co-handicap chairmen for the year.

In other WLA activities, they held their annual match play tournament the other week and it turned into a real vendetta between finalists Frank Kishi annd Herb Isono. They wound up the first round in a flat-footed tie and decided to engage in an 18-hole head-knocker the next week. So lo and behold they are again deadlocked at the conclusion of the round. This time deciding to end it once and for all, they took off on a sudden-death tour of the course and on the 3rd extra hole of the day (and 22nd of their match) Kishi finally subdued Isono!

Max Flite

The Montebello boys, who are just about as well known as the "names" that played in the recent Montebello Open, found time for a bit of nocturnal hilarity with outgoing president Ed Yamada turning over the gavel to Yosh Shimizu.

Making up his cohorts for '66 will be Kuni Yoshioka, secretary-treasurer; Min Sewake, handicap chairman; Tets Kuwahara, tournament chairman; Dick Morishige, sgt-at-arms; and Chick Kawasaki, public relations.

Air Flite

Over at Tai Ping, the Air Flite gang cast their ballots and came up with Kats Hazama as their leader. Bruce Uchino, vice prexy; Wally Teramoto, sec'y; Shig Nakano, treas.; Mas Goya, tourney chairman; Frank Hatakenaka, handicap chairman, assisted by Jim Isobe and Ken Hyosaka, round out the cabinet.

The next day, the 12th, 32 members and friends went out to Puma Valley CC for in informal club tourney. Chisato Kubo (82-9) and Dan Kawasaki (84-11) wound up in a tie with Kubo winning in sudden death overtime. Uchino was third at 74 followed by Keiji Iko's 88-13—75.

Trophies and balls were donated for the tourney by Scotty Mizukami and Mas Goya. Herb Kimoto tossed in his little bit in the form of a fifth (of what?).

Assuming that most SCNGA member clubs have concluded their selection of cabinets for next year, might we remind all secretaries (again and again) that a complete list of each member (alphabetically) be submitted to either the Crossroads or treasurer Tosh Hayakawa as soon as possible. Information required includes:

1. List of officers.
2. Names and complete addresses, including zip codes.
3. Note all new members as well as old members no longer affiliated with your club.

SCNGA to Honor LA Open Players from Japan; Bob Goalby, Doug Ford to Come

The Southern California Nisei Golf Association will host a welcome dinner Saturday in honor of Mitsutaka Kohno and Masahiko Shimazaki, entrants in the 1966 Los Angeles Open currently in progress at Rancho Park.

Kohno, from Hodogaya, Kanogawa-ken, is the professional golf champion of Japan at the tender age of 23. Shimazaki, 20, is the collegiate and amateur champion.

Reservations for the dinner may be made by calling John Ty Saito at RE 1-2121. Cohosting the affair which will be held from 7 p.m. at Seibu Restaurant will be members of Jet Flite, Senior Club and Trader golf clubs with attendance open to the general public.

Guests of honor will include H. Toshiro Shimanouchi, Consul General of Japan; George Walsh, PGA tournament director; and golf pros Bob Goalby and Doug Ford.

The SCNGA, seldom in a position to stage such a prominent affair, is hopeful of a representative turnout. Despite the last-minute aspects of the dinner, member clubs are asked to round up as many members as possible.

(Consul Shimanouchi and Top Flite member George Aratani had the dubious honor of matching sticks with the youthful twosome earlier this week at Rancho as they familiarized themselves with the layout).

Orange County

Yas Yoshida has been elected president of the Orange County Nisei Golf Club. Cabinets positions will be held down by Richard Iwamoto and Yoshiki Yoshida, vice presidents; Steve Abe, secretary; Tat Iwata, treasurer; John Uchimiya, handicap chairman.

Altho we haven't received word on the results yet, the OC boys came up with the first tournament of the year last Sunday. The OCNGC held its own "tournament of champions" on that day with the

Long Beach

Following the example set by the SCNGA cabinet, the Long Beach club retained its 1965 slate of officers for 1966. Repeating as cabinet members will be:

Dr. Eugene Luke, president; Dr. Richard Kumashiro, vice prexy; Edward Yamamoto, treas.; Yuki Tatsumi, ass't; Dr. George Kurata, secretary; Nob Yasaki, handicap chrmn; Dr. John Kuroda, ass't.

The club hel dits annual Xmas tournament at Meadowlark on Sundays 12 and 19 with the perpetual Paul Ryono trophy won by Dave Lee in a playoff on the first extra hole over Toru Shimizu and Kiya Tatsumi.

In addition to the coveted trophy, hams were won by Lee, Shimizu, Tatsumi, G. Matsushita, John Kuroda, Harry Nishino, John Marumoto, Gene Luke, Art Mikamo, G. Murata, K. Nakanishi, Jim Ryono, Fred Ikeguchi, and Dennis Luke.

The Club also had its annual Xmas dinner at Meadowlark CC on the 19th. All members and wives were present with guest of honor Michi Ryono presenting the perpetual trophy to winner Dave.

Next item on the LB agenda will be the El Dorado tournament on the 13th of February and the big Long Beach Invitational set for April 3.

SCNGA Announces 1966 Tourney Slate; Course Ratings for Clubs Also Defined

From all reports Saturday's SCNGA-sponsored affair at the Seibu restaurant was a highly successful and enjoyable affair. Mitsutaka Kohno, professional champion from Japan, and Masahiko Shimazaki, collegiate and amateur champ, were the guests of honor along with PGA Tournament Director George Walsh and pros Doug Ford and Bob Goalby. The "amateur" linksman, Hank Shimanouchi (the honorable consul general), was also present.

Biggest disappointment, though unavoidable, was the fact that less than 100 turned out for the affair. We say unavoidable for the reception wasn't organized in time to allow for sufficient publicity—which was again understandable for it was a last minute decision and we should plaudit the men who made it possible, such as Bob Uragami and Ty Saito.

Elsewhere along the golfing row, you'll notice at the bottom of the page the official SCNGA tournament schedule for 1966. We've been asked to publish it as soon as possible so individual clubs can schedule their respective events accordingly without fear of duplicating dates.

As of this date, we haven't been informed of the date for the Jan-

Hole-In-One

Prexy Fred Ikeguchi reported awhile back about Mits Sugimoto's Ace during a December round at Meadowlark. The 11 handicapper tanked his hole-in-one on the 165-yard 7th with a 5 iron shot. And as is the custom, we dutifully note that Tomizo Joe, Alan Kobata and Erie Kawai were in the foursome.

Min Yoshizaki of Top Notch and Marty Iriye of Thunderbird notching co-winning scores. Min had a 68-4-64 while Iriye had a 65-10-65.

A half dozen were deadlocked for third. They included Min Nitta, OC, 74-11-63; Don Hiura, Top Notch, 69-5-54; Fred Ota, TB, 74-10-64; Beach Morita, TN, 75-11-64; J. Fukuhara, TN, 74-10-64; and Terry Komatsu, Brookside, 72-7 65.

On a sad note, it must be revealed that twelve penalties were also assessed in December as a while Long Beach and Top Notch Christmas present. El Patio and Associate Members had singletons were hit twice. Leading the pack with three were Max Flite and Western.

Important Handicap Meeting Set for Monday; To Decide IBM System or Not

The first general meeting of the new year for all fourteen club handicap chairmen of the Southern California Nisei Golf Association will be held this Monday, Jan. 24, 7 p.m., at Rudi's Italian Inn, it was announced this week.

It will be the most important meeting of the year, as well as the first, therefore all handicap chairmen are urged to be present. Major item on the agenda will be the required formal acceptance of 1966 rules.

Jerome Helperin of Integrated Data Corp. will be present to explain the Electronic Computing System which the SCNGA is planning to use this year.

To Convert

Concerning the above item, it has been reported that not all of the member clubs are in agreement as to the acceptance of the IBM conversion. In order to clarify the situation once and for all, a formal vote will be conducted at Monday's meeting to ascertain whether the handicapping will be done by man or machine. It is therefore imperative that all club reps have the jurisdiction to cast a vote on behalf of their club. If there are any questions concerning this point, you're asked to contact either Fred Ikeguchi, SCNGA president, or John Ty Saito, handicap chairman.

To Attend

According to the submitted report, the following members are to attend Monday's conclave:

Frank Hatakenaka, Air Flite; Ralph Yanari, Brookside; David Arakaki, El Patio; Bob Fukuhara, Kyodo; Nob Yasaki, Long Beach; [illegible] Flite; Tom Ka-

They tied via the course rating gimmick.

Tarzan Kaneko, Richard Iwamotoand Yasuo Yoshida were fourth place finishers in the 10th month competition with 63 nets. Kaneko, of Top Flite, had a 74-11, while Iwamoto and Yoshida, a pair of Orange Countains, had 69-6 and 73-10 respectively.

The Others

Barely out of the money despite sub-par efforts were Herb Isono, WLA, 70-6; Dan Hiura, Top Notch, a net 64; and Mits Motomo, TN, 70-5. Other fine scores included reports from Frank Kishi, WLA, 75-11—64; Ken Osajima, 72-8—64 and Dr. Paul Tsukahara, 73-13—65.

As of December 1, 1965, the course rating of the Fox Hills Number 3 course has been shaved to 66 (from 7), according to John Ty Saito, chairman of the SCNGA handicap board. Despite rumors to the contrary, the Baldwin Hills course rating remains at 68. at least for the time being. It was explained that the 66 cut will remain in effect until the SoCal Golf association officially measures the #3 course.

Additional information coming out of the Board is in reference to handicap chairman of the various clubs for 1966. It is suggested that all SCNGA clubs name their 1966 handicap charimen as soon as possible. The SCNGA board would like to hold its initial handicap general meeting sometime in January.

The December meeting will be held Monday, Dec. 13, at Rudi's Italian Inn. Reps from Max Flite, Western, El Patio, Orange County, and Thunderbird are asked to be present.

He, like a good spouse should, split his winnings with the wife . . . which made her extremely happy and elevated him into the thoughtful category again, even after all these years of wedded bliss. But when she discovered how much Fred really picked up, all was not as cozy as before last week's CR reached the house.

(So like we said, boys, me apologies for the faux paux. It won't happen again—I'm sure. You can "press" and "skin" to your heart's desire. Only the sporting elements will appear in print from here on out.)

El Patio

Nine El Patio swingers copped turkeys during the club's turkey shoot held on the 22nd at Whittier Narrows. Francis Aoyama, with a 38-37 (9)—66 was the competition winner, two strokes up on Frank Sera. Al Nakata and Al Abe had 69s, with the former's 74 the best gross round. Dave Arakaki and Fumio Kinoshita followed with 71s while "Pop" Karasawa assured his brood of a bird Thanksgiving with his 72. Min Harada (79) and "Nip" Fujimoto (83) were the lucky drawing winners — being declared winners thanks to their drawing power rather than golfing acumen.

The first tournament of EP's new calendar year found 18 members journeying to Antelope Valley CC in Palmdale as guests of Dr. Henry Shibata, a former member, for the annual 18-hole Presidential Tournament.

Under perfect weather conditions (for penguins) — cold and windy), the scores sored.

Proud papa (of a new baby girl) and fresh off a turkey dinner, Francis Aoyama came up with a net 74 to tie for the top spot with Kesao "Pop" Karasawa. They split the top prizes but will playoff for the trophy next week. The others:

3.	Kats Yoshioka	81- 6—75
4.	Ed Fujimoto	91-15—76
	Al Keimi	87-11—76
6.	Sy Saito (guest)	88-11—77
7.	Dave Arakaki	87- 9—78
	Min Harada	97-19—78
9.	Al Abe	95-16—79

Elections Being Held by SCNGA Clubs As 1966 Ikeguchi Regime Continues

Election of new cabinets and officers of the 14 SCNGA member clubs is taking up the thoughts of most members these days ("Now who shall we railroad into office this year?"). Then there are the usual Ham and Whiskey Shoots—but not much else as far as golf activity is concerned.

John Ty Saito, our illustrious handicap dictator, reports that the scheduled handicap meeting slated for this Monday at Rudi's has been cancelled.

Reason for the cancellation was to make way for the year-end general meeting of the SCNGA officers, board and club representatives.

The aforementioned conclave will be held Thursday, Dec. 16, at Tokyo Kaikan, according to President Freddie Ikeguchi.

Freddie reqeusts that each SCNGA club send its incoming president and handicap chairman. Those clubs which have not yet held elections for 1966 are asked to send their current office holders.

The tentative tournament schedule for 1966 will be outlined to the representatives, pending ideas for the coming year will be discussed, as well as handicap problems and other items.

And despite the objections of the current hard-working crew, it was noted at the last cabinet meeting that the current regime of Ikeguchi - Hayakawa - Tatsumi -Matsunaga will remain in office for another year to wind up the first two-year experiment of the SCNGA.

Dr. Paul Tsukahara, who can out-yank Cary Middlecoff and play ahelluva lot faster, has been elected president of the Top Notch Golf Club at its annual dinner party held Friday, Dec. 3 at Imperial Gardens Restaurant.

The Fox Hills boys have surrounded him with a cabinet consisting of Satsuki "I'm Always Getting My Car Fixed" Shigekawa, Tom Hirano, Clarence Hiura and Sueo Hirashima. They are vice president, secretary, treasurer and handicap chairman respectively.

Joe "I'm Always Serving" Kishi, Joe "Dependable" Ito and Beach "Gravel" Morita were tapped for board of governors duty.

The TN boys will also host their annual New Year's Eve dinner dance at Man Jen Low this year come the 31st. Ducats were passed out to members and another capacity crowd is expected.

On the golfing front, the Christmas Shoot for Booze and Hams is scheduled for Sunday, Dec. 19.

Western Club

Western Golf Club will hold its annual installation dinner for 1966 incoming officers this Saturday, Dec. 11. The dinner, previously scheduled for Fon's in New Chinatown, has been switched to the New Japan Restaurant on West Jefferson Boulevard, in case any stragglers haven't been notified of the change.

'66 officers will be headed by Shidow Hayashida, the new president. Cabinet members will include Chug Saito, secretary-treasurer; Tom Kuratani, handicap secretary; and Masashi Kkuino, tournament chairman.

SCNGA Discussing Trip To Japan Next October

Biggest news on the SCNGA front is the discussion now being held concerning the possibilities of lining up an Association-sponsored trip to Japan next year. John Ty Saito and Bob Uragami have been huddling with various people to set up the trip—with a letter having already been sent to every SCNGA member to get an idea of how many potential travelers there are.

Certain restrictions disallow any mention of the trip particulars—but everyone is kinda whoppin' it up in hopes that it will pan out.

More on the sojourn as things shape up.

General Meeting

As this is being written before the annual general meeting of the association (which was held Thursday night), we can't report on its proceedings . . . except to guess that not too much of an earth-shattering nature was on tap for discussion.

Fred Ikeguchi and his cabinet will continue at the post for another year. Tourney chairmen are diligently at work attempting to iron out a tentative tournament for next year. Certain revisions are contemplated—and needless to add —mainly for the benefit of the association and its enjoyment (ha!).

West LA

Roy Ito will head the West Los Angeles boys next year with Jim Fukuhara taking over as treasurer. Although I hear they haven't been informed, Mas Okamura informs this corner that Hugo Kayano and brother Kaz Okamura will be the co-handicap chairmen for the year.

In other WLA activities, they held their annual match play tournament the other week and it turned into a real vendetta between finalists Frank Kishi annd Herb Isono. They wound up the first round in a flat-footed tie and decided to engage in an 18-hole head-knocker the next week. So lo and behold they are again deadlocked at the conclusion of the round. This time deciding to end it once and for all, they took off on a sudden-death tour of the course and on the 3rd extra hole of the day (and 22nd of their match) Kishi finally subdued Isono!

Max Flite

The Montebello boys, who are just about as well known as the "names" that played in the recent Montebello Open, found time for a bit of nocturnal hilarity with outgoing president Ed Yamada turning over the gavel to Yosh Shimizu.

Making up his cohorts for '66 will be Kuni Yoshioka, secretary-treasurer; Min Sewake, handicap chairman; Tets Kuwahara, tournament chairman; Dick Morishige, sgt-at-arms; and Chick Kawasaki, public relations.

Air Flite

Over at Tai Ping, the Air Flite gang cast their ballots and came up with Kats Hazama as their leader. Bruce Uchino, vice prexy; Wally Teramoto, sec'y; Shig Nakano, treas.; Mas Goya, tourney chairman; Frank Hatakenaka, handicap chairman, assisted by Jim Isobe and Ken Hyosaka, round out the cabinet.

The next day, the 12th, 32 members and friends went out to Puma Valley CC for in informal club tourney. Chisato Kubo (82-9) and Dan Kawasaki (84-11) wound up in a tie with Kubo winning in sudden death overtime. Uchino was third at 74 followed by Keiji Iko's 88-13—75.

Trophies and balls were donated for the tourney by Scotty Mizukami and Mas Goya. Herb Kimoto tossed in his little bit in the form of a fifth (of what?).

Assuming that most SCNGA member clubs have concluded their selection of cabinets for next year, might we remind all secretaries (again and again) that a complete list of each member (alphabetically) be submitted to either the Crossroads or treasurer Tosh Hayakawa as soon as possible. Information required includes:

1. List of officers.
2. Names and complete addresses, including zip codes.
3. Note all new members as well as old members no longer affiliated with your club.

SCNGA to Honor LA Open Players from Japan; Bob Goalby, Doug Ford to Come

The Southern California Nisei Golf Association will host a welcome dinner Saturday in honor of Mitsutaka Kohno and Masahiko Shimazaki, entrants in the 1966 Los Angeles Open currently in progress at Rancho Park.

Kohno, from Hodogaya, Kanogawa-ken, is the professional golf champion of Japan at the tender age of 23. Shimazaki, 20, is the collegiate and amateur champion.

Reservations for the dinner may be made by calling John Ty Saito at RE 1-2121. Cohosting the affair which will be held from 7 p.m. at Seibu Restaurant will be members of Jet Flite, Senior Club and Trader golf clubs with attendance open to the general public.

Guests of honor will include H. Toshiro Shimanouchi, Consul General of Japan; George Walsh, PGA tournament director; and golf pros Bob Goalby and Doug Ford.

The SCNGA, seldom in a position to stage such a prominent affair, is hopeful of a representative turnout. Despite the last-minute aspects of the dinner, member clubs are asked to round up as many members as possible.

Orange County

Yas Yoshida has been elected president of the Orange County Nisei Golf Club. Cabinets positions will be held down by Richard Iwamoto and Yoshiki Yoshida, vice presidents; Steve Abe, secretary; Tat Iwata, treasurer; John Uchimiya, handicap chairman.

Altho we haven't received word on the results yet, the OC boys came up with the first tournament of the year last Sunday. The OCNGC held its own "tournament of champions" on that day with the Joe Kishi's 72. Others winning bottles were George Matsumoto, Tom Hirano, Kim Hatashita, Tom Matsunaga, Sam Tanoue, Stan Furuta, Mits Motobo, Satsuki Shigekawa, Jack Ota, Fred Kojima, Bob Nako, Doug Furuta, George Kawakami, Henry Toyama, Fred Ota, Mareo Masunaka, Sueo Hirashima, Clarence Hiura and Ted Fujimoto.

Long Beach

Following the example set by the SCNGA cabinet, the Long Beach club retained its 1965 slate of officers for 1966. Repeating as cabinet members will be:

Dr. Eugene Luke, president; Dr. Richard Kumashiro, vice prexy; Edward Yamamoto, treas.; Yuki Tatsumi, ass't; Dr. George Kurata, secretary; Nob Yasaki, handicap chrmn; Dr. John Kuroda, ass't.

The club hel dits annual Xmas tournament at Meadowlark on Sundays 12 and 19 with the perpetual Paul Ryono trophy won by Dave Lee in a playoff on the first extra hole over Toru Shimizu and Kiya Tatsumi.

In addition to the coveted trophy, hams were won by Lee, Shimizu, Tatsumi, G. Matsushita, John Kuroda, Harry Nishino, John Marumoto, Gene Luke, Art Mikamo, G. Murata, K. Nakanishi, Jim Ryono, Fred Ikeguchi, and Dennis Luke.

The Club also had its annual Xmas dinner at Meadowlark CC on the 19th. All members and wives were present with guest of honor Michi Ryono presenting the perpetual trophy to winner Dave.

Next item on the LB agenda will be the El Dorado tournament on the 13th of February and the big Long Beach Invitational set for April 3.

SCNGA Announces 1966 Tourney Slate; Course Ratings for Clubs Also Defined

From all reports Saturday's SCNGA-sponsored affair at the Seibu restaurant was a highly successful and enjoyable affair. Mitsutaka Kohno, professional champion from Japan, and Masahiko Shimazaki, collegiate and amateur champ, were the guests of honor along with PGA Tournament Director George Walsh and pros Doug Ford and Bob Goalby. The "amateur" linksman, Hank Shimanouchi (the honorable consul general), was also present.

Biggest disappointment, though unavoidable, was the fact that less than 100 turned out for the affair. We say unavoidable for the reception wasn't organized in time to allow for sufficient publicity—which was again understandable for it was a last minute decision and we should plaudit the men who made it possible, such as Bob Uragami and Ty Saito.

Elsewhere along the golfing row, you'll notice at the bottom of the page the official SCNGA tournament schedule for 1966. We've been asked to publish it as soon as possible so individual clubs can schedule their respective events accordingly without fear of duplicating dates.

Hole-In-One

Prexy Fred Ikeguchi reported awhile back about Mits Sugimoto's Ace during a December round at Meadowlark. The 11 handicapper tanked his hole-in-one on the 165-yard 7th with a 5 iron shot. And as is the custom, we dutifully note that Tomizo Joe, Alan Kobata and Erie Kawai were in the foursome.

Min Yoshizaki of Top Notch and Marty Iriye of Thunderbird notching co-winning scores. Min had a 68-4-64 while Iriye had a 65-10-65.

A half dozen were deadlocked for third. They included Min Nitta, OC, 74-11-63; Don Hiura, Top Notch, 69-5-54; Fred Ota, TB, 74-10-64; Beach Morita, TN, 75-11-64; J. Fukuhara, TN, 74-10-64; and Terry Komatsu, Brookside, 72-7 65.

On a sad note, it must be revealed that twelve penalties were also assessed in December as a while Long Beach and Top Notch Christmas present. El Patio and Associate Members had singletons were hit twice. Leading the pack with three were Max Flite and Western.

Important Handicap Meeting Set for Monday; To Decide IBM System or Not

The first general meeting of the new year for all fourteen club handicap chairmen of the Southern California Nisei Golf Association will be held this Monday, Jan. 24, 7 p.m., at Rudi's Italian Inn, it was announced this week.

It will be the most important meeting of the year, as well as the first, therefore all handicap chairmen are urged to be present. Major item on the agenda will be the required formal acceptance of 1966 rules.

Jerome Helperin of Integrated Data Corp. will be present to explain the Electronic Computing System which the SCNGA is planning to use this year.

To Convert

Concerning the above item, it has been reported that not all of the member clubs are in agreement as to the acceptance of the IBM conversion. In order to clarify the situation once and for all, a formal vote will be conducted at Monday's meeting to ascertain whether the handicapping will be done by man or machine. It is therefore imperative that all club reps have the jurisdiction to cast a vote on behalf of their club. If there are any questions concerning this point, you're asked to contact either Fred Ikeguchi, SCNGA president, or John Ty Saito, handicap chairman.

To Attend

According to the submitted report, the following members are to attend Monday's conclave:

Steve Takeuchi Wins Monthly Award; Writer (?) Apologizes for Pebble Woes

Steve Takeuchi, a veteran linksman but seldom heard of in major tournament play, gave the big boys of the SCNGA something to shoot at during the month of October—and no one could touch him.

Takeuchi, playing out of Fox Hills as a Top Notcher, came up with a sparkling 71 during club play for a fabulous 61 net, thanks to his 10 handicap. This was good for the monthly SCNGA sweepstakes ball prize.

In a deadlock for the runner-up spot were Ed Okuno of Brookside and long-balling Mike Matsumura. Okuno, playing out of Brookside, fired a 77-15—62, which would be good for the top slot in any other month—except October. "Wahoo", Max Flite's answer to Errol Flynn, had a 72-8—64 at Montebello. They tied via the course rating gimmick.

Tarzan Kaneko, Richard Iwamotoand Yasuo Yoshida were fourth place finishers in the 10th month competition with 63 nets. Kaneko, of Top Flite, had a 74-11, while Iwamoto and Yoshida, a pair of Orange Countains, had 69-6 and 73-10 respectively.

The Others

Barely out of the money despite sub-par efforts were Herb Isono, WLA, 70-6; Dan Hiura, Top Notch, a net 64; and Mits Motomo, TN, 70-5. Other fine scores included reports from Frank Kishi, WLA, 75-11—64; Ken Osajima, 72-8—64 and Dr. Paul Tsukahara, 73-13—65.

An Apology

An apology of sorts, whether it will do any good or not, is to be tendered here and now from the typewriter of the stupid ogre who authors this weekly treatise. (Wonder who the hell he is).

Altho we shoulda known better, for wont of space fillers for this page last week, we unthinkingly published some "side-bar" information for public perusal which should have remained unsaid.

(We might try to palm some of the blame onto host E. Nagao for slipping us the info, but that wouldn't be kosher either).

We're told, from all sorts of informants, that a number of gentlemen mentioned in the Pebble Beach rundown were displeased, if that be the proper word. PO'd would be a better vocabulary, I imagine.

Elsewhere along the golfing row, you'll notice at the bottom of the page the official SCNGA tournament schedule for 1966. We've been asked to publish it as soon as possible so individual clubs can schedule their respective events accordingly without fear of duplicating dates.

As of this date, we haven't been informed of the date for the January handicap meeting. The delay is being caused by the fact that some clubs have not as yet selected their chairman for the year—and also because there are a few points to be clarified concerning the new IBA computing system which the SCNGA plans to install this year.

Until further notice all clubs will use the following course ratings:

Important Handicap Meeting Set for Monday; To Decide IBM System or Not

The first general meeting of the new year for all fourteen club handicap chairmen of the Southern California Nisei Golf Association will be held this Monday, Jan. 24, 7 p.m., at Rudi's Italian Inn, it was announced this week.

It will be the most important meeting of the year, as well as the first, therefore all handicap chairmen are urged to be present. Major item on the agenda will be the required formal acceptance of 1966 rules.

Jerome Helperin of Integrated Data Corp. will be present to explain the Electronic Computing System which the SCNGA is planning to use this year.

To Convert

Concerning the above item, it has been reported that not all of the member clubs are in agreement as to the acceptance of the IBM conversion. In order to clarify the situation once and for all, a formal vote will be conducted at Monday's meeting to ascertain whether the handicapping will be done by man or machine. It is therefore imperative that all club reps have the jurisdiction to cast a vote on behalf of their club. If there are any questions concerning this point, you're asked to contact either Fred Ikeguchi, SCNGA president, or John Ty Saito, handicap chairman.

To Attend

According to the submitted report, the following members are to attend Monday's conclave:

Frank Hatakenaka, Air Flite; Ralph Yanari, Brookside; David Arakaki, El Patio; Bob Fukuhara, Kyodo; Nob Yasaki, Long Beach; [illegible] Max Flite; Tom Ka-

Steve Takeuchi Wins Monthly Award; Writer (?) Apologizes for Pebble Woes

Steve Takeuchi, a veteran linksman but seldom heard of in major tournament play, gave the big boys of the SCNGA something to shoot at during the month of October—and no one could touch him.

Takeuchi, playing out of Fox Hills as a Top Notcher, came up with a sparkling 71 during club play for a fabulous 61 net, thanks to his 10 handicap. This was good for the monthly SCNGA sweepstakes ball prize.

In a deadlock for the runner-up spot were Ed Okuno of Brookside and long-balling Mike Matsumura. Okuno, playing out of Brookside, fired a 77-15—62, which would be good for the top slot in any other month—except October. "Wahoo", Max Flite's answer to Errol Flynn, had a 72-8—64 at Montebello. They tied via the course rating gimmick.

Tarzan Kaneko, Richard Iwamotoand Yasuo Yoshida were fourth place finishers in the 10th month competition with 63 nets. Kaneko, of Top Flite, had a 74-11, while Iwamoto and Yoshida, a pair of Orange Countains, had 69-6 and 73-10 respectively.

The Others

Barely out of the money despite sub-par efforts were Herb Isono, WLA, 70-6; Dan Hiura, Top Notch, a net 64; and Mits Motomo, TN, 70-5. Other fine scores included reports from Frank Kishi, WLA, 75-11—64; Ken Osajima, 72-8—64 and Dr. Paul Tsukahara, 73-13—65.

An Apology

An apology of sorts, whether it will do any good or not, is to be tendered here and now from the typewriter of the stupid ogre who authors this weekly treatise. (Wonder who the hell he is).

Altho we shoulda known better, for wont of space fillers for this page last week, we unthinkingly published some "side-bar" information for public perusal which should have remained unsaid.

(We might try to palm some of the blame onto host E. Nagao for slipping us the info, but that wouldn't be kosher either).

We're told, from all sorts of informants, that a number of gentlemen mentioned in the Pebble Beach rundown were displeased, if that be the proper word. PO'd would be a better vocabulary, I imagine.

Take Prexy Freddie Ikeguchi. He, like a good spouse should, split his winnings with the wife . . . which made her extremely happy and elevated him into the thoughtful category again, even after all these years of wedded bliss. But when she discovered how much Fred really picked up, all was not as cozy as before last week's CR reached the house.

Elections Being Held by SCNGA Clubs As 1966 Ikeguchi Regime Continues

Election of new cabinets and officers of the 14 SCNGA member clubs is taking up the thoughts of most members these days ("Now who shall we railroad into office this year?"). Then there are the usual Ham and Whiskey Shoots—but not much else as far as golf activity is concerned.

John Ty Saito, our illustrious handicap dictator, reports that the scheduled handicap meeting slated for this Monday at Rudi's has been cancelled.

Reason for the cancellation was to make way for the year-end general meeting of the SCNGA officers, board and club representatives.

The aforementioned conclave will be held Thursday, Dec. 16, at Tokyo Kaikan, according to President Freddie Ikeguchi.

Freddie reqeusts that each SCNGA club send its incoming president and handicap chairman. Those clubs which have not yet held elections for 1966 are asked to send their current office holders.

The tentative tournament schedule for 1966 will be outlined to the representatives, pending ideas for the coming year will be discussed, as well as handicap problems and other items.

And despite the objections of the current hard-working crew, it was noted at the last cabinet meeting that the current regime of Ikeguchi - Hayakawa - Tatsumi -Matsunaga will remain in office for another year to wind up the first two-year experiment of the SCNGA.

Dr. Paul Tsukahara, who can out-yank Cary Middlecoff and play ahelluva lot faster, has been elected president of the Top Notch Golf Club at its annual dinner party held Friday, Dec. 3 at Imperial Gardens Restaurant.

The Fox Hills boys have surrounded him with a cabinet consisting of Satsuki "I'm Always Getting My Car Fixed" Shigekawa, Tom Hirano, Clarence Hiura and Sueo Hirashima. They are vice president, secretary, treasurer and handicap chairman respectively.

Joe "I'm Always Serving" Kishi, Joe "Dependable" Ito and Beach "Gravel" Morita were tapped for board of governors duty.

The TN boys will also host their annual New Year's Eve dinner dance at Man Jen Low this year come the 31st. Ducats were passed out to members and another capacity crowd is expected.

On the golfing front, the Christmas Shoot for Booze and Hams is scheduled for Sunday, Dec. 19.

Western Club

Western Golf Club will hold its annual installation dinner for 1966 incoming officers this Saturday, Dec. 11. The dinner, previously scheduled for Fon's in New Chinatown, has been switched to the New Japan Restaurant on West Jefferson Boulevard, in case any stragglers haven't been notified of the change.

'66 officers will be headed by Shidow Hayashida, the new president. Cabinet members will include Chug Saito, secretary-treasurer; Tom Kuratani, handicap secretary; and Masashi Kkuino, tournament chairman.

SCNGA Discussing Trip To Japan Next October

Biggest news on the SCNGA front is the discussion now being held concerning the possibilities of lining up an Association-sponsored trip to Japan next year. John Ty Saito and Bob Uragami have been huddling with various people to set up the trip—with a letter having already been sent to every SCNGA member to get an idea of how many potential travelers there are.

Certain restrictions disallow any mention of the trip particulars—but everyone is kinda whoppin' it up in hopes that it will pan out.

More on the sojourn as things shape up.

General Meeting

As this is being written before the annual general meeting of the association (which was held Thursday night), we can't report on its proceedings . . . except to guess that not too much of an earth-shattering nature was on tap for discussion.

Fred Ikeguchi and his cabinet will continue at the post for another year. Tourney chairmen are diligently at work attempting to iron out a tentative tournament for next year. Certain revisions are contemplated—and needless to add —mainly for the benefit of the association and its enjoyment (ha!).

West LA

Roy Ito will head the West Los Angeles boys next year with Jim Fukuhara taking over as treasurer. Although I hear they haven't been informed, Mas Okamura informs this corner that Hugo Kayano and brother Kaz Okamura will be the co-handicap chairmen for the year.

In other WLA activities, they held their annual match play tournament the other week and it turned into a real vendetta between finalists Frank Kishi annd Herb Isono. They wound up the first round in a flat-footed tie and decided to engage in an 18-hole head-knocker the next week. So lo and behold they are again deadlocked at the conclusion of the round. This time deciding to end it once and for all, they took off on a sudden-death tour of the course and on the 3rd extra hole of the day (and 22nd of their match) Kishi finally subdued Isono!

Max Flite

The Montebello boys, who are just about as well known as the "names" that played in the recent Montebello Open, found time for a bit of nocturnal hilarity with outgoing president Ed Yamada turning over the gavel to Yosh Shimizu.

Making up his cohorts for '66 will be Kuni Yoshioka, secretary-treasurer; Min Sewake, handicap chairman; Tets Kuwahara, tournament chairman; Dick Morishige, sgt-at-arms; and Chick Kawasaki, public relations.

Air Flite

Over at Tai Ping, the Air Flite gang cast their ballots and came up with Kats Hazama as their leader. Bruce Uchino, vice prexy; Wally Teramoto, sec'y; Shig Nakano, treas.; Mas Goya, tourney chairman; Frank Hatakenaka, handicap chairman, assisted by Jim Isobe and Ken Hyosaka, round out the cabinet.

The next day, the 12th, 32 members and friends went out to Puma Valley CC for in informal club tourney. Chisato Kubo (82-9) and Dan Kawasaki (84-11) wound up in a tie with Kubo winning in sudden death overtime. Uchino was third at 74 followed by Keiji Iko's 88-13—75.

Trophies and balls were donated for the tourney by Scotty Mizukami and Mas Goya. Herb Kimoto tossed in his little bit in the form of a fifth (of what?).

Assuming that most SCNGA member clubs have concluded their selection of cabinets for next year, might we remind all secretaries (again and again) that a complete list of each member (alphabetically) be submitted to either the Crossroads or treasurer Tosh Hayakawa as soon as possible. Information required includes:

1. List of officers.
2. Names and complete addresses, including zip codes.
3. Note all new members as well as old members no longer affiliated with your club.

SCNGA to Honor LA Open Players from Japan; Bob Goalby, Doug Ford to Come

The Southern California Nisei Golf Association will host a welcome dinner Saturday in honor of Mitsutaka Kohno and Masahiko Shimazaki, entrants in the 1966 Los Angeles Open currently in progress at Rancho Park.

Kohno, from Hodogaya, Kanogawa-ken, is the professional golf champion of Japan at the tender age of 23. Shimazaki, 20, is the collegiate and amateur champion.

Reservations for the dinner may be made by calling John Ty Saito at RE 1-2121. Cohosting the affair which will be held from 7 p.m. at Seibu Restaurant will be members of Jet Flite, Senior Club and Trader golf clubs with attendance open to the general public.

Guests of honor will include H. Toshiro Shimanouchi, Consul General of Japan; George Walsh, PGA tournament director; and golf pros Bob Goalby and Doug Ford.

The SCNGA, seldom in a position to stage such a prominent affair, is hopeful of a representative turnout. Despite the last-minute aspects of the dinner, member clubs are asked to round up as many members as possible.

(Consul Shimanouchi and Top Flite member George Aratani had the dubious honor of matching sticks with the youthful twosome earlier this week at Rancho as they familiarized themselves with the layout).

Orange County

Yas Yoshida has been elected president of the Orange County Nisei Golf Club. Cabinets positions will be held down by Richard Iwamoto and Yoshiki Yoshida, vice presidents; Steve Abe, secretary; Tat Iwata, treasurer; John Uchimiya, handicap chairman.

Altho we haven't received word on the results yet, the OC boys came up with the first tournament of the year last Sunday. The OCNGC held its own "tournament of champions" on that day with the winners of all significant club tournaments during 1965 competing for the Orange County JACL trophy.

OCNGC also has the distinction of being the first club to submit its official (and complete) 1966 roster. (It must be the handiwork of Bill Morita. Hope other publicity chairman take the hint).

Top Notch

Top Notch held its annual Christmas Shoot (for bottles) on the 19th with Min Yoshizaki, Dr. Paul Tsukahara and Jack Horikawa winding up in a deadlock with net 68s. Yoshizaki, currently playing to a 4, had a gross 72 while Paul and Jack, 8 handicappers, had 76s.

Jerry Ross had a 71 followed by Joe Kishi's 72. Others winning bottles were George Matsumoto, Tom Hirano, Kim Hatashita, Tom Matsunaga, Sam Tanoue, Stan Furuta, Mits Motobo, Satsuki Shigekawa, Jack Ota, Fred Kojima, Bob Nako, Doug Furuta, George Kawakami, Henry Toyama, Fred Ota, Mareo Masunaka, Sueo Hirashima, Clarence Hiura and Ted Fujimoto.

Long Beach

Following the example set by the SCNGA cabinet, the Long Beach club retained its 1965 slate of officers for 1966. Repeating as cabinet members will be:

Dr. Eugene Luke, president; Dr. Richard Kumashiro, vice prexy; Edward Yamamoto, treas.; Yuki Tatsumi, ass't; Dr. George Kurata, secretary; Nob Yasaki, handicap chrmn; Dr. John Kuroda, ass't.

The club hel dits annual Xmas tournament at Meadowlark on Sundays 12 and 19 with the perpetual Paul Ryono trophy won by Dave Lee in a playoff on the first extra hole over Toru Shimizu and Kiya Tatsumi.

In addition to the coveted trophy, hams were won by Lee, Shimizu, Tatsumi, G. Matsushita, John Kuroda, Harry Nishino, John Marumoto, Gene Luke, Art Mikamo, G. Murata, K. Nakanishi, Jim Ryono, Fred Ikeguchi, and Dennis Luke.

The Club also had its annual Xmas dinner at Meadowlark CC on the 19th. All members and wives were present with guest of honor Michi Ryono presenting the perpetual trophy to winner Dave.

Next item on the LB agenda will be the El Dorado tournament on the 13th of February and the big Long Beach Invitational set for April 3.

SCNGA Announces 1966 Tourney Slate; Course Ratings for Clubs Also Defined

From all reports Saturday's SCNGA-sponsored affair at the Seibu restaurant was a highly successful and enjoyable affair. Mitsutaka Kohno, professional champion from Japan, and Masahiko Shimazaki, collegiate and amateur champ, were the guests of honor along with PGA Tournament Director George Walsh and pros Doug Ford and Bob Goalby. The "amateur" linksman, Hank Shimanouchi (the honorable consul general), was also present.

Biggest disappointment, though unavoidable, was the fact that less than 100 turned out for the affair. We say unavoidable for the reception wasn't organized in time to allow for sufficient publicity—which was again understandable for it was a last minute decision and we should plaudit the men who made it possible, such as Bob Uragami and Ty Saito.

All SCNGA members are reminded that monthly report cards must be handed over to their respective handicap chairmen immediately after the 25th of each month — otherwise a two-stroke penalty will be the net result. (In the event the club chairman is unable to attend the Monday meeting, a substitute must be sent in his place. By the way, the 7 p.m. meeting will be a dinner affair also).

The Lists

Regarding the slow-motion submission of club rosters and dues, it could be because of the IBM hassle. If accepted, the new dues standards will be $12 for SCNGA members and $17 for members at large, according to the information we have. Again, might we remind, this is all unofficial and won't be determined definitely until the handicap system is finalized.

Maybe we'll be in a position to give everyone definite word one way or the other by next week's edition. In the meantime, club secretaries might saddle themselves with the task of submitting their official club rosters.

SCNGA Approves Move to 'Modernize' Handicap System, Effective Feb. 15th

The hassle, if it ever really was one, over acceptance by the Southern California Golf Association of the proposed handicap computation changeover was resolved at Monday's general meeting of the club handicap chairmen.

As in 1965 two dozen balls wil be given sweepstakes winner each month. Members-at-large will be eligible for prizes only if their cards show that two SCNGA members were in their foursome.

The next general meeting for supplies distribution will be held as soon as all 1966 handicap chairman are selected by the 14 clubs in the SCNGA.

1/27/66

SCNGA golfers will soon have their handicaps established monthly through IBM computers, it was anounced by Ty Saito today.

Representative club members met Monday to approve the new time-saving method of processing members' cards of play.

Golfers are requested to turn in their January cards and all play up to Feb. 13th to their respective handicap chairmen by Feb. 15.

The next card will be due on March 25th, and thereafter will be delinquent after the 25th of the month, Saito said in explaining the new change for reporting scores.

SCNGA Report Must Be In By Feb. 15

1/29/66

The January report of the So. Calif. Nisei Golf Assn. can be combined wth that of first two weeks in February and submitted together not later then Feb. 15, requests the handicap chairman, Ty Saito.

"This is made possible because the SCNGA are beginning to use the IBM system," he stated.

If there are any questions, he suggest the members contact the club handicap chairman.

SCNGA TO USE IBM FOR HANDICAP TALLIES

1/27/66

All golfers and handicap chairman were requested to turn in their score cards for January by Feb. 15, stated So. Calif. Nisei Golf Association handicap board chairman Ty Saito as the organization will use the IBM machine to figure handicaps.

Any golfer whose cards fail to get into the calculations will automatically get a two stroke penalty.

SCNGA Board Mulls Over Association Problems; Handicap Bd. Does Likewise

"Lame Duck" or not, the 65-66 SCNGA cabinet continues to function smoothly and efficiently. Its most recent meeting was held last Thursday evening in Li'l Tokio with the following developments and announcements:

1. The possibility of limiting the members-at-large segment of the association. It has been pointed out year after year that the associates have been growing in number to the point of becoming unmanageable. (The job of receiving score cards and notification of each m-a-l had been assumed by Sho Iino for many years. He relinquished the "honor" to Tom Kamei this year). With the installation of the new IDC electronic handicapping system, the duties of the one associate member to take care of all has become overwhelming. Further discussion on this point will be carried on. An official announcement will be made as soon as Prexy Freddie Ikeguchi and his cohorts come up with a decision.

2. Of a more immediate nature, the SCNGA board requests that all member clubs search their $ouls (and treasury) and hurry the hell up with their dues for 1966. Checking with Treasurer Tosh Hayakawa, records reveal very few clubs have submitted their paid-up dues for the year. The board, in its announcement, again reminded that only paid members are eligible to (a) compete in SCNGA tournaments and (b) this could drastically affect participants fortunate enough to wind up "in the money" in upcoming events. If records show winners are not up to date in their payment, it could result in a disatrous disqualification.

Further down the line, the annual meeting of all 14 club handicap chairman was also held recently. Most of this discussion centered around the new electronic system of handicap computation which the SCNGA is adopting in 1966.

Jerome Helperin of Integrated Data Corporation (Costa Mesa) was on hand to answer all questions regarding the system which is being inaugurated this month.

In order to properly prepare for the all-important initial chores, all chairmen were requested to complete the sheet of past 25 differentials for each of their members. This, together with all monthly score cards, must be recevied at IDC in Costa Mesa by Wednesday, the 16th of February.

Self-addressed envelopes have been supplied to all chairmen. Reports must also include play to and including Feb. 13. Cards not sent in by the 15th will be subject to a two-stroke penalty in the next SCNGA tournament the culprit enters.

There will be no more monthly handicap meetings until further notice, SCNGA Handicap Chairman John Ty Saito added. But all club chairman will be required to send in reports of low net scores and late cards to 2421 West Jefferson as before. This should be done at the same time they are sending Report Cards in IDC.

(We can hear the moans and groans from the 14 handicap chairman already. Won't it be some "election" when the chairmen are elected next year!)

All Club handicap chairmen not clear about the new electronic system, the dates and deadlines, are asked to get in touch with Saito immediately so he can straighten you out.

Club activities are beginning to perk up along the SCNGA golfing front as everyone is beginning to scurry around in search of a single handicapper who happens to be carrying a 10 or 12.

What with the initial tournament on the '66 trail ready for action come the 13th of March, most clubs are holding their partner best ball tourneys as the SCNGA slate will be a BB affair at Baldwin Hills.

Meanwhile, don't get itchy. We've just now received the entry blanks for the best ball and they'll be in the mail by the end of the week.

Long Beach

The tandem of Kiya Tatsumi and Lloyd Nakayama was as fortunate on the links as it was after putting the clubs away—for Kiya and Lloyd won the annual Long Beach Golf Club's member-guest invitational best ball event at El Dorado Golf Club last Sunday after winding up in a deadheat with Wally Lee and Bob Moriyama.

Tatsumi and Top Flite partner Nakayama won the trophy by matching scorecards with the Lee-Moriyama team after both wound up with net 61s.

A close third were Jim Ryono and Reggie Suzukawa (TF). They had a 63 with a slew of team (five) carding 64s.

Half the field of forty teams received something or other, thanks mainly to such generous donors as Cy Yuguchi, Wada Asato Insurance, Dick Stenard Pro shop and Bellflower Golf range.

Tied at 64 behind the leaders were Shig-Nakaji-Ida; George Kurata-Yuki Nakama; Mits Sugimoto-Mitch Tanaka; John Kuroda-Mas Fukai; Sab Kataoka-Bob Uragami. 65s were posted by Art Mikamo-Tak Kawagoe; Bill Chambers-Ed Carlson; Gene Luke-C. Louie; Frank Takeuchi-Isao Higashi.

El Patio

Under weather conditions for anything except golf, the club's 36-hole partner best-ball tournament got underway last Sunday. It also marked the first tournament of the year on El Patio new home course, Rancho San Joaquin.

Defending champions Byron Okinaka and Joji Shimabukuro started out as if to run away with it again, going 2 under after 2. Then Joji dropped a 40-ft. putt for a natural birdie and handicap eagle to go 4 under.

And despite the 40 mph winds and unfamiliar course, Byron notched a 3-over 39 going out as the team turned 7 under. As it wound up, that's how they finished up having to scramble the rest of the way in to par. They posted a 29-36—65 to lead the pack by a stroke.

2.	Al Nakata-Gene Araki	34-32—66
	F. Kinoshita-F. Sera	34-32—66

7.	Ted Okuno-Sy Saito	70
8.	D. Arakaki-E. Fujimoto	71
9.	A. Keimi-N. Fujimoto	71

Final round will be delayed for three weeks due to an inter-club tournament with Western Golf Club for the next two weeks. The "A" fliters will play its first round at Rancho while the "Bees" launch play at Baldwin. All members must report to the proper courses by 6 a.m. sharp.

West Los Angeles

A brief rundown of the West LA Golf Club's partner best-ball competition.

Roy Ito and Harry Hankawa proved to be a touch combination as they swept through 18 holes in 60 strokes, 11 under par. Even at that, they had to struggle as Bob Fujioka and Kaz Okumura combined for a 61 with Bill Otsuji and Harry Tashima close behind at 62.

The veteran Hankawa couldn't have picked a better partner as Ito, a 9 handicapper, compiled a sizzling 71 gross to lead the way to victory.

Handicap Card Deadline Today; Must Be in to Qualify for Best Ball Event

A couple of important SCNGA items to insert before we forget . . .

(1) All paid-up 1966 members are reminded that handicap reports are due Feb. 25, 1966—In other words, today, baby, today. The play count should include rounds up to and including Feb. 23. Without this initial report of handicaps by IDM, the newly installed system of handicapping, you won't be eligible to compete in the first SCNGA tournament of the year, the partner best ball shindig up for grabs in March.

(2) And concerning the BB event, tournament chairman Fred Matsumoto diligently and conscientiously had the entry blanks all made up and sent out last week. Because of the recent additions to the Association roster, address changes, et al, the mailer ran out of blanks—So approximately a dozen members of Air Flite (starting from "A" as in Ajioka) did not receive their notification. These unlucky few are asked to contact either John Tl Saito, Fred Mattsumoto, Luis Aihara or Tosh Hayakawa to straighten out their entries.

And on the club beat, much action is still in progress . . .

SCNGA Approves Move to 'Modernize' Handicap System, Effective Feb. 15th

The hassle, if it ever really was one, over acceptance by the Southern California Golf Association of the proposed handicap computation changeover was resolved at Monday's general meeting of the club handicap chairmen.

The 14 SCNGA hatchet-men agreed to give the IDC (Integrated Data Corp.) a try starting in February. Meanwhile the chore will remain a manual affair.

John Ty Saito reports an important switch will be in effect as the change is being effected. Read below carefully:

January scorecards will include the first two weeks of February as well. Handicap reports will therefore embrace six weeks instead of the usual four this time only. (This being necessary to effect the transition to IDC smoothly).

Deadline

Of great importance is the fact that members who fail to turn in score cards to their respective handicap chairmen by the 15th (which is a Tuesday) will be automatically docked two (2) strokes for the Partner Best Ball tournament which launches the SCNGA tourney sked March 13 at Baldwin Hills.

So you'd better check to make sure you know who your handicap chairman is. He received the necessary IDC score cards at Monday's meeting — and he'll also be able to report on the evening's proceedings, which included an illuminating explanation by Jerome Helperin, Integrated Data representative.

"This is made possible because the SCNGA are beginning to use the IBM system," he stated.

If there are any questions, he suggest the members contact the club handicap chairman.

SCNGA Board Mulls Over Association Problems; Handicap Bd. Does Likewise

"Lame Duck" or not, the 65-66 SCNGA cabinet continues to function smoothly and efficiently. Its most recent meeting was held last Thursday evening in Li'l Tokio with the following developments and announcements:

1. The possibility of limiting the members-at-large segment of the association. It has been pointed out year after year that the associates have been growing in number to the point of becoming unmanageable. (The job of receiving score cards and notification of each m-a-1 had been assumed by Sho Iino for many years. He relinquished the "honor" to Tom Kamei this year). With the installation of the new IDC electronic handicapping system, the duties of the one associate member to take care of all has become overwhelming. Further discussion on this point will be carried on. An official announcement will be made as soon as Prexy Freddie Ikeguchi and his cohorts come up with a decision.

2. Of a more immediate nature, the SCNGA board requests that all member clubs search their $ouls (and treasury) and hurry the hell up with their dues for 1966. Checking with Treasurer Tosh Hayakawa, records reveal very few clubs have submitted their paid-up dues for the year. The board, in its announcement, again reminded that only paid members are eligible to (a) compete in SCNGA tournaments and (b) this could drastically affect participants fortunate enough to wind up "in the money" in upcoming events. If records show winners are not up to date in their payment, it could result in a disatrous disqualification.

Further down the line, the annual meeting of all 14 club handicap chairman was also held recently. Most of this discussion centered around the new electronic system of handicap computation which the SCNGA is adopting in 1966.

Jerome Helperin of Integrated Data Corporation (Costa Mesa) was on hand to answer all questions regarding the system which is being inaugurated this month.

In order to properly prepare for the all-important initial chores, all chairmen were requested to complete the sheet of past 25 differentials for each of their members. This, together with all monthly score cards, must be recevied at IDC in Costa Mesa by Wednesday, the 16th of February.

Self-addressed envelopes have been supplied to all chairmen. Reports must also include play to and including Feb. 13. Cards not sent in by the 15th will be subject to a two-stroke penalty in the next SCNGA tournament the culprit enters.

There will be no more monthly handicap meetings until further notice, SCNGA Handicap Chairman John Ty Saito added. But all club chairman will be required to send in reports of low net scores and late cards to 2421 West Jefferson as before. This should be done at the same time they are sending Report Cards in IDC.

(We can hear the moans and groans from the 14 handicap chairman already. Won't it be some "election" when the chairmen are elected next year!)

All Club handicap chairmen not clear about the new electronic system, the dates and deadlines, are asked to get in touch with Saito immediately so he can straighten you out.

Entries Out for First SCNGA Tourney; Clubs Preparing for Best Ball Event

Club activities are beginning to perk up along the SCNGA golfing front as everyone is beginning to scurry around in search of a single handicapper who happens to be carrying a 10 or 12.

What with the initial tournament on the '66 trail ready for action come the 13th of March, most clubs are holding their partner best ball tourneys as the SCNGA slate will be a BB affair at Baldwin Hills.

Meanwhile, don't get itchy. We've just now received the entry blanks for the best ball and they'll be in the mail by the end of the week.

Top Flite

Bob Uragami reminds all Top Flite members that this Sunday, Feb. 20, will be the start of the 36-hole President Trophy tournament. Everyone must be present at the first tee by 6 a.m.

Long Beach

The tandem of Kiya Tatsumi and Lloyd Nakayama was as fortunate on the links as it was after putting the clubs away—for Kiya and Lloyd won the annual Long Beach Golf Club's member-guest invitational best ball event at El Dorado Golf Club last Sunday after winding up in a deadheat with Wally Lee and Bob Moriyama.

Tatsumi and Top Flite partner Nakayama won the trophy by matching scorecards with the Lee-Moriyama team after both wound up with net 61s.

A close third were Jim Ryono and Reggie Suzukawa (TF). They had a 63 with a slew of team (five) carding 64s.

Half the field of forty teams received something or other, thanks mainly to such generous donors as Cy Yuguchi, Wada Asato Insurance, Dick Stenard Pro shop and Bellflower Golf range.

Tied at 64 behind the leaders were Shig-Nakaji-Ida; George Kurata-Yuki Nakama; Mits Sugimoto-Mitch Tanaka; John Kuroda-Mas Fukai; Sab Kataoka-Bob Uragami. 65s were posted by Art Mikamo-Tak Kawagoe; Bill Chambers-Ed Carlson; Gene Luke-C. Louie; Frank Takeuchi-Isao Higashi.

El Patio

Under weather conditions for anything except golf, the club's 36-hole partner best-ball tournament got underway last Sunday. It also marked the first tournament of the year on El Patio new home course, Rancho San Joaquin.

Defending champions Byron Okinaka and Joji Shimabukuro started out as if to run away with it again, going 2 under after 2. Then Joji dropped a 40-ft. putt for a natural birdie and handicap eagle to go 4 under.

And despite the 40 mph winds and unfamiliar course, Byron notched a 3-over 39 going out as the team turned 7 under. As it wound up, that's how they finished up having to scramble the rest of the way in to par. They posted a 29-36—65 to lead the pack by a stroke.

2.	Al Nakata-Gene Araki	34-32—66
	F. Kinoshita-F. Sera	34-32—66

7.	Ted Okuno-Sy Saito	70
8.	D. Arakaki-E. Fujimoto	71
9.	A. Keimi-N. Fujimoto	71

Final round will be delayed for three weeks due to an inter-club tournament with Western Golf Club for the next two weeks. The "A" fliters will play its first round at Rancho while the "Bees" launch play at Baldwin. All members must report to the proper courses by 6 a.m. sharp.

West Los Angeles

A brief rundown of the West LA Golf Club's partner best-ball competition.

Roy Ito and Harry Hankawa proved to be a touch combination as they swept through 18 holes in 60 strokes, 11 under par. Even at that, they had to struggle as Bob Fujioka and Kaz Okumura combined for a 61 with Bill Otsuji and Harry Tashima close behind at 62.

The veteran Hankawa couldn't have picked a better partner as Ito, a 9 handicapper, compiled a sizzling 71 gross to lead the way to victory.

Handicap Card Deadline Today; Must Be in to Qualify for Best Ball Event

A couple of important SCNGA items to insert before we forget . . .

(1) All paid-up 1966 members are reminded that handicap reports are due Feb. 25, 1966—In other words, today, baby, today. The play count should include rounds up to and including Feb. 23. Without this initial report of handicaps by IDM, the newly installed system of handicapping, you won't be eligible to compete in the first SCNGA tournament of the year, the partner best ball shindig up for grabs in March.

(2) And concerning the BB event, tournament chairman Fred Matsumoto diligently and conscientiously had the entry blanks all made up and sent out last week. Because of the recent additions to the Association roster, address changes, et al, the mailer ran out of blanks—So approximately a dozen members of Air Flite (starting from "A" as in Ajioka) did not receive their notification. These unlucky few are asked to contact either John Tl Saito, Fred Mattsumoto, Luis Aihara or Tosh Hayakawa to straighten out their entries.

And on the club beat, much action is still in progress . . .

At Baldwin, the B flite found Hiro Harada scoring his best round ever while home course familiarity brought Trip Tajiri home in good stead. Both had 65s, Harada via 44-44 (23) and Tajiri with a 40-39 (14).

In the 3 spot is Tom Asahina (W), 79-14—66 and Bill Hatakenaka (W), 81-14—67. Deadlocked with 69s are Ed Fujimoto (84) and Frank Sera of EP (86) and Western's Shrio Hayashida (80).

SCNGA Board Mulls Over Association Problems; Handicap Bd. Does Likewise

"Lame Duck" or not, the 65-66 SCNGA cabinet continues to function smoothly and efficiently. Its most recent meeting was held last Thursday evening in Li'l Tokio with the following developments and announcements:

1. The possibility of limiting the members-at-large segment of the association. It has been pointed out year after year that the associates have been growing in number to the point of becoming unmanageable. (The job of receiving score cards and notification of each m-a-1 had been assumed by Sho Iino for many years. He relinquished the "honor" to Tom Kamei this year). With the installation of the new IDC electronic handicapping system, the duties of the one associate member to take care of all has become overwhelming. Further discussion on this point will be carried on. An official announcement will be made as soon as Prexy Freddie Ikeguchi and his cohorts come up with a decision.

2. Of a more immediate nature, the SCNGA board requests that all member clubs search their $ouls (and treasury) and hurry the hell up with their dues for 1966. Checking with Treasurer Tosh Hayakawa, records reveal very few clubs have submitted their paid-up dues for the year. The board, in its announcement, again reminded that only paid members are eligible to (a) compete in SCNGA tournaments and (b) this could drastically affect participants fortunate enough to wind up "in the money" in upcoming events. If records show winners are not up to date in their payment, it could result in a disatrous disqualification.

Further down the line, the annual meeting of all 14 club handicap chairman was also held recently. Most of this discussion centered around the new electronic system of handicap computation which the SCNGA is adopting in 1966.

Jerome Helperin of Integrated Data Corporation (Costa Mesa) was on hand to answer all questions regarding the system which is being inaugurated this month.

In order to properly prepare for the all-important initial chores, all chairmen were requested to complete the sheet of past 25 differentials for each of their members. This, together with all monthly score cards, must be recevied at IDC in Costa Mesa by Wednesday, the 16th of February.

Self-addressed envelopes have been supplied to all chairmen. Reports must also include play to and including Feb. 13. Cards not sent in by the 15th will be subject to a two-stroke penalty in the next SCNGA tournament the culprit enters.

There will be no more monthly handicap meetings until further notice, SCNGA Handicap Chairman John Ty Saito added. But all club chairman will be required to send in reports of low net scores and late cards to 2421 West Jefferson as before. This should be done at the same time they are sending Report Cards in IDC.

(We can hear the moans and groans from the 14 handicap chairman already. Won't it be some "election" when the chairmen are elected next year!)

All Club handicap chairmen not clear about the new electronic system, the dates and deadlines, are asked to get in touch with Saito immediately so he can straighten you out.

Entries Out for First SCNGA Tourney; Clubs Preparing for Best Ball Event

Club activities are beginning to perk up along the SCNGA golfing front as everyone is beginning to scurry around in search of a single handicapper who happens to be carrying a 10 or 12.

What with the initial tournament on the '66 trail ready for action come the 13th of March, most clubs are holding their partner best ball tourneys as the SCNGA slate will be a BB affair at Baldwin Hills.

Meanwhile, don't get itchy. We've just now received the entry blanks for the best ball and they'll be in the mail by the end of the week.

Long Beach

The tandem of Kiya Tatsumi and Lloyd Nakayama was as fortunate on the links as it was after putting the clubs away—for Kiya and Lloyd won the annual Long Beach Golf Club's member-guest invitational best ball event at El Dorado Golf Club last Sunday after winding up in a deadheat with Wally Lee and Bob Moriyama.

Tatsumi and Top Flite partner Nakayama won the trophy by matching scorecards with the Lee-Moriyama team after both wound up with net 61s.

A close third were Jim Ryono and Reggie Suzukawa (TF). They had a 63 with a slew of team (five) carding 64s.

Half the field of forty teams received something or other, thanks mainly to such generous donors as Cy Yuguchi, Wada Asato Insurance, Dick Stenard Pro shop and Bellflower Golf range.

Tied at 64 behind the leaders were Shig-Nakaji-Ida; George Kurata-Yuki Nakama; Mits Sugimoto-Mitch Tanaka; John Kuroda-Mas Fukai; Sab Kataoka-Bob Uragami. 65s were posted by Art Mikamo-Tak Kawagoe; Bill Chambers-Ed Carlson; Gene Luke-C. Louie; Frank Takeuchi-Isao Higashi.

El Patio

Under weather conditions for anything except golf, the club's 36-hole partner best-ball tournament got underway last Sunday. It also marked the first tournament of the year on El Patio new home course, Rancho San Joaquin.

Defending champions Byron Okinaka and Joji Shimabukuro started out as if to run away with it again, going 2 under after 2. Then Joji dropped a 40-ft. putt for a natural birdie and handicap eagle to go 4 under.

And despite the 40 mph winds and unfamiliar course, Byron notched a 3-over 39 going out as the team turned 7 under. As it wound up, that's how they finished up having to scramble the rest of the way in to par. They posted a 29-36—65 to lead the pack by a stroke.

2.	Al Nakata-Gene Araki	34-32—66
	F. Kinoshita-F. Sera	34-32—66
4.	K. Yoshioka-Min Harada	68
	D. Fujimoto-Hiro Harada	68

7.	Ted Okuno-Sy Saito	70
8.	D. Arakaki-E. Fujimoto	71
9.	A. Keimi-N. Fujimoto	71

Final round will be delayed for three weeks due to an inter-club tournament with Western Golf Club for the next two weeks. The "A" fliters will play its first round at Rancho while the "Bees" launch play at Baldwin. All members must report to the proper courses by 6 a.m. sharp.

West Los Angeles

A brief rundown of the West LA Golf Club's partner best-ball competition.

Roy Ito and Harry Hankawa proved to be a touch combination as they swept through 18 holes in 60 strokes, 11 under par. Even at that, they had to struggle as Bob Fujioka and Kaz Okumura combined for a 61 with Bill Otsuji and Harry Tashima close behind at 62.

The veteran Hankawa couldn't have picked a better partner as Ito, a 9 handicapper, compiled a sizzling 71 gross to lead the way to victory.

Handicap Card Deadline Today; Must Be in to Qualify for Best Ball Event

A couple of important SCNGA items to insert before we forget . . .

(1) All paid-up 1966 members are reminded that handicap reports are due Feb. 25, 1966—In other words, today, baby, today. The play count should include rounds up to and including Feb. 23. Without this initial report of handicaps by IDM, the newly installed system of handicapping, you won't be eligible to compete in the first SCNGA tournament of the year, the partner best ball shindig up for grabs in March.

(2) And concerning the BB event, tournament chairman Fred Matsumoto diligently and conscientiously had the entry blanks all made up and sent out last week. Because of the recent additions to the Association roster, address changes, et al, the mailer ran out of blanks—So approximately a dozen members of Air Flite (starting from "A" as in Ajioka) did not receive their notification. These unlucky few are asked to contact either John Tl Saito, Fred Mattsumoto, Luis Aihara or Tosh Hayakawa to straighten out their entries.

And on the club beat, much action is still in progress . . .

At Baldwin, the B flite found Hiro Harada scoring his best round ever while home course familiarity brought Trip Tajiri home in good stead. Both had 65s, Harada via 44-44 (23) and Tajiri with a 40-39 (14).

In the 3 spot is Tom Asahina (W), 79-14—66 and Bill Hatakenaka (W), 81-14—67. Deadlocked with 69s are Ed Fujimoto (84) and Frank Sera of EP (86) and Western's Shrio Hayashida (80).

SCNGA Approves Move to 'Modernize' Handicap System, Effective Feb. 15th

The hassle, if it ever really was one, over acceptance by the Southern California Golf Association of the proposed handicap computation changeover was resolved at Monday's general meeting of the club handicap chairmen.

The 14 SCNGA hatchet-men agreed to give the IDC (Integrated Data Corp.) a try starting in February. Meanwhile the chore will remain a manual affair.

John Ty Saito reports an important switch will be in effect as the change is being effected. Read below carefully:

January scorecards will include the first two weeks of February as well. Handicap reports will therefore embrace six weeks instead of the usual four this time only. (This being necessary to effect the transition to IDC smoothly).

Deadline

Of great importance is the fact that members who fail to turn in score cards to their respective handicap chairmen by the 15th (which is a Tuesday) will be automatically docked two (2) strokes for the Partner Best Ball tournament which launches the SCNGA tourney sked March 13 at Baldwin Hills.

So you'd better check to make sure you know who your handicap chairman is. He received the necessary IDC score cards at Monday's meeting — and he'll also be able to report on the evening's proceedings, which included an illuminating explanation by Jerome Helperin, Integrated Data representative.

SCNGA Board Mulls Over Association Problems; Handicap Bd. Does Likewise

"Lame Duck" or not, the 65-66 SCNGA cabinet continues to function smoothly and efficiently. Its most recent meeting was held last Thursday evening in Li'l Tokio with the following developments and announcements:

1. The possibility of limiting the members-at-large segment of the association. It has been pointed out year after year that the associates have been growing in number to the point of becoming unmanageable. (The job of receiving score cards and notification of each m-a-1 had been assumed by Sho Iino for many years. He relinquished the "honor" to Tom Kamei this year). With the installation of the new IDC electronic handicapping system, the duties of the one associate member to take care of all has become overwhelming. Further discussion on this point will be carried on. An official announcement will be made as soon as Prexy Freddie Ikeguchi and his cohorts come up with a decision.

2. Of a more immediate nature, the SCNGA board requests that all member clubs search their $ouls (and treasury) and hurry the hell up with their dues for 1966. Checking with Treasurer Tosh Hayakawa, records reveal very few clubs have submitted their paid-up dues for the year. The board, in its announcement, again reminded that only paid members are eligible to (a) compete in SCNGA tournaments and (b) this could drastically affect participants fortunate enough to wind up "in the money" in upcoming events. If records show winners are not up to date in their payment, it could result in a disatrous disqualification.

Further down the line, the annual meeting of all 14 club handicap chairman was also held recently. Most of this discussion centered around the new electronic system of handicap computation which the SCNGA is adopting in 1966.

Jerome Helperin of Integrated Data Corporation (Costa Mesa) was on hand to answer all questions regarding the system which is being inaugurated this month.

In order to properly prepare for the all-important initial chores, all chairmen were requested to complete the sheet of past 25 differentials for each of their members. This, together with all monthly score cards, must be recevied at IDC in Costa Mesa by Wednesday, the 16th of February.

Self-addressed envelopes have been supplied to all chairmen. Reports must also include play to and including Feb. 13. Cards not sent in by the 15th will be subject to a two-stroke penalty in the next SCNGA tournament the culprit enters.

There will be no more monthly handicap meetings until further notice, SCNGA Handicap Chairman John Ty Saito added. But all club chairman will be required to send in reports of low net scores and late cards to 2421 West Jefferson as before. This should be done at the same time they are sending Report Cards in IDC.

(We can hear the moans and groans from the 14 handicap chairman already. Won't it be some "election" when the chairmen are elected next year!)

All Club handicap chairmen not clear about the new electronic system, the dates and deadlines, are asked to get in touch with Saito immediately so he can straighten you out.

Entries Out for First SCNGA Tourney; Clubs Preparing for Best Ball Event

Club activities are beginning to perk up along the SCNGA golfing front as everyone is beginning to scurry around in search of a single handicapper who happens to be carrying a 10 or 12.

What with the initial tournament on the '66 trail ready for action come the 13th of March, most clubs are holding their partner best ball tourneys as the SCNGA slate will be a BB affair at Baldwin Hills.

Meanwhile, don't get itchy. We've just now received the entry blanks for the best ball and they'll be in the mail by the end of the week.

Long Beach

The tandem of Kiya Tatsumi and Lloyd Nakayama was as fortunate on the links as it was after putting the clubs away—for Kiya and Lloyd won the annual Long Beach Golf Club's member-guest invitational best ball event at El Dorado Golf Club last Sunday after winding up in a deadheat with Wally Lee and Bob Moriyama.

Tatsumi and Top Flite partner Nakayama won the trophy by matching scorecards with the Lee-Moriyama team after both wound up with net 61s.

A close third were Jim Ryono and Reggie Suzukawa (TF). They had a 63 with a slew of team (five) carding 64s.

Half the field of forty teams received something or other, thanks mainly to such generous donors as Cy Yuguchi, Wada Asato Insurance, Dick Stenard Pro shop and Bellflower Golf range.

Tied at 64 behind the leaders were Shig-Nakaji-Ida; George Kurata-Yuki Nakama; Mits Sugimoto-Mitch Tanaka; John Kuroda-Mas Fukai; Sab Kataoka-Bob Uragami. 65s were posted by Art Mikamo-Tak Kawagoe; Bill Chambers-Ed Carlson; Gene Luke-C. Louie; Frank Takeuchi-Isao Higashi.

El Patio

Under weather conditions for anything except golf, the club's 36-hole partner best-ball tournament got underway last Sunday. It also marked the first tournament of the year on El Patio new home course, Rancho San Joaquin.

Defending champions Byron Okinaka and Joji Shimabukuro started out as if to run away with it again, going 2 under after 2. Then Joji dropped a 40-ft. putt for a natural birdie and handicap eagle to go 4 under.

And despite the 40 mph winds and unfamiliar course, Byron notched a 3-over 39 going out as the team turned 7 under. As it wound up, that's how they finished up having to scramble the rest of the way in to par. They posted a 29-36—65 to lead the pack by a stroke.

West Los Angeles

A brief rundown of the West LA Golf Club's partner best-ball competition.

Roy Ito and Harry Hankawa proved to be a touch combination as they swept through 18 holes in 60 strokes, 11 under par. Even at that, they had to struggle as Bob Fujioka and Kaz Okumura combined for a 61 with Bill Otsuji and Harry Tashima close behind at 62.

The veteran Hankawa couldn't have picked a better partner as Ito, a 9 handicapper, compiled a sizzling 71 gross to lead the way to victory.

Handicap Card Deadline Today; Must Be in to Qualify for Best Ball Event

A couple of important SCNGA items to insert before we forget . . .

(1) All paid-up 1966 members are reminded that handicap reports are due Feb. 25, 1966—In other words, today, baby, today. The play count should include rounds up to and including Feb. 23. Without this initial report of handicaps by IDM, the newly installed system of handicapping, you won't be eligible to compete in the first SCNGA tournament of the year, the partner best ball shindig up for grabs in March.

(2) And concerning the BB event, tournament chairman Fred Matsumoto diligently and conscientiously had the entry blanks all made up and sent out last week. Because of the recent additions to the Association roster, address changes, et al, the mailer ran out of blanks—So approximately a dozen members of Air Flite (starting from "A" as in Ajioka) did not receive their notification. These unlucky few are asked to contact either John Tl Saito, Fred Mattsumoto, Luis Aihara or Tosh Hayakawa to straighten out their entries.

And on the club beat, much action is still in progress . . .

SCNGA Golfers to Use IBM for Monthly Handicap Rank

Representative club members met Monday to approve the new time-saving method of processing members' cards of play.

Golfers are requested to turn in their January cards and all play up to Feb. 13th to their respective handicap chairmen by Feb. 15.

The next card will be due on March 25th, and thereafter will be delinquent after the 25th of the month, Saito said in explaining the new change for reporting scores.

The January report of the So. Calif. Nisei Golf Assn. can be combined wth that of first two weeks in February and submitted together not later then Feb. 15, requests the handicap chairman, Ty Saito.

"This is made possible because the SCNGA are beginning to use the IBM system," he stated.

If there are any questions, he suggest the members contact the club handicap chairman.

SCNGA Board Mulls Over Association Problems; Handicap Bd. Does Likewise

"Lame Duck" or not, the 65-66 SCNGA cabinet continues to function smoothly and efficiently. Its most recent meeting was held last Thursday evening in Li'l Tokio with the following developments and announcements:

1. The possibility of limiting the members-at-large segment of the association. It has been pointed out year after year that the associates have been growing in number to the point of becoming unmanageable. (The job of receiving score cards and notification of each m-a-l had been assumed by Sho Iino for many years. He relinquished the "honor" to Tom Kamei this year). With the installation of the new IDC electronic handicapping system, the duties of the one associate member to take care of all has become overwhelming. Further discussion on this point will be carried on. An official announcement will be made as soon as Prexy Freddie Ikeguchi and his cohorts come up with a decision.

2. Of a more immediate nature, the SCNGA board requests that all member clubs search their $ouls (and treasury) and hurry the hell up with their dues for 1966. Checking with Treasurer Tosh Hayakawa, records reveal very few clubs have submitted their paid-up dues for the year. The board, in its announcement, again reminded that only paid members are eligible to (a) compete in SCNGA tournaments and (b) this could drastically affect participants fortunate enough to wind up "in the money" in upcoming events. If records show winners are not up to date in their payment, it could result in a disatrous disqualification.

Further down the line, the annual meeting of all 14 club handicap chairman was also held recently. Most of this discussion centered around the new electronic system of handicap computation which the SCNGA is adopting in 1966.

But all club chairman will be required to send in reports of low net scores and late cards to 2421 West Jefferson as before. This should be done at the same time they are sending Report Cards in IDC.

(We can hear the moans and groans from the 14 handicap chairman already. Won't it be some "election" when the chairmen are elected next year!)

All Club handicap chairmen not clear about the new electronic system, the dates and deadlines, are asked to get in touch with Saito immediately so he can straighten you out.

West Los Angeles

A brief rundown of the West LA Golf Club's partner best-ball competition.

Roy Ito and Harry Hankawa proved to be a touch combination as they swept through 18 holes in 60 strokes, 11 under par. Even at that, they had to struggle as Bob Fujioka and Kaz Okumura combined for a 61 with Bill Otsuji and Harry Tashima close behind at 62.

The veteran Hankawa couldn't have picked a better partner as Ito, a 9 handicapper, compiled a sizzling 71 gross to lead the way to victory.

(1) All paid-up 1966 members are reminded that handicap reports are due Feb. 25, 1966—In other words, today, baby, today. The play count should include rounds up to and including Feb. 23. Without this initial report of handicaps by IDM, the newly installed system of handicapping, you won't be eligible to compete in the first SCNGA tournament of the year, the partner best ball shindig up for grabs in March.

(2) And concerning the BB event, tournament chairman Fred Matsumoto diligently and conscientiously had the entry blanks all made up and sent out last week. Because of the recent additions to the Association roster, address changes, et al, the mailer ran out of blanks—So approximately a dozen members of Air Flite (starting from "A" as in Ajioka) did not receive their notification. These unlucky few are asked to contact either John Tl Saito, Fred Mattsumoto, Luis Aihara or Tosh Hayakawa to straighten out their entries.

El Patio

Second round in the El Patio vs. Western 36-holer takes place this Sunday with A fliters switching over to Baldwin (2 & 3) and B boys treking to Rancho San Joaquin for the final 18 holes.

Western's Rich Nimura played the unfamiliar RSJ course like his own last week, posting a 69 net. He had a 41 out 9 (with 1 bird, 2 pars and 6 bogies), but coming in had birds on 10 and 11, parred 12 through 15, and then succumbed to bogies on 16, 17 and 18—but still had a 37.

Al Nakata was 37-38 fora 70 net with his 5 handi. Only a disastrous triple bogey on 14, due to an OB, knocked him out of the lead. Of the others, Jim Ihara (W) and Francis Aoyama (EP) are still in contention at 72 with EP's Fumio Kinoshita situated at 73.

At Baldwin, the B flite found Hiro Harada scoring his best round ever while home course familiarity brought Trip Tajiri home in good stead. Both had 65s, Harada via 44-44 (23) and Tajiri with a 40-39 (14).

In the 3 spot is Tom Asahina (W), 79-14—66 and Bill Hatakenaka (W), 81-14—67. Deadlocked with 69s are Ed Fujimoto (84) and Frank Sera of EP (86) and Western's Shrio Hayashida (80).

The hassle, if it ever really was one, over acceptance by the Southern California Golf Association of the proposed handicap computation changeover was resolved at Monday's general meeting of the club handicap chairmen.

Entries Out for First SCNGA Tourney; Clubs Preparing for Best Ball Event

Club activities are beginning to perk up along the SCNGA golfing front as everyone is beginning to scurry around in search of a single handicapper who happens to be carrying a 10 or 12.

What with the initial tournament on the '66 trail ready for action come the 13th of March, most clubs are holding their partner best ball tourneys as the SCNGA slate will be a BB affair at Baldwin Hills.

Meanwhile, don't get itchy. We've just now received the entry blanks for the best ball and they'll be in the mail by the end of the week.

Long Beach

The tandem of Kiya Tatsumi and Lloyd Nakayama was as fortunate on the links as it was after putting the clubs away—for Kiya and Lloyd won the annual Long Beach Golf Club's member-guest invitational best ball event at El Dorado Golf Club last Sunday after winding up in a deadheat with Wally Lee and Bob Moriyama.

Tatsumi and Top Flite partner Nakayama won the trophy by matching scorecards with the Lee-Moriyama team after both wound up with net 61s.

A close third were Jim Ryono and Reggie Suzukawa (TF). They had a 63 with a slew of team (five) carding 64s.

Half the field of forty teams received something or other, thanks mainly to such generous donors as Cy Yuguchi, Wada Asato Insurance, Dick Stenard Pro shop and Bellflower Golf range.

Tied at 64 behind the leaders were Shig-Nakaji-Ida; George Kurata-Yuki Nakama; Mits Sugimoto-Mitch Tanaka; John Kuroda-Mas Fukai; Sab Kataoka-Bob Uragami. 65s were posted by Art Mikamo-Tak Kawagoe; Bill Chambers-Ed Carlson; Gene Luke-C. Louie; Frank Takeuchi-Isao Higashi.

El Patio

Under weather conditions for anything except golf, the club's 36-hole partner best-ball tournament got underway last Sunday. It also marked the first tournament of the year on El Patio new home course, Rancho San Joaquin.

Defending champions Byron Okinaka and Joji Shimabukuro started out as if to run away with it again, going 2 under after 2. Then Joji dropped a 40-ft. putt for a natural birdie and handicap eagle to go 4 under.

And despite the 40 mph winds and unfamiliar course, Byron notched a 3-over 39 going out as the team turned 7 under. As it wound up, that's how they finished up having to scramble the rest of the way in to par. They posted a 29-36—65 to lead the pack by a stroke.

Record 147 Teams Lined Up for Partner Best Ball Tourney at Fox Hills West

Another SCNGA first was chalked up Tuesday night when entries were drawn for the upcoming (March 13) Partner Best Ball tournament, the initial tourney on the 1966 calendar.

A total of 147 teams was officially entered for the season opener, whipping last year's record of 144. (In 1964 there were 115 and 103 for 1963, the first year after the ill-fated match play was dumped).

The over-flow field will be slated for tee-offs from the first and 10th tees at Baldwin.

What with the rebirth of the Japanese Army tromping around the fairways, all entrants are reminded to pick up when the issue is no longer in doubt to help speed up play. Last year's time schedule went quite well with most teams cooperating. The moguls would like to eliminate anyone winding up play under the light-

last Sunday with a solid 11 under par 126. Oof; Holy Golf! Crack!

The Ishida-Wakiji tandem started the day at 67, a stroke behind coleaders Yanari-Kirita, K. Mikuriya-Tomotani, but promptly proceeded to blast the course apart like Rose Bowl game car parkers on the wings of Wakiji's scintillating 77 gross. (Wakiji being a 15 handicapper).

Handicap chairman Ralph Yanari and his silent partner, Prexy Art Kirita, checked in with a 129 for the runner-up spot. 'Twas a pitiful sight to behold at the 18th to see Yanari stagger in—he'd been carrying Kirita all day long. (The latter's contribution was, perhaps, something contagious—a malady carried over from his "do-nothing" administration).

Mikuriya-Tomotani wound up at 132 followed by 133s posted by Terry Komatsu-Sho Nomura and

El Patio

El Patio and Western concluded its 36-hole interclub tournament last Sunday with the EP boys walking off with both ends of the competition.

At Baldwin 1 and 3, Western's home course, Al Nakata brought the El Patio colors victory with a 36-36—72 (5)—67 to go with an opening 70 and 137 total. Nakata was two-over on the short #3 course (bogeys on 2 and 3) and played par golf on #1 to post the low gross for the day as well. Also taking a liking to Baldwin was EP's Francis Aoyama.

Aoyama, after a nondescript 72 at Rancho San Joaquin, posted a 35-40 (9)—66 fora 139 total and second place. He could barely get off the tee but brilliant chipping gave him innumerable one-putt greens. Front-running Rich Nimura couldn't make his 69 opening 18 hold up, scrambling to a 39-41 (9)—71 on his home course to wind up third with 140. The

Omatsu & Miura cop partner best ball

The tandem of George Omatsu and T. Miura proved the best in the field of 150 which vied in the So. Calif. Nisei Golf Association partner best ball tournament on Sunday at the Fox Hills west course.

They carded 29 and 29 for a net 58 winning score. Omatsu and Miura received a set of irons.

Six duos tied for second place with net 60s. They will play off next Sunday at 6 a.m. for the set of woods. The twosomes in the deadlock were: A. Abe and G. Noji of El Patio; M. Saito and S. Murakami of Air Flite; D. Furuta and D. Dono of Top Notch; M. Yoshizaki of Top Notch and T. Onoda of Par Flite; D. Mizukami and W. Ige of Top Flite; Y. Saito of SCNGA and N. Nishikuni of Thunderbird.

Eight deadlocked with net 61s. They were M. Fukai of Long Beach and G. Wada of SCNGA; D. Fujimoto and K. Yoshioka of El Patio; L. Aihara of Top Flite and C. Yuguchi of SCNGA; H. Kawanoe and J. Araki of Thunderbird; M. Makishi and D. Kawasaki of Air Flite; S. Nitta and D. Yanagihara of Orange County; I. Kudow and D. Doyle of El Patio; D. Iwata of Top Notch and K. Mune of SCNGA 61.

Dr. Paul Tsukahara of Top Notch won the closest to the hole award with a pitch, 3 ft. 10 in. away on the 10th hole.

Pair gains set of irons in win

The team of George Omatsu and Tosh Miura were richer by a brand new set of pro golf irons following their sparkling win in the SCNGA Partner Best-Ball tourney Sunday at Fox Hills.

Firing a 13-under 58, the pair made maximum use of their handicap in capturing their prize. George, a 10 handi, and 14-handicap Tosh helped each other scorewise with the benefit of only one birdie—on the 7th hole.

Bunched at 11-under net 60 were six teams with such luminaries as Min Yoshizaki TN and T. Onoda PF, Doug Furuta TN and D. Dono TN, Doug Mizukami and Walley Ige TF, M. Saito and S. Mizukami AF, A. Abe EP and G. Noji AF, ad Y. Saito SC and N. Nishikuni TB. A playoff looms Sunday at Fox Hills for the teams with a set of pro woods at stake.

Winning eight balls apiece were eight teams tied at 10-under—Mas Fukai LB and George Wada TN, D. Fujimoto EP and K. Yoshioka EP, Luis Aihara TF and Cy Yuguchi SC, H. Kawano and J. Araki TB, M. Makishi TB and D. Kawasaki AF, Sab Nitta and D. Yanagihara OC, I. Kudo LB and Don Doyle MF, and D. Iwata and K. Mine SC.

Dr. Paul Tsukahara of Top Notch was winner of the hole-in-one contest with a closest to the pin mark of 3'-10" on the 150-yard second hole, pocketing $40.

Ty Saito, Fred Ikeguchi and Luis Aihara put up a set of irons for a hole-in-one.

The new electronic system of handicap computation was the chief topic on the agenda at the annual meeting of the SCNGA handicap chairmen's meeting held at Rudi's Inn.

Jerome Helperin of the Integrated Data Corp., of Costa Mesa, was on hand to explain the system and answer questions from the group.

Club handicap chairmen were advised to complete the sheets of past 25 differentials for each member and send them in together with all monthly score cards. The information will then be processed by IDC on Feb. 16.

Cards not sent in by the 15th will be subject to 2-stroke penalty it was announced.

On the fairways, it was revealed that Ken Hyosaka of Air Flite won the December sweepstakes with a 75-11 net 64. Hank Yamagata of Top Flite was second with a 73-10-63. Tied for third were Jim Kobayashi and John Uchimiya with 70-7-63 and 72-9-63.

Handicap chairman Ty Saito stated that there will be no monthly handicap meeting until further notice.

Partner Best Ball Tournament Opens SCNGA Slate With Record 147 Teams

With 194 SCNGA members chomping at the bit ready for a crack at the first Association booty of the year, Baldwin Hills will resemble a Sino War scene—or a May Co. basement sale.

Taking to both the first and tenth tees on Fox Hills' west course, there will be a record 147 teams vying for the top prizes being offered in the first tournament of the year.

Tarzan Kaneko and Babe Nomura, figuring it's silly to break up a winning tandem, will be back on the scene to defend the championship they picked up last year. The Top Flite pair was just that when they combined for an 11 under par effort with Kaneko, then a 12, contributing heavily with a

Tosh Miura, George Omatsu Team Wins Partner Best Ball Event with a 58

Tosh Miura and George Omatsu were unexpected winners of the first SCNGA tournament of the year, the record-shattering Partner Best Ball event at Fox Hills.

Even more surprising was the fact that their steady, but not astounding, 29-29—58 should emerge the top score of the day.

Combining their comparative talents like well-oiled gears meshing perfectly, the Associate boys made good use of their 10 (Omatsu) and 14 (Miura) handicaps to put away the challenge of the so-called "big boys."

We mentioned earlier the surprise registered in some corners about a 58 winning the tourney. This is because many teams set up practice sessions and were regis-

El Patio

El Patio and Western concluded its 36-hole interclub tournament last Sunday with the EP boys walking off with both ends of the competition.

At Baldwin 1 and 3, Western's home course, Al Nakata brought the El Patio colors victory with a 36-36—72 (5)—67 to go with an opening 70 and 137 total. Tom Hirano (TN) 71-8—63, Hi Higashi (TF) 74-10—64, Mas Kawaguchi (TF) 77-13—64, Bita Wakiji (BR) 79-15—64, Kim Hatashita (TN) 76-11—65 at Baldwin, Jim Shigeishi (M) and Yosh Shimizu (Maxflite) both with net 66s.

All above scores are based on course ratings so the net scores do not determine the winners.

Also out of the money with excellent scores were: Sam Tanouye (TN) 78-12—64, T. Kawagoe (OC) 83-19—64, Dennis Tamura (BR) 75-10—65, George Endo (TF) 76-11—65, Dick Izuno (TF) 74-9—65, Jim Ihira (W) 71-6—65 and Jim Ryono (LB) with a 77-11—66. Johnny Endo and Rich Nimura, both of Western also had net 66s.

From April 1, 1966 the course rating of Meadowlark at Long Beach will be 68 instead of 66. Around May 1 the 1966 Course Rating Cards for the members wallets will be distributed as the Southern California Golf Club and The S.C. Public Links Golf Assn. have not finished rating all the courses. Alondra will still be played to a 69 rating.

All Handicap Chairmen of the SCNGA Clubs are asked to mail one sheet of the I.B.M. handicap reports together with the monthly reports of low net scores to Ty Saito at 2421 West Jefferson Blvd., L.A. 18.

The handicap sheets will be forwarded to the tournament committee for that particular month (Long Beach in April) for pairings.

All members are reminded that all score cards are still being filed at the handicap office and that omissions of members signatures and playing partners will result in a 2 stroke penalty.

Record 147 Teams Lined Up for Partner Best Ball Tourney at Fox Hills West

Another SCNGA first was chalked up Tuesday night when entries were drawn for the upcoming (March 13) Partner Best Ball tournament, the initial tourney on the 1966 calendar.

A total of 147 teams was officially entered for the season opener, whipping last year's record of 144. (In 1964 there were 115 and 103 for 1963, the first year after the ill-fated match play was dumped).

The over-flow field will be slated for tee-offs from the first and 10th tees at Baldwin.

What with the rebirth of the Japanese Army tromping around the fairways, all entrants are reminded to pick up when the issue is no longer in doubt to help speed up play. Last year's time schedule went quite well with most teams cooperating. The moguls would like to eliminate anyone winding up play under the last Sunday with a solid 11 under par 126. Oof; Holy Golf! Crack!

The Ishida-Wakiji tandem started the day at 67, a stroke behind coleaders Yanari-Kirita, K. Mikuriya-Tomotani, but promptly proceeded to blast the course apart like Rose Bowl game car parkers on the wings of Wakiji's scintillating 77 gross. (Wakiji being a 15 handicapper).

Handicap chairman Ralph Yanari and his silent partner, Prexy Art Kirita, checked in with a 129 for the runner-up spot. 'Twas a pitiful sight to behold at the 18th to see Yanari stagger in—he'd been carrying Kirita all day long. (The latter's contribution was, perhaps, something contagious—a malady carried over from his "do-nothing" administration).

Mikuriya-Tomotani wound up at 132 followed by 133s posted by Terry Komatsu-Sho Nomura

handicap. The others:

4. Chick Hinaga, 14	67-70—137
Kaz. Shimizu, 20	67-70—137
Bob Uragami, 24	68-69—137
7. Dick Takeshita, 26	72-66—138
Dick Izuno, 18	71-67—138
9. Geo. Endo, 22	71-68—138
Mas Kawaguchi, 26	67-72—138

(A note received states that Wally and Jim will hold an 18-hole playoff this Sunday to determine the eventual winner).

El Patio

El Patio and Western concluded its 36-hole interclub tournament last Sunday with the EP boys walking off with both ends of the competition.

At Baldwin 1 and 3, Western's home course, Al Nakata brought the El Patio colors victory with a 36-36—72 (5)—67 to go with an opening 70 and 137 total. Nakata was two-over on the short #3 course (bogeys on 2 and 3) and played par golf on #1 to post the low gross for the day as well. Also taking a liking to Baldwin was EP's Francis Aoyama.

Aoyama, after a nondescript 72 at Rancho San Joaquin, posted a 35-40 (9)—66 fora 139 total and second place. He could barely get off the tee but brilliant chipping gave him innumerable one-putt greens. Front-running Rich Nimura couldn't make his 69 opening 18 hold up, scrambling to a 39-41 (9)—71 on his home course to wind up third with

The tandem of George Omatsu and T. Miura proved the best in the field of 150 which vied in the So. Calif. Nisei Golf Association partner best ball tournament on Sunday at the Fox Hills west course.

They carded 29 and 29 for a net 58 winning score. Omatsu and Miura received a set of irons.

Six duos tied for second place with net 60s. They will play off next Sunday at 6 a.m. for the set of woods. The twosomes in the deadlock were: A. Abe and G. Noji of El Patio; M. Saito and S. Murakami of Air Flite; D. Furuta and D. Dono of Top Notch; M. Yoshizaki of Top Notch and T. Onoda of Par Flite; D. Mizukami and W. Ige of Top Flite; Y. Saito of SCNGA and N. Nishikuni of Thunderbird.

Eight deadlocked with net 61s. They were M. Fukai of Long Beach and G. Wada of SCNGA; D. Fujimoto and K. Yoshioka of El Patio; L. Aihara of Top Flite and C. Yuguchi of SCNGA; H. Kawanoe and J. Araki of Thunderbird; M. Makishi and D. Kawasaki of Air Flite; S. Nitta and D. Yanagihara of Orange County; I. Kudow and D. Doyle of El Patio; D. Iwata of Top Notch and K. Mune of SCNGA 61.

Dr. Paul Tsukahara of Top Notch won the closest to the hole award with a pitch, 3 ft. 10 in. away on the 10th hole.

Pair gains set of irons in win

The team of George Omatsu and Tosh Miura were richer by a brand new set of pro golf irons following their sparkling win in the SCNGA Partner Best-Ball tourney Sunday at Fox Hills.

Firing a 13-under 58, the pair made maximum use of their handicap in capturing their prize. George, a 10 handi, and 14-handicap Tosh helped each other scorewise with the benefit of only one birdie—on the 7th hole.

Bunched at 11-under net 60 were six teams with such luminaries as Min Yoshizaki TN and T. Onoda PF, Doug Furuta TN and D. Dono TN, Doug Mizukami and Walley Ige TF, M. Saito and S. Mizukami AF, A. Abe EP and G. Noji AF, ad Y. Saito SC and N. Nishikuni TB. A playoff looms Sunday at Fox Hills for the teams with a set of pro woods at stake.

Winning eight balls apiece were eight teams tied at 10-under—Mas Fukai LB and George Wada TN, D. Fujimoto EP and K. Yoshioka EP, Luis Aihara TF and Cy Yuguchi SC, H. Kawano and J. Araki TB, M. Makishi TB and D. Kawasaki AF, Sab Nitta and D. Yanagihara OC, I. Kudo LB and Don Doyle MF, and D. Iwata and K. Mine SC.

Dr. Paul Tsukahara of Top Notch was winner of the hole-in-one contest with a closest to the pin mark of 3'-10" on the 150-yard second hole, pocketing $40.

Ty Saito, Fred Ikeguchi and Luis Aihara put up a set of irons for a hole-in-one.

The new electronic system of handicap computation was the chief topic on the agenda at the annual meeting of the SCNGA handicap chairmen's meeting held at Rudi's Inn.

Jerome Helperin of the Integrated Data Corp., of Costa Mesa, was on hand to explain the system and answer questions from the group.

Club handicap chairmen were advised to complete the sheets of past 25 differentials for each member and send them in together with all monthly score cards. The information will then be processed by IDC on Feb. 16.

Cards not sent in by the 15th will be subject to 2-stroke penalty it was announced.

On the fairways, it was revealed that Ken Hyosaka of Air Flite won the December sweepstakes with a 75-11 net 64. Hank Yamagata of Top Flite was second with a 73-10-63. Tied for third were Jim Kobayashi and John Uchimiya with 70-7-63 and 72-9-63.

Handicap chairman Ty Saito stated that there will be no monthly handicap meeting until further notice.

Partner Best Ball Tournament Opens SCNGA Slate With Record 147 Teams

With 194 SCNGA members chomping at the bit ready for a crack at the first Association booty of the year, Baldwin Hills will resemble a Sino War scene—or a May Co. basement sale.

Taking to both the first and tenth tees on Fox Hills' west course, there will be a record 147 teams vying for the top prizes being offered in the first tournament of the year.

Tarzan Kaneko and Babe Nomura, figuring it's silly to break up a winning tandem, will be back on the scene to defend the championship they picked up last year. The Top Flite pair was just that when they combined for an 11 under par effort with Kaneko, then a 12, contributing heavily with a gross 75. Nomura, a 9, and Kaneko, now an 11, put together a 31-30 score for their win.

The Others

Runners-up were Doug Mizukami-Wally Ige; Cy Yuguchi-Luis Aihara; Tom Owan-Frank Fukuhara. They all had 10 unders. A check of the lineup disclosed this trio is of the same mind, also—they are returning intact as teams again.

SCNGA officials again remind all golfers of the necessity to "pick up" when the hole is lost. What with the bulky field and all, they want everyone to have the opportunity to finish during daylight hours. It is noted that most everyone cooperated last year, for despite a late start because of rainy conditions, the 143 teams were able to complete play.

Air Flite

Chisato Kubo and Mango Hamano combined forces to wiggle out a tight one stroke victory in Air Flite's 36-hole partner best ball tournament. The KH duo stroked in 18 under par over the two Sunday route, eliminating a wild four-team playoff as three teams were deadlocked for second 17 under.

They were K. Hyosaka-T. Naritoku; J. Sakurai-J. Mihara, George Ajioka-S. Mizukami. In the subsequent shoot-off for sole possession of the runner-up spot, the Sakurai-Mihara tandem emerged victorious with Ajioka-Mizukami having to settle for third and Kyosaka-Naritoku relegated to the No. 4 slot.

All-American

Karl Wright Ota, 25, representing Spokane Nisei Golf Association, was recently named to the Little All America golf team.

A two-handicapper, Karl graduated last year from Eastern Washington State College. The 5' 8" swinger has a career best of 65, carded on Indian Canyon course. A past winner of the Northwest Golf championships in Portland, Ore., Ota also participated in the national tournament in Illinois.

Tosh Miura, George Omatsu Team Wins Partner Best Ball Event with a 58

Tosh Miura and George Omatsu were unexpected winners of the first SCNGA tournament of the year, the record-shattering Partner Best Ball event at Fox Hills.

Even more surprising was the fact that their steady, but not astounding, 29-29—58 should emerge the top score of the day.

Combining their comparative talents like well-oiled gears meshing perfectly, the Associate boys made good use of their 10 (Omatsu) and 14 (Miura) handicaps to put away the challenge of the so-called "big boys."

We mentioned earlier the surprise registered in some corners about a 58 winning the tourney. This is because many teams set up practice sessions and were registering 14 and 15 under par efforts during the tune-up.

Second Place

Nonetheless, the Miura-Omatsu tandem scored when it counted, and they are richer by eight irons as a direct result.

The battle for the runner-up slot, good for a set of four woods each, is still up for grabs. No less than six teams notched 60s, 11 under par, and will compete in a playoff Sunday at Fox to determine the eventual winner. The sudden death play will find one of the following in second place:

SCNGA club members are again reminded that all score cards must be in the hands of club handicap chairman by the 25th of this month. Scores should include play up to nad including the 20th. The 20-25 dates will remain in effect eevry month.

Noguchi; Y. Yagura-T. Kawahara.

Dr. Paul Tsukahara of Top Notch picked up $40 for smacking his iron shot 3' 10" from the pin on the 150-yard second hole.

The trio of Ty Saito, Fred Ikeguchi and Luis Aihara had put up a set or irons as a prize for anyone tanking a hole-in-one.

Record 147 Teams Lined Up for Partner Best Ball Tourney at Fox Hills West

Another SCNGA first was chalked up Tuesday night when entries were drawn for the upcoming (March 13) Partner Best Ball tournament, the initial tourney on the 1966 calendar.

A total of 147 teams was officially entered for the season opener, whipping last year's record of 144. (In 1964 there were 115 and 103 for 1963, the first year after the ill-fated match play was dumped).

The over-flow field will be slated for tee-offs from the first and 10th tees at Baldwin.

What with the rebirth of the Japanese Army tromping around the fairways, all entrants are reminded to pick up when the issue is no longer in doubt to help speed up play. Last year's time schedule went quite well with most teams cooperating. The moguls would like to eliminate anyone winding up play under the light last Sunday with a solid 11 under par 126. Oof; Holy Golf! Crack!

The Ishida-Wakiji tandem started the day at 67, a stroke behind coleaders Yanari-Kirita, K. Mikuriya-Tomotani, but promptly proceeded to blast the course apart like Rose Bowl game car parkers on the wings of Wakiji's scintillating 77 gross. (Wakiji being a 15 handicapper).

Handicap chairman Ralph Yanari and his silent partner, Prexy Art Kirita, checked in with a 129 for the runner-up spot. 'Twas a pitiful sight to behold at the 18th to see Yanari stagger in—he'd been carrying Kirita all day long. (The latter's contribution was, perhaps, something contagious—a malady carried over from his "do-nothing" administration).

Mikuriya-Tomotani wound up at 132 followed by 133s posted by Terry Komatsu-Sho Nomura and handicap. The others:

3.	J. Maeshiro, 22	70-66—136
4.	Chick Hinaga, 14	67-70—137
	Kaz. Shimizu, 20	67-70—137
	Bob Uragami, 24	68-69—137
7.	Dick Takeshita, 26	72-66—138
	Dick Izuno, 18	71-67—138
9.	Geo. Endo, 22	71-68—138
	Mas Kawaguchi, 26	67-72—138

(A note received states that Wally and Jim will hold an 18-hole playoff this Sunday to determine the eventual winner).

El Patio

El Patio and Western concluded its 36-hole interclub tournament last Sunday with the EP boys walking off with both ends of the competition.

At Baldwin 1 and 3, Western's home course, Al Nakata brought the El Patio colors victory with a 36-36—72 (5)—67 to go with an opening 70 and 137 total. Nakata was two-over on the short #3 course (bogeys on 2 and 3) and played par golf on #1 to post the low gross for the day as well. Also taking a liking to Baldwin was EP's Francis Aoyama.

Aoyama, after a nondescript 72 at Rancho San Joaquin, posted a 35-40 (9)—66 fora 139 total and second place. He could barely get off the tee but brilliant chipping gave him innumerable one-putt greens. Front-running Rich Nimura couldn't make his 69 opening 18 hold up, scrambling to a 39-41 (9)—71 on his home course to wind up third with 140. The

The tandem of George Omatsu and T. Miura proved the best in the field of 150 which vied in the So. Calif. Nisei Golf Association partner best ball tournament on Sunday at the Fox Hills west course.

They carded 29 and 29 for a net 58 winning score. Omatsu and Miura received a set of irons.

Six duos tied for second place with net 60s. They will play off next Sunday at 6 a.m. for the set of woods. The twosomes in the deadlock were: A. Abe and G. Noji of El Patio; M. Saito and S. Murakami of Air Flite; D. Furuta and D. Dono of Top Notch; M. Yoshizaki of Top Notch and T. Onoda of Par Flite; D. Mizukami and W. Ige of Top Flite; Y. Saito of SCNGA and N. Nishikuni of Thunderbird.

Eight deadlocked with net 61s. They were M. Fukai of Long Beach and G. Wada of SCNGA; D. Fujimoto and K. Yoshioka of El Patio; L. Aihara of Top Flite and C. Yuguchi of SCNGA; H. Kawanoe and J. Araki of Thunderbird; M. Makishi and D. Kawasaki of Air Flite; S. Nitta and D. Yanagihara of Orange County; I. Kudow and D. Doyle of El Patio; D. Iwata of Top Notch and K. Mune of SCNGA 61.

Dr. Paul Tsukahara of Top Notch won the closest to the hole award with a pitch, 3 ft. 10 in. away on the 10th hole.

Pair gains set of irons in win

The team of George Omatsu and Tosh Miura were richer by a brand new set of pro golf irons following their sparkling win in the SCNGA Partner Best-Ball tourney Sunday at Fox Hills.

Firing a 13-under 58, the pair made maximum use of their handicap in capturing their prize. George, a 10 handi, and 14-handicap Tosh helped each other scorewise with the benefit of only one birdie—on the 7th hole.

Bunched at 11-under net 60 were six teams with such luminaries as Min Yoshizaki TN and T. Onoda PF, Doug Furuta TN and D. Dono TN, Doug Mizukami and Walley Ige TF, M. Saito and S. Mizukami AF, A. Abe EP and G. Noji AF, ad Y. Saito SC and N. Nishikuni TB. A playoff looms Sunday at Fox Hills for the teams with a set of pro woods at stake.

Winning eight balls apiece were eight teams tied at 10-under—Mas Fukai LB and George Wada TN, D. Fujimoto EP and K. Yoshioka EP, Luis Aihara TF and Cy Yuguchi SC, H. Kawano and J. Araki TB, M. Makishi TB and D. Kawasaki AF, Sab Nitta and D. Yanagihara OC, I. Kudo LB and Don Doyle MF, and D. Iwata and K. Mine SC.

Dr. Paul Tsukahara of Top Notch was winner of the hole-in-one contest with a closest to the pin mark of 3'-10" on the 150-yard second hole, pocketing $40.

Ty Saito, Fred Ikeguchi and Luis Aihara put up a set of irons for a hole-in-one.

The new electronic system of handicap computation was the chief topic on the agenda at the annual meeting of the SCNGA handicap chairmen's meeting held at Rudi's Inn.

Jerome Helperin of the Integrated Data Corp., of Costa Mesa, was on hand to explain the system and answer questions from the group.

Club handicap chairmen were advised to complete the sheets of past 25 differentials for each member and send them in together with all monthly score cards. The information will then be processed by IDC on Feb. 16.

Cards not sent in by the 15th will be subject to 2-stroke penalty it was announced.

On the fairways, it was revealed that Ken Hyosaka of Air Flite won the December sweepstakes with a 75-11 net 64. Hank Yamagata of Top Flite was second with a 73-10-63. Tied for third were Jim Kobayashi and John Uchimiya with 70-7-63 and 72-9-63.

Handicap chairman Ty Saito stated that there will be no monthly handicap meeting until further notice.

Partner Best Ball Tournament Opens SCNGA Slate With Record 147 Teams

With 194 SCNGA members chomping at the bit ready for a crack at the first Association booty of the year, Baldwin Hills will resemble a Sino War scene—or a May Co. basement sale.

Taking to both the first and tenth tees on Fox Hills' west course, there will be a record 147 teams vying for the top prizes being offered in the first tournament of the year.

Tarzan Kaneko and Babe Nomura, figuring it's silly to break up a winning tandem, will be back on the scene to defend the championship they picked up last year. The Top Flite pair was just that when they combined for an 11 under par effort with Kaneko, then a 12, contributing heavily with a gross 75. Nomura, a 9, and Kaneko, now an 11, put together a 31-30 score for their win.

The Others

Runners-up were Doug Mizukami-Wally Ige; Cy Yuguchi-Luis Aihara; Tom Owan-Frank Fukuhara. They all had 10 unders. A check of the lineup disclosed this trio is of the same mind, also—they are returning intact as teams again.

SCNGA officials again remind all golfers of the necessity to "pick up" when the hole is lost. What with the bulky field and all, they want everyone to have the opportunity to finish during daylight hours. It is noted that most everyone cooperated last year, for despite a late start because of rainy conditions, the 143 teams were able to complete play.

Air Flite

Chisato Kubo and Mango Hamano combined forces to wiggle out a tight one stroke victory in Air Flite's 36-hole partner best ball tournament. The KH duo stroked in 18 under par over the two Sunday route, eliminating a wild four-team playoff as three teams were deadlocked for second 17 under.

They were K. Hyosaka-T. Naritoku; J. Sakurai-J. Mihara, George Ajioka-S. Mizukami. In the subsequent shoot-off for sole possession of the runner-up spot, the Sakurai-Mihara tandem emerged victorious with Ajioka-Mizukami having to settle for third and Kyosaka-Naritoku relegated to the No. 4 slot.

All-American

Karl Wright Ota, 25, representing Spokane Nisei Golf Association, was recently named to the Little All America golf team.

A two-handicapper, Karl graduated last year from Eastern Washington State College. The 5' 8" swinger has a career best of 65, carded on Indian Canyon course. A past winner of the Northwest Golf championships in Portland, Ore., Ota also participated in the national tournament in Illinois.

Tosh Miura, George Omatsu Team Wins Partner Best Ball Event with a 58

Tosh Miura and George Omatsu were unexpected winners of the first SCNGA tournament of the year, the record-shattering Partner Best Ball event at Fox Hills.

Even more surprising was the fact that their steady, but not astounding, 29-29—58 should emerge the top score of the day.

Combining their comparative talents like well-oiled gears meshing perfectly, the Associate boys made good use of their 10 (Omatsu) and 14 (Miura) handicaps to put away the challenge of the so-called "big boys."

We mentioned earlier the surprise registered in some corners about a 58 winning the tourney. This is because many teams set up practice sessions and were registering 14 and 15 under par efforts during the tune-up.

Second Place

Nonetheless, the Miura-Omatsu tandem scored when it counted, and they are richer by eight irons as a direct result.

The battle for the runner-up slot, good for a set of four woods each, is still up for grabs. No less than six teams notched 60s, 11 under par, and will compete in a playoff Sunday at Fox to determine the eventual winner. The sudden death play will find one of the following in second place:

Al Abe-Gene Noji; M. Saito-S. Mizukami; Doug Furuta-Don Dono; Min Yoshizaki-Tok Onoda; Doug Mizukami-Wally Ige; Y. Saito-N. Nishikuni.

The five "losers" will have to be content with a tie for third, good for $31 gift certificate and two balls.

Eight Others

In the No. 8 slot comes another barrage of names. Eight teams posted 10-under 61s. And when all is said and done, they pick up 8 balls each for their Sabbath chores. The octet:

Mas Fukai-George Wada; Dan Fujimoto-Kats Yoshioka; Luis Aihara-Cy Yuguchi; H. Kawano-Jim Araki; M. Makishi-Dan Kawasaki; Sab Nitta-Don Yanagihara; Isao Kudo-Don Doyle; Don Iwata-K. Mine.

(And since we've been requested to include all the winners and their prizes, we find more names garnering 3 balls each. They were:)

H. Kiriu-N. Kitahara; E. Nagao-K. Yoshioka; M. Goya-K. Shimabukuro; E. Arakaki-A. Nakata; T. Komatsu-D. Tamura; H. Higashi-M. Fujimoto.

SCNGA club members are again reminded that all score cards must be in the hands of club handicap chairman by the 25th of this month. Scores should include play up to nad including the 20th. The 20-25 dates will remain in effect eevry month.

One ball consolation awards go to Hazama-B. Uchino; F. Hatakenaka-T. Kawasaki; M. Kawaguchi-Y. Tatsumi; C. Hinaga-F. Matsumoto; F. Uyematsu-K. Nagamoto; T. Furusho-T. Nakamura; R. Kigawa-D. Lee; S. Roy Ito Wins First In Golf Sweepstake 3 Tied for Second

Roy Ito of West L.A. Golf Club with a par 71-9—62 won the first So. Calif. Nisei Golf Assn. Sweepstakes of 1966.

Tied for second were Dan Fujimoto of El Patio with a 77-11—66, on the difficult Rancho San Joaquin course, Yas Satio of SCNGA with a 77-13—64 at Western Ave. and Ed Kato of SCNGA with a 74-10—64 at La Mirada.

There were no less than 7 tied for 5th, and they included such fine scores as: Tom Hirano (TN) 71-8—63, Hi Higashi (TF) 74-10—64, Mas Kawaguchi (TF) 77-13—64, Bita Wakiji (BR) 79-15—64, Kim Hatashita (TN) 76-11—65 at Baldwin, Jim Shigeishi (M) and Yosh Shimizu (Maxflite), both with net 66s.

All above scores are based on course ratings so the net scores do not determine the winners. Also out of the money with excellent scores were: Sam Tanouye (TN) 78-12—64, T. Kawagoe (OC) 83-19—64, Dennis Tamura (BR) 75-10—65, George Endo (TF) 76-11—65, Dick Izuno (TF) 74-9—65, Jim Ihira (W) 71-6—65, and Jim Ryono (LB) with a 77-11—66. Johnny Endo and Rich Nimura, both of Western also had net 66s.

From April 1, the course rating of Meadowlark at Long Beach will be 68 instead of 66. Around May 1 the 1966 Course Rating Cards for the members wallets will be distributed as the So. Calif. Golf Club and the S.C. Public Links Golf Assn. have not finished rating all the courses. Alondra will still be played to a 69 rating.

All handicap chairmen of the SCNGA clubs are asked to mail one sheet of the I.B.M. Handicap Reports together with the monthly reports of low net scores to Ty Saito at 2421 W. Jefferson Blvd., Los Angeles 90018. The handicap sheets will be forwarded to the tournament committee for that particular month (Long Beach in April) for pairings.

All members are reminded that all score cards are still being filed at the hanicap office and that omissions of members signatures and playing partners will result in a 2 stroke penalty.

Dear Saito-san:

Just a few days ago I had a very pleasant visit with Mr. Fred Takeuchi in his hotel and discussed with him, at considerable length, the contents of the letter which you had entrusted to him. I gave him my reaction on the spot, and that very frankly and in a vein that, I am afraid, will be very disappointing to you.

In the first place, Henry Shimanouchi made an error of judgment in directing you to me as Japan's "father of golf". He will have to be excused because he has been out of the country for a couple of years and does not know the changes that have taken place during his absence. It is true that I was quite active, officially and otherwise, in our golfdom. But last year, having reached the age of 70, I severed all official ties with all golf bodies, some of which I had served in one capacity or another for as long as 20 years; I even resigned from the Board of my favorite club, Kasumigaseki. Not that the game has lost its interest; it is still my favorite pastime, and not a week passes that I do get out to the club two or three times. But competitions have lost their zest and silver trophies their importance: I play the game these days principally for the exercise it affords me, - that and the mellowed companionship of like-minded souls.

Now for a brief recap of what I said to Takeuchi-san. I frankly do not think that any country club in the country, much less the leading ones, could be persuaded to act on your idea of a member-guest tournament with your associates, - and that for the simple reason that no club could get any substantial number of their members interested in such a project. I know that I could not swing it for you at Kasumigaseki, for instance; the best I could do for you would probably be to rope in half a dozen members at most, and there might not be a single competitive golfer among them.

Since the object of your trip seems to be to combine golf with sightseeing, I think your best bet would be to get the travel agent who will be fixing your over-all schedule to negotiate directly with the clubs - I have given Takeuchi-san a list of the clubs I would recommend to you - for playing privileges. Since good clubs are fairly congested even on October 1, 1965

Mr. George Shuichi Mizota
c/o Japan Golf Association
Tokyo, Japan

Dear Mr. Mizota,

I had the very pleasant priviledge of talking to the Consul General Henry Toshiro Shimanouchi yesterday, and he has written an ~~instruction~~ introduction to you for my brother-in-law, Fred Takeuchi. Being an old family friend, the Consul General was very informal and we reminisced about the recent Senior Golf Champ-innship to which he served as Honorary Chairman. Henry is a very excellent wood player and only a couple of stray shots kept him from winning one of the many trophies offered. Over 100 participated in 3 divisions, 50 years+, 55 yrs. + and 60 yrs. +. His interest in golf has given a tremendous boost to local sports activity and we only wish his stay is extended for many, many years.

The purpose of this letter is to explain the desires of our Southern California Nisei Golf assn, which I believe is the largest Japanese-American Golf Group of golfers in the United States, numbering 450 to 500 members. If you will remember back in 1961 a group of four golfers were sent, expenses paid, to represent the Association in the Japanese Open Golf Tournament. It was a very unwise venture, to say the least, for in no country today can amateurs, no matter how good, expect to compete with expert professionals. That the Association and players alike were disappointed in their performance (no one qualified) is putting it mildly because not a single suggestion, of a second trip has been mentioned since.

The time has come, however, to compete on a amateur vs. amateur basis, so I am hoping to have the members of our Association meet the members of Japan's leading country clubs on a tournament basis, where handicaps will determine the ability of the winning players. I would like to suggest, that members of leading Country Clubs in Japan, such as Kasumigaseki, Takanodai, Kawana, Aichi, Hirono, among others stage a member-guest tournament (Weekdays, for I presume Saturdays & Sundays are crowded with member play) with several flights, 0 - 9, 10 - 12, 13 - 15, 16 and over, so that each player entered will be given an equal opportunity to display his skill in his class. Will you please discuss such a possibility with my brother-in-law, Fred Kaoru Takeuchi, who is representing me on this mission. I believe, that the Kansai Amateur Tournament is also held the first part of October.

I have been the Handicap Chairman of the Association for 8 years, and we are rather proud of our Handicap System, based on reported scores each month.

2421 WEST JEFFERSON BOULEVARD LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA 90018 RE 1-2121

I am enclosing a Report Card & Course Rating Sheet, which you may compare with that used in Japan. We patterned after the U.S.G.A. system of selecting 10 out of the most recent 25 scores. Practically all our tournaments are won by net scores between 67 and 69.

Please give us a definite reply as soon as possible, in the form of a written invitation, whether such an arrangement is possible or whether it will be out of question. Mr. S. Yamada, the local manager of the Japan Air Lines has promised us a chartered plane, available for 141 persons out of which perhaps 40-50 will be there to play competitive golf. (Wives and hesitant golfers will number over half of the group.) I believe such negotiations as Hotel accomodations, meals, points of travel, etc. are routine matter. The important thing is to have available to us the golf courses to play, during the first 3 weeks in October 1966, and the willingness of the clubs to host a group such as ours for possible International Matches, the first of its kind held in Japan. Since Mr. Takeuchi will be in Japan during October, it may be possible to have this information before his departure.

As soon as the courses are arranged, we plan to form a large committee, headed by Consul General Henry Toshiro Shimanouchi, Sumitomo Bank, and the Bank of Tokyo officials, Mr. S. Yamada, manager of the Japan Air Lines, and the officers of the S. C. N. G. A. as well as representatives of the Jet-Flite and Senior Golf Clubs. Among those to be approached will be George Aratani of the American Commercial Co., George Nakatsuka, President of the Japan Food Corp. and many others, who know Japan thoroughly. This will definitely be a non-profit venture, and no travel bureaus will be involved.

I want to apologize for the length of this letter, but since the Consul General spoke so glowingly of you as Japan's " Father of Golf", I did not want to be too brief in our attempts to link our two countries through the medium of this wonderful game. Being a Stanford graduate, you may remember the name of basketballer, Nip McHose, who is a prominent in the Southern California Golf picture. One of My golfing cronies, Lloyd Shingu formerly of Alameda remembers you, although he was in high school, when you were at Stanford. I believe, Frank Kito, my UCLA contemporary, is a lawyer in Tokyo and a good golfer.

Please give our request your most thorough consideration for I believe many of us, like myself, would like to see Japan for the first time and while there play the game we love most.

Very truly yours,

John Taizo (Ty) Saito, Handicap Chairman, SCNGA

weekdays, you would be well-advised to fix as early as possible the specific date on which you want to play at each club, then to have your travel agent get the application in at least one month in advance. There is hardly a weekday at the good clubs that groups ranging from 20 to 40 players do not hold private competitions, so you have to apply early in order to get the date that you want. At Kasumigaseki, outside groups are required to submit their applications, together with names of players, at least two weeks in advance; also the name of a member who will be held responsible for his group in such matters as conduct, bills, etc. We also have a general rule that no visitors may go out on the course unaccompanied by a member of the club. But I think I can persuade our Board to make an exception in your case; as a last resort I could arrange to play with you and assume the responsibilities of sponsorship. In any case, keep me posted on developments as your plans take shape.

I was interested in your mention of Nip McHose, for he happens to be the closest friend among my classmates. Never a visit to Los Angeles but what I have at least one round with him at Wilshire or Bel Air; and a few years ago when he was President of the Southern California Golf Association, he roped me in for a day of golf with members of his Board at La Hacienda C.C. on the day that the new clubhouse was opened. At Stanford we were on the Freshman tennis team; but at golf Nip is now a little too sharp for me, - perhaps by 4 strokes.

Thank you, finally, for the box of Max-Fli balls; that's a six-months' supply for me, for I no longer can hit them long enough to get off the fairways.

Sincerely yours,

The Start.... JAPAN GOLF TOUR

G. S. Mizota
TAIYO GYOGYO KABUSHIKI KAISHA
MARUNOUCHI BLDG.

August 11, 1966

Dear Saito-san:

Your letter of July 28 came as somewhat of a surprise; for not having heard from you for so long after writing what - to you - must have been a discouraging answer, I had come to the conclusion that your Association's plans for the Japan invasion must have been discarded.

It is good that your plans have not been given up, for mid-autumn is test season in Japan for sightseeing, as well as for golf. Now that your group has been whittled down to 25 members, you should find little difficulty in getting on to even our best courses, provided application is made well in advance. At Kasumigaseki, your application should be in at least a month ahead of a specified date on which you wish to play there. So if your representatives, Messrs. Takahashi and Kobayashi, will contact me as soon as they arrive in Tokyo and give me the date on which you wish to go to our club, plus the names of your group members, I would be happy to make the application for you. Since the club has a rule that non-members cannot play the course unless accompanied by a member or members who will be held responsible for the conduct of the visitors, I would have to go out and play the nominal host. If your members are ambitious enough, they could get an early start and play both the East (Championship) and West courses, - one green fee covers both. (It's a good two hours drive from downtown Tokyo because of the current congestion even out on the country roads).

I happen to belong to Koganei also; I joined it early because I live quite close to it. You will enjoy it, although it is hardly in the same class with Kasumigaseki.

So Sanji Sakamoto is back in his old hunting grounds. If he swings his clubs with the skill he displayed with the baseball bat in the old days, his game should be respectable. Please convey my regards to him, - I had lost track of him completely since leaving Shanghai in 1940.

Sincerely yours,

Geo. Mizota

Club Activities Perking as Golfing Spring Fever Hits; LB Event Next

When it rains, it doth pour—and when the reporters decide to get hot and achieve some publicity for their respective clubs, they really know how to hurt a guy.

After a famine last week, we wind up with an abundance of club reports this week—so let's get with it and see how much we can squeeze in:

Next Tournament

Due to a slight miscalculation, a few SCNGA members did not receive Long Beach Invitational tournament entry blanks. Altho today (Friday) is the deadline, Fred Ikeguchi reports late entries will be accepted. Anyone left out may call Ikeguchi at HE 2-1228 or Dr. John Kuroda at HE 6-8928.

The beach boys held their annual best ball tournament with the team of Kats Izumi and Nob Yasaki combining for a 9-under and the top spot. A stroke back at 8 minus were John Kuroda-Hisao Nakasuji and Ed Yamamoto-David Lee. In the number 4 spot, 7 under, was the tandem of Jim Ryono and George Matsushita.

Six unders were compiled by Toru Shimizu-Sab Kataoka; Pee Wee Tsuda-Kiya Tatsumi; Richard Kumashiro-Gene Luke. Winding up the prize list in the 8th spot were Fred Ikeguchi-Harry Nishino and Wally Lee-Shig Nakaji. Their partnerships could only shave 4 strokes off par.

Best Ball

Although no report was sent our way, we're informed the six-way tie for the runner-up spot (and more importantly the set of woods) was eventually settled. Yas Saito, associate member, and Thunderbird's Nick Nishikuni picked up all the marbles—how and by how much we know not.

Although dumped in the sudden death playoff, the teams of Al Abe-Gene Noji; M. Saito-S. Mizukami; Doug Furuta-Don Dono; Min Yoshizaki-Tok Onoda; and Doug Mizukami-Wally Ige garnered two balls each and gift certificates worth $31. The latter will probably be mailed to the qualifiers to sooth their hurt feelings.

And an aftermath of the Best Ball tournament at Fox came to our attention recently.

Par Flite's Dr. George Kubota and partner Ken Sakaida, after teeing off at the 3rd hole, noted the former was sans his Geo. Nichol's putter. A subsequent search of the 2nd green area and environs turned up nothing—making it necessary for Kubota to finish out the day w/o a putter. In the interim a report was made with the starter and club house but no putter has turned up to date. Dr. Kubota is in hopes a tournament participant found his stick. If so, you can reach him at 397-6719.

Prize Notice

Luis Aihara, keeper of the prizes, notifies CR that a number of partner best-ball prize winners have failed to pick up their balls.

Most of the culprits are from Air Flite, Thunderbird and El Patio. Associate members who picked up balls as BB "in the money" finishers, may also pick up their loot at Aihara's office, 114 S. San Pedro St. (There is no such creature as a deadline to pick up prizes, but if some of you winners don't claim your prize soon, they'll soon wind up in the water following a clash with Aihara's iron).

Top Notch

Top Notchers conducted a scotch foursome event Sunday at Fox with Min Yoshizaki and Frank Motobo emerging victorious with a net 60 total.

magata posted a 76-9 while Takeshita had an 83-13 for a 137 net total. In the same bracket were Yas Tatsumi (78-10) and Lefty Uno (82-13).

In the 4 slot were Tarzan Kaneko (80-11) and Sam Takeshita (82-13) for a 138 finish. The others:

5. B. Nomura (79-9) and Bob Uragami (81-12)—139.

Roy Ito Wins First SCNGA Monthly Sweepstakes Award with A Fine Net 62

Winner of the first Southern California Nisei Golf Association Sweepstakes award was Roy Ito of the West Los Angeles Golf Club.

Ito, a 9 handicapper, fired a par 71 for a net 62 to cop the first 1966 ball prize.

Tied for second, some distance back of the clear-cut winner, were Dan Fujimoto of El Patio; Yas Saito and Ed Kato, associate members. Fujimoto had a 77-11—66 on the difficult Rancho San Joaquin course during an El Patio tournament. Saito posted a 77-13—64 at 66 to 68—effective April 1, 1966. Up-to-date course rating cards will be distributed to SCNGA members around May 1. The wallet-sized cards are being made up inasmuch as the Southern California and Public Links Association versions do not carry a complete rundown. (Alondra, it is pointed out, remains at 69).

Club Activities Perking as Golfing Spring Fever Hits; LB Event Next

When it rains, it doth pour—and when the reporters decide to get hot and achieve some publicity for their respective clubs, they really know how to hurt a guy.

After a famine last week, we wind up with an abundance of club reports this week—so let's get with it and see how much we can squeeze in:

Next Tournament

Due to a slight miscalculation, a few SCNGA members did not receive Long Beach Invitational tournament entry blanks. Altho today (Friday) is the deadline, Fred Ikeguchi reports late entries will be accepted. Anyone left out may call Ikeguchi at HE 2-1228 or Dr. John Kuroda at HE 6-8928.

The beach boys held their annual best ball tournament with the team of Kats Izumi and Nob Yasaki combining for a 9-under and the top spot. A stroke back at 8 minus were John Kuroda-Hisao Nakasuji and Ed Yamamoto-David Lee. In the number 4 spot, 7 under, was the tandem of Jim Ryono and George Matsushita.

Six unders were compiled by Toru Shimizu-Sab Kataoka; Pee Wee Tsuda-Kiya Tatsumi; Richard Kumashiro-Gene Luke. Winding up the prize list in the 8th spot were Fred Ikeguchi-Harry Nishino and Wally Lee-Shig Nakaji. Their partnerships could only shave 4 strokes off par.

Best Ball

Although no report was sent our way, we're informed the six-way tie for the runner-up spot (and more importantly the set of woods) was eventually settled. Yas Saito, associate member, and Thunderbird's Nick Nishikuni picked up all the marbles—how and by how much we know not.

Although dumped in the sudden death playoff, the teams of Al Abe-Gene Noji; M. Saito-S. Mizukami; Doug Furuta-Don Dono; Min Yoshizaki-Tok Onoda; and Doug Mizukami-Wally Ige garnered two balls each and gift certificates worth $31. The latter will probably be mailed to the qualifiers to sooth their hurt feelings.

And an aftermath of the Best Ball tournament at Fox came to our attention recently.

Par Flite's Dr. George Kubota and partner Ken Sakaida, after teeing off at the 3rd hole, noted the former was sans his Geo. Nichol's putter. A subsequent search of the 2nd green area and environs turned up nothing—making it necessary for Kubota to finish out the day w/o a putter. In the interim a report was made with the starter and club house but no putter has turned up to date. Dr. Kubota is in hopes a tournament participant found his stick. If so, you can reach him at 397-6719.

Prize Notice

Luis Aihara, keeper of the prizes, notifies CR that a number of partner best-ball prize winners have failed to pick up their balls.

Most of the culprits are from Air Flite, Thunderbird and El Patio. Associate members who picked up balls as BB "in the money" finishers, may also pick up their loot at Aihara's office, 114 S. San Pedro St. (There is no such creature as a deadline to pick up prizes, but if some of you winners don't claim your prize soon, they'll soon wind up in the water following a clash with Aihara's iron).

magata posted a 76-9 while Takeshita had an 83-13 for a 137 net total. In the same bracket were Yas Tatsumi (78-10) and Lefty Uno (82-13).

In the 4 slot were Tarzan Kaneko (80-11) and Sam Takeshita (82-13) for a 138 finish. The others:

5. B. Nomura (79-9) and Bob Uragami (81-12)—139.

Roy Ito Wins First SCNGA Monthly Sweepstakes Award with A Fine Net 62

Winner of the first Southern California Nisei Golf Association Sweepstakes award was Roy Ito of the West Los Angeles Golf Club.

Ito, a 9 handicapper, fired a par 71 for a net 62 to cop the first 1966 ball prize.

Tied for second, some distance back of the clear-cut winner, were Dan Fujimoto of El Patio; Yas Saito and Ed Kato, associate members. Fujimoto had a 77-11—66 on the difficult Rancho San Joaquin course during an El Patio tournament. Saito posted a 77-13—64 at 66 to 68—effective April 1, 1966. Up-to-date course rating cards will be distributed to SCNGA members around May 1. The wallet-sized cards are being made up inasmuch as the Southern California and Public Links Association versions do not carry a complete rundown. (Alondra, it is pointed out, remains at 69).

Thunderbird

Thunderbird Golf Club concluded its annual Spring Classic tournament, a 36-hole medal play among the disappointed also-rans, especially with the withdrawal of contender Bita Wakiji who suffered pangs of "too-much-night-before" woes. (The possibility of the 2nd round standings remaining unchanged has as much chance as a "he" in a whirlwind). Final results:

3.	Terry Komatsu	70-68-69—207

When it rains, it doth pour—and when the reporters decide to get hot and achieve some publicity for their respective clubs, they really know how to hurt a guy.

After a famine last week, we wind up with an abundance of club reports this week—so let's get with it and see how much we can squeeze in:

Next Tournament

Due to a slight miscalculation, a few SCNGA members did not receive Long Beach Invitational tournament entry blanks. Altho today (Friday) is the deadline, Fred Ikeguchi reports late entries will be accepted. Anyone left out may call Ikeguchi at HE 2-1228 or Dr. John Kuroda at HE 6-8928.

The beach boys held their annual best ball tournament with the team of Kats Izumi and Nob Yasaki combining for a 9-under and the top spot. A stroke back at 8 minus were John Kuroda-Hisao Nakasuji and Ed Yamamoto-David Lee. In the number 4 spot, 7 under, was the tandem of Jim Ryono and George Matsushita.

Six unders were compiled by Toru Shimizu-Sab Kataoka; Pee Wee Tsuda-Kiya Tatsumi; Richard Kumashiro-Gene Luke. Winding up the prize list in the 8th spot were Fred Ikeguchi-Harry Nishino and Wally Lee-Shig Nakaji. Their partnerships could only shave 4 strokes off par.

Best Ball

Although no report was sent our way, we're informed the six-way tie for the runner-up spot (and more importantly the set of woods) was eventually settled. Yas Saito, associate member, and Thunderbird's Nick Nishikuni picked up all the marbles—how and by how much we know not.

Although dumped in the sudden death playoff, the teams of Al Abe-Gene Noji; M. Saito-S. Mizumagata posted a 76-9 while Takeshita had an 83-13 for a 137 net total. In the same bracket were Yas Tatsumi (78-10) and Lefty Uno (82-13).

In the 4 slot were Tarzan Kaneko (80-11) and Sam Takeshita (82-13) for a 138 finish. The others:

5. B. Nomura (79-9) and Bob Uragami (81-12)—139.

6. B. Motoi (84-9) and F. Matsumoto (80-12); George Endo (82-10) and L. Nakayama (83-12) with kami; Doug Furuta-Don Dono; Min Yoshizaki-Tok Onoda; and Doug Mizukami-Wally Ige garnered two balls each and gift certificates worth $31. The latter will probably be mailed to the qualifiers to sooth their hurt feelings.

And an aftermath of the Best Ball tournament at Fox came to our attention recently.

Par Flite's Dr. George Kubota and partner Ken Sakaida, after teeing off at the 3rd hole, noted the former was sans his Geo. Nichol's putter. A subsequent search of the 2nd green area and environs turned up nothing—making it necessary for Kubota to finish out the day w/o a putter. In the interim a report was made with the starter and club house but no putter has turned up to date. Dr. Kubota is in hopes a tournament participant found his stick. If so, you can reach him at 397-6719.

Prize Notice

Luis Aihara, keeper of the prizes, notifies CR that a number of partner best-ball prize winners have failed to pick up their balls.

Most of the culprits are from Air Flite, Thunderbird and El Patio. Associate members who picked up balls as BB "in the money" finishers, may also pick up their loot at Aihara's office, 114 S. San Pedro St. (There is no such creature as a deadline to pick up prizes, but if some of you winners don't claim your prize soon, they'll soon wind up in the water following a clash with Aihara's iron).

Club Activities Perking as Golfing Spring Fever Hits; LB Event Next

When it rains, it doth pour—and when the reporters decide to get hot and achieve some publicity for their respective clubs, they really know how to hurt a guy.

After a famine last week, we wind up with an abundance of club reports this week—so let's get with it and see how much we can squeeze in:

Next Tournament

Due to a slight miscalculation, a few SCNGA members did not receive Long Beach Invitational tournament entry blanks. Altho today (Friday) is the deadline, Fred Ikeguchi reports late entries will be accepted. Anyone left out may call Ikeguchi at HE 2-1228 or Dr. John Kuroda at HE 6-8928.

The beach boys held their annual best ball tournament with the team of Kats Izumi and Nob Yasaki combining for a 9-under and the top spot. A stroke back at 8 minus were John Kuroda-Hisao Nakasuji and Ed Yamamoto-David Lee. In the number 4 spot, 7 under, was the tandem of Jim Ryono and George Matsushita.

Six unders were compiled by Toru Shimizu-Sab Kataoka; Pee Wee Tsuda-Kiya Tatsumi; Richard Kumashiro-Gene Luke. Winding up the prize list in the 8th spot were Fred Ikeguchi-Harry Nishino and Wally Lee-Shig Nakaji. Their partnerships could only shave 4 strokes off par.

Best Ball

Although no report was sent our way, we're informed the six-way tie for the runner-up spot (and more importantly the set of woods) was eventually settled. Yas Saito, associate member, and Thunderbird's Nick Nishikuni picked up all the marbles—how and by how much we know not.

Although dumped in the sudden death playoff, the teams of Al Abe-Gene Noji; M. Saito-S. Mizukami; Doug Furuta-Don Dono; Min Yoshizaki-Tok Onoda; and Doug Mizukami-Wally Ige garnered two balls each and gift certificates worth $31. The latter will probably be mailed to the qualifiers to sooth their hurt feelings.

And an aftermath of the Best Ball tournament at Fox came to our attention recently.

Par Flite's Dr. George Kubota and partner Ken Sakaida, after teeing off at the 3rd hole, noted the former was sans his Geo. Nichol's putter. A subsequent search of the 2nd green area and environs turned up nothing—making it necessary for Kubota to finish out the day w/o a putter. In the interim a report was made with the starter and club house but no putter has turned up to date. Dr. Kubota is in hopes a tournament participant found his stick. If so, you can reach him at 397-6719.

Prize Notice

Luis Aihara, keeper of the prizes, notifies CR that a number of partner best-ball prize winners have failed to pick up their balls.

Most of the culprits are from Air Flite, Thunderbird and El Patio. Associate members who picked up balls as BB "in the money" finishers, may also pick up their loot at Aihara's office, 114 S. San Pedro St. (There is no such creature as a deadline to pick up prizes, but if some of you winners don't claim your prize soon, they'll soon wind up in the water following a clash with Aihara's iron).

Roy Ito Wins First SCNGA Monthly Sweepstakes Award with A Fine Net 62

Winner of the first Southern California Nisei Golf Association Sweepstakes award was Roy Ito of the West Los Angeles Golf Club.

Ito, a 9 handicapper, fired a par 71 for a net 62 to cop the first 1966 ball prize.

Tied for second, some distance back of the clear-cut winner, were Dan Fujimoto of El Patio; Yas Saito and Ed Kato, associate members. Fujimoto had a 77-11—66 on the difficult Rancho San Joaquin course during an El Patio tournament. Saito posted a 77-13—64 at Western Avenue course while Kato, a former Max Fliter, came up with a 74-10—64 at La Mirada.

There were no less than seven players deadlocked for the fifth spot.

Fifth Place

Top Notchers Tom Hirano (71-8) and Kim Hatashita (76-11); Top Fliters Hi Higashi (74-10) and Mas Kawaguchi (77-13); iBta Wa-Kiji, Brookside (79-15); Jim Shigeishi and Yoshi Shimizu of Max Flite wound up with net 66s.

(All above scores, by the way, are determined by course ratings so net scores do not designate placings).

Other excellent scores were reported by Sam Tanouye, TN, 78-12; T. Kawagoe, OC, 83-19; Dennis Tamura, Br, 75-10; George Endo, TF, 76-11; Dick Izuno, TF, 74-0; Jim Ihira, W, 71-6; Jim Ryono, LB, 77-11; Johnny Endo and Rich Nimura, 66 nets.

Additional information passed along by our info center John Ty Saito:

Other Info

All Handicap Chairmen of SCNGA clubs are asked to mail one (1) sheet of the I.B.M. handicap reports together with the monthly reports of low net scores to Saito at 2421 W. Jefferson Blvd., Los Angeles 90018. The Handicap sheets are required so they may be forwarded to the tournament committee handling the tourney for that particular month for pairings. (In this case, it will go to Long Beach for their Invitational.)

Members are reminded that all score cards are still being filed at the handicap office and that omissions of member signatiures and/or playing partners will result in a two-stroke penalty.

In case you missed its, the course rating of Meadowlark in Long Beach has been raised from 66 to 68—effective April 1, 1966. Up-to-date course rating cards will be distributed to SCNGA members around May 1. The wallet-sized cards are being made up inasmuch as the Southern California and Public Links Association versions do not carry a complete rundown. (Alondra, it is pointed out, remains at 69).

Thunderbird

Thunderbird Golf Club concluded its annual Spring Classic tournament, a 36-hole medal play affair, at Whittier Narrows golf course.

When all the chips were cashed, class told as 6-handicapper Henry Hashimoto met the challenge of his fellow TBers and emerged the victor with a steady 139, one up on Lou Iriye.

Hank had rounds of 75-6—69 and 76-6—70 for his winning total. Nine-handicapper Iriye matched Hashimoto's opening 69 with a 78-9 but fell one short o nthe final 18 with an 80-9—71. The results:

H. Hashimoto	69-70—139
Lou Iriye	69-71—140
Mits Makishi	72-72—144
Harry Hashimoto	74-72—146
Haru Kuwanoe	75-72—146
Jim Maa	74-72—146
Charley Higa	75-73—148

Orange County

Hank Aihara, the famed long-jumper of yesteryear (when they called it "broad" jump), didn't crow-hop anywhere along the line as he leaped over six consecutive foes to win the annual Orange County Match Play tournament.

Henry downed Tom Owan in the final match, 3 and 2.

A special 54-hole medal play tourney was held in cnojunction with the match play for the benefit of non-qualifiers and the fallen. A three-way tie for first place resulted among Kai Wong, J. Niiro and R. Iwamoto. A playoff to determine the eventual winner will be held.

The annual President's Cup tournament was won recently by Tak Kawagoe. He carded an excellent net 65 on a very windy day. N. Masuda was runner-up at 66 with Dr. F. Yoshikane third at 68.

Kawagoe, another ex-athlete like Aihara, is deemed one of the most improved golfers in the OC

Brookside

Shogi Fukuma, the Imperturbable Sharpchooter, swooped down out of the wild and woolly hills of Monterey Park like Batman to capture the Brookside 54-hole tournament.

Fukuma launched a "Palmer Charge" on the final 18, firing a superb one over par 71 (net 64) to gun past second round leader Ralph Yanari by a single stroke, 204 to 205. As it was Yanari barely missed a deadlock as well as a shot at the title when he three-putted the 18th green—his lag putt for a tie coming up yards short.

A mad reshuffling took place among the disappointed also-rans, especially with the withdrawal of contender Bita Wakiji who suffered pangs of "too-much-night-before" woes. (The possibility of the 2nd round standings remaining unchanged has as much chance as a "he" in a whirlwind). Final results:

Deadlocked with 66s were Clarence Hiura and Tom Hirano; Frank Onishi and Fred Kojima; Mareo Masunaka and Sats Shigekawa. Alone at 66½, good for seventh place, were Joe Ito and Don Iwata, the old and the young. Sueo Hirashima and Mits Motobo could do no better than 67 while Paul Tsukahara and Stan Furuta were content with 9th slot, via a 67½.

(Combination of apology and thanks to TFer Bob Uragami. Thanks for being so prompt and thorough with news concerning Top Flite and apologies for not including the below item in last week's edition.)

Be that as it may, we shall note that Fran Uyematsu and Dr. Wally Nagata came up the winners of the unique partner 18-hole medal play tournament.

Fran led the way with a 74-10—64 while Dr. Wally chipped in with a steady 83-12—71 for a team total of 135, two better than the runner-up tandem of George Yamagata and Dick Takeshita. Yamagata posted a 76-9 while Takeshita had an 83-13 for a 137 net total. In the same bracket were Yas Tatsumi (78-10) and Lefty Uno (82-13).

In the 4 slot were Tarzan Kaneko (80-11) and Sam Takeshita (82-13) for a 138 finish. The others:

5. B. Nomura (79-9) and Bob Uragami (81-12)—139.

6. B. Motoi (84-9) and F. Matsumoto (80-12); George Endo (82-10) and L. Nakayama (83-12) with 143s.

7. C. Hinaga (80-7) and J. Yamamoto (84-13)—144.

8. Dick Izuno (77-8) and B. Katow (85-12); K. Shimizu (86-11) and M. Narahara (85-15) with 145s.

Brookside

Hypoed by a scorching net 62, 10-handicapper Ralph Yanari zoomed out of the pack last Sunday to take the second round lead in Brookside's 54-hole tournament. At 132, Yanari holds a two-stroke margin over steady Ray Obazawa. Bita Wakiji holds down third at 136.

Defending champion Dave Yamamoto and Shogi Fukuma, first round leaders with 65s, fell back. Yamamoto is still within hailing distance at 137 but Fukuma skied to a 75 to fall 8 big ones back of the leader.

As an added attraction, the second round also featured an Easter Ham Shoot. Sunrise services will be followed by ample dinner tables in the homes of Yanari, Obazawa, Wakiji, Terry Komatsu, Tosh Hayakawa, Kei Mikuriya, Yamamoto and Sho Nomura. The second round standings:

Ralph Yanari	70-62—132
Ray Obazawa	67-67—134
Bita Wakiji	67-69—136
Dave Yamamoto	65-62—137
Terry Komatsu	70-68—138

Club. By virtue of their wins, both qualify for the annual Tournament of Champions to determine the winner of the coveted Orange County JACL trophy.

Brookside

Shogi Fukuma, the Imperturbable Sharpchooter, swooped down out of the wild and woolly hills of Monterey Park like Batman to capture the Brookside 54-hole tournament.

Fukuma launched a "Palmer Charge" on the final 18, firing a superb one over par 71 (net 64) to gun past second round leader Ralph Yanari by a single stroke, 204 to 205. As it was Yanari barely missed a deadlock as well as a shot at the title when he three-putted the 18th green—his lag putt for a tie coming up yards short.

A mad reshuffling took place among the disappointed also-rans, especially with the withdrawal of contender Bita Wakiji who suffered pangs of "too-much-night-before" woes. (The possibility of the 2nd round standings remaining unchanged has as much chance as a "he" in a whirlwind). Final results:

1.	Shogi Fukuma	65-65-64—204
2.	Ralph Yanari	70-62-73—205
3.	Terry Komatsu	70-68-69—207

Long Beach Invitational Lures 200 SCNGA-Men to Meadowlark Tourney

Attempting to retrace previous Long Beach Invitational tournament history and past winners, CR ran into the mystery of what happened last year. Searching through back copies, all we can come up with is the Orange County Invitational—won by Freddie Ikeguchi—but that's about as close to Long Beach as we could come.

So until further investigation turns up the answer to when was the last LB turnament, we can't even pinpoint a defending champion—let alone preview this Sunday's expectations.

Late entries required a little bit

3. Ken Tsukiyashi 71

George Wada Returns to Tournament Trail With Win in L.B. Invitational

George Wada, one of the original SCNGA members but somewhat of a stranger recently since dropping out of the venerable Top Notch organization, returned to the tournament wars Sunday honed to perfection as he walked off with the top prize offered at the Long Beach Invitational.

Despite the comparatively easy challenge that is Meadowlark CC, good scores were hard to come by Sunday with the gusty winds turning the mild 18-holes into a monster.

Although not from Texas, Wada played the wind like a veteran rather than vice-versa—and compiled a steady 37-38—75, four over regulation but a sparkling round considering the elements.

Even at that the Associate member had to be on his toes as Tets Bessho (SC) and Wally Lee (LB) were close challengers with 76s. With handicaps, Wada and Bessho wound up in a tie for low net honors at 67 with Bessho getting the trophy and the two splitting the merchandise.

In Aye Flight play, Top Flite's Tarzan Kaneko came up with the big blows when they counted to edge Tets Asato by a stroke—thereby stalling off a double celebration at the insurance offices of Tarzan's 11 handi the difference. Knotted at 69 with Asato were Jack Isobe, M. Sugimoto and Jackson Maeshiro.

Bee Flite

El Patio's Joji Shimabukuro was another slender winner, his 82-14—68 manipulating a one-stroke win over Kai Wong of Orange County and Gene Luke of Long Beach in the Bee Flight. George Shibata, picking up the sticks before a "jury" of Cee Flighters, literally ran away and hid from the field with a sizzling 82-19—63. (We're sure to see him in another flight next time). This brought him five strokes ahead of D. Miyata of OC, his clubmate.

Additional bonus prizes were awarded in each flight for closest-to-pin at the 7th hole. Roy Kato, altho not in the top 20 of the Championship Flight, parked his iron shot 7'6" from the hole to garner the prize. Tak Kitaoka was the same distance away to take the Bee Flight competition. Tets Asato was 7'8" away to become a double winner but it remained for the lowly Cee Flight to come up with the closest thing to an ace.

Senior Tournament

Hard-working Bob Uragami reports on the next SCNGA Tournament—the Spring renewal of the fast-growing Senior tourney.

Bob states that no entry blanks are being printed or mailed out (don't want to hurt anyone's feelings). Everyone eligible to participate is hereby notified that the entry fee will be a mere $11.

There will be but two flights this time around. One for those SCNGers 50 years and older; and another for the ancient ones 60 years and up.

Deadline for entry has been set for Sunday, May 1, but I'm sure they won't toss you out if you sneak into John Ty Saito's office on Monday, the second. Since there are no entry blanks, you may enter by mailing your name, club affiliation, handicap and address to Saito at 2421 W. Jefferson blvd., or by calling his office, RE 1-2121.

Long Beach Golf Invitational Next On SCNGA Agenda

Having had to wait two months before the SCNGA tournament schedule got underway, SCNGA members will now go on at least a "one-a-month" basis throughout the remainder of the year.

Next on the agenda will be the Long Beach Invitational at Meadowlark Country Club. The annual medal play tourney is slated for renewal come Sunday, Apr. 17, with entry deadline set for Friday, Apr. 1.

This will mark the first time the LB Invitational will be held at Meadowlark CC. Following on the heels of the Partner Best Ball event at Fox, the tricky course should make it interesting for the first medal play of the year.

Frank Cormaci, host professional at Meadowlark, has lent his assistance to make the estimated prize fund one of the most lucrative and largest ever encountered in an SCNGA tournament.

Entry blanks are now being readied for distribution. If, by chance, you do not receive a blank by next week, you're instructed to contact Fred Ikeguchi, 2050 Santa Fe Avenue in Long Beach. He'll take care of you.

Did we oerlook to mention that Ken Hyosaka of Air Flite won the December (December?) scoring sweepstakes with a 75-11—64 net. Hank Yamagata of Top Flite was a close second with a 73-10—63. Jim Kobayashi, John Uchimiya, both OC, and Hide Higashi, TF, were knotted for third. (What ever happened to January and February?).

Two Tourneys, Senior and Top Flite, Top SCNGA Tournament Schedule for May

Two factors influenced the introduction of the latest tournament to the growing SCNGA schedule . . . the Spring Senior Tournament.

(A) The burgeoning popularity of the Senior tourney since it was first introduced; and (B) Because so many SCNGAers are passing the half-century mark.

The Spring '66 renewal is scheduled to be held at Los Serranos, on the South Course, Sunday, May 15. There will be only two flights, A and B. The former will embrace (?) entrants from 50 to 55 with the Bee flight made up of swingers 56 and over.

And despite the creaking bones of the participants, you are forewarned that the championship (white) tees will be used—meaning the course will stretch 6956 yards.

The $11 entry fee will include a lunch and you'd best hustle your entry to John Ty Saito right away. Official pairings will be released in the Crossroads next Friday.

You might be interested to note that a more than reasonable starting time has been arranged, 9:30 a.m., and electric carts will be made available to each group for 8 bucks.

Top Flite-Top Notch

Top Flite and Top Notch clubs are engaging in an 18-hole tournament of some sort this Sunday. We don't mean to be facetious but inasmuch as the club reps taking care of the shindig want only the names of the players listed, we gotta guess on everything else.

Set to report at Rio Hondo come 5:30 a.m. Sunday are the following TNers:

Don Dono, T. Fujimoto, Doug and Stan Furuta, Kim Hatashita, Al Hatate, Tom Hirano, Sam Hirashima, Clarence Hiura, Jack Horikawa, Don Iwata, Mits Motobo, P. Motobo, H. Nishimura, F. Onishi, K. Osajima, Fred Ota, Jack Ota, Ty Saito, Sats Shigekawa, Steve Takeuchi, S. Tanoue, H. Toyama, Paul Tsukahara, Joe Uematsu, Kyu Yamahata, Dave Hiura.

From Top Flite will be George Aratani, George Endo, Mits Fujimoto, C. Hirata, W. Ige, Dick Izuno, Tarzan Kaneko, B. Katow, M. Motoi, D. Mizukami, George Mizuno, F. Nagai, J. Nakayama, L. Nakayama, B. Nako, M. Narahara, Babe Nomura, J. Saito, K. Shimizu, C. Suzukawa, R. Suzukawa, S. Takeshita, Yas Tatsumi, Al Tengan, Frank Tsuchiya, Lefty Uno, F. Uyematsu, L. Yamamoto, Earl Yusa, B. Uragami, J. Yamamoto, M. Kawaguchi.

A rather cryptic note has been added to our info. I treads "No time for Top Flite members who are not listed. Sorry boys."

Top Flight

Sunday's Top Flite versus Rio Hondo Mens' Club team tournament had a bit of everything. The field of 200 came up with a hole-in-one, a 69 low gross score and a fantastic 124 team total when all was said and done.

The Ace was scored by Richard Nagata of Thunderbird as he played with partner Al Tengan. The 10-handicapper smacked his 5-iron shot dead to the pin at the par 3 9th hole. Bill Fernandes showed his heels to the field as he methodically dissected the Rio Hondo course with a 33-36-69 for the low title.

SCNGAer Mits Fujimoto and RHman George Dapp came up the perfect tandem. Mits, a commercial artist, was one of the few top Fliters matched with a "haole" and he made the most of the pairing.

Fujimoto, a 14 handicapper, and Dapp, a 15, manufactured an unbelievable 124 team total to win $50 merchandise certificates. CR received no hole by hole breakdown, but reports verify they had the team title wrapped up by the time they had hit the 9th hole.

Elmer Randall and Dick Woodward, at 130, were a distant runner-up.

Cliff Suzukawa and Freddie Funakoshi wound up in a tie for third with a 131—respectable in its own right—for $32.50 each. Ben Kobayashi and Nob Kitahara were in the 132 bracket for 5th place.

Another Ace Scored

The SCNGA will have to come up with two $25 awards this month as we've been informed of a hole-in-one out West LA way.

17-handicapper Sam Kishimoto canned an ace April 10 on the 5th hole (105 yards) of the #3 course at Fox Hills. His playing partners were Herb Isono, Ken Tsukiashi and Harry Tashima. Sam wound up with an 89 gross.

Wada with 75 takes low gross in Long Beach golf

LONG BEACH. — Low overcast skies and gusty winds which made the tricky greens at the Meadowlark Country Club course more hazardous than usual failed to deter golfers from posting good scores in the Long Beach Invitational tournament held on Sunday. Cee Flight finished in the dark.

Long ball belting George Wada of So. Calif. Nisei Golf Assn. found the course to his liking and he took low gross honors with a 75. He also tied for first place low net with Tets Bessho of SCNGA who was a stroke behind with a 76. Wally Lee of Long Beach checked in with a gross 76.

Bessho with a net 67 took first place in the Championship Flight competition. Three tied for second with net 68s. They were Wally Lee, Art Mikamo of Long Beach and Ken Osajima of Top Notch.

The winner of the closest to the pin competition in the Championship Flight was Roy Kato with a lie 6'6" away.

Tarzan Kaneko of Top Flite with a net 68 nosed out a quartet of golfers deadlocked with net 69s for first place honors in Aye Flight competition. Tied for second were Tets Asato of SCNGA, J. Isobe of Air Flite, M. Sugimoto of Long Beach and J. Maeshiro of Top Flite.

Winner of the closest to the pin contest in Aye Flight was Tets Asato with a pitch 7'7" away from the pin.

J. Shimabukuro of El Patio with a net 68 nosed out K. Wong of Orange County and G. Luke of Long Beach with net 69s for first place in Bee Flight.

T. Kitaoka won the closest to the pin contest in Bee Flight with his pitch 7' 8¾" away.

George Shibata of Orange County, who was one of those finishing in the dark, posted the lowest net score of the day, a net 63, in taking first place honors in Cee Flight.

F. Mizote of Kyodo won the closest to the pin contest in Cee Flight with a lie 3' 6¼" off.

Long Beach Invitational Lures 200 SCNGA-Men to Meadowlark Tourney

Attempting to retrace previous Long Beach Invitational tournament history and past winners, CR ran into the mystery of what happened last year. Searching through back copies, all we can come up with is the Orange County Invitational—won by Freddie Ikeguchi—but that's about as close to Long Beach as we could come.

So until further investigation turns up the answer to when was the last LB turnament, we can't even pinpoint a defending champion—let alone preview this Sunday's expectations.

Late entries required a little bit of last minute juggling as far as starting times were concerned, according to Fred Ikeguchi. It winds up a fine turnout of 200 swingers set in four classifications—and all in a par-busting frame of mind.

If memory serves correctly, everyone smiles and dry-rubs his hands when Meadowlark CC is discused. They even go so far as to post miniature golf-type scores during practice rounds—but for some reason when the bell rings for competition, the course (or player) tightens up and nothing resembling sub-par wins the tournament.

We'll see this year.

For the benefit of first-timers, instructions are to head south on the San Diego Freeway to Bolsa Chica off-ramp. Go south on Bolsa Chica to Heil street and turn left. East on Heil to Graham which leads smack into Meadowlark CC.

West Los Angeles brought in some information via pony express concerning its recent 18-hole medal play tourney held April 3. Split into two divisions, high and low handicappers, Aki Kishi copped the low handicappers league with a net 66 with Sam Kishimoto garnering top honors among the sandbaggers with a 68. Both winners held slim one stroke margins over the runners-up. The standings:

Low Handicappers

1.	Art Kishi	66
2.	Roy Ito	67
	Ben Hayashida	67
4.	Herb Isono	68
	Mas Okumura	68

High Handicappers

1.	Sam Kishimoto	68
2.	George Sakamoto	69
3.	Ken Tsukiyashi	71

In conjunction with the medal play divisional play, former (Frank Kishi) and current (Roy Ito) WLA Club presidents put up a low net trophy. The winner of the hardware was Art Kishi via his 66.

Yucca Valley

The deal isn't quite completed so we won't delve into particulars at this time—but a local golfer is one of the principals in an eight-man syndicate purchasing the Yucca Valley Country Club down Palm Springs way.

The million dollar package includes a motel complex as well as the existing golf course and club house. Future plans call for the erection of apartment house along the fairways.

It goes without saying that once everything is consumated, inquiries concerning a possible SCNGA sanctioned tournament down there will be more than welcome.

El Patio

Going out with the eggs and the Easter bunnies, the El Patio boys engaged the rolling greens of Rancho San Joaquin for its annual "Easter Egg Hunt" with the lucky holes coming up 3, 10, 12 and 17.

"Winners" finding balls in these holes were Min Harada, "Nip" Fujimoto and Al Keimi, sharing the #3 ball with birdie 2s. Dave Arakaki took all the marbles on 12 with a natural birdie and handicap eagle 3. Sam Hirasawa and Frank Sera were the only ones parring #10 and Hiro Harada did a lonesome act with his handi for the prize booty on #17.

As for the long, drawn-out 36-hole partner best ball tourney, the tandem of Dan Fujimoto and Hiro Harada outlasted their adversaries, winding up 14 under as well as hardly remembering their earlier score. At 13 under (131) were Fumio Kinoshita and Frank Sera. The results:

1. Fujimoto-Harada	68-62—130
2. Kinoshita-Sera	66-65—131
3. Kats Yoshioka-Min Harada	68-64—132

George Wada Returns to Tournament Trail With Win in L.B. Invitational

George Wada, one of the original SCNGA members but somewhat of a stranger recently since dropping out of the venerable Top Notch organization, returned to the tournament wars Sunday honed to perfection as he walked off with the top prize offered at the Long Beach Invitational.

Despite the comparatively easy challenge that is Meadowlark CC, good scores were hard to come by Sunday with the gusty winds turning the mild 18-holes into a monster.

Although not from Texas, Wada played the wind like a veteran rather than vice-versa—and compiled a steady 37-38—75, four over regulation but a sparkling round considering the elements.

Even at that the Associate member had to be on his toes as Tets Bessho (SC) and Wally Lee (LB) were close challengers with 76s. With handicaps, Wada and Bessho wound up in a tie for low net honors at 67 with Bessho getting the trophy and the two splitting the merchandise.

In Aye Flight play, Top Flite's Tarzan Kaneko came up with the big blows when they counted to edge Tets Asato by a stroke—thereby stalling off a double celebration at the insurance offices of Tarzan's 11 handi the difference. Knotted at 69 with Asato were Jack Isobe, M. Sugimoto and Jackson Maeshiro.

Bee Flite

El Patio's Joji Shimabukuro was another slender winner, his 82-14—68 manipulating a one-stroke win over Kai Wong of Orange County and Gene Luke of Long Beach in the Bee Flight. George Shibata, picking up the sticks before a "jury" of Cee Flighters, literally ran away and hid from the field with a sizzling 82-19—63. (We're sure to see him in another flight next time). This brought him five strokes ahead of D. Miyata of OC, his clubmate.

Additional bonus prizes were awarded in each flight for closest-to-pin at the 7th hole. Roy Kato, altho not in the top 20 of the Championship Flight, parked his iron shot 7'6" from the hole to garner the prize. Tak Kitaoka was the same distance away to take the Bee Flight competition. Tets Asato was 7'8" away to become a double winner but it remained for the lowly Cee Flight to come up with the closest thing to an ace.

Kyodo's Frank Mizote, a 10th plate finisher in the 18-hole medal, parked his tee shot a mere 3'6" away.

Coming up next? The Senior Tournament (May 15) and Top Flite Invitational (May 22).

Received a call from Fred Ikeguchi that a sweater was found after the L.B. tournament. Whoever got "hot" and lost the sweater may claim same by calling Freddie at his office.

Senior Tournament

Hard-working Bob Uragami reports on the next SCNGA Tournament—the Spring renewal of the fast-growing Senior tourney.

Bob states that no entry blanks are being printed or mailed out (don't want to hurt anyone's feelings). Everyone eligible to participate is hereby notified that the entry fee will be a mere $11.

There will be but two flights this time around. One for those SCNGers 50 years and older; and another for the ancient ones 60 years and up.

Deadline for entry has been set for Sunday, May 1, but I'm sure they won't toss you out if you sneak into John Ty Saito's office on Monday, the second. Since there are no entry blanks, you may enter by mailing your name, club affiliation, handicap and address to Saito at 2421 W. Jefferson blvd., or by calling his office, RE 1-2121.

Top Flite-Rio Hondo

The annual Top Flite (and friends) versus Rio Hondo Men's Club competition comes up for grabs this Sunday at Rio Hondo.

The pairings and starting times for the local partners is printed in the adjoining column. You'll find out who your best ball opponents are when you check in with the starter.

According to the brief information we have, there will be prizes in excess of $500 distributed as well as innumerable donors popping for merchandise awards. As you'll note, the tandems are primarily Top Flighters, but a large number of friends and guests have been included this year.

Long Beach Golf Invitational Next On SCNGA Agenda

Having had to wait two months before the SCNGA tournament schedule got underway, SCNGA members will now go on at least a "one-a-month" basis throughout the remainder of the year.

Next on the agenda will be the Long Beach Invitational at Meadowlark Country Club. The annual medal play tourney is slated for renewal come Sunday, Apr. 17, with entry deadline set for Friday, Apr. 1.

This will mark the first time the LB Invitational will be held at Meadowlark CC. Following on the heels of the Partner Best Ball event at Fox, the tricky course should make it interesting for the first medal play of the year.

Frank Cormaci, host professional at Meadowlark, has lent his assistance to make the estimated prize fund one of the most lucrative and largest ever encountered in an SCNGA tournament.

Entry blanks are now being readied for distribution. If, by chance, you do not receive a blank by next week, you're instructed to contact Fred Ikeguchi, 2050 Santa Fe Avenue in Long Beach. He'll take care of you.

Did we oerlook to mention that Ken Hyosaka of Air Flite won the December (December?) scoring sweepstakes with a 75-11—64 net. Hank Yamagata of Top Flite was a close second with a 73-10—63. Jim Kobayashi, John Uchimiya, both OC, and Hide Higashi, TF, were knotted for third. (What ever happened to January and February?).

Two Tourneys, Senior and Top Flite, Top SCNGA Tournament Schedule for May

Two factors influenced the introduction of the latest tournament to the growing SCNGA schedule . . . the Spring Senior Tournament.

(A) The burgeoning popularity of the Senior tourney since it was first introduced; and (B) Because so many SCNGAers are passing the half-century mark.

The Spring '66 renewal is scheduled to be held at Los Serranos, on the South Course, Sunday, May 15. There will be only two flights, A and B. The former will embrace (?) entrants from 50 to 55 with the Bee flight made up of swingers 56 and over.

And despite the creaking bones of the participants, you are forewarned that the championship (white) tees will be used—meaning the course will stretch 6956 yards.

The $11 entry fee will include a lunch and you'd best hustle your entry to John Ty Saito right away. Official pairings will be released in the Crossroads next Friday.

You might be interested to note that a more than reasonable starting time has been arranged, 9:30 a.m., and electric carts will be made available to each group for 8 bucks.

Top Flite-Top Notch

Top Flite and Top Notch clubs are engaging in an 18-hole tournament of some sort this Sunday. We don't mean to be facetious but inasmuch as the club reps taking care of the shindig want only the names of the players listed, we gotta guess on everything else.

Set to report at Rio Hondo come 5:30 a.m. Sunday are the following TNers:

Don Dono, T. Fujimoto, Doug and Stan Furuta, Kim Hatashita, Al Hatate, Tom Hirano, Sam Hirashima, Clarence Hiura, Jack Horikawa, Don Iwata, Mits Motobo, P. Motobo, H. Nishimura, F. Onishi, K. Osajima, Fred Ota, Jack Ota, Ty Saito, Sats Shigekawa, Steve Takeuchi, S. Tanoue, H. Toyama, Paul Tsukahara, Joe Uematsu, Kyu Yamahata, Dave Hiura.

From Top Flite will be George Aratani, George Endo, Mits Fujimoto, C. Hirata, W. Ige, Dick Izuno, Tarzan Kaneko, B. Katow, M. Motoi, D. Mizukami, George Mizuno, F. Nagai, J. Nakayama, L. Nakayama, B. Nako, M. Narahara, Babe Nomura, J. Saito, K. Shimizu, C. Suzukawa, R. Suzukawa, S. Takeshita, Yas Tatsumi, Al Tengan, Frank Tsuchiya, Lefty Uno, F. Uyematsu, L. Yamamoto, Earl Yusa, B. Uragami, J. Yamamoto, M. Kawaguchi.

A rather cryptic note has been added to our info. I treads "No time for Top Flite members who are not listed. Sorry boys."

Top Flight

Sunday's Top Flite versus Rio Hondo Mens' Club team tournament had a bit of everything. The field of 200 came up with a hole-in-one, a 69 low gross score and a fantastic 124 team total when all was said and done.

The Ace was scored by Richard Nagata of Thunderbird as he played with partner Al Tengan. The 10-handicapper smacked his 5-iron shot dead to the pin at the par 3 9th hole. Bill Fernandes showed his heels to the field as he methodically dissected the Rio Hondo course with a 33-36-69 for the low title.

SCNGAer Mits Fujimoto and RHman George Dapp came up the perfect tandem. Mits, a commercial artist, was one of the few top Fliters matched with a "haole" and he made the most of the pairing.

Fujimoto, a 14 handicapper, and Dapp, a 15, manufactured an unbelievable 124 team total to win $50 merchandise certificates. CR received no hole by hole breakdown, but reports verify they had the team title wrapped up by the time they had hit the 9th hole.

Elmer Randall and Dick Woodward, at 130, were a distant runner-up.

Cliff Suzukawa and Freddie Funakoshi wound up in a tie for third with a 131—respectable in its own right—for $32.50 each. Ben Kobayashi and Nob Kitahara were in the 132 bracket for 5th place.

Another Ace Scored

The SCNGA will have to come up with two $25 awards this month as we've been informed of a hole-in-one out West LA way.

17-handicapper Sam Kishimoto canned an ace April 10 on the 5th hole (105 yards) of the #3 course at Fox Hills. His playing partners were Herb Isono, Ken Tsukiashi and Harry Tashima. Sam wound up with an 89 gross.

Wada with 75 takes low gross in Long Beach golf

LONG BEACH. — Low overcast skies and gusty winds which made the tricky greens at the Meadowlark Country Club course more hazardous than usual failed to deter golfers from posting good scores in the Long Beach Invitational tournament held on Sunday. Cee Flight finished in the dark.

Long ball belting George Wada of So. Calif. Nisei Golf Assn. found the course to his liking and he took low gross honors with a 75. He also tied for first place low net with Tets Bessho of SCNGA who was a stroke behind with a 76. Wally Lee of Long Beach checked in with a gross 76.

Bessho with a net 67 took first place in the Championship Flight competition. Three tied for second with net 68s. They were Wally Lee, Art Mikamo of Long Beach and Ken Osajima of Top Notch.

The winner of the closest to the pin competition in the Championship Flight was Roy Kato with a lie 6'6" away.

Tarzan Kaneko of Top Flite with a net 68 nosed out a quartet of golfers deadlocked with net 69s for first place honors in Aye Flight competition. Tied for second were Tets Asato of SCNGA, J. Isobe of Air Flite, M. Sugimoto of Long Beach and J. Maeshiro of Top Flite.

Winner of the closest to the pin contest in Aye Flight was Tets Asato with a pitch 7'7" away from the pin.

J. Shimabukuro of El Patio with a net 68 nosed out K. Wong of Orange County and G. Luke of Long Beach with net 69s for first place in Bee Flight.

T. Kitaoka won the closest to the pin contest in Bee Flight with his pitch 7' 8¾" away.

George Shibata of Orange County, who was one of those finishing in the dark, posted the lowest net score of the day, a net 63, in taking first place honors in Cee Flight.

F. Mizote of Kyodo won the closest to the pin contest in Cee Flight with a lie 3' 6¼" off.

George Wada Returns to Tournament Trail With Win in L.B. Invitational

George Wada, one of the original SCNGA members but somewhat of a stranger recently since dropping out of the venerable Top Notch organization, returned to the tournament wars Sunday honed to perfection as he walked off with the top prize offered at the Long Beach Invitational.

Despite the comparatively easy challenge that is Meadowlark CC, good scores were hard to come by Sunday with the gusty winds turning the mild 18-holes into a monster.

Although not from Texas, Wada played the wind like a veteran rather than vice-versa—and compiled a steady 37-38—75, four over regulation but a sparkling round considering the elements.

Even at that the Associate member had to be on his toes as Tets Bessho (SC) and Wally Lee (LB) were close challengers with 76s. With handicaps, Wada and Bessho wound up in a tie for low net honors at 67 with Bessho getting the trophy and the two splitting the merchandise.

In Aye Flight play, Top Flite's Tarzan Kaneko came up with the big blows when they counted to edge Tets Asato by a stroke—thereby stalling off a double celebration at the insurance offices of Tarzan's 11 handi the difference. Knotted at 69 with Asato were Jack Isobe, M. Sugimoto and Jackson Maeshiro.

Bee Flite

El Patio's Joji Shimabukuro was another slender winner, his 82-14—68 manipulating a one-stroke win over Kai Wong of Orange County and Gene Luke of Long Beach in the Bee Flight. George Shibata, picking up the sticks before a "jury" of Cee Flighters, literally ran away and hid from the field with a sizzling 82-19—63. (We're sure to see him in another flight next time). This brought him five strokes ahead of D. Miyata of OC, his clubmate.

Additional bonus prizes were awarded in each flight for closest-to-pin at the 7th hole. Roy Kato, altho not in the top 20 of the Championship Flight, parked his iron shot 7'6" from the hole to garner the prize. Tak Kitaoka was the same distance away to take the Bee Flight competition. Tets Asato was 7'8" away to become a double winner but it remained for the lowly Cee Flight to come up with the closest thing to an ace.

Kyodo's Frank Mizote, a 10th plate finisher in the 18-hole medal, parked his tee shot a mere 3'6" away.

Coming up next? The Senior Tournament (May 15) and Top Flite Invitational (May 22).

Received a call from Fred Ikeguchi that a sweater was found after the L.B. tournament. Whoever got "hot" and lost the sweater may claim same by calling Freddie at his office.

Senior Tournament

ard-working Bob Uragami reports on the next SCNGA Tournament—the Spring renewal of the fast-growing Senior tourney.

Bob states that no entry blanks are being printed or mailed out (don't want to hurt anyone's feelings). Everyone eligible to participate is hereby notified that the entry fee will be a mere $11.

There will be but two flights this time around. One for those SCNGers 50 years and older; and another for the ancient ones 60 years and up.

Deadline for entry has been set for Sunday, May 1, but I'm sure they won't toss you out if you sneak into John Ty Saito's office on Monday, the second. Since there are no entry blanks, you may enter by mailing your name, club affiliation, handicap and address to Saito at 2421 W. Jefferson blvd., or by calling his office, RE 1-2121.

Top Flite-Rio Hondo

The annual Top Flite (and friends) versus Rio Hondo Men's Club competition comes up for grabs this Sunday at Rio Hondo.

The pairings and starting times for the local partners is printed in the adjoining column. You'll find out who your best ball opponents are when you check in with the starter.

According to the brief information we have, there will be prizes in excess of $500 distributed as well as innumerable donors popping for merchandise awards. As you'll note, the tandems are primarily Top Flighters, but a large number of friends and guests have been included this year.

Long Beach Golf Invitational Next On SCNGA Agenda

Having had to wait two months before the SCNGA tournament schedule got underway, SCNGA members will now go on at least a "one-a-month" basis throughout the remainder of the year.

Next on the agenda will be the Long Beach Invitational at Meadowlark Country Club. The annual medal play tourney is slated for renewal come Sunday, Apr. 17, with entry deadline set for Friday, Apr. 1.

This will mark the first time the LB Invitational will be held at Meadowlark CC. Following on the heels of the Partner Best Ball event at Fox, the tricky course should make it interesting for the first medal play of the year.

Frank Cormaci, host professional at Meadowlark, has lent his assistance to make the estimated prize fund one of the most lucrative and largest ever encountered in an SCNGA tournament.

Entry blanks are now being readied for distribution. If, by chance, you do not receive a blank by next week, you're instructed to contact Fred Ikeguchi, 2050 Santa Fe Avenue in Long Beach. He'll take care of you.

Did we oerlook to mention that Ken Hyosaka of Air Flite won the December (December?) scoring sweepstakes with a 75-11—64 net. Hank Yamagata of Top Flite was a close second with a 73-10—63. Jim Kobayashi, John Uchimiya, both OC, and Hide Higashi, TF, were knotted for third. (What ever happened to January and February?).

Two Tourneys, Senior and Top Flite, Top SCNGA Tournament Schedule for May

Two factors influenced the introduction of the latest tournament to the growing SCNGA schedule . . . the Spring Senior Tournament.

(A) The burgeoning popularity of the Senior tourney since it was first introduced; and (B) Because so many SCNGAers are passing the half-century mark.

The Spring '66 renewal is scheduled to be held at Los Serranos, on the South Course, Sunday, May 15. There will be only two flights, A and B. The former will embrace (?) entrants from 50 to 55 with the Bee flight made up of swingers 56 and over.

And despite the creaking bones of the participants, you are forewarned that the championship (white) tees will be used—meaning the course will stretch 6956 yards.

The $11 entry fee will include a lunch and you'd best hustle your entry to John Ty Saito right away. Official pairings will be released in the Crossroads next Friday.

You might be interested to note that a more than reasonable starting time has been arranged, 9:30 a.m., and electric carts will be made available to each group for 8 bucks.

Top Flite-Top Notch

Top Flite and Top Notch clubs are engaging in an 18-hole tournament of some sort this Sunday. We don't mean to be facetious but inasmuch as the club reps taking care of the shindig want only the names of the players listed, we gotta guess on everything else.

Set to report at Rio Hondo come 5:30 a.m. Sunday are the following TNers:

Don Dono, T. Fujimoto, Doug and Stan Furuta, Kim Hatashita, Al Hatate, Tom Hirano, Sam Hirashima, Clarence Hiura, Jack Horikawa, Don Iwata, Mits Motobo, P. Motobo, H. Nishimura, F. Onishi, K. Osajima, Fred Ota, Jack Ota, Ty Saito, Sats Shigekawa, Steve Takeuchi, S. Tanoue, H. Toyama, Paul Tsukahara, Joe Uematsu, Kyu Yamahata, Dave Hiura.

From Top Flite will be George Aratani, George Endo, Mits Fujimoto, C. Hirata, W. Ige, Dick Izuno, Tarzan Kaneko, B. Katow, M. Motoi, D. Mizukami, George Mizuno, F. Nagai, J. Nakayama, L. Nakayama, B. Nako, M. Narahara, Babe Nomura, J. Saito, K. Shimizu, C. Suzukawa, R. Suzukawa, S. Takeshita, Yas Tatsumi, Al Tengan, Frank Tsuchiya, Lefty Uno, F. Uyematsu, L. Yamamoto, Earl Yusa, B. Uragami, J. Yamamoto, M. Kawaguchi.

A rather cryptic note has been added to our info. I treads "No time for Top Flite members who are not listed. Sorry boys."

Top Flight

Sunday's Top Flite versus Rio Hondo Mens' Club team tournament had a bit of everything. The field of 200 came up with a hole-in-one, a 69 low gross score and a fantastic 124 team total when all was said and done.

The Ace was scored by Richard Nagata of Thunderbird as he played with partner Al Tengan. The 10-handicapper smacked his 5-iron shot dead to the pin at the par 3 9th hole. Bill Fernandes showed his heels to the field as he methodically dissected the Rio Hondo course with a 33-36-69 for the low title.

SCNGAer Mits Fujimoto and RHman George Dapp came up the perfect tandem. Mits, a commercial artist, was one of the few top Fliters matched with a "haole" and he made the most of the pairing.

Fujimoto, a 14 handicapper, and Dapp, a 15, manufactured an unbelievable 124 team total to win $50 merchandise certificates. CR received no hole by hole breakdown, but reports verify they had the team title wrapped up by the time they had hit the 9th hole.

Elmer Randall and Dick Woodward, at 130, were a distant runner-up.

Cliff Suzukawa and Freddie Funakoshi wound up in a tie for third with a 131—respectable in its own right—for $32.50 each. Ben Kobayashi and Nob Kitahara were in the 132 bracket for 5th place.

Another Ace Scored

The SCNGA will have to come up with two $25 awards this month as we've been informed of a hole-in-one out West LA way.

17-handicapper Sam Kishimoto canned an ace April 10 on the 5th hole (105 yards) of the #3 course at Fox Hills. His playing partners were Herb Isono, Ken Tsukiashi and Harry Tashima. Sam wound up with an 89 gross.

Wada with 75 takes low gross in Long Beach golf

LONG BEACH. — Low overcast skies and gusty winds which made the tricky greens at the Meadowlark Country Club course more hazardous than usual failed to deter golfers from posting good scores in the Long Beach Invitational tournament held on Sunday. Cee Flight finished in the dark.

Long ball belting George Wada of So. Calif. Nisei Golf Assn. found the course to his liking and he took low gross honors with a 75. He also tied for first place low net with Tets Bessho of SCNGA who was a stroke behind with a 76. Wally Lee of Long Beach checked in with a gross 76.

Bessho with a net 67 took first place in the Championship Flight competition. Three tied for second with net 68s. They were Wally Lee, Art Mikamo of Long Beach and Ken Osajima of Top Notch.

The winner of the closest to the pin competition in the Championship Flight was Roy Kato with a lie 6'6" away.

Tarzan Kaneko of Top Flite with a net 68 nosed out a quartet of golfers deadlocked with net 69s for first place honors in Aye Flight competition. Tied for second were Tets Asato of SCNGA, J. Isobe of Air Flite, M. Sugimoto of Long Beach and J. Maeshiro of Top Flite.

Winner of the closest to the pin contest in Aye Flight was Tets Asato with a pitch 7'7" away from the pin.

J. Shimabukuro of El Patio with a net 68 nosed out K. Wong of Orange County and G. Luke of Long Beach with net 69s for first place in Bee Flight.

T. Kitaoka won the closest to the pin contest in Bee Flight with his pitch 7' 8¾" away.

George Shibata of Orange County, who was one of those finishing in the dark, posted the lowest net score of the day, a net 63, in taking first place honors in Cee Flight.

F. Mizote of Kyodo won the closest to the pin contest in Cee Flight with a lie 3' 6¼" off.

Long Beach Invitational Lures 200 SCNGA-Men to Meadowlark Tourney

Attempting to retrace previous Long Beach Invitational tournament history and past winners, CR ran into the mystery of what happened last year. Searching through back copies, all we can come up with is the Orange County Invitational—won by Freddie Ikeguchi—but that's about as close to Long Beach as we could come.

So until further investigation turns up the answer to when was the last LB turnament, we can't even pinpoint a defending champion—let alone preview this Sunday's expectations.

Late entries required a little bit

3. Ken Tsukiyashi	71

In conjunction with the medal play divisional play, former (Frank Kishi) and current (Roy Ito) WLA Club presidents put up a low net trophy. The winner of the hardware was Art Kishi via his 66.

George Wada Returns to Tournament Trail With Win in L.B. Invitational

George Wada, one of the original SCNGA members but somewhat of a stranger recently since dropping out of the venerable Top Notch organization, returned to the tournament wars Sunday honed to perfection as he walked off with the top prize offered at the Long Beach Invitational.

Despite the comparatively easy challenge that is Meadowlark CC, good scores were hard to come by Sunday with the gusty winds turning the mild 18-holes into a monster.

Although not from Texas, Wada played the wind like a veteran rather than vice-versa—and compiled a steady 37-38—75, four over regulation but a sparkling round considering the elements.

Even at that the Associate member had to be on his toes as Tets Bessho (SC) and Wally Lee (LB) were close challengers with 76s. With handicaps, Wada and Bessho wound up in a tie for low net honors at 67 with Bessho getting the trophy and the two splitting the merchandise.

In Aye Flight play, Top Flite's Tarzan Kaneko came up with the big blows when they counted to edge Tets Asato by a stroke—thereby stalling off a double celebration at the insurance offices of Tarzan's 11 handi the difference. Knotted at 69 with Asato were Jack Isobe, M. Sugimoto and Jackson Maeshiro.

Bee Flite

El Patio's Joji Shimabukuro was another slender winner, his 82-14—68 manipulating a one-stroke win over Kai Wong of Orange County and Gene Luke of Long Beach in the Bee Flight. George Shibata, picking up the sticks before a "jury" of Cee Flighters, literally ran away and hid from the field with a sizzling 82-19—63. (We're sure to see him in another flight next time). This brought him five strokes ahead of D. Miyata of OC, his clubmate.

Additional bonus prizes were awarded in each flight for closest-to-pin at the 7th hole. Roy Kato, altho not in the top 20 of the Championship Flight, parked his iron shot 7'6" from the hole to garner the prize. Tak Kitaoka was the same distance away to take the Bee Flight competition. Tets Asato was 7'8" away to become a double winner but it remained for the lowly Cee Flight to come up with the closest thing to an ace.

Senior Tournament

Hard-working Bob Uragami reports on the next SCNGA Tournament—the Spring renewal of the fast-growing Senior tourney.

Bob states that no entry blanks are being printed or mailed out (don't want to hurt anyone's feelings). Everyone eligible to participate is hereby notified that the entry fee will be a mere $11.

There will be but two flights this time around. One for those SCNGers 50 years and older; and another for the ancient ones 60 years and up.

Deadline for entry has been set for Sunday, May 1, but I'm sure they won't toss you out if you sneak into John Ty Saito's office on Monday, the second. Since there are no entry blanks, you may enter by mailing your name, club affiliation, handicap and address to Saito at 2421 W. Jefferson blvd., or by calling his office, RE 1-2121.

Long Beach Golf Invitational Next On SCNGA Agenda

Having had to wait two months before the SCNGA tournament schedule got underway, SCNGA members will now go on at least a "one-a-month" basis throughout the remainder of the year.

Next on the agenda will be the Long Beach Invitational at Meadowlark Country Club. The annual medal play tourney is slated for renewal come Sunday, Apr. 17, with entry deadline set for Friday, Apr. 1.

This will mark the first time the LB Invitational will be held at Meadowlark CC. Following on the heels of the Partner Best Ball event at Fox, the tricky course should make it interesting for the first medal play of the year.

Frank Cormaci, host professional at Meadowlark, has lent his assistance to make the estimated prize fund one of the most lucrative and largest ever encountered in an SCNGA tournament.

Entry blanks are now being readied for distribution. If, by chance, you do not receive a blank by next week, you're instructed to contact Fred Ikeguchi, 2050 Santa Fe Avenue in Long Beach. He'll take care of you.

Did we oerlook to mention that Ken Hyosaka of Air Flite won the December (December?) scoring sweepstakes with a 75-11—64 net. Hank Yamagata of Top Flite was a close second with a 73-10—63. Jim Kobayashi, John Uchimiya, both OC, and Hide Higashi, TF, were knotted for third. (What ever happened to January and February?).

Two Tourneys, Senior and Top Flite, Top SCNGA Tournament Schedule for May

Two factors influenced the introduction of the latest tournament to the growing SCNGA schedule . . . the Spring Senior Tournament. (A) The burgeoning popularity of the Senior tourney since it was first introduced; and (B) Because so many SCNGAers are passing the half-century mark.

The Spring '66 renewal is scheduled to be held at Los Serranos, on the South Course, Sunday, May 15. There will be only two flights, A and B. The former will embrace (?) entrants from 50 to 55 with the Bee flight made up of swingers 56 and over.

And despite the creaking bones of the participants, you are forewarned that the championship (white) tees will be used—meaning the course will stretch 6956 yards.

The $11 entry fee will include a lunch and you'd best hustle your entry to John Ty Saito right away. Official pairings will be released in the Crossroads next Friday.

You might be interested to note that a more than reasonable starting time has been arranged, 9:30 a.m., and electric carts will be made available to each group for 8 bucks.

Top Flite-Top Notch

Top Flite and Top Notch clubs are engaging in an 18-hole tournament of some sort this Sunday. We don't mean to be facetious but inasmuch as the club reps taking care of the shindig want only the names of the players listed, we gotta guess on everything else.

Set to report at Rio Hondo come 5:30 a.m. Sunday are the following TNers:

Don Dono, T. Fujimoto, Doug and Stan Furuta, Kim Hatashita, Al Hatate, Tom Hirano, Sam Hirashima, Clarence Hiura, Jack Horikawa, Don Iwata, Mits Motobo, P. Motobo, H. Nishimura, F. Onishi, K. Osajima, Fred Ota, Jack Ota, Ty Saito, Sats Shigekawa, Steve Takeuchi, S. Tanoue, H. Toyama, Paul Tsukahara, Joe Uematsu, Kyu Yamahata, Dave Hiura.

From Top Flite will be George Aratani, George Endo, Mits Fujimoto, C. Hirata, W. Ige, Dick Izuno, Tarzan Kaneko, B. Katow, M. Motoi, D. Mizukami, George Mizuno, F. Nagai, J. Nakayama, L. Nakayama, B. Nako, M. Narahara, Babe Nomura, J. Saito, K. Shimizu, C. Suzukawa, R. Suzukawa, S. Takeshita, Yas Tatsumi, Al Tengan, Frank Tsuchiya, Lefty Uno, F. Uyematsu, L. Yamamoto, Earl Yusa, B. Uragami, J. Yamamoto, M. Kawaguchi.

A rather cryptic note has been added to our info. I treads "No time for Top Flite members who are not listed. Sorry boys."

Top Flight

Sunday's Top Flite versus Rio Hondo Mens' Club team tournament had a bit of everything. The field of 200 came up with a hole-in-one, a 69 low gross score and a fantastic 124 team total when all was said and done.

The Ace was scored by Richard Nagata of Thunderbird as he played with partner Al Tengan. The 10-handicapper smacked his 5-iron shot dead to the pin at the par 3 9th hole. Bill Fernandes showed his heels to the field as he methodically dissected the Rio Hondo course with a 33-36-69 for the low title.

SCNGAer Mits Fujimoto and RHman George Dapp came up the perfect tandem. Mits, a commercial artist, was one of the few top Fliters matched with a "haole" and he made the most of the pairing.

Fujimoto, a 14 handicapper, and Dapp, a 15, manufactured an unbelievable 124 team total to win $50 merchandise certificates. CR received no hole by hole breakdown, but reports verify they had the team title wrapped up by the time they had hit the 9th hole.

Elmer Randall and Dick Woodward, at 130, were a distant runner-up.

Cliff Suzukawa and Freddie Funakoshi wound up in a tie for third with a 131—respectable in its own right—for $32.50 each. Ben Kobayashi and Nob Kitahara were in the 132 bracket for 5th place.

Another Ace Scored

The SCNGA will have to come up with two $25 awards this month as we've been informed of a hole-in-one out West LA way.

17-handicapper Sam Kishimoto canned an ace April 10 on the 5th hole (105 yards) of the #3 course at Fox Hills. His playing partners were Herb Isono, Ken Tsukiashi and Harry Tashima. Sam wound up with an 89 gross.

Wada with 75 takes low gross in Long Beach golf

LONG BEACH. — Low overcast skies and gusty winds which made the tricky greens at the Meadowlark Country Club course more hazardous than usual failed to deter golfers from posting good scores in the Long Beach Invitational tournament held on Sunday. Cee Flight finished in the dark.

Long ball belting George Wada of So. Calif. Nisei Golf Assn. found the course to his liking and he took low gross honors with a 75. He also tied for first place low net with Tets Bessho of SCNGA who was a stroke behind with a 76. Wally Lee of Long Beach checked in with a gross 76.

Bessho with a net 67 took first place in the Championship Flight competition. Three tied for second with net 68s. They were Wally Lee, Art Mikamo of Long Beach and Ken Osajima of Top Notch.

The winner of the closest to the pin competition in the Championship Flight was Roy Kato with a lie 6'6" away.

Tarzan Kaneko of Top Flite with a net 68 nosed out a quartet of golfers deadlocked with net 69s for first place honors in Aye Flight competition. Tied for second were Tets Asato of SCNGA, J. Isobe of Air Flite, M. Sugimoto of Long Beach and J. Maeshiro of Top Flite.

Winner of the closest to the pin contest in Aye Flight was Tets Asato with a pitch 7'7" away from the pin.

J. Shimabukuro of El Patio with a net 68 nosed out K. Wong of Orange County and G. Luke of Long Beach with net 69s for first place in Bee Flight.

T. Kitaoka won the closest to the pin contest in Bee Flight with his pitch 7' 8¾" away.

George Shibata of Orange County, who was one of those finishing in the dark, posted the lowest net score of the day, a net 63, in taking first place honors in Cee Flight.

F. Mizote of Kyodo won the closest to the pin contest in Cee Flight with a lie 3' 6¼" off.

Long Beach Invitational Lures 200 SCNGA-Men to Meadowlark Tourney

Attempting to retrace previous Long Beach Invitational tournament history and past winners, CR ran into the mystery of what happened last year. Searching through back copies, all we can come up with is the Orange County Invitational—won by Freddie Ikeguchi—but that's about as close to Long Beach as we could come.

So until further investigation turns up the answer to when was the last LB turnament, we can't even pinpoint a defending champion—let alone preview this Sunday's expectations.

Late entries required a little bit

2. George Sakamoto 69
3. Ken Tsukiyashi 71

In conjunction with the medal play divisional play, former (Frank Kishi) and current (Roy Ito) WLA Club presidents put up a low net trophy. The winner of the hardware was Art Kishi via his 66.

George Wada Returns to Tournament Trail With Win in L.B. Invitational

George Wada, one of the original SCNGA members but somewhat of a stranger recently since dropping out of the venerable Top Notch organization, returned to the tournament wars Sunday honed to perfection as he walked off with the top prize offered at the Long Beach Invitational.

Despite the comparatively easy challenge that is Meadowlark CC, good scores were hard to come by Sunday with the gusty winds turning the mild 18-holes into a monster.

Although not from Texas, Wada played the wind like a veteran rather than vice-versa—and compiled a steady 37-38—75, four over regulation but a sparkling round considering the elements.

Even at that the Associate member had to be on his toes as Tets Bessho (SC) and Wally Lee (LB) were close challengers with 76s. With handicaps, Wada and Bessho wound up in a tie for low net honors at 67 with Bessho getting the trophy and the two splitting the merchandise.

In Aye Flight play, Top Flite's Tarzan Kaneko came up with the big blows when they counted to edge Tets Asato by a stroke—thereby stalling off a double celebration at the insurance offices of Tarzan's 11 handi the difference. Knotted at 69 with Asato were Jack Isobe, M. Sugimoto and Jackson Maeshiro.

Bee Flite

El Patio's Joji Shimabukuro was another slender winner, his 82-14—68 manipulating a one-stroke win over Kai Wong of Orange County and Gene Luke of Long Beach in the Bee Flight. George Shibata, picking up the sticks before a "jury" of Cee Flighters, literally ran away and hid from the field with a sizzling 82-19—63. (We're sure to see him in another flight next time). This brought him five strokes ahead of D. Miyata of OC, his clubmate.

Additional bonus prizes were awarded in each flight for closest-to-pin at the 7th hole. Roy Kato, altho not in the top 20 of the Championship Flight, parked his iron shot 7'6" from the hole to garner the prize. Tak Kitaoka was the same distance away to take the Bee Flight competition. Tets Asato was 7'8" away to become a double winner but it remained for the lowly Cee Flight to come up with the closest thing to an ace.

Senior Tournament

Hard-working Bob Uragami reports on the next SCNGA Tournament—the Spring renewal of the fast-growing Senior tourney.

Bob states that no entry blanks are being printed or mailed out (don't want to hurt anyone's feelings). Everyone eligible to participate is hereby notified that the entry fee will be a mere $11.

There will be but two flights this time around. One for those SCNGers 50 years and older; and another for the ancient ones 60 years and up.

Deadline for entry has been set for Sunday, May 1, but I'm sure they won't toss you out if you sneak into John Ty Saito's office on Monday, the second. Since there are no entry blanks, you may enter by mailing your name, club affiliation, handicap and address to Saito at 2421 W. Jefferson blvd., or by calling his office, RE 1-2121.

Long Beach Golf Invitational Next On SCNGA Agenda

Having had to wait two months before the SCNGA tournament schedule got underway, SCNGA members will now go on at least a "one-a-month" basis throughout the remainder of the year.

Next on the agenda will be the Long Beach Invitational at Meadowlark Country Club. The annual medal play tourney is slated for renewal come Sunday, Apr. 17, with entry deadline set for Friday, Apr. 1.

This will mark the first time the LB Invitational will be held at Meadowlark CC. Following on the heels of the Partner Best Ball event at Fox, the tricky course should make it interesting for the first medal play of the year.

Frank Cormaci, host professional at Meadowlark, has lent his assistance to make the estimated prize fund one of the most lucrative and largest ever encountered in an SCNGA tournament.

Entry blanks are now being readied for distribution. If, by chance, you do not receive a blank by next week, you're instructed to contact Fred Ikeguchi, 2050 Santa Fe Avenue in Long Beach. He'll take care of you.

Did we oerlook to mention that Ken Hyosaka of Air Flite won the December (December?) scoring sweepstakes with a 75-11—64 net. Hank Yamagata of Top Flite was a close second with a 73-10—63. Jim Kobayashi, John Uchimiya, both OC, and Hide Higashi, TF, were knotted for third. (What ever happened to January and February?).

Wada with 75 takes low gross in Long Beach golf

4/18/66

LONG BEACH. — Low overcast skies and gusty winds which made the tricky greens at the Meadowlark Country Club course more hazardous than usual failed to deter golfers from posting good scores in the Long Beach Invitational tournament held on Sunday. Cee Flight finished in the dark.

Long ball belting George Wada of So. Calif. Nisei Golf Assn. found the course to his liking and he took low gross honors with a 75. He also tied for first place low net with Tets Bessho of SCNGA who was a stroke behind with a 76. Wally Lee of Long Beach checked in with a gross 76.

Bessho with a net 67 took first place in the Championship Flight competition. Three tied for second with net 68s. They were Wally Lee, Art Mikamo of Long Beach and Ken Osajima of Top Notch.

The winner of the closest to the pin competition in the Championship Flight was Roy Kato with a lie 6'6" away.

Tarzan Kaneko of Top Flite with a net 68 nosed out a quartet of golfers deadlocked with net 69s for first place honors in Aye Flight competition. Tied for second were Tets Asato of SCNGA, J. Isobe of Air Flite, M. Sugimoto of Long Beach and J. Maeshiro of Top Flite.

Winner of the closest to the pin contest in Aye Flight was Tets Asato with a pitch 7'7" away from the pin.

J. Shimabukuro of El Patio with a net 68 nosed out K. Wong of Orange County and G. Luke of Long Beach with net 69s for first place in Bee Flight.

T. Kitaoka won the closest to the pin contest in Bee Flight with his pitch 7' 8¾" away.

George Shibata of Orange County, who was one of those finishing in the dark, posted the lowest net score of the day, a net 63, in taking first place honors in Cee Flight.

F. Mizote of Kyodo won the closest to the pin contest in Cee Flight with a lie 3' 6¼" off.

TO: ALL MEMBERS OF THE SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA NISEI GOLF ASSOCIATION

SUBJECT: GOLF TOUR TO JAPAN

A meeting of representatives of the Southern California Nisei Golf Association to discuss the agenda of our forthcoming golf tour to Japan was held on April 26.

Despite our earnest attempts to solicit a maximum number of participants for a chartered flight, it is with regret that we must inform you of our decision to cancel the charter due to insufficient number of applications. We shall however, go ahead with our plans for a tour. There will be minor changes and a slight increase in cost, but otherwise, essentially the same.

For all those desirous of participating in the 21 day package land tour under this new arrangement, the total cost will be increased from the current $800.00 to $900.00. For other members who are merely interested in the round trip transportation, the cost will now be $705.00. No change will be made in our departure date from our original schedule: October 1, 1966, with an option now to travel a few days prior to, or after this scheduled departure date. As for the return, it was unanimously agreed that October 23, 1966, will be the most desirable date. This return date is one which we must all keep since we are planning on a group travel program.

JAPAN GOLF TOUR

TO: ALL MEMBERS OF SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA NISEI GOLF ASSOCIATION

SUBJECT: GOLF TOUR TO JAPAN

Pursuant to our initial announcement of plans for organizing among members and their families a golf tour to Japan this fall, your committee is pleased to report to you further as follows:

The departure date has been set for October 1st, 1966, via a Japan Air Lines chartered jet plane.

Although our previous plan called for everyone to return from Japan together on one designated flight, plans are now being negotiated to have three separate departures from Japan. Three groups will be organized to leave on the 21st, 30th, and 45th days respectively following arrival in Japan.

Participants will be given the option of any of these three flights, but no group should number less than 25 tour members. This is due to the application of a specially discounted group fare which is provided for organized groups numbering 25 or more persons. Those desiring to return by themselves will be required to pay additionally a difference of $130.00 between this special fare and the normal fare.

The total tour package of $800.00 per person will remain unchanged under this new arrangement. For those who do not wish to join the 21 day land tour in Japan but desire to avail themselves of the air transportation portion only, the cost will be $540.00 each.

The exact dates of the aforementioned three return flights will be made known to you as soon as they can be confirmed to us by the airlines.

TO: ALL MEMBERS OF THE SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA NISEI GOLF ASSOCIATION

SUBJECT: GOLF TOUR TO JAPAN

A meeting of representatives of the Southern California Nisei Golf Association to discuss the agenda of our forthcoming golf tour to Japan was held on April 26.

Despite our earnest attempts to solicit a maximum number of participants for a chartered flight, it is with regret that we must inform you of our decision to cancel the charter due to insufficient number of applications. We shall however, go ahead with our plans for a tour. There will be minor changes and a slight increase in cost, but otherwise, essentially the same.

For all those desirous of participating in the 21 day package land tour under this new arrangement, the total cost will be increased from the current $800.00 to $900.00. For other members who are merely interested in the round trip transportation, the cost will now be $705.00. No change will be made in our departure date from our original schedule: October 1, 1966, with an option now to travel a few days prior to, or after this scheduled departure date. As for the return, it was unanimously agreed that October 23, 1966, will be the most desirable date. This return date is one which we must all keep since we are planning on a group travel program.

(8) that tickets for all members of the Travel Group are issued, and full payment therefor is made to the issuing Carrier, by the Travel Agent or by the Travel Organizer not less than 21 days prior to flight departure.

Similar arrangements for transportation may be made for other members of the Travel Group who belong to the immediate family of such passenger.

(11) that in any of the circumstances described in Sub-paragraphs (10) (a), (b), (c) and (d) above the remaining members of the Travel Group, regardless of their number shall commence or continue, as the case may be, with the itinerary as originally described in the application, subject to all other conditions herein stated.

JAPAN GOLF TOUR

TO: ALL MEMBERS OF THE SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA NISEI GOLF ASSOCIATION

SUBJECT: GOLF TOUR TO JAPAN

A meeting of representatives of the Southern California Nisei Golf Association to discuss the agenda of our forthcoming golf tour to Japan was held on April 26.

Despite our earnest attempts to solicit a maximum number of participants for a chartered flight, it is with regret that we must inform you of our decision to cancel the charter due to insufficient number of applications. We shall however, go ahead with our plans for a tour. There will be minor changes and a slight increase in cost, but otherwise, essentially the same.

For all those desirous of participating in the 21 day package land tour under this new arrangement, the total cost will be increased from the current $800.00 to $900.00. For other members who are merely interested in the round trip transportation, the cost will now be $705.00. No change will be made in our departure date from our original schedule: October 1, 1966, with an option now to travel a few days prior to, or after this scheduled departure date. As for the return, it was unanimously agreed that October 23, 1966, will be the most desirable date. This return date is one which we must all keep since we are planning on a group travel program.

TO: ALL MEMBERS OF THE SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA NISEI GOLF ASSOCIATION

SUBJECT: GOLF TOUR TO JAPAN

A meeting of representatives of the Southern California Nisei Golf Association to discuss the agenda of our forthcoming golf tour to Japan was held on April 26.

Despite our earnest attempts to solicit a maximum number of participants for a chartered flight, it is with regret that we must inform you of our decision to cancel the charter due to insufficient number of applications. We shall however, go ahead with our plans for a tour. There will be minor changes and a slight increase in cost, but otherwise, essentially the same.

For all those desirous of participating in the 21 day package land tour under this new arrangement, the total cost will be increased from the current $800.00 to $900.00. For other members who are merely interested in the round trip transportation, the cost will now be $705.00. No change will be made in our departure date from our original schedule: October 1, 1966, with an option now to travel a few days prior to, or after this scheduled departure date. As for the return, it was unanimously agreed that October 23, 1966, will be the most desirable date. This return date is one which we must all keep since we are planning on a group travel program.

Senior Tourney Expects Full Field; Top Flite Invitational Entries Out

Deadlines loom all over the joint this week as the Senior's Spring Edition and the 1966 (6th) Top Flite Invitational pop onto the SCNGA tournament scene this month.

First things first . . .

The Senior Tournament, slated for a May 15 tee-off, experienced a little difficulty this week because of late (late) entries. It seems the SCNGA membership is getting kinda spoiled— and unless they receive individual, personal invites via mailed entry blanks— it takes one helluva time to get people to enter by telephone.

Such being the case, Bob Uragami and John Ty Saito are still fiddling around with the foursomes and starting times. To date (Wednesday), 63 have entered the Spring renewal with the expected field of 72 ready for scheduling within the next few days.

Crossroads will have the official lineups next Friday—but if there are any Seniors who might want to know the pairings before that date — you can call either Uragami, Saito or Crossroads. The latter service to be handled by calling MA 3-1213.

Those of you wanting to have a practice round or two at Los Serranos, scene of the tournament, following are directions on how to get there:

Head south on San Bernardino Freeway to the Holt avenue cutoff. Traveling west for two miles (and staying in the right lanes), take Highway 71 (which is the Corona Freeway) for an additional 8 miles, getting off at Los Serranos Avenue. Turn right (north) and the street leads you right smack into the golf course.

Uragami adds that trophies will be awarded to low net winners in both the two divisions with plenty of merchandise prizes to be distributed to the other winners.

Entry blanks for the May 22 Top Flite Invitational Tournament were mailed out this week (thanks to a consciencious "volunteer" at the Crossroads office).

The Sixth annual renewal, 18-hole medal play, has an entry deadline of Monday, May 9.

The Rio Hondo gathering is always one of the more popular tourneys on the trail and a large field is again expected, according to TFer Yas Tatsumi.

Senior Tourney Expects Full Field; Top Flite Invitational Entries Out

Deadlines loom all over the joint this week as the Senior's Spring Edition and the 1966 (6th) Top Flite Invitational pop onto the SCNGA tournament scene this month.

First things first . . .

The Senior Tournament, slated for a May 15 tee-off, experienced a little difficulty this week because of late (late) entries. It seems the SCNGA membership is getting kinda spoiled— and unless they receive individual, personal invites via mailed entry blanks—it takes one helluva time to get people to enter by telephone.

Such being the case, Bob Uragami and John Ty Saito are still fiddling around with the foursomes and starting times. To date (Wednesday), 63 have entered the Spring renewal with the expected field of 72 ready for scheduling within the next few days.

Crossroads will have the official lineups next Friday—but if there are any Seniors who might want to know the pairings before that date — you can call either Uragami, Saito or Crossroads. The latter service to be handled by calling MA 3-1213.

Those of you wanting to have a practice round or two at Los Serranos, scene of the tournament, following are directions on how to get there:

Head south on San Bernardino Freeway to the Holt avenue cutoff. Traveling west for two miles (and staying in the right lanes), take Highway 71 (which is the Corona Freeway) for an additional 8 miles, getting off at Los Serranos Avenue. Turn right (north) and the street leads you right smack into the golf course.

Uragami adds that trophies will be awarded to low net winners in both the two divisions with plenty of merchandise prizes to be distributed to the other winners.

Entry blanks for the May 22 Top Flite Invitational Tournament were mailed out this week (thanks to a consciencious "volunteer" at the Crossroads office).

The Sixth annual renewal, 18-hole medal play, has an entry deadline of Monday, May 9.

The Rio Hondo gathering is always one of the more popular tourneys on the trail and a large field is again expected, according to TFer Yas Tatsumi.

Top Flite Invitational Brings Large Field to Rio Hondo Renewal on Sunday

A whole slew of guys are going down to Rio Hondo Sunday to play golf. (And if you think that's a helluva way to start out a golf story, you're irght).

But we're figuring the 200-odd entrants aren't concerned about journalistic brilliance, they just wanna know their starting times—which you'll find at the bottom of the page.

The Cee Flight has the dubious honor of starting things off at 5:30 a.m. with Fred Kojima, Tsuneo Nakamura, George Kubota and Nob Nishimoto making up the charter foursome.

Aye Flight is next in line at 7:30 with the 10s and 11s leading up the big boys shooting from 8:40. Following the Championship Flight from 10:32 will be the Bees, with the final foursome teeing off at 12:24.

Anyone wishing to verify starting times or needing any additional information, call Tournament Chairman Al Tengan at DA 9-6791. He'll straighten you out, we're informed.

Orange County

Toru Nozawa, with an excellent 64 net, was the winner of OC's monthly Tournament of Champions. Dr. R. Imagawa (66) was runner-up followed by M. Inadomi's 67.

The annual Mother's Day tournament (what?) was won by F. Yoshioka with a net 65 as S. Kawanishi finished second with a 66. In third place came "Grandpa" Yoshikane at 67.

And serving as a pacifier as well as social gathering was the May 6 Mother's Day dinner and installation hosted by the OC club. The annual event found Yas Yoshida installed as the new president. is cabinet consisting of Richard Iwamoto, vice president and tournament chairman; Tad Iwata, treasurer; and Steve Abe, secretary.

Nozawa and Yoshioka, by virtue of their victories, have qualified for the annual Tournament of Champions playoff which will be held later this year.

Max Flite

(We only have the Bee Flight resume of the MF-AF vendetta as this is being written).

Max Flite's Dick Morishita caught first-round leader Tosh Hisamune on the final lap to take the Bee Flight trophy as MFers swept the first four spots in the final standings.

Morishita parlayed rounds of 87-91 to go with his 22 handicap to finish with a 134 total. Hisamune, with his 15, had consistently good rounds of 78-88 for a 136 reckoning. The standings:

1. D. Morishita, MF 4 .... 87-91 (44)—13
2. T. Hisamune, MF .... 78-88 (30)—136
3. K. Yoshioka, MF .... 85-87 (32)—140

5. M. Hamano, AF .... 91-92 (42)—141

Additional prizes were distributed for low net scores for the day. Jack Mihara of Air Flite was the winner with a 42-40 (14)—68. A trio of golfers was at net 69. They were Morishita, Wally Teramoto and Dan Kawasaki of AF.

The Aye Flight just came sneakinto the office and we find that MFer Sammy "No Shoes" Yamashita plodded to a one stroke victory over Air Flite's George Inouye. Sammy, who opened with an 80-12—68, three strokes off the pace, wound up with a sizzling 74 gross last Sunday to nose out Inouye who had consistently fine rounds of 74-75 (18) for his 131.

2. George Inouye, AF .... 74-75 (18)—131

El Patio

The El Patio Golf Club, with wives and guests numbering 28 strong, enjoyed a two-day golf junket to the Riviera Hotel in Las Vegas with the Western Avenue Golf Club serving as the hosts.

In their own little tournament of champions, Ed Fujimoto made up for missing the local Senior competition by taking the measure of the "youngsters" with an 89-95 (30)—154 total, beating out Hiro Harada's 97-98 (40)—155.

Fujimoto led from wire-to-wire, opening up with an 89-15—74 Saturday. It was the eldest against the youngest all the way as Harada, the newest and youngest El Patioite, was in the No. 2 spot with a 98-20—78.

1. Ed Fujimoto .... 80-74—154
2. Hiro Harada .... 77-78—155
3. Kats Yoshioka .... 80-80—160
4. Al Nakata .... 77-84—161
5. Al Keimi .... 80-83—163
6. Joji Shimabukuro .... 83-81—164
   Ted Okuno .... 83-81—164

Western joined in the festivities Sunday on the Dune's Emerald Course with Johnny Endow southpawing his way to the jackpot win. John had a fine 82-6—76. The tight competition found a quartet in the 77 bracket. They were Al Nakata and Hiro Harada of EP with Pete Hirata and Min Oi of Western chasing their clubmate.

Seniors

The old-timers played with the abandonment of youth Sunday at Los Serranos course under ideal weather conditions.

With 72 Seniors taking the greens, Top Fliters Hank Yamagata and George Shimazu won their respective divisions. The water hazards, trees and narrow fairways played havoc with most of the competitors but the Rio Hondo

Freddie Ikeguchi Continues Streak-- Wins Top Flite Invitational With a 70

Freddie Ikeguchi, second term president of the Southern California Nisei Golf Association, continues to make 1966 his personal year of triumphs as he added the Top Flite Invitational tournament to his list of laurels.

Freddie (what a thing to call a man over 30 years old!) led a long parade of fine scores during Sunday's play as the Rio Hondo course posed no problem to the belters and perfect weather brought the greens ~~under~~ control.

Ikeguchi's opening 37 nine left him in a pack of a dozen contenders at the turn but he jettisoned past the field with a sizzling 33 coming home. (A Wednesday phone call to get a blow-by-blow breakdown was in vain. Fred was probably out playing golf to hone his game for the Ojai shindig coming up next month).

Low net Championship Flight honors went to steady Tom Kurumada, an associate member, after a sudden death playoff with Top Flite's Hank Yamagata and Thunderbird's Rich Arakaki. The three wound up in an 18-hole tie with net 63s.

Kurumada picked up the marbles on the 20th hole with a par as Yamagata missed the green on his second shot and blew a 4-foot putt

An urgent announcement eminates from the SCNGA Handicap Board this week.

A number of important course rating changes went into effect as of May 20. Alondra and Meadowlark have been slashed two strokes while Brookside and Whittier Narrows were shaved one point.

Alondra went from 69 to 67 while Meadowlark's rating dropped from 68 to 66. Brookside went from 67 to 66 with Whittier Narrows sliced from 69 to 68.

with a 37-35—72 and a 62 net for a two stroke advantage over A.C. Tong of Orange County and Long Beach's Jim Ryono in the Aye Flight.

Another playoff was necessary in the Bee Flight before Max Flighter Tak Kitaoka was crowned the winner. Kitaoka and Long Beachman John Kuroda wound up with net 64s after regulation play with Tak tanking a par putt on the 20th hole to edge the Doctor out. Kitaoka posted a 37-39 (12) while Kuroda had a 40-37 (13).

Hisao Nikasuji brought Long Beach's competitors another title

Top Flite Invitational Brings Large Field to Rio Hondo Renewal on Sunday

A whole slew of guys are going down to Rio Hondo Sunday to play golf. (And if you think that's a helluva way to start out a golf story, you're irght).

But we're figuring the 200-odd entrants aren't concerned about journalistic brilliance, they just wanna know their starting times—which you'll find at the bottom of the page.

The Cee Flight has the dubious honor of starting things off at 5:30 a.m. with Fred Kojima, Tsuneo Nakamura, George Kubota and Nob Nishimoto making up the charter foursome.

Aye Flight is next in line at 7:30 with the 10s and 11s leading up the big boys shooting from 8:40. Following the Championship Flight from 10:32 will be the Bees, with the final foursome teeing off at 12:24.

Anyone wishing to verify starting times or needing any additional information, call Tournament Chairman Al Tengan at DA 9-6791. He'll straighten you out, we're informed.

Orange County

Toru Nozawa, with an excellent 64 net, was the winner of OC's monthly Tournament of Champions. Dr. R. Imagawa (66) was runner-up followed by M. Inadomi's 67.

The annual Mother's Day tournament (what?) was won by F. Yoshioka with a net 65 as S. Kawanishi finished second with a 66. In third place came "Grandpa" Yoshikane at 67.

And serving as a pacifier as well as social gathering was the May 6 Mother's Day dinner and installation hosted by the OC club. The annual event found Yas Yoshida installed as the new president. is cabinet consisting of Richard Iwamoto, vice president and tournament chairman; Tad Iwata, treasurer; and Steve Abe, secretary.

Nozawa and Yoshioka, by virtue of their victories, have qualified for the annual Tournament of Champions playoff which will be held later this year.

Max Flite

(We only have the Bee Flight resume of the MF-AF vendetta as this is being written).

Max Flite's Dick Morishita caught first-round leader Tosh Hisamune on the final lap to take the Bee Flight trophy as MFers swept the first four spots in the final standings.

Morishita parlayed rounds of 87-91 to go with his 22 handicap to finish with a 134 total. Hisamune, with his 15, had consistently good rounds of 78-88 for a 136 reckoning. The standings:

1. D. Morishita, MF 4	87-91 (44)—13
2. T. Hisamune, MF	78-88 (30)—136
3. K. Yoshioka, MF	85-87 (32)—140
E. Yamada, MF	87-87 (34)—140
5. M. Hamano, AF	91-92 (42)—141
S. Wada, MF	95-94 (48)—141

Additional prizes were distributed for low net scores for the day. Jack Mihara of Air Flite was the winner with a 42-40 (14)—68. A trio of golfers was at net 69. They were Morishita, Wally Teramoto and Dan Kawasaki of AF.

The Aye Flight just came sneak-into the office and we find that MFer Sammy "No Shoes" Yamashita plodded to a one stroke victory over Air Flite's George Inouye. 1. Sam Yamashita, MF	80-74 (24)—130
2. George Inouye, AF	74-75 (18)—131
3. S. Nakano, AF	77-77 (22)—132

El Patio

The El Patio Golf Club, with wives and guests numbering 28 strong, enjoyed a two-day golf junket to the Riviera Hotel in Las Vegas with the Western Avenue Golf Club serving as the hosts.

In their own little tournament of champions, Ed Fujimoto made up for missing the local Senior competition by taking the measure of the "youngsters" with an 89-95 (30)—154 total, beating out Hiro Harada's 97-98 (40)—155.

Fujimoto led from wire-to-wire, opening up with an 89-15—74 Saturday. It was the eldest against the youngest all the way as Harada, the newest and youngest El Patioite, was in the No. 2 spot with a 98-20—78.

1. Ed Fujimoto	80-74—154
2. Hiro Harada	77-78—155
3. Kats Yoshioka	80-80—160
4. Al Nakata	77-84—161
5. Al Keimi	80-83—163
6. Joji Shimabukuro	83-81—164
Ted Okuno	83-81—164

Western joined in the festivities Sunday on the Dune's Emerald Course with Johnny Endow southpawing his way to the jackpot win. John had a fine 82-6—76. The tight competition found a quartet in the 77 bracket. They were Al Nakata and Hiro Harada of EP with Pete Hirata and Min Oi of Western chasing their clubmate.

Seniors

The old-timers played with the abandonment of youth Sunday at Los Serranos course under ideal weather conditions.

With 72 Seniors taking the greens, Top Fliters Hank Yamagata and George Shimazu won their respective divisions. The water hazards, trees and narrow fairways played havoc with most of the competitors but the Rio Hondo

Freddie Ikeguchi Continues Streak-- Wins Top Flite Invitational With a 70

Freddie Ikeguchi, second term president of the Southern California Nisei Golf Association, continues to make 1966 his personal year of triumphs as he added the Top Flite Invitational tournament to his list of laurels.

Freddie (what a thing to call a man over 30 years old!) led a long parade of fine scores during Sunday's play as the Rio Hondo course posed no problem to the belters and perfect weather brought the greens under control.

Ikeguchi's opening 37 nine left him in a pack of a dozen contenders at the turn but he jettisoned past the field with a sizzling 33 coming home. (A Wednesday phone call to get a blow-by-blow breakdown was in vain. Fred was probably out playing golf to hone his game for the Ojai shindig coming up next month).

Low net Championship Flight honors went to steady Tom Kurumada, an associate member, after a sudden death playoff with Top Flite's Hank Yamagata and Thunderbird's Rich Arakaki. The three wound up in an 18-hole tie with net 63s.

Kurumada picked up the marbles on the 20th hole with a par as Yamagata missed the green on his second shot and blew a 4-foot putt after chipping within a halve. Arakaki was eliminated on the first overtime hole, succumbing to Yamagata and Kurumada pars.

Kurumada and Arakaki, 8 handicappers, barely missed the gross title as they came home in 71 strokes, a shot behind Fred. Yamagata, a 9, had a 72 with a pair of 36s.

Hiro Sano of Western played like he plans to shave his handicap (which is 10) as he came up with a 37-35—72 and a 62 net for a two stroke advantage over A.C. Tong of Orange County and Long Beach's Jim Ryono in the Aye Flight.

Another playoff was necessary in the Bee Flight before Max Flighter Tak Kitaoka was crowned the winner. Kitaoka and Long Beachman John Kuroda wound up with net 64s after regulation play with Tak tanking a par putt on the 20th hole to edge the Doctor out. Kitaoka posted a 37-39 (12) while Kuroda had a 40-37 (13).

Hisao Nikasuji brought Long Beach's competitors another title when he banged out the only sub-80 score in the Cee Flight. Hisao came up with a 38-41 (17) for his winning 62 net total, two up on George Neishi.

Nearest to the pin winners were Bob Motoi, TF, Championship Flight, 3'1"; Jack Maeshiro, TF, Aye Flight, 5'5"; Tak Yamashita, SC, 4"; Nog Kitaoka, MF, Cee Flight, 10'4".

Taniguchi Fish Jaunt Results, Commentary

Kenji Taniguchi's annual fishing sojourn to Crowley and June Lake lured some 45 fathers and sons with Jim Nakaki's 3 lb. 3 oz. trout taking top honors.

Dr. Henry Okamura, using himself as a pole (rod), placed second with a 3 pounder. David Nakaki upheld the family name with a 2-12er with Kim Shiraishi and Jim Wada landing identical 2-8s.

In other highly important finishes, Mark Maruyama outfished and out-ate his famous father Kiyo; while attorney Kaz "I own a hoe" Watanabe invoked the fifth (as did the fish) when it was reported he and son Timmy were discouragingly blanked on their first attempt.

Exchange Program

Sunday, May 22, has been designated as JEMS Sunday in many southern and northern California churches.

With twenty churches participating by exchanging pulpits and speaking about the ministry of Japanese Evangelical Missionary Society, this Sunday will bring the churches closer together in their united mission.

The visiting pastors will speak on the subject, "One Lord, One Body, One Mission." During this annual event, the cooperating churches will become better acquainted with the pastors of other churches.

Several laymen will be accompanying their ministers to give witness to the oneness of Church of Jesus Christ, according to Dr. Ben Hara, chairman for this year's renewal.

The JEMS celebrates its 15th anniversary this year. Through this united ministry, several missionaries have been sent forth to Japan and Brazil, and several indigenous ministers have been supported. The most recent addition has been that of the Rev. Koji Honda, known as the "Billy Graham" of Japan, and his associate, the Rev. Paul Ariga.

Through the JEMS-sponsored personnel in Japan, the four major media of mass communication are made available — television, radio, public meetings and publications.

attuned TFers were in their glory.

Yamagata, in the Aye (50 and over) division, banged out a 70 round for a 70 net, low for the day which saw high scores as the youthful-minded old-timers couldn't muster enough muscle to negotiate the 7000-plus course, especially the lengthy par-3 holes. In the Bee (over 55 bracket) Shimazu had an 84-10J74 to take both the low gross and low net. Inasmuch as the ruling barred two-time winners, Shimazu took the low net trophy w ihtG. Mikawa of Produce picking up the low gross title with his 87.

Jake Ihira of Western, who played as a 6 handicapper, picked up the dozen balls issue to the low gross winners in the Aye flight with his 78. The top winners:

Top Flite Invitational Brings Large Field to Rio Hondo Renewal on Sunday

A whole slew of guys are going down to Rio Hondo Sunday to play golf. (And if you think that's a helluva way to start out a golf story, you're irght).

But we're figuring the 200-odd entrants aren't concerned about journalistic brilliance, they just wanna know their starting times—which you'll find at the bottom of the page.

The Cee Flight has the dubious honor of starting things off at 5:30 a.m. with Fred Kojima, Tsuneo Nakamura, George Kubota and Nob Nishimoto making up the charter foursome.

Aye Flight is next in line at 7:30 with the 10s and 11s leading up the big boys shooting from 8:40. Following the Championship Flight from 10:32 will be the Bees, with the final foursome teeing off at 12:24.

Anyone wishing to verify starting times or needing any additional information, call Tournament Chairman Al Tengan at DA 9-6791. He'll straighten you out, we're informed.

Orange County

Toru Nozawa, with an excellent 64 net, was the winner of OC's monthly Tournament of Champions. Dr. R. Imagawa (66) was runner-up followed by M. Inadomi's 67.

The annual Mother's Day tournament (what?) was won by F. Yoshioka with a net 65 as S. Kawanishi finished second with a 66. In third place came "Grandpa" Yoshikane at 67.

And serving as a pacifier as well as social gathering was the May 6 Mother's Day dinner and installation hosted by the OC club. The annual event found Yas Yoshida installed as the new president. is cabinet consisting of Richard Iwamoto, vice president and tournament chairman; Tad Iwata, treasurer; and Steve Abe, secretary.

Nozawa and Yoshioka, by virtue of their victories, have qualified for the annual Tournament of Champions playoff which will be held later this year.

Max Flite

(We only have the Bee Flight resume of the MF-AF vendetta as this is being written).

Max Flite's Dick Morishita caught first-round leader Tosh Hisamune on the final lap to take the Bee Flight trophy as MFers swept the first four spots in the final standings.

Morishita parlayed rounds of 87-91 to go with his 22 handicap to finish with a 134 total. Hisamune, with his 15, had consistently good rounds of 78-88 for a 136 reckoning. The standings:

1.	D. Morishita, MF 4	87-91 (44)—13
2.	T. Hisamune, MF	78-88 (30)—136
3.	K. Yoshioka, MF	85-87 (32)—140
	E. Yamada, MF	87-87 (34)—140
5.	M. Hamano, AF	91-92 (42)—141
	S. Wada, MF	95-94 (48)—141

Additional prizes were distributed for low net scores for the day. Jack Mihara of Air Flite was the winner with a 42-40 (14)—68. A trio of golfers was at net 69. They were Morishita, Wally Teramoto and Dan Kawasaki of AF.

The Aye Flight just came sneak-into the office and we find that MFer Sammy "No Shoes" Yamashita plodded to a one stroke victory over Air Flite's George Inouye. Sammy, who opened with an 80-12—68, three strokes off the pace, wound up with a sizzling 74 gross last Sunday to nose out Inouye who had consistently fine rounds of 74-75 (18) for his 131.

1.	Sam Yamashita, MF	80-74 (24)—130
2.	George Inouye, AF	74-75 (18)—131

El Patio

The El Patio Golf Club, with wives and guests numbering 28 strong, enjoyed a two-day golf junket to the Riviera Hotel in Las Vegas with the Western Avenue Golf Club serving as the hosts.

In their own little tournament of champions, Ed Fujimoto made up for missing the local Senior competition by taking the measure of the "youngsters" with an 89-95 (30)—154 total, beating out Hiro Harada's 97-98 (40)—155.

Fujimoto led from wire-to-wire, opening up with an 89-15—74 Saturday. It was the eldest against the youngest all the way as Harada, the newest and youngest El Patioite, was in the No. 2 spot with a 98-20—78.

1.	Ed Fujimoto	80-74—154
2.	Hiro Harada	77-78—155
3.	Kats Yoshioka	80-80—160
4.	Al Nakata	77-84—161
5.	Al Keimi	80-83—163
6.	Joji Shimabukuro	83-81—164
	Ted Okuno	83-81—164

Western joined in the festivities Sunday on the Dune's Emerald Course with Johnny Endow southpawing his way to the jackpot win. John had a fine 82-6—76. The tight competition found a quartet in the 77 bracket. They were Al Nakata and Hiro Harada of EP with Pete Hirata and Min Oi of Western chasing their clubmate.

Seniors

The old-timers played with the abandonment of youth Sunday at Los Serranos course under ideal weather conditions.

With 72 Seniors taking the greens, Top Fliters Hank Yamagata and George Shimazu won their respective divisions. The water hazards, trees and narrow fairways played havoc with most of the competitors but the Rio Hondo

Freddie Ikeguchi Continues Streak-- Wins Top Flite Invitational With a 70

Freddie Ikeguchi, second term president of the Southern California Nisei Golf Association, continues to make 1966 his personal year of triumphs as he added the Top Flite Invitational tournament to his list of laurels.

Freddie (what a thing to call a man over 30 years old!) led a long parade of fine scores during Sunday's play as the Rio Hondo course posed no problem to the belters and perfect weather brought the greens under control.

Ikeguchi's opening 37 nine left him in a pack of a dozen contenders at the turn but he jettisoned past the field with a sizzling 33 coming home. (A Wednesday phone call to get a blow-by-blow breakdown was in vain. Fred was probably out playing golf to hone his game for the Ojai shindig coming up next month).

Low net Championship Flight honors went to steady Tom Kurumada, an associate member, after a sudden death playoff with Top Flite's Hank Yamagata and Thunderbird's Rich Arakaki. The three wound up in an 18-hole tie with net 63s.

Kurumada picked up the marbles on the 20th hole with a par as Yamagata missed the green on his second shot and blew a 4-foot putt with a 37-35—72 and a 62 net for a two stroke advantage over A.C. Tong of Orange County and Long Beach's Jim Ryono in the Aye Flight.

Another playoff was necessary in the Bee Flight before Max Flighter Tak Kitaoka was crowned the winner. Kitaoka and Long Beachman John Kuroda wound up with net 64s after regulation play with Tak tanking a par putt on the 20th hole to edge the Doctor out. Kitaoka posted a 37-39 (12) while Kuroda had a 40-37 (13).

Hisao Nikasuji brought Long Beach's competitors another title

An urgent announcement eminates from the SCNGA Handicap Board this week.

A number of important course rating changes went into effect as of May 20. Alondra and Meadowlark have been slashed two strokes while Brookside and Whittier Narrows were shaved one point.

Alondra went from 69 to 67 while Meadowlark's rating dropped from 68 to 66. Brookside went from 67 to 66 with Whittier Narrows sliced from 69 to 68.

Japan Golf Tour Group Shaping Up

With approximately 60 families already signed up for the First SCNGA Japan Golf tour, the initial meeting of the travelers is slated to be held Thursday, June 9, at 8 p.m.

The first general meeting will take place in the upstairs conference room of Bank of Tokyo on the corner of Jefferson and Crenshaw.

Scheduled for discussion and planning will be specific arrangements for those who wish to stay in Hawaii and for those desiring an extended tour to Hong Kong.

Cochairman George Aratani will report on the golf courses available for play (some of the finest anywhere), having recently returned from one of his many trips to Japan. Cochairman George Nakatsuka has already secured the famous Ajinomoto course for the tour members—with the whole entourage set to be guests of Ajinomoto Co. for the entire day.

Bob Uragami, who along with John Ty Saito is doing most of the detail work, adds that anyone interested in hearing details about the proposed Japan trip is more than welcome to attend the meeting. "The gathering is open to anyone and everyone." Uragami emphasized, "whether he/she has already made a tour deposit with Bank of Tokyo or not."

The Committee further noted appreciation to the Bank of Tokyo for the use of its facilities, and to Fugetsu-do (Roy Kito) and Grace Pastries (George Izumi) for the refreshments.

All questions regarding the Tour may be directed to Uragami, RE 3-9816, or Ty Saito, RE 1-2121.

Because of the rash of late reports, the SCNGA handicap board has decreed that the final day of score reporting has been moved up from the 20th to the 18th. All cards must therefore include games played up to the 18th and received by the 25th. Delinquent reports will definitely be penalized two strokes.

The California State Nisei Golf Championships, sponsored annually by the Garden City Golf Club of San Jose, sends in the report that the tournament has undergone a complete overhauling.

The site has been switched to Carmal Valley Country Club in Monterey. The fact that Pasatiempo held no glamour for the SCNGAers, not to mention the BANGA boys, was probably an influencing factor here.

What with the switch in playing sites, the dates has also been moved up to a more attractive date—October 8 and 9.

Sab Fujita, GCGC spokesman, adds that the maximum handicap allowed in the tournament will remain at 12. Entry fee is tentatively tabbed at $27.50 for the 36-holer. Official entry forms will be sent South at a later date.

April, May Low Net Winner Real Hot; Ojai Tourney Next on SCNGA Agenda

Low net winners for the months of April and May came arompin' onto the scene this week with sizzling net scores required to even get honorable mention these days.

Western's Johnny Endow southpawed his way to the top of the list for April with a 68-7—61. Kats Izumi (74-12) of Long Beach was the first runner-up as they say in beauty contests with a whole covey of swingers deadlocked in the No. 3 slot.

They were Bita Wakiji, Brookside, 78-15; Fred Ikeguchi, 71-7—64, George Kurata, 76-12—64, Wally Lee, 72-8—64, Dennis Luke, 78-14—64, Art Kikamo, 74-10—64, all of Long Beach; Rich Nimura, Western, 73-9—64; and Isao Kudow, Max Flite, net 65.

Out of the money were such good gross scores as 71 by Terry Komatsu and Shoji Fukuma's 72, both of Brookside; TFer Reggie Suzukawa's 73 and Dr. Paul Tsukahara's 73.

Ralph Yanari and Babe Nomura shared May honors with net 62s. The Brookside representative posting a 72-10 while the long-belting Top Fliter had a 71-9. Tooru Nozawa, OC, 83-11—62; Tok Onoda, PF, 77-12—65 and Yukio Nakama, PF, 78-13—65, were third low net.

Other good scores included George Shibata, OC, 82-19; Suzukawa again, 72-8; Kim Hatashita, TN, 75-11; Nimura again, 73-9; Haruo Okino, W, 74-10; Fumio Oshita, W, 71-7! and Al Nakata, EP, 72 gross.

An announcement of utmost importance (aren't they all?) was also issued by Handicap Board Chairman John Ty Saito. He states that "all club members playing for the monthly low net awards must comply with the following rules:

1. All scores submitted must be made at weekly club play at their home course, unless club is involved in two or three club tourney.
2. SCNGA Championship tournament scores are not accepted.
3. Scores must be submitted by Club handicap chairman by the first of each month.

Course Rating Cards (revised) for SCNGA members are now ready for distribution. Ask your Club Handicap Chairman for them. Among some of the notable changes are Alondra, 67; Brookside #2, 66; Meadowlark, 66; Whittier Narrows, 68. All courses not listed will be played at a straight 70 rating.

Top Flite

Babe Nomura, with a 72-8—64, carted home the Top Flite golf club's June tournament honors last Sunday at Rio Hondo, ekeing out a stroke victory over Wally Ige's 74-9—65. Third place (at 66) was shared by Cliff Suzukawa, Reggie Suzukawa, Dick Izuno, Kayo Kuratani and Bob Hirai.

Ben Kato and Miss Narahara had 67s while Doug Mizukami, Bob Uragami, Duke Ogata, Hank Yamagata, Ben Kobayashi and George Nakatsuka all posted 68s.

Orange County

The annual Tri-Club tournament between Indio, San Diego and Orange County was hosted by the Orange Countians at Huntington Beach CC this past Sabbath with Jim Kobayashi of the host club posting a 73 for low gross honors.

Aye flight low net winner was San Diego's Joe Ohashi with a 63. Second place wound up in a three-way tie between Charles Shibata of Indio and SD's Jim Tanabe and George Seki. They all had 67s.

Bee flight winners was OC's Pete Yamazaki with a sizzling 61. Runner-up was Joe Yoshioka of San Diego a stroke back at 62 with M. Northern from Indio in third with a net 63.

Official SCNGA entry blanks for the June 26 Ojai Valley tournament were received during the week. The 18-hole medal play tourney, with an entry fee of $17.50, carrys a June 13 entry deadline . . . except . . . 24 associates did not get blanks.

Due to the lack of entries, everyone from "Tets Asato" to "Roy Kato" were left out—plus Hi Higashi and Mark Miyamoto of TF on address changes. We've notified secretary Hank Yamada—what the SCNGA does next will be up to them. (Sorry about that).

Japan Golf Tour Group Shaping Up

With approximately 60 families already signed up for the First SCNGA Japan Golf tour, the initial meeting of the travelers is slated to be held Thursday, June 9, at 8 p.m.

The first general meeting will take place in the upstairs conference room of Bank of Tokyo on the corner of Jefferson and Crenshaw.

Scheduled for discussion and planning will be specific arrangements for those who wish to stay in Hawaii and for those desiring an extended tour to Hong Kong.

Cochairman George Aratani will report on the golf courses available for play (some of the finest anywhere), having recently returned from one of his many trips to Japan. Cochairman George Nakatsuka has already secured the famous Ajinomoto course for the tour members—with the whole entourage set to be guests of Ajinomoto Co. for the entire day.

Bob Uragami, who along with John Ty Saito is doing most of the detail work, adds that anyone interested in hearing details about the proposed Japan trip is more than welcome to attend the meeting. "The gathering is open to anyone and everyone." Uragami emphasized, "whether he/she has already made a tour deposit with Bank of Tokyo or not."

The Committee further noted appreciation to the Bank of Tokyo for the use of its facilities, and to Fugetsu-do (Roy Kito) and Grace Pastries (George Izumi) for the refreshments.

All questions regarding the Tour may be directed to Uragami, RE 3-9816, or Ty Saito, RE 1-2121.

Because of the rash of late reports, the SCNGA handicap board has decreed that the final day of score reporting has been moved up from the 20th to the 18th. All cards must therefore include games played up to the 18th and received by the 25th. Delinquent reports will definitely be penalized two strokes.

The California State Nisei Golf Championships, sponsored annually by the Garden City Golf Club of San Jose, sends in the report that the tournament has undergone a complete overhauling.

The site has been switched to Carmal Valley Country Club in Monterey. The fact that Pasatiempo held no glamour for the SCNGAers, not to mention the BANGA boys, was probably an influencing factor here.

What with the switch in playing sites, the dates has also been moved up to a more attractive date—October 8 and 9.

Sab Fujita, GCGC spokesman, adds that the maximum handicap allowed in the tournament will remain at 12. Entry fee is tentatively tabbed at $27.50 for the 36-holer. Official entry forms will be sent South at a later date.

El Patio

El Patio staged the first round of its annual match play tuornament with 7 matches, defending champion Ed Fujimoto drawing a welcome bye.

Nip Fujimoto did just that, knocking out the club's number one player, Al Nakata, 2 and 1. Francis Aoyama, Hiro Harada, Joji Shimabukuro and Sam Hirasawa posted the same victory margin over their foes.

Aoyama needed a one over 37 to oust Dan Fujimoto while Joji also got hot on the backside to oust Keimi. Harada's 9 stroke handi proved too much for Sy Saito and Hirasawa outlasted Fumio Kinoshita. Min Harada competed the day of close matches, tanking a 6-footer on the final hole for a par and a 1 up win over Frank Sera. In the finale, Ted Okuma defaulted to Kats Yoshioka.

Par Flite

Par Flite held its monthly 18-hole medal play awhile back at Montebello (that's a helluva way to put it) with Dr. Ben Tamaki and Hank Yamada coming up with an equal share of the top prize with net 66s. Tamaki had an 80-14 while Hank shot a 79-13.

Tok Onoda matched Yamada's 79 but wound up at 67 with Dr. Wally Nagata posting the best score of the day, a 78, which put him in the 67 bracket too.

El Patio

Quarter-final matches in the El Patio match play tournament took over the club calendar last week.

Papa retains the upper hand in the Fujimoto clan, as it should be, including golf. In a sudden death, Dear Ole Dad (appropriately on father's day) downed son Nip 1 up on the 19th. In another family hassle, "Nisan" Min Harada shot the best round of his young golfing career for an easy 4 & 3 victory over brother Hiro.

In a close match, Francis Aoyama ousted Joji Shimabukuro, 2 & 1. After evening the match at the 15th, Joji commenced to shank three (3!) straight 8-irons out of bounds on 16 and understandably bowed out on the 17th. Number 2 player Kats Yoshioka had an easy time of it downing Sam Hirasawa 4 & 3. In deference to Sam, it should be pointed out he had a sore foot.

In consolation play, Al Nakata drew a bye while Dan Fujimoto defeated Al Keimi, 3 & 1, shooting a par 36 on the back nine. Frank Sera and Fumio Kinoshita were winners by default.

Iwamoto cops Ojai low gross

OJAI.—A six handicap golfer out of Orange County found the slick fast greens of the Ojai Valley Inn course to his liking and went out with a five under par front nine and faltered a bit on the back nine. He hung on for a two over par 72 and won low gross honors in the tournament held on Sunday by the So. Calif. Nisei Golf Association.

Richard Iwamoto of Orange County was on in the front nine, starting with a birdie, the first of three on the going out nine, and capped it with an eagle on the 330 yard fourth by driving the green on his tee shot and sinking the putt. He was 30 at the turn. He finished the back nine with three bogeys and two double bogeys for a 42.

Winner in the Championship Flight was Yas Tatsumi of Top Flite. He was one over going out and three over coming in for a 74 gross and 65 net score. Second was Joe Uematsu of Top Notch with 77 gross and 67 net.

S. Takeshita of Top Flite took Aye Flight honors with a 79 gross and 66 handicap score.

J. Kuroda of Orange County and Hiro Harada of El Patio tied for second in the flight with net 67s and Kuroda won the flip for second place.

Last years tournament was such an overwhelming success Uragami promises an ever better event for this year. Last year's champion was Jim Ryono of Long Beach while Fred Ikeguchi, also of Long Beach, captured the low gross.

Battling for top honors this year will be Joe Kishi of W.L.A. and Yas Tasumi of L.A. This year's champion will be honored at the Wakayama-ken Picnic which follows a week later on July 31 at Elysian Park.

Ojai Tourney to Richard Iwamoto; San Diego Next

Orange County's Richard Iwamoto, literally tore the Ojai Valley course apart from the 10th to 18th greens—then held on for dear life to emerge the winner of the annual SCNGA Ojai tournament.

Iwamoto, a 6 handicapper, opened action from the 10th tee in the second championship flight foursome. Starting with a birdie on the first hole, the first of three, Richard capped his initial nine holes with an eagle on the 330-yd. 4th, driving the green with his tee shot and one-putting. He turned the nine in 30, five under par.

Coming home, his card was marred by three bogeys and two double bogeys for a 42, but his two over 72 was an easy winner of low gross honors.

Championship Flight low net went to Top Flite's Yas Tatsumi (36-38—9) with a 65, followed by Joe Uematsu's 67. Sus Takeshita, also of Top Flite, won the Aye Flight. His 38-41 (13)—66 edging past John Kuroda and Hiro Harada by a single stroke. The standings:

San Diego Travelers Assured Carts; JACL Tournament Open to SCNGAers

July 11, Monday, is the absolute deadline for the upcoming San Diego Invitational which will be held July 17th at Torrey Pines tough South Course. The reason we say absolute is because George Azuma and his border crowd will probably be tougher on late entrants than the tournament committees hereabouts.

(But realizing some SCNGAers did not receive official entry blanks, maybe a day or two might not matter).

Entries and the $10 tab should be sent immediately to Azuma at 797 Date avenue in Chula Vista.

Luis Aihara, in answer to a number of local inquiries, states that he's received word that the course has reserved 40 carts for tournament use by traveling Angelinos. This means that at least 80 guys will be able to travel in luxury between shanks. (What happens to the left-overs, we dunno, but better bring your walking shoes).

Long Beach's Glen Harada is the defending champion. He fired a sharp 71 to beat out associate Joe Nakanishi by a stroke. CR is hoping to receive the lineups by next week's deadline.

J.A.C.L.

The golf tournament being held in conjunction with the San Diego JACL Convention is scheduled for Thursday, July 27, 7:30 a.m., according to a reminder received from George S. Muto.

The tourney will be at the Stardust Country Club in beautiful Mission Valley, one of 40 golf courses in and around the border city.

Entry fee is $12 per person (with an additional $2 charge for registration fee), according to cochairmen Muto and Eddie Urata. They have arranged the flights, luncheon and przies and promise the Stardust course (site of several PGA Open tournaments) will be in perfect shape for championship golf.

"All SCNGA members are eligible to complete," Muto reminds.

El Patio

Francis Aoyama defeated defending champion Ed Fujimoto 2 & 1 and Kats Yoshioka survived an 18-hole plaoff to set the stage for this week's match play finals.

Aoyama's lengthy drives kept the pressure on Ed throughout with the ex-champ succumbing on the 17th green. The second match found Harada and Kats Yoshioka trying to give their match away—with Min finally accepting. All even after 12, Min lost the next 3 holes then Kats turned around and dropped the final 3 to wind up in a tie. Kats blew putts of 2 ft on 16 and 1½ on 18. In the playoff Min went OB on the 17th tee to drop the match, 4 and 2.

In the consolation bracket, Al Nakata edged past Dan Fujimoto and Fumio Kinoshita ousted Frank Sera, 4 and 3.

143 Lined Up for San Diego Tourney At Torrey Pines South, More Expected

Brooksider Art Kirita reports finding a sand wedge on the 18th green during the recent Ojai tournament. If the loser be a SCNGA member and still wants it—contact Art.

There will be at least 144 participating in the San Diego Invitational up for renewal this Sunday on the tough Torrey Pines south course.

We say "at least" because the entry deadline was Monday, July 11, and CR got the starting times and foursomes Tuesday via special delivery. Which means that belated entrants from the SoCal area might wind up out on their ears unless The S.D. sponsors revice the lineups to take care of "late" entries.

At any rate the guys who got in are assured of a fine tournament.

The SCNGA "jet set" is kinda dwindling down these days but a number of hot shots are making the trek. Among them are Joe Kishi, Jerry Ross, Joe Nakanishi and Don Tamura, all 6 handicappers, as well as Long Beach's 5 handicap Harada and Min Yoshizaki, a 4. Fred Ikeguchi, Herb Isono, Fran Uyematsu, Babe Nomura, and Roy Kato are other low handi men (7s) in the lineup.

Max Flite

The annual Umeya Senbei-Hochi Jeweler 36-holer tournament will be staged at Montebellow CC by the Max Flite club. The two-Sunday affair, July 24 and 31, will wind up with a perpetual trophy winner plus many outstanding prizes.

JACL Tournament

The third annual JACL tournament slated for renewal this Sunday at Fox Hills has been postponed. The course is currently under repair necessitating the switch to Sunday, Sept. 11, at Los Serranos' south course.

San Diego Invitational Upsets Many Golfers--But Not Winner George Azuma

The San Diego Invitational Golf Tournament held its 1966 renewal at Torrey Pines south course this past Sabbath — and just might have come close to being the last.

The touring Southern California Nisei Golf Association members have often been pictured as spoiled and onery, and on many occasions the charges have probably been true, but in the case of this past Sunday — the gripes and bitching echoing still were well-founded and worth repeating.

But before we get entangled in a South-Further South vendetta, might it be noted that George Azuma, secretary-treasurer of the San Diego Nisei Golf Club, sent along an apology from himself and the SDNGC for the negative aspects of the tournament.

The Gripes

For the benefit of the non-travelers, it was probably just as well you didn't make the trek—this year. Listed in catch-as-catch-can order, the complaints siphoning into CR include a lack of electric carts despite pre-tourney assignments; complete disorganization in pairings with 5s playing with 9s and 8s paired with 12 handicappers; and with pairings apparently drawn before the deadline, the whole kit and kaboodle teed off en masse with no regard to flights. On top of it all, some early applicants weren't even listed in the original line-up and the later entrants weren't listed at all.

As far as the results are concerned, San Diegans copped all three flights — which probably made the SCNGAers that much more unhappy. George Azuma, saddled with the thankless job of running the field, somehow managed to forget all the woes and posted a fine 77 for the low gross title.

The Winners

Fellow clubman Pete Umekubo's 79 (9)—70 brought home the low net championship with Tosh Hayakawa of Brookside the runner-up at 71. SDmen J. Uchimiya and George Seki were next in line with 72s.

In the First Flight, one Don Carter (a guest from Indio) took the marbles with a 69, which was matched by Don Dono of Top Notch. Carter carried a 14 handicap while Dono had a 13. P. Yamamoto and J. Takashima of SD were next in line with a 70 and 71.

and also our errors in scheduling this tournament. Please excuse our errors (for) we'll do better in 1967. Thanks again to (the) SCNGA for (its) cooperation." The message was signed by George Azuma.

An ACe

Roy Ito joined the growing list of SCNGA hole-in-oners when he tanked an Ace at Montebello last Sunday. The 9 handicapper from West Los Angeles one-stroked the 150 yard 16th hole using a 7 iron. Playing with Ito were Jim Fukuhara, Mas Matsumura and Ben Hayashida. Ito wound up the day with a fine 76 gross score.

CR Eats Crow; Apology to San Diego For Distasteful, Disgraceful Article

If the weather seems to have become oppressively hot, it's about 100 degrees hotter in the CR sports deartment this week.

What was considered a rather innocuous report of the San Diego Club's Invitational on the 17th [illegible] tiger tail. SCNGA [illegible] Fred Ikeguchi and other members of the cabinet, in response to Border City request, chastised CR for shameful, distasteful and disgraceful writeup of the tournament.

And in answer to a letter received from Tournament Chairman George Azuma and his committee, this corner apologizes for any misconceptions which might have arisen from last week's report. We also acknowledge the fact that the gripes and bitches from some traveling SCNGAers probably did not reflect the attitudes of the majority—and erroneously presumed the various inept charges made were well-founded and correct.

By noting twice that Azuma (San Diego club's secretary-treasurer) and the hosts apologized for the few inconveniences, it was felt both sides of the coin had been presented. (Quotes from July 22 edition: "But before we get entangled in a South-Further South vendetta, might it be noted that (Azuma) sent along an apology from himself and the SDNGC for the negative aspects of the tournament." And further down the story: "But in fairness to the San Diego hosts, CR passes along Azuma's apologetic note:" A complete reprint of his note then followed).

Be that as it may, SCNGAer Luis Aihara has personally been contacted by San Diego, as has President Ikeguchi. And to further salve the many wounds, Freddie made a trip down to SD Thursday to make a personal apology and to inform them that CR had been called on the carpet.

And to further clarify the air, a portion of Azuma's letter is reprinted for SCNGA perusal:

"Many of us San Diegans who worked on (the tournament) are very upset and unhappy of the shameful and disgraceful article in the Crossroads. Those of us who spent many hours for preparation and spent personal moneys would rather just call it quits on any future plans . . . if this type of article circulates among our

The middle two paragraphs delineated and explained the reasons for the few minor mishaps which occurred—the bulk of which were caused by L.A. golfers who failed to comply with tournament arrangements or who requested special favors.

And now that that is all said and done, let's draw on a peace pipe filled with LSD and forget the whole thing was ever mentioned . . .

Max Flite

The second and final round of the Umeya Senbei-Hochi Jeweler tournament for Max Flite Club is slated for this Sunday at Montebello. The pairings:

5:15—B. Otoshi, B. Hiramatsu, H. Muraoka, D. Morishita, S. Wada.
5:21—J. Kudow, T. Kitaoka, J. Ihara, K. Hochi.

5:45—M. Matsumura, D. Doyle, T. Hisamune, M. Nishida, T. Kuwahara.

At the midway point of the 36-holer, Mike Matsumura and Don Doyle are tied at 67, Mike off a 78-11 and Doyle posting a 79-12. In tight contention are Hisamune (82-14) and Nishida (81-23) with 68s. Kuwahara (83-14) and Jim Shigeishi (83-14) are two back with 69s while Okura and Kitayama have 70s. In with 71s are Okutsu and Yoshioka.

Following the final putt, all members, guests and families present will travel to Frank DeMascio's Beverly Bowl for the annual Awards Breakfast and a few lines of bowling for the losers who swear off golf for good.

Wakayama Tourney

Eddie "The Head" Nagao, taking time off from his usual afternoon chores, wound up the low gross winner of the Wakayama Club golf tournament last Sunday on a "disqualification" as Long Beach's Jim Ryono chose the low net title.

Ryono, with his 11 handicap, fired a 76 gross. His net 65 earned him the L.A. Sporting Goods perpetual trophy and the Wakayama Club Presidential trophy as well as a transistor radio. Nagao's 77 was good for a radio.

All's Quiet On the Southern Front; Nisei Week Tourney Deadline Aug. 8th

There's a problem, at times, coming up wtih a readable "lead" as they say in the trade. An opening paragraph that tells all.

Two weeks ago we had one—concerning a certain tournament—and last week we had another'n—regarding the same item. And now, August 5th, it appears everything and everybody has returned to normal.

SCNGA president Fred Ikeguchi, after making a special trip down south, has apparently soothed the troubled waters—and a board meeting Monday ironed out the remaining problems.

A few minor prizes await distribution from San Diego results. Larry Mori, Yas Mikuriya, L. Shimabukuro and T. Inouye are on the list of winners receiving a half dozen balls while Chick Furuye is eligible for two. The balls await thee at Luis Aihara's office.

And having saved some items for off weeks such as we're now experiencing, let's catch up with a couple of items from John Ty Saito's typewriter:

Wally Ige of Top Flite won the June (June?) sweepstakes with a sensational 59 net, coming off a one under par 70 with an 11 handicap! Sam Yamashita of Max Flite was second with a 74-12 net 62. Tied for third were Max Fliters Tom Inouye (76-13) and Tosh Hisamune (78-15).

Out of the money but posting good scores were Ben Kobayashi, TF, 76-13; Mits Fujimoto, TF, 77-14; Richard Nagata, TB, 74-11; Roy Kato, SC, 72-7. Among the net 64s were George Ajioka, George Kurata, Hank Yonemoto, Richard Iwamoto and K. Okamura.

Penalties assessed for no reports totaled 14. Long Beach led the parade with 7, followed by Max Flite, 4, Air Flite 2 and Top Flite 1. This total marked the largest in several months. All members are once again reminded that score cards must include play through the 18th of each month

Matsumoto, 11; F. Mizote, 14; C. Hirata, 11; S. Shima, 15; C. Suzukawa, 12; B. Hiramatsu, 15; B. Uragami, 11; H. Kirin, 16; K. Yamamoto, 11; K. Yoshioka, 15.

K. Nakamura, 16; A. Nakayama, 11; N. Kitaoka, 15; B. Kobayashi, 11; M. Fujimoto, 12; B. Kato, 12; F. Nagai, 11; T. Okutsu, 15; E. Yamada, 16; D. Takeshita, 12; J. Yamamoto, 12; I. Higashi, 15; H. Okura, 17.

H. Muraoka, 16; E. Yusa, 12; H. Hishiki, 14; D. Matsushima, 18; M. Narahara, 14; K. Hochi, 19; M. Ogawa, 18; T. Tomiyama, 17; J. Nakayama, 15; K. Nagamoto, 16; F. Tsuchiya, 16; D. Morishita, 19; S. Wada, 22; J. Kitayama, 23; A. Yamamoto, 17; H. Ishii, 15; M. Nishida, 22; M. Shinoda, 17; B. Hirai, 17.

Whatever the Championship Flight lineup might be, we suggest all players show up at Montebello at 5:15. As for pairings and starting times, the above listing was all we got—so I imagine Aye Flighters will hafta show up en masse at 5:45 to find out what the schedule is.

El Patio

Following a three-week delay because one of the combatants was on a vacation, El Patio's match play tournament wound up Sunday with Kats Yoshioka eliminating Francis Aoyama, 4 and 3.

The three week respite might have rested Aoyama but the Hawaiian air rusted his golf game. Kats went 3 up at the turn, winning #3 with a bogey (when Francis went OB); 4 with a birdie 2; 6 with another bogey; and 9 with a par. Aoyama won only the 5th with a par 4 as Kats was out in a four over 40.

Coming in, Yoshioka immediately added to his margin with a par 5 on #10 and after Aoyama took the 11th, Kats closed out the match on 15 with a birdie two. (He finished out the back nine in an even par 36 for a 76).

En route to his championship, Kats defeated T. Okuno by default; S. Hirasawa, 4 and 3; and

Jim Kobayashi of Orange County and David Arakaki of El Patio tied for second low net in the Championship Flight with 146 scores.

In Aye Flight competition, Jim Takashima of San Diego won with a 140 two-day net score. He defeated Kay Yagura of SCNGA by one stroke. However, Yagura took

San Diego Travelers Assured Carts; JACL Tournament Open to SCNGAers

July 11, Monday, is the absolute deadline for the upcoming San Diego Invitational which will be held July 17th at Torrey Pines tough South Course. The reason we say absolute is because George Azuma and his border crowd will probably be tougher on late entrants than the tournament committees hereabouts.

(But realizing some SCNGAers did not receive official entry blanks, maybe a day or two might not matter).

Entries and the $10 tab should be sent immediately to Azuma at 797 Date avenue in Chula Vista.

Luis Aihara, in answer to a number of local inquiries, states that he's received word that the course has reserved 40 carts for tournament use by traveling Angelinos. This means that at least [illegible] guys will be able to travel in luxury between shanks. (What happens to the left-overs, we dunno, but better bring your walking shoes).

Long Beach's Glen Harada is the defending champion. He fired a sharp 77 to beat out associate Joe Nakanishi by a stroke. CR is hoping to receive the lineups by next week's deadline.

J.A.C.L.

The golf tournament being held in conjunction with the San Diego JACL Convention is scheduled for Thursday, July 27, 7:30 a.m., according to a reminder received from George S. Muto.

The tourney will be at the Stardust Country Club in beautiful Mission Valley, one of 40 golf courses in and around the border city.

Entry fee is $12 per person (with an additional $2 charge for registration fee), according to cochairmen Muto and Eddie Urata. They have arranged the flights, luncheon and przies and promise the Stardust course (site of several PGA Open tournaments) will be in perfect shape for championship golf.

"All SCNGA members are eligible to complete," Muto reminds.

Francis Aoyama defeated defending champion Ed Fujimoto 2 & 1 and Kats Yoshioka survived an 18-hole plaoff to set the stage for this week's match play finals.

Aoyama's lengthy drives kept the pressure on Ed throughout with the ex-champ succumbing on the 17th green. The second match found Harada and Kats Yoshioka trying to give their match away—with Min finally accepting. All even after 12, Min lost the next 3 holes then Kats turned around and dropped the final 3 to wind up in a tie. Kats blew putts of 2 ft on 16 and 1½ on 18. In the playoff Min went OB on the 17th tee to drop the match, 4 and 2.

In the consolation bracket, Al Nakata edged past Dan Fujimoto and Fumio Kinoshita ousted Frank Sera, 4 and 3.

143 Lined Up for San Diego Tourney At Torrey Pines South, More Expected

There will be at least 144 participating in the San Diego Invitational up for renewal this Sunday on the tough Torrey Pines south course.

We say "at least" because the entry deadline was Monday, July 11, and CR got the starting times and foursomes Tuesday via special delivery. Which means that belated entrants from the SoCal area might wind up out on their ears unless The S.D. sponsors revice the lineups to take care of "late" entries.

At any rate the guys who got in are assured of a fine tournament.

The SCNGA "jet set" is kinda dwindling down these days but a number of hot shots are making the trek. Among them are Joe Kishi, Jerry Ross, Joe Nakanishi and Don Tamura, all 6 handicappers, as well as Long Beach's 5 handicap Harada and Min Yoshizaki, a 4. Fred Ikeguchi, Herb Isono, Fran Uyematsu, Babe Nomura, and Roy Kato are other low handi men (7s) in the lineup.

Brooksider Art Kirita reports finding a sand wedge on the 18th green during the recent Ojai tournament. If the loser be a SCNGA member and still wants it—contact Art.

Max Flite

The annual Umeya Senbei-Hochi Jeweler 36-holer tournament will be staged at Montebellow CC by the Max Flite club. The two-Sunday affair, July 24 and 31, will wind up with a perpetual trophy winner plus many outstanding prizes.

JACL Tournament

The third annual JACL tournament slated for renewal this Sunday at Fox Hills has been postponed. The course is currently under repair necessitating the switch to Sunday, Sept. 11, at Los Serranos' south course.

San Diego Invitational Upsets Many Golfers--But Not Winner George Azuma

The San Diego Invitational Golf Tournament held its 1966 renewal at Torrey Pines south course this past Sabbath — and just might have come close to being the last.

The touring Southern California Nisei Golf Association members have often been pictured as spoiled and onery, and on many occasions the charges have probably been true, but in the case of this past Sunday — the gripes and bitching echoing still were well-founded and worth repeating.

But before we get entangled in a South-Further South vendetta, might it be noted that George Azuma, secretary-treasurer of the San Diego Nisei Golf Club, sent along an apology from himself and the SDNGC for the negative aspects of the tournament.

The Gripes

For the benefit of the non-travelers, it was probably just as well you didn't make the trek—this year. Listed in catch-as-catch-can order, the complaints siphoning into CR include a lack of electric carts despite pre-tourney assignments; complete disorganization in pairings with 5s playing with 9s and 8s paired with 12 handicappers; and with pairings apparently drawn before the deadline, the whole kit and kaboodle teed off en masse with no regard to flights. On top of it all, some early applicants weren't even listed in the original line-up and the later entrants weren't listed at all.

As far as the results are concerned, San Diegans copped all three flights — which probably made the SCNGAers that much more unhappy. George Azuma, saddled with the thankless job of running the field, somehow managed to forget all the woes and posted a fine 77 for the low gross title.

The Winners

Fellow clubman Pete Umekubo's 79 (9)—70 brought home the low net championship with Tosh Hayakawa of Brookside the runner-up at 71. SDmen J. Uchimiya and George Seki were next in line with 72s.

In the First Flight, one Don Carter (a guest from Indio) took the marbles with a 69, which was matched by Don Dono of Top Notch. Carter carried a 14 handicap while Dono had a 13. P. Yamamoto and J. Takashima of SD were next in line with a 70 and 71.

Second Flight winner was Hank Wada of San Diego also. He had a 85-17—68. L. Owashi, with a 24 handicap, was second with a 70, followed by J. Yoshika, H. Koba and Chick Furuye with 71s.

But in fairness to the San Diego hosts, CR passes along Azuma's apologetic note:

"On behalf (of the) San Diego Nisei Golf Club, may I apologize for the shortage of electric carts, and also our errors in scheduling this tournament. Please excuse our errors (for) we'll do better in 1967. Thanks again to (the) SCNGA for (its) cooperation." The message was signed by George Azuma.

An ACe

Roy Ito joined the growing list of SCNGA hole-in-oners when he tanked an Ace at Montebello last Sunday. The 9 handicapper from West Los Angeles one-stroked the 150 yard 16th hole using a 7 iron. Playing with Ito were Jim Fukuhara, Mas Matsumura and Ben Hayashida. Ito wound up the day with a fine 76 gross score.

CR Eats Crow; Apology to San Diego For Distasteful, Disgraceful Article

If the weather seems to have become oppressively hot, it's about 100 degrees hotter in the CR sports deartment this week.

What was considered a rather innocuous report of the San Diego Club's Invitational on the 17th turned into a tiger tail. SCNGA President Fred Ikeguchi and other members of the cabinet, in response to Border City request, chastised CR for shameful, distasteful and disgraceful writeup of the tournament.

And in answer to a letter received from Tournament Chairman George Azuma and his committee, this corner apologizes for any misconceptions which might have arisen from last week's report. We also acknowledge the fact that the gripes and bitches from some traveling SCNGAers probably did not reflect the attitudes of the majority—and erroneously presumed the various inept charges made were well-founded and correct.

By noting twice that Azuma (San Diego club's secretary-treasurer) and the hosts apologized for the few inconveniences, it was felt both sides of the coin had been presented. (Quotes from July 22 edition: "But before we get entangled in a South-Further South vendetta, might it be noted that (Azuma) sent along an apology from himself and the SDNGC for the negative aspects of the tournament." And further down the story: "But in fairness to the San Diego hosts, CR passes along Azuma's apologetic note:" A complete reprint of his note then followed).

Be that as it may, SCNGAer Luis Aihara has personally been contacted by San Diego, as has President Ikeguchi. And to further salve the many wounds, Freddie made a trip down to SD Thursday to make a personal apology and to inform them that CR had been called on the carpet.

And to further clarify the air, a portion of Azuma's letter is reprinted for SCNGA perusal:

"Many of us San Diegans who worked on (the tournament) are very upset and unhappy of the shameful and disgraceful article in the Crossroads. Those of us who spent many hours for preparation and spent personal moneys would rather just call it quits on any future plans . . . if this type of article circulates among our

The middle two paragraphs delineated and explained the reasons for the few minor mishaps which occurred—the bulk of which were caused by L.A. golfers who failed to comply with tournament arrangements or who requested special favors.

And now that that is all said and done, let's draw on a peace pipe filled with LSD and forget the whole thing was ever mentioned . . .

Max Flite

The second and final round of the Umeya Senbei-Hochi Jeweler tournament for Max Flite Club is slated for this Sunday at Montebello. The pairings:

5:15—B. Otoshi, B. Hiramatsu, H. Muraoka, D. Morishita, S. Wada.

5:21—J. Kudow, T. Kitaoka, J. Ihara, K. Hochi.

5:45—M. Matsumura, D. Doyle, T. Hisamune, M. Nishida, T. Kuwahara.

At the midway point of the 36-holer, Mike Matsumura and Don Doyle are tied at 67, Mike off a 78-11 and Doyle posting a 79-12. In tight contention are Hisamune (82-14) and Nishida (81-23) with 68s. Kuwahara (83-14) and Jim Shigeishi (83-14) are two back with 69s while Okura and Kitayama have 70s. In with 71s are Okutsu and Yoshioka.

Following the final putt, all members, guests and families present will travel to Frank DeMascio's Beverly Bowl for the annual Awards Breakfast and a few lines of bowling for the losers who swear off golf for good.

Wakayama Tourney

Eddie "The Head" Nagao, taking time off from his usual afternoon chores, wound up the low gross winner of the Wakayama Club golf tournament last Sunday on a "disqualification" as Long Beach's Jim Ryono chose the low net title.

Ryono, with his 11 handicap, fired a 76 gross. His net 65 earned him the L.A. Sporting Goods perpetual trophy and the Wakayama Club Presidential trophy as well as a transistor radio. Nagao's 77 was good for a radio.

All's Quiet On the Southern Front; Nisei Week Tourney Deadline Aug. 8th

There's a problem, at times, coming up wtih a readable "lead" as they say in the trade. An opening paragraph that tells all.

Two weeks ago we had one—concerning a certain tournament—and last week we had another'n—regarding the same item. And now, August 5th, it appears everything and everybody has returned to normal.

SCNGA president Fred Ikeguchi, after making a special trip down south, has apparently soothed the troubled waters—and a board meeting Monday ironed out the remaining problems.

A few minor prizes await distribution from San Diego results. Larry Mori, Yas Mikuriya, L. Shimabukuro and T. Inouye are on the list of winners receiving a half dozen balls while Chick Furuye is eligible for two. The balls await thee at Luis Aihara's office.

And having saved some items for off weeks such as we're now experiencing, let's catch up with a couple of items from John Ty Saito's typewriter:

Wally Ige of Top Flite won the June (June?) sweepstakes with a sensational 59 net, coming off a one under par 70 with an 11 handicap! Sam Yamashita of Max Flite was second with a 74-12 net 62. Tied for third were Max Fliters Tom Inouye (76-13) and Tosh Hisamune (78-15).

Out of the money but posting good scores were Ben Kobayashi, TF, 76-13; Mits Fujimoto, TF, 77-14; Richard Nagata, TB, 74-11; Roy Kato, SC, 72-7. Among the net 64s were George Ajioka, George Kurata, Hank Yonemoto, Richard Iwamoto and K. Okamura.

Penalties assessed for no reports totaled 14. Long Beach led the parade with 7, followed by Max Flite, 4, Air Flite 2 and Top Flite 1. This total marked the largest in several months. All members are once again reminded that score cards must include play through the 18th of each month

Matsumoto, 11; F. Mizote, 14; C. Hirata, 11; S. Shima, 15; C. Suzukawa, 12; B. Hiramatsu, 15; B. Uragami, 11; H. Kirin, 16; K. Yamamoto, 11; K. Yoshioka, 15.

K. Nakamura, 16; A. Nakayama, 11; N. Kitaoka, 15; B. Kobayashi, 11; M. Fujimoto, 12; B. Kato, 12; F. Nagai, 11; T. Okutsu, 15; E. Yamada, 16; D. Takeshita, 12; J. Yamamoto, 12; I. Higashi, 15; H. Okura, 17.

H. Muraoka, 16; E. Yusa, 12; H. Hishiki, 14; D. Matsushima, 18; M. Narahara, 14; K. Hochi, 19; M. Ogawa, 18; T. Tomiyama, 17; J. Nakayama, 15; K. Nagamoto, 16; F. Tsuchiya, 16; D. Morishita, 19; S. Wada, 22; J. Kitayama, 23; A. Yamamoto, 17; H. Ishii, 15; M. Nishida, 22; M. Shinoda, 17; B. Hirai, 17.

Whatever the Championship Flight lineup might be, we suggest all players show up at Montebello at 5:15. As for pairings and starting times, the above listing was all we got—so I imagine Aye Flighters will hafta show up en masse at 5:45 to find out what the schedule is.

El Patio

Following a three-week delay because one of the combatants was on a vacation, El Patio's match play tournament wound up Sunday with Kats Yoshioka eliminating Francis Aoyama, 4 and 3.

The three week respite might have rested Aoyama but the Hawaiian air rusted his golf game. Kats went 3 up at the turn, winning #3 with a bogey (when Francis went OB); 4 with a birdie 2; 6 with another bogey; and 9 with a par. Aoyama won only the 5th with a par 4 as Kats was out in a four over 40.

Coming in, Yoshioka immediately added to his margin with a par 5 on #10 and after Aoyama took the 11th, Kats closed out the match on 15 with a birdie two. (He finished out the back nine in an even par 36 for a 76).

En route to his championship, Kats defeated T. Okuno by default; S. Hirasawa, 4 and 3; and total. This was good enough for the low gross win but he elected to take the low net trophy in the Championship Flight. His net score was 143.

Jim Kobayashi of Orange County and David Arakaki of El Patio tied for second low net in the Championship Flight with 146 scores.

In Aye Flight competition, Jim Takashima of San Diego won with a 140 two-day net score. He defeated Kay Yagura of SCNGA by one stroke. However, Yagura took

San Diego Travelers Assured Carts; JACL Tournament Open to SCNGAers

July 11, Monday, is the absolute deadline for the upcoming San Diego Invitational which will be held July 17th at Torrey Pines tough South Course. The reason we say absolute is because George Azuma and his border crowd will probably be tougher on late entrants than the tournament committees hereabouts.

(But realizing some SCNGAers did not receive official entry blanks, maybe a day or two might not matter).

Entries and the $10 tab should be sent immediately to Azuma at 797 Date avenue in Chula Vista.

Luis Aihara, in answer to a number of local inquiries, states that he's received word that the course has reserved 40 carts for tournament use by traveling Angelinos. This means that at least 60 guys will be able to travel in luxury between shanks. (What happens to the left-overs, we dunno, but better bring your walking shoes).

Long Beach's Glen Harada is the defending champion. He fired a sharp 71 to beat out associate Joe Nakanishi by a stroke. CR is hoping to receive the lineups by next week's deadline.

J.A.C.L.

The golf tournament being held in conjunction with the San Diego JACL Convention is scheduled for Thursday, July 27, 7:30 a.m., according to a reminder received from George S. Muto.

The tourney will be at the Stardust Country Club in beautiful Mission Valley, one of 40 golf courses in and around the border city.

Entry fee is $12 per person (with an additional $2 charge for registration fee), according to cochairmen Muto and Eddie Urata. They have arranged the flights, luncheon and przies and promise the Stardust course (site of several PGA Open tournaments) will be in perfect shape for championship golf.

"All SCNGA members are eligible to complete," Muto reminds.

Francis Aoyama defeated defending champion Ed Fujimoto 2 & 1 and Kats Yoshioka survived an 18-hole plaoff to set the stage for this week's match play finals.

Aoyama's lengthy drives kept the pressure on Ed throughout with the ex-champ succumbing on the 17th green. The second match found Harada and Kats Yoshioka trying to give their match away—with Min finally accepting. All even after 12, Min lost the next 3 holes then Kats turned around and dropped the final 3 to wind up in a tie. Kats blew putts of 2 ft on 16 and 1½ on 18. In the playoff Min went OB on the 17th tee to drop the match, 4 and 2.

In the consolation bracket, Al Nakata edged past Dan Fujimoto and Fumio Kinoshita ousted Frank Sera, 4 and 3.

San Diego Invitational Upsets Many Golfers--But Not Winner George Azuma

The San Diego Invitational Golf Tournament held its 1966 renewal at Torrey Pines south course this past Sabbath — and just might have come close to being the last.

The touring Southern California Nisei Golf Association members have often been pictured as spoiled and onery, and on many occasions the charges have probably been true, but in the case of this past Sunday — the gripes and bitching echoing still were well-founded and worth repeating.

But before we get entangled in a South-Further South vendetta, might it be noted that George Azuma, secretary-treasurer of the San Diego Nisei Golf Club, sent along an apology from himself and the SDNGC for the negative aspects of the tournament.

The Gripes

For the benefit of the non-travelers, it was probably just as well you didn't make the trek—this year. Listed in catch-as-catch-can order, the complaints siphoning into CR include a lack of electric carts despite pre-tourney assignments; complete disorganization in pairings with 5s playing with 9s and 8s paired with 12 handicappers; and with pairings apparently drawn before the deadline, the whole kit and kaboodle teed off en masse with no regard to flights. On top of it all, some early applicants weren't even listed in the original line-up and the later entrants weren't listed at all.

As far as the results are concerned, San Diegans copped all three flights — which probably made the SCNGAers that much more unhappy. George Azuma, saddled with the thankless job of running the field, somehow managed to forget all the woes and posted a fine 77 for the low gross title.

The Winners

Fellow clubman Pete Umekubo's 79 (9)—70 brought home the low net championship with Tosh Hayakawa of Brookside the runner-up at 71. SDmen J. Uchimiya and George Seki were next in line with 72s.

In the First Flight, one Don Carter (a guest from Indio) took the marbles with a 69, which was matched by Don Dono of Top Notch. Carter carried a 14 handicap while Dono had a 13. P. Yamamoto and J. Takashima of SD were next in line with a 70 and 71.

Second Flight winner was Hank Wada of San Diego also. He had a 85-17—68. L. Owashi, with a 24 handicap, was second with a 70, followed by J. Yoshika, H. Koba and Chick Furuye with 71s.

But in fairness to the San Diego hosts, CR passes along Azuma's apologetic note:

"On behalf (of the) San Diego Nisei Golf Club, may I apologize for the shortage of electric carts, and also our errors in scheduling this tournament. Please excuse our errors (for) we'll do better in 1967. Thanks again to (the) SCNGA for (its) cooperation." The message was signed by George Azuma.

An ACe

Roy Ito joined the growing list of SCNGA hole-in-oners when he tanked an Ace at Montebello last Sunday. The 9 handicapper from West Los Angeles one-stroked the 150 yard 16th hole using a 7 iron. Playing with Ito were Jim Fukuhara, Mas Matsumura and Ben Hayashida. Ito wound up the day with a fine 76 gross score.

CR Eats Crow; Apology to San Diego For Distasteful, Disgraceful Article

If the weather seems to have become oppressively hot, it's about 100 degrees hotter in the CR sports deartment this week.

What was considered a rather innocuous report of the San Diego Club's Invitational on the 17th ... tiger tail. SCNGA turned president Fred Ikeguchi and other members of the cabinet, in response to Border City request, chastised CR for shameful, distasteful and disgraceful writeup of the tournament.

And in answer to a letter received from Tournament Chairman George Azuma and his committee, this corner apologizes for any misconceptions which might have arisen from last week's report. We also acknowledge the fact that the gripes and bitches from some traveling SCNGAers probably did not reflect the attitudes of the majority—and erroneously presumed the various inept charges made were well-founded and correct.

By noting twice that Azuma (San Diego club's secretary-treasurer) and the hosts apologized for the few inconveniences, it was felt both sides of the coin had been presented. (Quotes from July 22 edition: "But before we get entangled in a South-Further South vendetta, might it be noted that (Azuma) sent along an apology from himself and the SDNGC for the negative aspects of the tournament." And further down the story: "But in fairness to the San Diego hosts, CR passes along Azuma's apologetic note:" A complete reprint of his note then followed).

Be that as it may, SCNGAer Luis Aihara has personally been contacted by San Diego, as has President Ikeguchi. And to further salve the many wounds, Freddie made a trip down to SD Thursday to make a personal apology and to inform them that CR had been called on the carpet.

And to further clarify the air, a portion of Azuma's letter is reprinted for SCNGA perusal:

"Many of us San Diegans who worked on (the tournament) are very upset and unhappy of the shameful and disgraceful article in the Crossroads. Those of us who spent many hours for preparation and spent personal moneys would rather just call it quits on any future plans . . . if this type of article circulates among our

The middle two paragraphs delineated and explained the reasons for the few minor mishaps which occurred—the bulk of which were caused by L.A. golfers who failed to comply with tournament arrangements or who requested special favors.

And now that that is all said and done, let's draw on a peace pipe filled with LSD and forget the whole thing was ever mentioned . . .

Max Flite

The second and final round of the Umeya Senbei-Hochi Jeweler tournament for Max Flite Club is slated for this Sunday at Montebello. The pairings:

5:15—B. Otoshi, B. Hiramatsu, H. Muraoka, D. Morishita, S. Wada.

5:21—J. Kudow, T. Kitaoka, J. Ihara, K. Hochi.

5:27—N. Kitaoka, E. Yamada, M. Sewaki, C. Kawasaki, J. Kakuuchi.

5:33—T. Inouye, F. Harada, S. Yamashita, M. Shinoda, G. Oura.

5:45—M. Matsumura, D. Doyle, T. Hisamune, M. Nishida, T. Kuwahara.

At the midway point of the 36-holer, Mike Matsumura and Don Doyle are tied at 67, Mike off a 78-11 and Doyle posting a 79-12. In tight contention are Hisamune (82-14) and Nishida (81-23) with 68s. Kuwahara (83-14) and Jim Shigeishi (83-14) are two back with 69s while Okura and Kitayama have 70s. In with 71s are Okutsu and Yoshioka.

Following the final putt, all members, guests and families present will travel to Frank DeMascio's Beverly Bowl for the annual Awards Breakfast and a few lines of bowling for the losers who swear off golf for good.

Wakayama Tourney

Eddie "The Head" Nagao, taking time off from his usual afternoon chores, wound up the low gross winner of the Wakayama Club golf tournament last Sunday on a "disqualification" as Long Beach's Jim Ryono chose the low net title.

Ryono, with his 11 handicap, fired a 76 gross. His net 65 earned him the L.A. Sporting Goods perpetual trophy and the Wakayama Club Presidential trophy as well as a transistor radio. Nagao's 77 was good for a radio.

All's Quiet On the Southern Front; Nisei Week Tourney Deadline Aug. 8th

There's a problem, at times, coming up wtih a readable "lead" as they say in the trade. An opening paragraph that tells all.

Two weeks ago we had one—concerning a certain tournament—and last week we had another'n—regarding the same item. And now, August 5th, it appears everything and everybody has returned to normal.

SCNGA president Fred Ikeguchi, after making a special trip down south, has apparently soothed the troubled waters—and a board meeting Monday ironed out the remaining problems.

A few minor prizes await distribution from San Diego results. Larry Mori, Yas Mikuriya, L. Shimabukuro and T. Inouye are on the list of winners receiving a half dozen balls while Chick Furuye is eligible for two. The balls await thee at Luis Aihara's office.

And having saved some items for off weeks such as we're now experiencing, let's catch up with a couple of items from John Ty Saito's typewriter:

Wally Ige of Top Flite won the June (June?) sweepstakes with a sensational 59 net, coming off a one under par 70 with an 11 handicap! Sam Yamashita of Max Flite was second with a 74-12 net 62. Tied for third were Max Fliters Tom Inouye (76-13) and Tosh Hisamune (78-15).

Out of the money but posting good scores were Ben Kobayashi, TF, 76-13; Mits Fujimoto, TF, 77-14; Richard Nagata, TB, 74-11; Roy Kato, SC, 72-7. Among the net 64s were George Ajioka, George Kurata, Hank Yonemoto, Richard Iwamoto and K. Okamura.

Penalties assessed for no reports totaled 14. Long Beach led the parade with 7, followed by Max Flite, 4, Air Flite 2 and Top Flite 1. This total marked the largest in several months. All members are once again reminded that score cards must include play through the 18th of each month

Matsumoto, 11; F. Mizote, 14; C. Hirata, 11; S. Shima, 15; C. Suzukawa, 12; B. Hiramatsu, 15; B. Uragami, 11; H. Kirin, 16; K. Yamamoto, 11; K. Yoshioka, 15.

K. Nakamura, 16; A. Nakayama, 11; N. Kitaoka, 15; B. Kobayashi, 11; M. Fujimoto, 12; B. Kato, 12; F. Nagai, 11; T. Okutsu, 15; E. Yamada, 16; D. Takeshita, 12; J. Yamamoto, 12; I. Higashi, 15; H. Okura, 17.

H. Muraoka, 16; E. Yusa, 12; H. Hishiki, 14; D. Matsushima, 18; M. Narahara, 14; K. Hochi, 19; M. Ogawa, 18; T. Tomiyama, 17; J. Nakayama, 15; K. Nagamoto, 16; F. Tsuchiya, 16; D. Morishita, 19; S. Wada, 22; J. Kitayama, 23; A. Yamamoto, 17; H. Ishii, 15; M. Nishida, 22; M. Shinoda, 17; B. Hirai, 17.

Whatever the Championship Flight lineup might be, we suggest all players show up at Montebello at 5:15. As for pairings and starting times, the above listing was all we got—so I imagine Aye Flighters will hafta show up en masse at 5:45 to find out what the schedule is.

El Patio

Following a three-week delay because one of the combatants was on a vacation, El Patio's match play tournament wound up Sunday with Kats Yoshioka eliminating Francis Aoyama, 4 and 3.

The three week respite might have rested Aoyama but the Hawaiian air rusted his golf game. Kats went 3 up at the turn, winning #3 with a bogey (when Francis went OB); 4 with a birdie 2; 6 with another bogey; and 9 with a par. Aoyama won only the 5th with a par 4 as Kats was out in a four over 40.

Coming in, Yoshioka immediately added to his margin with a par 5 on #10 and after Aoyama took the 11th, Kats closed out the match on 15 with a birdie two. (He finished out the back nine in an even par 36 for a 76).

En route to his championship, Kats defeated T. Okuno by default; S. Hirasawa, 4 and 3; and total. This was good enough for the low gross win but he elected to take the low net trophy in the Championship Flight. His net score was 143.

Jim Kobayashi of Orange County and David Arakaki of El Patio tied for second low net in the Championship Flight with 146 scores.

In Aye Flight competition, Jim Takashima of San Diego won with a 140 two-day net score. He defeated Kay Yagura of SCNGA by one stroke. However, Yagura took

143 Lined Up for San Diego Tourney At Torrey Pines South, More Expected

There will be at least 144 participating in the San Diego Invitational up for renewal this Sunday on the tough Torrey Pines south course.

We say "at least" because the entry deadline was Monday, July 11, and CR got the starting times and foursomes Tuesday via special delivery. Which means that belated entrants from the SoCal area might wind up out on their ears unless The S.D. sponsors revice the lineups to take care of "late" entries.

At any rate the guys who got in are assured of a fine tournament.

The SCNGA "jet set" is kinda dwindling down these days but a number of hot shots are making the trek. Among them are Joe Kishi, Jerry Ross, Joe Nakanishi and Don Tamura, all 6 handicappers, as well as Long Beach's 5 handicap Harada and zaki

CR Eats Crow; Apology to San Diego For Distasteful, Disgraceful Article

If the weather seems to have become oppressively hot, it's about 100 degrees hotter in the CR sports deartment this week.

What was considered a rather innocuous report of the San Diego Club's Invitational on the 17th [illegible] tiger tail. SCNGA turned [illegible] Fred Ikeguchi and other members of the cabinet, in response to Border City request, chastised CR for shameful, distasteful and disgraceful writeup of the tournament.

And in answer to a letter received from Tournament Chairman George Azuma and his committee, this corner apologizes for any misconceptions which might have arisen from last week's report. We also acknowledge the fact that the gripes and bitches from some traveling SCNGAers probably did not reflect the attitudes of the majority—and erroneously presumed the various inept charges made were well-founded and correct.

By noting twice that Azuma (San Diego club's secretary-treasurer) and the hosts apologized for the few inconveniences, it was felt both sides of the coin had been presented. (Quotes from July 22 edition: "But before we get entangled in a South-Further South vendetta, might it be noted that (Azuma) sent along an apology from himself and the SDNGC for the negative aspects of the tournament." And further down the story: "But in fairness to the San Diego hosts, CR passes along Azuma's apologetic note:" A complete reprint of his note then followed).

Be that as it may, SCNGAer Luis Aihara has personally been contacted by San Diego, as has President Ikeguchi. And to further salve the many wounds, Freddie made a trip down to SD Thursday to make a personal apology and to inform them that CR had been called on the carpet.

And to further clarify the air, a portion of Azuma's letter is reprinted for SCNGA perusal:

"Many of us San Diegans who worked on (the tournament) are very upset and unhappy of the shameful and disgraceful article in the Crossroads. Those of us who spent many hours for preparation and spent personal moneys would rather just call it quits on any future plans . . . if this type of article circulates among our

The middle two paragraphs delineated and explained the reasons for the few minor mishaps which occurred—the bulk of which were caused by L.A. golfers who failed to comply with tournament arrangements or who requested special favors.

And now that that is all said and done, let's draw on a peace pipe filled with LSD and forget the whole thing was ever mentioned . . .

Wakayama Tourney

Eddie "The Head" Nagao, taking time off from his usual afternoon chores, wound up the low gross winner of the Wakayama Club golf tournament last Sunday on a "disqualification" as Long Beach's Jim Ryono chose the low net title.

Ryono, with his 11 handicap, fired a 76 gross. His net 65 earned him the L.A. Sporting Goods perpetual trophy and the Wakayama Club Presidential trophy as well as a transistor radio. Nagao's 77 was good for a radio.

All's Quiet On the Southern Front; Nisei Week Tourney Deadline Aug. 8th

There's a problem, at times, coming up wtih a readable "lead" as they say in the trade. An opening paragraph that tells all.

Two weeks ago we had one—concerning a certain tournament—and last week we had another'n—regarding the same item. And now, August 5th, it appears everything and everybody has returned to normal.

SCNGA president Fred Ikeguchi, after making a special trip down south, has apparently soothed the troubled waters—and a board meeting Monday ironed out the remaining problems.

A few minor prizes await distribution from San Diego results. Larry Mori, Yas Mikuriya, L. Shimabukuro and T. Inouye are on the list of winners receiving a half dozen balls while Chick Furuye is eligible for two. The balls await thee at Luis Aihara's office.

And having saved some items for off weeks such as we're now experiencing, let's catch up with a couple of items from John Ty Saito's typewriter:

Wally Ige of Top Flite won the June (June?) sweepstakes with a sensational 59 net, coming off a one under par 70 with an 11 handicap! Sam Yamashita of Max Flite was second with a 74-12 net 62. Tied for third were Max Fliters Tom Inouye (76-13) and Tosh Hisamune (78-15).

Out of the money but posting good scores were Ben Kobayashi, TF, 76-13; Mits Fujimoto, TF, 77-14; Richard Nagata, TB, 74-11; Roy Kato, SC, 72-7. Among the net 64s were George Ajioka, George Kurata, Hank Yonemoto, Richard Iwamoto and K. Okamura.

Penalties assessed for no reports totaled 14. Long Beach led the parade with 7, followed by Max Flite, 4, Air Flite 2 and Top Flite 1. This total marked the largest in several months. All members are once again reminded that score cards must include play through the 18th of each month and must be received by the han-

K. Nakamura, 16; A. Nakayama, 11; N. Kitaoka, 15; B. Kobayashi, 11; M. Fujimoto, 12; B. Kato, 12; F. Nagai, 11; T. Okutsu, 15; E. Yamada, 16; D. Takeshita, 12; J. Yamamoto, 12; I. Higashi, 15; H. Okura, 17.

H. Muraoka, 16; E. Yusa, 12; H. Hishiki, 14; D. Matsushima, 18; M. Narahara, 14; K. Hochi, 19; M. Ogawa, 18; T. Tomiyama, 17; J. Nakayama, 15; K. Nagamoto, 16; F. Tsuchiya, 16; D. Morishita, 19; S. Whatever the Championship Flight lineup might be, we suggest all players show up at Montebello at 5:15. As for pairings and starting times, the above listing was all we got—so I imagine Aye Flighters will hafta show up en masse at 5:45 to find out what the schedule is.

El Patio

Following a three-week delay because one of the combatants was on a vacation, El Patio's match play tournament wound up Sunday with Kats Yoshioka eliminating Francis Aoyama, 4 and 3.

The three week respite might have rested Aoyama but the Hawaiian air rusted his golf game. Kats went 3 up at the turn, winning #3 with a bogey (when Francis went OB); 4 with a birdie 2; 6 with another bogey; and 9 with a par. Aoyama won only the 5th with a par 4 as Kats was out in a four over 40.

Coming in, Yoshioka immediately added to his margin with a par 5 on #10 and after Aoyama took the 11th, Kats closed out the match on 15 with a birdie two. (He finished out the back nine in an even par 36 for a 76).

En route to his championship, Kats defeated T. Okuno by default; S. Hirasawa, 4 and 3; and

Jim Kobayashi of Orange County and David Arakaki of El Patio tied for second low net in the Championship Flight with 146 scores.

In Aye Flight competition, Jim Takashima of San Diego won with a 140 two-day net score. He defeated Kay Yagura of SCNGA by one stroke. However, Yagura took

San Diego Travelers Assured Carts; JACL Tournament Open to SCNGAers

July 11, Monday, is the absolute deadline for the upcoming San Diego Invitational which will be held July 17th at Torrey Pines tough South Course. The reason we say absolute is because George Azuma and his border crowd will probably be tougher on late entrants than the tournament committees hereabouts.

(But realizing some SCNGAers did not receive official entry blanks, maybe a day or two might not matter).

Entries and the $10 tab should be sent immediately to Azuma at 797 Date avenue in Chula Vista.

Luis Aihara, in answer to a number of local inquiries, states that he's received word that the course has reserved 40 carts for tournament use by traveling Angelinos. This means that at least 80 guys will be able to travel in luxury between shanks. (What happens to the left-overs, we dunno, but better bring your walking shoes).

Long Beach's Glen Harada is the defending champion. He fired a sharp 77 to beat out associate Joe Nakanishi by a stroke. CR is hoping to receive the lineups by next week's deadline.

J.A.C.L.

The golf tournament being held in conjunction with the San Diego JACL Convention is scheduled for Thursday, July 27, 7:30 a.m., according to a reminder received from George S. Muto.

The tourney will be at the Stardust Country Club in beautiful Mission Valley, one of 40 golf courses in and around the border city.

Entry fee is $12 per person (with an additional $2 charge for registration fee), according to cochairmen Muto and Eddie Urata. They have arranged the flights, luncheon and przies and promise the Stardust course (site of several PGA Open tournaments) will be in perfect shape for championship golf.

"All SCNGA members are eligible to complete," Muto reminds.

El Patio

Francis Aoyama defeated defending champion Ed Fujimoto 2 & 1 and Kats Yoshioka survived an 18-hole plaoff to set the stage for this week's match play finals.

Aoyama's lengthy drives kept the pressure on Ed throughout with the ex-champ succumbing on the 17th green. The second match found Harada and Kats Yoshioka trying to give their match away—with Min finally accepting. All even after 12, Min lost the next 3 holes then Kats turned around and dropped the final 3 to wind up in a tie. Kats blew putts of 2 ft on 16 and 1½ on 18. In the playoff Min went OB on the 17th tee to drop the match, 4 and 2.

In the consolation bracket, Al Nakata edged past Dan Fujimoto and Fumio Kinoshita ousted Frank Sera, 4 and 3.

143 Lined Up for San Diego Tourney At Torrey Pines South, More Expected

There will be at least 144 participating in the San Diego Invitational up for renewal this Sunday on the tough Torrey Pines south course.

We say "at least" because the entry deadline was Monday, July 11, and CR got the starting times and foursomes Tuesday via special delivery. Which means that belated entrants from the SoCal area might wind up out on their ears unless The S.D. sponsors revice the lineups to take care of "late" entries.

At any rate the guys who got in are assured of a fine tournament.

The SCNGA "jet set" is kinda dwindling down these days but a number of hot shots are making the trek. Among them are Joe Kishi, Jerry Ross, Joe Nakanishi and Don Tamura, all 6 handicappers, as well as Long Beach's 5 handicap Harada and Min Yoshizaki, a 4. Fred Ikeguchi, Herb Isono, Fran Uyematsu, Babe Nomura, and Roy Kato are other low handi men (7s) in the lineup.

Brooksider Art Kirita reports finding a sand wedge on the 18th green during the recent Ojai tournament. If the loser be a SCNGA member and still wants it—contact Art.

Max Flite

The annual Umeya Senbei-Hochi Jeweler 36-holer tournament will be staged at Montebellow CC by the Max Flite club. The two-Sunday affair, July 24 and 31, will wind up with a perpetual trophy winner plus many outstanding prizes.

JACL Tournament

The third annual JACL tournament slated for renewal this Sunday at Fox Hills has been postponed. The course is currently under repair necessitating the switch to Sunday, Sept. 11, at Los Serranos' south course.

San Diego Invitational Upsets Many Golfers--But Not Winner George Azuma

The San Diego Invitational Golf Tournament held its 1966 renewal at Torrey Pines south course this past Sabbath — and just might have come close to being the last.

The touring Southern California Nisei Golf Association members have often been pictured as spoiled and onery, and on many occasions the charges have probably been true, but in the case of this past Sunday — the gripes and bitching echoing still were well-founded and worth repeating.

But before we get entangled in a South-Further South vendetta, might it be noted that George Azuma, secretary-treasurer of the San Diego Nisei Golf Club, sent along an apology from himself and the SDNGC for the negative aspects of the tournament.

The Gripes

For the benefit of the non-travelers, it was probably just as well you didn't make the trek—this year. Listed in catch-as-catch-can order, the complaints siphoning into CR include a lack of electric carts despite pre-tourney assignments; complete disorganization in pairings with 5s playing with 9s and 8s paired with 12 handicappers; and with pairings apparently drawn before the deadline, the whole kit and kaboodle teed off en masse with no regard to flights. On top of it all, some early applicants weren't even listed in the original line-up and the later entrants weren't listed at all.

As far as the results are concerned, San Diegans copped all three flights — which probably made the SCNGAers that much more unhappy. George Azuma, saddled with the thankless job of running the field, somehow managed to forget all the woes and posted a fine 77 for the low gross title.

The Winners

Fellow clubman Pete Umekubo's 79 (9)—70 brought home the low net championship with Tosh Hayakawa of Brookside the runner-up at 71. SDmen J. Uchimiya and George Seki were next in line with 72s.

In the First Flight, one Don Carter (a guest from Indio) took the marbles with a 69, which was matched by Don Dono of Top Notch. Carter carried a 14 handicap while Dono had a 13. P. Yamamoto and J. Takashima of SD were next in line with a 70 and 71.

and also our errors in scheduling this tournament. Please excuse our errors (for) we'll do better in 1967. Thanks again to (the) SCNGA for (its) cooperation." The message was signed by George Azuma.

An ACe

Roy Ito joined the growing list of SCNGA hole-in-oners when he tanked an Ace at Montebello last Sunday. The 9 handicapper from West Los Angeles one-stroked the 150 yard 16th hole using a 7 iron. Playing with Ito were Jim Fukuhara, Mas Matsumura and Ben Hayashida. Ito wound up the day with a fine 76 gross score.

the courses of Singing Hills and Cottonwood this Saturday and Sunday, Sept. 18 and 19, respectively, has attracted a field of 73 players.

Two flights, 40 duffers in the Championship Flight and 33 in the Ave Flight, are scheduled with first tee-off set for 11 a.m. at Singing Hills. The pairings are, as follows:

CR Eats Crow; Apology to San Diego For Distasteful, Disgraceful Article

If the weather seems to have become oppressively hot, it's about 100 degrees hotter in the CR sports deartment this week.

What was considered a rather innocuous report of the San Diego Club's Invitational on the 17th turned into a tiger tail. SCNGA president Fred Ikeguchi and other members of the cabinet, in response to Border City request, chastised CR for shameful, distasteful and disgraceful writeup of the tournament.

And in answer to a letter received from Tournament Chairman George Azuma and his committee, this corner apologizes for any misconceptions which might have arisen from last week's report. We also acknowledge the fact that the gripes and bitches from some traveling SCNGAers probably did not reflect the attitudes of the majority—and erroneously presumed the various inept charges made were well-founded and correct.

By noting twice that Azuma (San Diego club's secretary-treasurer) and the hosts apologized for the few inconveniences, it was felt both sides of the coin had been presented. (Quotes from July 22 edition: "But before we get entangled in a South-Further South vendetta, might it be noted that (Azuma) sent along an apology from himself and the SDNGC for the negative aspects of the tournament." And further down the story: "But in fairness to the San Diego hosts, CR passes along Azuma's apologetic note:" A complete reprint of his note then followed).

Be that as it may, SCNGAer Luis Aihara has personally been contacted by San Diego, as has President Ikeguchi. And to further salve the many wounds, Freddie made a trip down to SD Thursday to make a personal apology and to inform them that CR had been called on the carpet.

And to further clarify the air, a portion of Azuma's letter is reprinted for SCNGA perusal:

"Many of us San Diegans who worked on (the tournament) are very upset and unhappy of the shameful and disgraceful article in the Crossroads. Those of us who spent many hours for preparation and spent personal moneys would rather just call it quits on any future plans . . . if this type of article circulates among our northern friends.

"Unless a full and complete apology in your next issue explaining in detail why we have many more problems in running a tournament in San Diego, composing principally of L.A. golfers, than in your area, we would like to terminate any future plans for gatherings at Torrey Pines. Believe me, we tried our best and it is no fun working so hard, and then reading discourteous, distasteful and unappreciated articles in the paper afterwards." Signed George Azuma and Tournament Committee.

The middle two paragraphs delineated and explained the reasons for the few minor mishaps which occurred—the bulk of which were caused by L.A. golfers who failed to comply with tournament arrangements or who requested special favors.

And now that that is all said and done, let's draw on a peace pipe filled with LSD and forget the whole thing was ever mentioned . . .

Wakayama Tourney

Eddie "The Head" Nagao, taking time off from his usual afternoon chores, wound up the low gross winner of the Wakayama Club golf tournament last Sunday on a "disqualification" as Long Beach's Jim Ryono chose the low net title.

Ryono, with his 11 handicap, fired a 76 gross. His net 65 earned him the L.A. Sporting Goods perpetual trophy and the Wakayama Club Presidential trophy as well as a transistor radio. Nagao's 77 was good for a radio.

Hi Higashi (78-10) and T. Yuba (83-15) were tied for the runner-up net position with 68s while T. Shimizu had a 69.

In with 71s were Joe Kishi, Cy Yuguchi, M. Sugimoto, Bob Uragami, S. Kataoka, K. Nakanishi, George Shimizu and T. Hamasaki. At 72 were Kats Tatsumi, I. Higashi, F. Nishi, J. Marumoto and Dr. G. Kawakami. A total of 56 players competed.

All's Quiet On the Southern Front; Nisei Week Tourney Deadline Aug. 8th

There's a problem, at times, coming up wtih a readable "lead" as they say in the trade. An opening paragraph that tells all.

Two weeks ago we had one—concerning a certain tournament—and last week we had another'n—regarding the same item. And now, August 5th, it appears everything and everybody has returned to normal.

SCNGA president Fred Ikeguchi, after making a special trip down south, has apparently soothed the troubled waters—and a board meeting Monday ironed out the remaining problems.

A few minor prizes await distribution from San Diego results. Larry Mori, Yas Mikuriya, L. Shimabukuro and T. Inouye are on the list of winners receiving a half dozen balls while Chick Furuye is eligible for two. The balls await thee at Luis Aihara's office.

And having saved some items for off weeks such as we're now experiencing, let's catch up with a couple of items from John Ty Saito's typewriter:

Wally Ige of Top Flite won the June (June?) sweepstakes with a sensational 59 net, coming off a one under par 70 with an 11 handicap! Sam Yamashita of Max Flite was second with a 74-12 net 62. Tied for third were Max Fliters Tom Inouye (76-13) and Tosh Hisamune (78-15).

Out of the money but posting good scores were Ben Kobayashi, TF, 76-13; Mits Fujimoto, TF, 77-14; Richard Nagata, TB, 74-11; Roy Kato, SC, 72-7. Among the net 64s were George Ajioka, George Kurata, Hank Yonemoto, Richard Iwamoto and K. Okamura.

Penalties assessed for no reports totaled 14. Long Beach led the parade with 7, followed by Max Flite, 4, Air Flite 2 and Top Flite 1. This total marked the largest in several months. All members are once again reminded that score cards must include play through the 18th of each month and must be received by the handicap chairman no laterl than the 25th.

Tri-Club Tourney

Kyodo, Max Flite clubs will engage in a three-cornered affair this weekend at Montebello and Rio Hondo courses. Championship division will tee off from 5:15 at Montebello while the Aye Flighters have a 5:45 starting time at Rio.

(CR received the starting lineups and in reprinting them, find that the sender sent duplicate copies of the Aye Flight field—and forgot to enclose the Championship Flight listings. This being the case, we can only submit the Aye Flight lineup this week).

K. Nakagawa, 14; J. Kato, 14; M. Muto; J. Oda; S. Sano; F. Matsumoto, 11; F. Mizote, 14; C. Hirata, 11; S. Shima, 15; C. Suzukawa, 12; B. Hiramatsu, 15; B. Uragami, 11; H. Kirin, 16; K. Yamamoto, 11; K. Yoshioka, 15.

K. Nakamura, 16; A. Nakayama, 11; N. Kitaoka, 15; B. Kobayashi, 11; M. Fujimoto, 12; B. Kato, 12; F. Nagai, 11; T. Okutsu, 15; E. Yamada, 16; D. Takeshita, 12; J. Yamamoto, 12; I. Higashi, 15; H. Okura, 17.

H. Muraoka, 16; E. Yusa, 12; H. Hishiki, 14; D. Matsushima, 18; M. Narahara, 14; K. Hochi, 19; M. Ogawa, 18; T. Tomiyama, 17; J. Nakayama, 15; K. Nagamoto, 16; F. Tsuchiya, 16; D. Morishita, 19; S. Wada, 22; J. Kitayama, 23; A. Yamamoto, 17; H. Ishii, 15; M. Nishida, 22; M. Shinoda, 17; B. Hirai, 17.

Whatever the Championship Flight lineup might be, we suggest all players show up at Montebello at 5:15. As for pairings and starting times, the above listing was all we got—so I imagine Aye Flighters will hafta show up en masse at 5:45 to find out what the schedule is.

El Patio

Following a three-week delay because one of the combatants was on a vacation, El Patio's match play tournament wound up Sunday with Kats Yoshioka eliminating Francis Aoyama, 4 and 3.

The three week respite might have rested Aoyama but the Hawaiian air rusted his golf game. Kats went 3 up at the turn, winning #3 with a bogey (when Francis went OB); 4 with a birdie 2; 6 with another bogey; and 9 with a par. Aoyama won only the 5th with a par 4 as Kats was out in a four over 40.

Coming in, Yoshioka immediately added to his margin with a par 5 on #10 and after Aoyama took the 11th, Kats closed out the match on 15 with a birdie two. (He finished out the back nine in an even par 36 for a 76).

En route to his championship, Kats defeated T. Okuno by default; S. Hirasawa, 4 and 3; and in Harada by the same count in an 18-hole playoff.

In consolation play, Al Nakata downed Fumio Kinoshita in another 18 hole playoff.

The Sunday before, El Patio members held a steak and beans team tourney with the "Even" team winning by seven strokes, 514 to 521. The winners, who had steak sandwiches, golf balls and a good laugh, included S. Yukawa, 76; F Kinoshita, 71; J. Shimabukuro, 71; H. Harada, 69; K. Yoshioka, 74; S. Saito, 73; and F. Sera, 80.

San Diego Travelers Assured Carts; JACL Tournament Open to SCNGAers

July 11, Monday, is the absolute deadline for the upcoming San Diego Invitational which will be held July 17th at Torrey Pines tough South Course. The reason we say absolute is because George Azuma and his border crowd will probably be tougher on late entrants than the tournament committees hereabouts.

(But realizing some SCNGAers did not receive official entry blanks, maybe a day or two might not matter).

Entries and the $10 tab should be sent immediately to Azuma at 797 Date avenue in Chula Vista.

Luis Aihara, in answer to a number of local inquiries, states that he's received word that the course has reserved 40 carts for tournament use by traveling Angelinos. This means that at least 80 guys will be able to travel in luxury between shanks. (What happens to the left-overs, we dunno, but better bring your walking shoes).

Long Beach's Glen Harada is the defending champion. He fired a sharp 71 to beat out associate Joe Nakanishi by a stroke. CR is hoping to receive the lineups by next week's deadline.

J.A.C.L.

The golf tournament being held in conjunction with the San Diego JACL Convention is scheduled for Thursday, July 27, 7:30 a.m., according to a reminder received from George S. Muto.

The tourney will be at the Stardust Country Club in beautiful Mission Valley, one of 40 golf courses in and around the border city.

Entry fee is $12 per person (with an additional $2 charge for registration fee), according to cochairmen Muto and Eddie Urata. They have arranged the flights, luncheon and przies and promise the Stardust course (site of several PGA Open tournaments) will be in perfect shape for championship golf.

"All SCNGA members are eligible to complete," Muto reminds.

El Patio

Francis Aoyama defeated defending champion Ed Fujimoto 2 & 1 and Kats Yoshioka survived an 18-hole plaoff to set the stage for this week's match play finals.

Aoyama's lengthy drives kept the pressure on Ed throughout with the ex-champ succumbing on the 17th green. The second match found Harada and Kats Yoshioka trying to give their match away—with Min finally accepting. All even after 12, Min lost the next 3 holes then Kats turned around and dropped the final 3 to wind up in a tie. Kats blew putts of 2 ft on 16 and 1½ on 18. In the playoff Min went OB on the 17th tee to drop the match, 4 and 2.

In the consolation bracket, Al Nakata edged past Dan Fujimoto and Fumio Kinoshita ousted Frank Sera, 4 and 3.

143 Lined Up for San Diego Tourney At Torrey Pines South, More Expected

There will be at least 144 participating in the San Diego Invitational up for renewal this Sunday on the tough Torrey Pines south course.

We say "at least" because the entry deadline was Monday, July 11, and CR got the starting times and foursomes Tuesday via special delivery. Which means that belated entrants from the SoCal area might wind up out on their ears unless The S.D. sponsors revice the lineups to take care of "late" entries.

At any rate the guys who got in are assured of a fine tournament.

The SCNGA "jet set" is kinda dwindling down these days but a number of hot shots are making the trek. Among them are Joe Kishi, Jerry Ross, Joe Nakanishi and Don Tamura, all 6 handicappers, as well as Long Beach's 5 handicap Harada and Min Yoshizaki, a 4. Fred Ikeguchi, Herb Isono, Fran Uyematsu, Babe Nomura, and Roy Kato are other low handi men (7s) in the lineup.

Brooksider Art Kirita reports finding a sand wedge on the 18th green during the recent Ojai tournament. If the loser be a SCNGA member and still wants it—contact Art.

Max Flite

The annual Umeya Senbei-Hochi Jeweler 36-holer tournament will be staged at Montebellow CC by the Max Flite club. The two-Sunday affair, July 24 and 31, will wind up with a perpetual trophy winner plus many outstanding prizes.

JACL Tournament

The third annual JACL tournament slated for renewal this Sunday at Fox Hills has been postponed. The course is currently under repair necessitating the switch to Sunday, Sept. 11, at Los Serranos' south course.

San Diego Invitational Upsets Many Golfers--But Not Winner George Azuma

The San Diego Invitational Golf Tournament held its 1966 renewal at Torrey Pines south course this past Sabbath — and just might have come close to being the last.

The touring Southern California Nisei Golf Association members have often been pictured as spoiled and onery, and on many occasions the charges have probably been true, but in the case of this past Sunday — the gripes and bitching echoing still were well-founded and worth repeating.

But before we get entangled in a South-Further South vendetta, might it be noted that George Azuma, secretary-treasurer of the San Diego Nisei Golf Club, sent along an apology from himself and the SDNGC for the negative aspects of the tournament.

The Gripes

For the benefit of the non-travelers, it was probably just as well you didn't make the trek—this year. Listed in catch-as-catch-can order, the complaints siphoning into CR include a lack of electric carts despite pre-tourney assignments; complete disorganization in pairings with 5s playing with 9s and 8s paired with 12 handicappers; and with pairings apparently drawn before the deadline, the whole kit and kaboodle teed off en masse with no regard to flights. On top of it all, some early applicants weren't even listed in the original line-up and the later entrants weren't listed at all.

As far as the results are concerned, San Diegans copped all three flights — which probably made the SCNGAers that much more unhappy. George Azuma, saddled with the thankless job of running the field, somehow managed to forget all the woes and posted a fine 77 for the low gross title.

The Winners

Fellow clubman Pete Umekubo's 79 (9)—70 brought home the low net championship with Tosh Hayakawa of Brookside the runner-up at 71. SDmen J. Uchimiya and George Seki were next in line with 72s.

In the First Flight, one Don Carter (a guest from Indio) took the marbles with a 69, which was matched by Don Dono of Top Notch. Carter carried a 14 handicap while Dono had a 13. P. Yamamoto and J. Takashima of SD were next in line with a 70 and 71.

and also our errors in scheduling this tournament. Please excuse our errors (for) we'll do better in 1967. Thanks again to (the) SCNGA for (its) cooperation." The message was signed by George Azuma.

An ACe

Roy Ito joined the growing list of SCNGA hole-in-oners when he tanked an Ace at Montebello last Sunday. The 9 handicapper from West Los Angeles one-stroked the 150 yard 16th hole using a 7 iron. Playing with Ito were Jim Fukuhara, Mas Matsumura and Ben Hayashida. Ito wound up the day with a fine 76 gross score.

the courses of Singing Hills and Cottonwood this Saturday and Sunday, Sept. 18 and 19, respectively, has attracted a field of 73 players.

Two flights, 40 duffers in the Championship Flight and 33 in the Ave Flight, are scheduled with first tee-off set for 11 a.m. at Singing Hills. The pairings are, as follows:

pose is to "introduc[illegible] sei Week queen candidates to the public.

Its actual result is for some to booze it up for free and for others to engage in inane conversation. (What'cha been doing? Ah, not much. How 'bout you? Oh, the same ole routine. Who do you think will win this year? I dunno. Who's your choice?).

The actions of our good Consul General more or less wrap up the attitudes of most in regards this function.

The thing started at 2. A mass of people shot a mile of film of the seven candidates (on the same decrepit garden stairs); then everyone returned inside to (a) crowd past the buffet table and (b) bar.

Press representatives then confronted the girls to get their earth-shattering comments on such momentous questions as "How are you enjoying the contest?", "What is your opinion of Nisei Week?" "What are you going to be when you grow up?" (Holy cleft palate!!!!)

All during this routine the CG is acting as the gracious

Down he [illegible] slacks and knit t-shirt, hasty acknowledgement of goodbyes—and off he goes in his Datsun for a quick 9 holes of golf.

That's what I like about the guy. Stuck with social graces and protocol so much of the time, it's refreshing to see someone say to hell with it all and go his merry way.

You oughta try it sometime, people.

Nagao and Kishi winners in SCNGA 36-hole S.D. tourney

SAN DIEGO.—The going was rough on the tight and narrow Singing Hills course with its fast greens on Saturday and just as rough on Sunday at the longer Cottonwood Country Club course in So. Calif. Nisei Golf Association's two-day, 36-hole medal play tournament.

Eddie Nagao of SCNGA and Nisei American Realty found the courses to his liking and came home with a two-day 159 gross total. This was good enough for the low gross win but he elected to take the low net trophy in the Championship Flight. His net score was 143.

Jim Kobayashi of Orange County and David Arakaki of El Patio tied for second low net in the Championship Flight with 146 scores.

San Diego Travelers Assured Carts; JACL Tournament Open to SCNGAers

July 11, Monday, is the absolute deadline for the upcoming San Diego Invitational which will be held July 17th at Torrey Pines tough South Course. The reason we say absolute is because George Azuma and his border crowd will probably be tougher on late entrants than the tournament committees hereabouts.

(But realizing some SCNGAers did not receive official entry blanks, maybe a day or two might not matter).

Entries and the $10 tab should be sent immediately to Azuma at 797 Date avenue in Chula Vista.

Luis Aihara, in answer to a number of local inquiries, states that he's received word that the course has reserved 40 carts for tournament use by traveling Angelinos. This means that at least 80 guys will be able to travel in luxury between shanks. (What happens to the left-overs, we dunno, but better bring your walking shoes).

Long Beach's Glen Harada is the defending champion. He fired a sharp 77 to beat out associate Joe Nakanishi by a stroke. CR is hoping to receive the lineups by next week's deadline.

J.A.C.L.

The golf tournament being held in conjunction with the San Diego JACL Convention is scheduled for Thursday, July 27, 7:30 a.m., according to a reminder received from George S. Muto.

The tourney will be at the Stardust Country Club in beautiful Mission Valley, one of 40 golf courses in and around the border city.

Entry fee is $12 per person (with an additional $2 charge for registration fee), according to cochairmen Muto and Eddie Urata. They have arranged the flights, luncheon and przies and promise the Stardust course (site of several PGA Open tournaments) will be in perfect shape for championship golf.

"All SCNGA members are eligible to complete," Muto reminds.

El Patio

Francis Aoyama defeated defending champion Ed Fujimoto 2 & 1 and Kats Yoshioka survived an 18-hole plaoff to set the stage for this week's match play finals.

Aoyama's lengthy drives kept the pressure on Ed throughout with the ex-champ succumbing on the 17th green. The second match found Harada and Kats Yoshioka trying to give their match away—with Min finally accepting. All even after 12, Min lost the next 3 holes then Kats turned around and dropped the final 3 to wind up in a tie. Kats blew putts of 2 ft on 16 and 1½ on 18. In the playoff Min went OB on the 17th tee to drop the match, 4 and 2.

In the consolation bracket, Al Nakata edged past Dan Fujimoto and Fumio Kinoshita ousted Frank Sera, 4 and 3.

143 Lined Up for San Diego Tourney At Torrey Pines South, More Expected

There will be at least 144 participating in the San Diego Invitational up for renewal this Sunday on the tough Torrey Pines south course.

We say "at least" because the entry deadline was Monday, July 11, and CR got the starting times and foursomes Tuesday via special delivery. Which means that belated entrants from the SoCal area might wind up out on their ears unless The S.D. sponsors revice the lineups to take care of "late" entries.

At any rate the guys who got in are assured of a fine tournament.

The SCNGA "jet set" is kinda dwindling down these days but a number of hot shots are making the trek. Among them are Joe Kishi, Jerry Ross, Joe Nakanishi and Don Tamura, all 6 handicappers, as well as Long Beach's 5 handicap Harada and Min Yoshizaki, a 4. Fred Ikeguchi, Herb Isono, Fran Uyematsu, Babe Nomura, and Roy Kato are other low handi men (7s) in the lineup.

Brooksider Art Kirita reports finding a sand wedge on the 18th green during the recent Ojai tournament. If the loser be a SCNGA member and still wants it—contact Art.

Max Flite

The annual Umeya Senbei-Hochi Jeweler 36-holer tournament will be staged at Montebellow CC by the Max Flite club. The two-Sunday affair, July 24 and 31, will wind up with a perpetual trophy winner plus many outstanding prizes.

JACL Tournament

The third annual JACL tournament slated for renewal this Sunday at Fox Hills has been postponed. The course is currently under repair necessitating the switch to Sunday, Sept. 11, at Los Serranos' south course.

San Diego Invitational Upsets Many Golfers--But Not Winner George Azuma

The San Diego Invitational Golf Tournament held its 1966 renewal at Torrey Pines south course this past Sabbath — and just might have come close to being the last.

The touring Southern California Nisei Golf Association members have often been pictured as spoiled and onery, and on many occasions the charges have probably been true, but in the case of this past Sunday — the gripes and bitching echoing still were well-founded and worth repeating.

But before we get entangled in a South-Further South vendetta, might it be noted that George Azuma, secretary-treasurer of the San Diego Nisei Golf Club, sent along an apology from himself and the SDNGC for the negative aspects of the tournament.

The Gripes

For the benefit of the non-travelers, it was probably just as well you didn't make the trek—this year. Listed in catch-as-catch-can order, the complaints siphoning into CR include a lack of electric carts despite pre-tourney assignments; complete disorganization in pairings with 5s playing with 9s and 8s paired with 12 handicappers; and with pairings apparently drawn before the deadline, the whole kit and kaboodle teed off en masse with no regard to flights. On top of it all, some early applicants weren't even listed in the original line-up and the later entrants weren't listed at all.

As far as the results are concerned, San Diegans copped all three flights — which probably made the SCNGAers that much more unhappy. George Azuma, saddled with the thankless job of running the field, somehow managed to forget all the woes and posted a fine 77 for the low gross title.

The Winners

Fellow clubman Pete Umekubo's 79 (9)—70 brought home the low net championship with Tosh Hayakawa of Brookside the runner-up at 71. SDmen J. Uchimiya and George Seki were next in line with 72s.

In the First Flight, one Don Carter (a guest from Indio) took the marbles with a 69, which was matched by Don Dono of Top Notch. Carter carried a 14 handicap while Dono had a 13. P. Yamamoto and J. Takashima of SD were next in line with a 70 and 71.

and also our errors in scheduling this tournament. Please excuse our errors (for) we'll do better in 1967. Thanks again to (the) SCNGA for (its) cooperation." The message was signed by George Azuma.

An ACe

Roy Ito joined the growing list of SCNGA hole-in-oners when he tanked an Ace at Montebello last Sunday. The 9 handicapper from West Los Angeles one-stroked the 150 yard 16th hole using a 7 iron. Playing with Ito were Jim Fukuhara, Mas Matsumura and Ben Hayashida. Ito wound up the day with a fine 76 gross score.

All's Quiet On the Southern Front; Nisei Week Tourney Deadline Aug. 8th

There's a problem, at times, coming up wtih a readable "lead" as they say in the trade. An opening paragraph that tells all.

Two weeks ago we had one—concerning a certain tournament—and last week we had another'n —regarding the same item. And now, August 5th, it appears everything and everybody has returned to normal.

SCNGA president Fred Ikeguchi, after making a special trip down south, has apparently soothed the troubled waters—and a board meeting Monday ironed out the remaining problems.

A few minor prizes await distribution from San Diego results. Larry Mori, Yas Mikuriya, L. Shimabukuro and T. Inouye are on the list of winners receiving a half dozen balls while Chick Furuye is eligible for two. The balls await thee at Luis Aihara's office.

And having saved some items for off weeks such as we're now experiencing, let's catch up with a couple of items from John Ty Saito's typewriter:

Wally Ige of Top Flite won the June (June?) sweepstakes with a sensational 59 net, coming off a one under par 70 with an 11 handicap! Sam Yamashita of Max Flite was second with a 74-12 net 62. Tied for third were Max Fliters Tom Inouye (76-13) and Tosh Hisamune (78-15).

Out of the money but posting good scores were Ben Kobayashi, TF, 76-13; Mits Fujimoto, TF, 77-14; Richard Nagata, TB, 74-11; Roy Kato, SC, 72-7. Among the net 64s were George Ajioka, George Kurata, Hank Yonemoto, Richard Iwamoto and K. Okamura.

Penalties assessed for no reports totaled 14. Long Beach led the parade with 7, followed by Max Flite, 4, Air Flite 2 and Top Flite 1. This total marked the largest in several months. All members are once again reminded that score cards must include play through the 18th of each month and must be received by the handicap chairman no laterl than the 25th.

Tri-Club Tourney

Kyodo, Max Flite clubs will engage in a three-cornered affair this weekend at Montebello and Rio Hondo courses. Championship division will tee off from 5:15 at Montebello while the Aye Flighters have a 5:45 starting time at Rio.

(CR received the starting lineups and in reprinting them, find that the sender sent duplicate copies of the Aye Flight field—and forgot to enclose the Championship Flight listings. This being the case, we can only submit the Aye Flight lineup this week).

K. Nakagawa, 14; J. Kato, 14; M. Muto; J. Oda; S. Sano; F. Matsumoto, 11; F. Mizote, 14; C. Hirata, 11; S. Shima, 15; C. Suzukawa, 12; B. Hiramatsu, 15; B. Uragami, 11; H. Kirin, 16; K. Yamamoto, 11; K. Yoshioka, 15.

K. Nakamura, 16; A. Nakayama, 11; N. Kitaoka, 15; B. Kobayashi, 11; M. Fujimoto, 12; B. Kato, 12; F. Nagai, 11; T. Okutsu, 15; E. Yamada, 16; D. Takeshita, 12; J. Yamamoto, 12; I. Higashi, 15; H. Okura, 17.

H. Muraoka, 16; E. Yusa, 12; H. Hishiki, 14; D. Matsushima, 18; M. Narahara, 14; K. Hochi, 19; M. Ogawa, 18; T. Tomiyama, 17; J. Nakayama, 15; K. Nagamoto, 16; F. Tsuchiya, 16; D. Morishita, 19; S. Wada, 22; J. Kitayama, 23; A. Yamamoto, 17; H. Ishii, 15; M. Nishida, 22; M. Shinoda, 17; B. Hirai, 17.

Whatever the Championship Flight lineup might be, we suggest all players show up at Montebello at 5:15. As for pairings and starting times, the above listing was all we got—so I imagine Aye Flighters will hafta show up en masse at 5:45 to find out what the schedule is.

El Patio

Following a three-week delay because one of the combatants was on a vacation, El Patio's match play tournament wound up Sunday with Kats Yoshioka eliminating Francis Aoyama, 4 and 3.

The three week respite might have rested Aoyama but the Hawaiian air rusted his golf game. Kats went 3 up at the turn, winning #3 with a bogey (when Francis went OB); 4 with a birdie 2; 6 with another bogey; and 9 with a par. Aoyama won only the 5th with a par 4 as Kats was out in a four over 40.

Coming in, Yoshioka immediately added to his margin with a par 5 on #10 and after Aoyama took the 11th, Kats closed out the match on 15 with a birdie two. (He finished out the back nine in an even par 36 for a 76).

En route to his championship, Kats defeated T. Okuno by default; S. Hirasawa, 4 and 3; and in Harada by the same count in an 18-hole playoff.

In consolation play, Al Nakata downed Fumio Kinoshita in another 18 hole playoff.

The Sunday before, El Patio members held a steak and beans team tourney with the "Even" team winning by seven strokes, 514 to 521. The winners, who had steak sandwiches, golf balls and a good laugh, included S. Yukawa, 76; F Kinoshita, 71; J. Shimabukuro, 71; H. Harada, 69; K. Yoshioka, 74; S. Saito, 73; and F. Sera, 80.

Giant Nisei Week Tournament Next; Kyodo Walks Off with Tri-Club Honors

With another eight late-comers added to the field ready for the annual 'biggie' on the SCNGA tournament trail, 259 swingers are awaiting this Sunday morning with anticipation.

The massive 18-hole medal play will be launched by the Championship Flight at 6 a.m. at Montebello Country Club. Tom Kurumada, winner of the coveted low gross trophy last year in a whizbang sudden death, will be back on the scene to try for an unprecedented back-to-back victory.

Jim Ihira of Max Flite, who lost out in the playoff after matching Kurumada's 76 is also back for another try. George Ige, the remaining challenger in last year's tight finish and eventual low net winner is passing this time around. AF's Gene Noji and assoiaite George Wada, gross and net winners in '64, are also noted in the lineup.

A quick perusal of the starting times reveals new champs will be forthcoming in the Aye, Bee and Cee flights. Tom Furusho, Tom Inouye and Gene Neishi are nowhere to be found in the entry lists—all winners of their respective flights in 1965.

There will be a lengthy prize list for each flight to shoot for as well as "closest-to-pin" contest A luncheon and awards presentation program is slated following the conclusion of each flight.

Somewhat lost in the shuffle of publicity is the upcoming Senior's Tournament, the sixth annual renewal.

The fall classic for the youthful oldies will be staged August 28 at Rio Hondo.

Entry notices have apparently been mailed to previous tourney competitors but for the benefit of recently turned 50 golfers, a final reminder is being made that deadline for entry has been extended to this Sunday, Aug. 21.

Anyone in the SCNGA 50 or older is eligible to compete for the many prizes for a mere $12. Max Flite's Jim Ihira, who almost completed the difficult task of back-to-back victories in the Nisei Week and Senior tournaments last year, is again trying for the daily double.

As the defending champion, Jim has already retired the perpetual trophy.

The third annual Downtown JACL chapter golf tournament is up for grabs Sunday, Sept. 11, 9:30 a.m., at Los Serrano course in Chino. Chapter members and friends are invited to participate on a first-come, first-served basis as the field is limited to only 60 players.

Reservations, at $8 per, must be made by August 30 through Ed Matsuda, 204 S. San Pedro St., or Takito Yamaguma, 120 S. San Pedro St.

Min Yoshizaki sends along an added note, altho on the social side. Top Notch will again hold a New Year's Eve celebration come December 31st. When asked why the early announcement, Min answered "so people can start making plans."

Tri-Club Finals

Vic Yamane of Kyodo gave a 36-hole golfing lesson to members of Top Flite and Max Flite as the veteran linksman put together the finest tournament rounds of his career to win the Tri-Club tourney with a sizzling 133.

Even at that Yamane was a slender stroke victor as Top Flite's Wally Ige put together rounds of 69-65 for a 134 net total. Yamane had net scores of 68-65 fashioned off gross counts of 76 and 73. Although way out of the money, Jimmy Saito got some satisfaction that his 72 was the low gross for the day at Rio ondo. The final standings:

1. Vic Yamane, K.....68-65—133
2. Wally Ige, TF........69-65—134
3. K. Kuratani, TF....69-68—137

ENGLISH SECTION EDITOR

There are two schools of thoughts involved in last Saturday night's basketball game at the Sports Arena.

If one chose to root for USC, what the Trojans did in the game (put the ball in a deep freeze) was "wonderful strategy."

On the other hand, if one was a Bruin fan, what SC did was an act of cowardacy in the highest degree.

As a strategy, I don't think there is anything wrong with it. No more so than any other play a coach may employ.

From a fan's point of view, however, such strategy may seem to return the game to the era of the peachbasket.

Pro basketball, for example, is a well-attended event because it puts on display the offensive talents of some of the cage greats.

The pros would be playing to a lot of empty houses if they didn't employ the 24-second rule which forces the team with the ball to get off a shot during the 24-second period, or give up possession.

John Wooden, coach of the Bruins, has advocated the some rule for the college teams. (Before he got Lew Alcindor, by the way).

Bob Boyd of SC, on the other hand, wouldn't think of such a thing.

It would seem that if SC would do a better job of recruiting, they might not be faced with their current predicament. Of course they can never hope to grab another Alcindor but there are a lot more talent on the UCLA side of the ledger than big Lew. And have you noticed that the UCLAfrosh five has dumped the Troy peagreens with relative ease ? Is SC going to have to play a stalling game for the next three years ? How can they hope to lure top basketball players to their school if they plan to use the stalling game each time they play UCLA ? Boyd says it's the only way he can hope to win. Maybe so, but while he may hope to win, he is defeating the image of SC basketball.

Perhaps Boyd can add a special assignment squad to his team much in the manner of the pro football teams, with their kick-off team, their punt receiving team, and field-goal unit.

SC's unit could be called the "Bruin Game Squad." It could be composed of five players who are not prone to catching cold if they stand around for long preiods o ftime in their shorts

They won't have to be able to shoot baskets but must have a thick skin to ward off the insulting remarks of the fans.

All of them should be able to dribble the ball well, which is probably the only part of their portfolio which may resemble what a real basketball player should look like.

George Ige, the remaining challenger in last year's tight finish and eventual low net winner is passing this time around. AF's Gene Noji and associaite George Wada, gross and net winners in '64, are also noted in the lineup.

A quick perusal of the starting times reveals new champs will be forthcoming in the Aye, Bee and Cee flights. Tom Furusho, Tom Inouye and Gene Neishi are nowhere to be found in the entry lists—all winners of their respective flights in 1965.

There will be a lengthy prize list for each flight to shoot for as well as "closest-to-pin" contest A luncheon and awards presentation program is slated following the conclusion of each flight.

Somewhat lost in the shuffle of publicity is the upcoming Senior's Tournament, the sixth annual renewal.

The fall classic for the youthful oldies will be staged August 28 at Rio Hondo.

Entry notices have apparently been mailed to previous tourney competitors but for the benefit of recently turned 50 golfers, a final reminder is being made that deadline for entry has been extended to this Sunday, Aug. 21.

Anyone in the SCNGA 50 or older is eligible to compete for the many prizes for a mere $12. Max Flite's Jim Ihira, who almost completed the difficult task of back-to-back victories in the Nisei Week and Senior tournaments last year, is again trying for the daily double.

As the defending champion, Jim has already retired the perpetual trophy.

Top Notch

TN Prexy Paul Tsukahara, trying his damndest to keep the oldest club in the SCNGA perking, has instituted unscheduled "surprise tournaments" as a lure to members for regular Sunday play.

They had one last Sunday with Sueo Hirashima carting off the major portion of the loot on the strength of a fantastic 76 (15)—61. It wasn't easy at that what with Kim Hatashita coming up with one of his best rounds, a 72-10—62! (Elsewhere on notes taken from John Taizo's conversation, we noted "Top Notch & Suntory." Which must mean the prizes were donated by the two).

Downtown JACL

The third annual Downtown JACL chapter golf tournament is up for grabs Sunday, Sept. 11, 9:30 a.m., at Los Serrano course in Chino. Chapter members and friends are invited to participate on a first-come, first-served basis as the field is limited to only 60 players.

Reservations, at $8 per, must be made by August 30 through Ed Matsuda, 204 S. San Pedro St., or Takito Yamaguma, 120 S. San Pedro St.

Min Yoshizaki sends along an added note, altho on the social side. Top Notch will again hold a New Year's Eve celebration come December 31st. When asked why the early announcement, Min answered "so people can start making plans."

Tri-Club Finals

Vic Yamane of Kyodo gave a 36-hole golfing lesson to members of Top Flite and Max Flite as the veteran linksman put together the finest tournament rounds of his career to win the Tri-Club tourney with a sizzling 133.

Even at that Yamane was a slender stroke victor as Top Flite's Wally Ige put together rounds of 69-65 for a 134 net total. Yamane had net scores of 68-65 fashioned off gross counts of 76 and 73. Although way out of the money, Jimmy Saito got some satisfaction that his 72 was the low gross for the day at Rio ondo. The final standings:

1. Vic Yamane, K.....68-65—133
2. Wally Ige, TF........69-65—134
3. K. Kuratani, TF....69-68—137
   Y. Shimizu, MF........70-67—137
5. H. Yamagata, TF....72-66—138
   D. Izuno, TF............70-68—138
   M. Miyamoto, TF....69-69—138
8. B. Moriyama, TF....69-70—139

Yas Tatsumi, George Endo, Wally Nagata, and Jack Maeshiro, all of Top Flite, wound up in the 9th place tie with 140s.

Over at Montebello, the Aye Fliters had a rougher time of it scoring well but here again the little-heard-from Kyodo club came up with a winner as Shingo Shima outlasted the field for the $25 and huge trophy.

Shima had steady scores of 83-82 for a 135 net with his 15 handicap. MF's Hiro Kiriu came up with a pair of 84s, good for runner-up at 136, thanks to a 16 handi. Final standings as presented by Kyodo's Frank Mizote:

2/4/66

There are two schools of thoughts involved in last Saturday night's basketball game at the Sports Arena.

If one chose to root for USC, what the Trojans did in the game (put the ball in a deep freeze) was "wonderful strategy."

On the other hand, if one was a Bruin fan, what SC did was an act of cowardacy in the highest degree.

As a strategy, I don't think there is anything wrong with it. No more so than any other play a coach may employ.

From a fan's point of view, however, such strategy may seem to return the game to the era of the peachbasket.

Pro basketball, for example, is a well-attended event because it puts on display the offensive talents of some of the cage greats.

The pros would be playing to a lot of empty houses if they didn't employ the 24-second rule which forces the team with the ball to get off a shot during the 24-second period, or give up possession.

John Wooden, coach of the Bruins, has advocated the some rule for the college teams. (Before he got Lew Alcindor, by the way).

Bob Boyd of SC, on the other hand, wouldn't think of such a thing.

It would seem that if SC would do a better job of recruiting, they might not be faced with their current predicament. Of course they can never hope to grab another Alcindor but there are a lot more talent on the UCLA side of the ledger than big Lew. And have you noticed that the UCLAfrosh five has dumped the Troy peagreens with relative ease? Is SC going to have to play a stalling game for the next three years? How can they hope to lure top basketball players to their school if they plan to use the stalling game each time they play UCLA? Boyd says it's the only way he can hope to win. Maybe so, but while he may hope to win, he is defeating the image of SC basketball.

Perhaps Boyd can add a special assignment squad to his team much in the manner of the pro football teams, with their kick-off team, their punt receiving team, and field-goal unit.

SC's unit could be called the "Bruin Game Squad." It could be composed of five players who are not prone to catching cold if they stand around for long preiods o ftime in their shorts

They won't have to be able to shoot baskets but must have a thick skin to ward off the insulting remarks of the fans.

All of them should be able to dribble the ball well, which is probably the only part of their portfolio which may resemble what a real basketball player should look like.

NISEI WEEK.......

Field of 251 Lined Up for Nisei Week Tournament, Aug. 21, at Montebello CC

After struggling through a maze of checks and late entries, the Southern California Nisei Golf Association tournament committee issued starting times to 251 for the upcoming Nisei Week golf tournament slated for Montebello CC, Sunday, Aug. 21.

Championship Flight, 69-strong, will launch play at 6 a.m. with Aye Flighters benefiting from the annual rotation of flights ot gain the "banker" time slots from 7:45 to 9:16. There will be 65 in the Aye, embracing golfers in the 10-11 handicap bracket. Championship flight goes from 9 handicap (44 all told) to Min Yoshizaki's low of 2.

Cee Flight lured 57 swingers in the unwieldy range from 15 to 23. They will fire away from 9:30 with the last foursome taking off at 10:54. Bee Flight gets the dubious honor of teeing off last. Starting at 11:08, a total of 12 fivesomes in the 12-14 handicap division will fire with the final group scheduled for a 12:25 tee-off time.

Tsukahara cops low n

Lightning fast and dried greens played havoc for some of the 256 golfers in the four flights of the Nisei Week golf tournament on Sunday at the Montebello Country Club course but many found the conditions to their liking.

Ed Nagao of Nisei American Realty was one of those who prospered. The six-handicapper out of So. Calif. Nisei Golf Association went out in 39 and came home with a blazing 36 to cop low gross championship with a 75 score. Second was Don Iwata of Top Notch with a 76.

Dr. Paul Tsukahara of Top Notch and Louie Iriye of Thunderbird, both carrying a nine handicap, tied for low net first in Championship Flight competition. Tsukahara won the play-off with a par on the 19th hole.

Fred Harada of Max Flite played steady ball to take honors in Aye Flight with a net 67 score, one stroke up on runner-up M. Hamasu of SCNGA.

L. Shimabukuro of Thunderbird and Stan Furuta of Top Notch, both 15 handicap players, tied in Cee Flight competition with net 69s. In the sudden death play-off, Shimabukuro won and nabbed first place.

Chick Kawasaki of Max Flite defeated Donald Dono of Top Notch with a par on the 19th hole after two of them had finished 18 holes of competition, deadlocked at net 69s. Kawasaki carried a 14 handicap and Dono a 13 handicap.

BEAUTIES AND BEASTS—SCNGA President Freddie Ikeguchi manages a slight smirk (he lost) but the dark fellow seated in the golf cart had reason to smile. Associate member Eddie Nagao won the coveted low gross trophy of the Nisei Week Golf Tournament with a 75 at Montebello CC. Eddie Nagao fired an even par backside to cop the top prize of the Nisei Week Golf Tournament yesterday at Montebello Country Club carding a four-over-par 99-36-75.

Top Notch's 6 handicap Don Iwata was second one stroke behind Nagao, with a 38-38-76.

Three sudden-death playoffs determined winners for the first prize low net trophy plus thirty dollars.

Paul Tsukahara in the Championship Flight bested Louis Iriye, Chick Kawasaki defeated Don Dono in the Bee Flight and L. Shimabukuro won over Stan Furuta in the Cee Flight. All were winners at the 19th hole with a par. Fred Harada captured the Aye Flight by one stroke over M. Hamasu.

Eddie Nagao 'NW' Victor With 75 Gross; Max Fliters Enjoy Home Course Edge

Eddie Nagao, a former member of Max Flite club, returned to his old home course and renewed acquaintanceship with Montebello CC 75 times to emerge the winner of the annual Nisei Week Golf Tournament.

Regarded as a "money" player despite an 8 handicap, Nagao negotiated the relatively uneventful 6640-yard course with 39-36 nines, tanking an all-important birdie putt on the 500-yard par 5 17th hole. Playing in the middle of the opening Championship Flight division, Nagao's biggest threat came from the 7:10 foursome which included a pair of Top Notchers, Don Iwata and Joe Kishi.

Kishi, a 6 handicapper, was one-over at the turn with only a bogey 4 on the short par 3 6th marring his card. But Joe blew himself right out of contention on the next four holes, losing six strokes to par with three bogeys and disastrous double on 11. Meanwhile, the long-belting youngster Iwata was putting together consistent scores of 38-38 for a 76. Three bogeys marred the front side with a bogey on 10 and muffed putt on 12 for a double bogey erasing a closing birdie 4 on the 18th. Paul Tsukahara, now down to a strong 9 handicap, also toured the front nine in 36 strokes to be in a menacing position but required 42 swings to complete the tour. Nevertheless, Dr. Paul's 78-9 was good for low net honors folowing an extra hole playoff with Louis Iriye (77-6). Tsukahara ousted Iriye with a par 4 on the 19th hole.

PAR OUT	4 4 5	4 4 3	4 4 3
Nagao	5 5 6	5 4 3	5 4 2	—39
Iwata	5 4 5	4 5 3	4 5 3	—38
Kishi	4 4 5	4 4 4	4 4 3	—36
PAR IN	4 4 4	4 3 4	3 5 5

Iwata	5 4 6	4 3 4	3 5 4	—38—76
Kishi	5 6 5	5 3 4	4 5 6	—42—78

Fred Harada, another Max Fliter putting course knowledge to good use, copped the Aye Flight competition with a fine 77-10—67 net score. Mas Hamasu, an assoсiiate member, carded a 78-10—68 for the runner-up spot.

Chick Kawasaki, yet another MFer, was deadlocked with Top Notcher Don Dono after 18 holes with identical 69s. Kawasaki then posted a par 4 on the first overtime hole to pull down the championship. Chick had a 43-40 (14) while Dono came up with a 40-42 (13).

Brookside

Tosh Hayakawa, Mr. Treasurer of the SCNGA, proved to be a money player, minting a superb final round to capture Brookside's annual 72-hole tournament.

Going into the final round five strokes off the pace, Hayakawa applied the pressure to the leaders with his patented putting finesse to post a sizzling 65 net, best of the lengthy tourney. (According to the Br reporter, the third round leaders gagged and faltered—"an affliction readily diagnosed as constriction of the throat").

Hayakawa, via his come-from-behind victory, wound up the proud recipient of a new set of woods generously donated (each year) by George Heaney, the Brookside golf pro. The final results:

1.	T. Hayakawa	67-72-73-65—277

NISEI WEEK.....

Field of 251 Lined Up for Nisei Week Tournament, Aug. 21, at Montebello CC

After struggling through a maze of checks and late entries, the Southern California Nisei Golf Association tournament committee issued starting times to 251 for the upcoming Nisei Week golf tournament slated for Montebello CC, Sunday, Aug. 21.

Championship Flight, 69-strong, will launch play at 6 a.m. with Aye Flighters benefiting from the annual rotation of flights ot gain the "banker" time slots from 7:45 to 9:16. There will be 65 in the Aye, embracing golfers in the 10-11 handicap bracket. Championship flight goes from 9 handicap (44 all told) to Min Yoshizaki's low of 2.

Cee Flight lured 57 swingers in the unwieldy range from 15 to 23. They will fire away from 9:30 with the last foursome taking off at 10:54. Bee Flight gets the dubious honor of teeing off last. Starting at 11:08, a total of 12 fivesomes in the 12-14 handicap division will fire with the final group scheduled for a 12:25 tee-off time.

Tri-Club

Second round pairings for the annual Tri-Club tournament being held at Montebello and Rio Hondo courses were released this week by Al Tengan.

Championship Flighters, after a Sunday of many good scores at Montebello, move over to Rio for the final round with a 5:45 starting time.

1. G. Oura, T. Inouye, T. Kuwahara, B. Naka.
2. J. Maeshiro, T. Kaneko, R. Nagao, J. Saito, B. Nomura.
3. J. Kakuuchi, C. Kawasaki, G. Shimazu, M. Sewaki, B. Motoi.
4. A. Tengan, W. Nagata, F. Oshiro, J. Shigeishi.
5. H. Yamagata, I. Kudow, J. Ihara, R. Suzukawa, F. Uyematsu.
6. H. Higashi, B. Fukuhara, D. Doyle, G. Endo, K. Shimizu.
7. D. Izuno, G. Yamagata, G. Aratani, F. Harada, J. Fujinaka.
8. T. Kitaoka, V. Yamane, W. Ige, K. Kuratani, Y. Shimizu.
9. T. Hisamune, M. Matsumura, B. Moriyama, Y. Tatsumi, M. Miyamoto.

Kyodo's Vic Yamane had a 39-37—76 to lead the low gross brigade but his net 68 is only good for a third place tie as T. Hisamune parleyed a 38-40—78 with a 12 handicap to hold a slim one stroke advantage over T. Kataoka's 67 fashiond off a 78 gross effort. Knotted with Yamane at 68 is MF's Mike Matsumura.

Championship Flight standings at the halfway mark:

1.	T. Hisamune	38-40	(12)	—66
2.	T. Kitaoka	37-41	(11)	—67
3.	V. Yamane	39-37	(8)	—68
	M. Matsumura	42-37	(11)	—68

B. Moriyama, Y. Tatsumi, W. Ige, M. Miyamoto and K. Kuratani are all deadlocked with 69s and well within hailing distance of the leaders.

Reporting to Montebello at 5:15 will be the Aye Flighters with Top Fliter Cliff Suzukawa threatening to make a runaway of this division.

He came up with a sizzling 36 back nine at Rio last week to go with his opening 40 for a 76 gross and a 65 net, three ahead of six swingers in the 68 bracket. First round scores:

1.	C. Suzukawa	40-36	(11)	—65
2.	K. Nakagawa	42-40	(14)	—68
	S. Shima	41-42	(15)	—68

Bay. In the meanwhile, San Diego boats are enjoying one of their best albacore harvests in years, checking dockside with daily counts frequently topping 1,000. "Since July 4, we've taken nearly 25,000," reported Wally Barsz of Pt. Loma. The Border City fleet hasn't overworked itself, either—they've hit into schools within five miles of the Coronado Islands. So if you're looking for albacore this year, better try San Diego.

CROWLEY CLOSED: Crowley Lake's regular three month fishing season is over. Reviewing the Crowley season, the DFC commented that fishing recently has been below par. Offsetting this, however, were two good features: the outstanding opening Crowley hadon April 30 and May 1, when 12,286 anglers caught some 54,000 trout with a total weight of 55,600 pounds—a spectacular 5.7 fish per man on Saturday and 4.4 fish per man on Sunday. The other good point about the Crowley season was an apparent abundance of trophy trout weighing between two and three pounds. Crowley Lake will reopen on September 15 for a special flyfishing season along a portion of the north shore.

Judo Clinic Held

Seventh women's judo clinic was held Sunday at Sawtelle Dojo. A potluck dinner followed a meeting at which time plans to invite Miss Keiko Fukuda, 5th degree black belt (highest honor attainable by a woman), to teach in southern California were discussed.

Tsukahara cops low n

Lightning fast and dried greens played havoc for some of the 256 golfers in the four flights of the Nisei Week golf tournament on Sunday at the Montebello Country Club course but many found the conditions to their liking.

Ed Nagao of Nisei American Realty was one of those who prospered. The six-handicapper out of So. Calif. Nisei Golf Association went out in 39 and came home with a blazing 36 to cop low gross championship with a 75 score. Second was Don Iwata of Top Notch with a 76.

Dr. Paul Tsukahara of Top Notch and Louie Iriye of Thunderbird, both carrying a nine handicap, tied for low net first in Championship Flight competition. Tsukahara won the play-off with a par on the 19th hole.

Fred Harada of Max Flite played steady ball to take honors in Aye Flight with a net 67 score, one stroke up on runner-up M. Hamasu of SCNGA.

L. Shimabukuro of Thunderbird and Stan Furuta of Top Notch, both 15 handicap players, tied in Cee Flight competition with net 69s. In the sudden death play-off, Shimabukuro won and nabbed first place.

Chick Kawasaki of Max Flite defeated Donald Dono of Top Notch with a par on the 19th hole after two of them had finished 18 holes of competition, deadlocked at net 69s. Kawasaki carried a 14 handicap and Dono a 13 handicap.

Top Notch's 6 handicap Don Iwata was second one stroke behind Nagao, with a 38-38-76.

Three sudden-death playoffs determined winners for the first prize low net trophy plus thirty dollars.

Paul Tsukahara in the Championship Flight bested Louis Iriye, Chick Kawasaki defeated Don Dono in the Bee Flight and L. Shimabukuro won over Stan Furuta in the Cee Flight. All were winners at the 19th hole with a par. Fred Harada captured the Aye Flight by one stroke over M. Hamasu.

Eddie Nagao 'NW' Victor With 75 Gross; Max Fliters Enjoy Home Course Edge

Eddie Nagao, a former member of Max Flite club, returned to his old home course and renewed acquaintanceship with Montebello CC 75 times to emerge the winner of the annual Nisei Week Golf Tournament.

Regarded as a "money" player despite an 8 handicap, Nagao negotiated the relatively uneventful 6640-yard course with 39-36 nines, tanking an all-important birdie putt on the 500-yard par 5 17th hole. Playing in the middle of the opening Championship Flight division, Nagao's biggest threat came from the 7:10 foursome which included a pair of Top Notchers, Don Iwata and Joe Kishi.

Kishi, a 6 handicapper, was one-over at the turn with only a bogey 4 on the short par 3 6th marring his card. But Joe blew himself right out of contention on the next four holes, losing six strokes to par with three bogeys and disastrous double on 11. Meanwhile, the long-belting youngster Iwata was putting together consistent scores of 38-38 for a 76. Three bogeys marred the front side with a bogey on 10 and muffed putt on 12 for a double bogey erasing a closing birdie 4 on the 18th. Paul Tsukahara, now down to a strong 9 handicap, also toured the front nine in 36 strokes to be in a menacing position but required 42 swings to complete the tour. Nevertheless, Dr. Paul's 78-9 was good for low net honors folowing an extra hole playoff with Louis Iriye (77-6). Tsukahara ousted Iriye with a par 4 on the 19th hole.

PAR OUT	4 4 5	4 4 3	4 4 3
Nagao	5 5 6	5 4 3	5 4 2	—39
Iwata	5 4 5	4 5 3	4 5 3	—38

Iwata	5 4 6	4 3 4	3 5 4	—38—76
Kishi	5 6 5	5 3 4	4 5 6	—42—78

Fred Harada, another Max Fliter putting course knowledge to good use, copped the Aye Flight competition with a fine 77-10—67 net score. Mas Hamasu, an assocliate member, carded a 78-10—68 for the runner-up spot.

Chick Kawasaki, yet another MFer, was deadlocked with Top Notcher Don Dono after 18 holes with identical 69s. Kawasaki then posted a par 4 on the first overtime hole to pull down the championship. Chick had a 43-40 (14) while Dono came up with a 40-42 (13).

Brookside

Tosh Hayakawa, Mr. Treasurer of the SCNGA, proved to be a money player, minting a superb final round to capture Brookside's annual 72-hole tournament.

Going into the final round five strokes off the pace, Hayakawa applied the pressure to the leaders with his patented putting finesse to post a sizzling 65 net, best of the lengthy tourney. (According to the Br reporter, the third round leaders gagged and faltered—"an affliction readily diagnosed as constriction of the throat").

Hayakawa, via his come-from-behind victory, wound up the proud recipient of a new set of woods generously donated (each year) by George Heaney, the Brookside golf pro. The final results:

1.	T. Hayakawa	67-72-73-65—277

Field of 251 Lined Up for Nisei Week Tournament, Aug. 21, at Montebello CC

After struggling through a maze of checks and late entries, the Southern California Nisei Golf Association tournament committee issued starting times to 251 for the upcoming Nisei Week golf tournament slated for Montebello CC, Sunday, Aug. 21.

Championship Flight, 69-strong, will launch play at 6 a.m. with Aye Flighters benefiting from the annual rotation of flights ot gain the "banker" time slots from 7:45 to 9:16. There will be 65 in the Aye, embracing golfers in the 10-11 handicap bracket. Championship flight goes from 9 handicap (44 all told) to Min Yoshizaki's low of 2.

Cee Flight lured 57 swingers in the unwieldy range from 15 to 23. They will fire away from 9:30 with the last foursome taking off at 10:54. Bee Flight gets the dubious honor of teeing off last. Starting at 11:08, a total of 12 fivesomes in the 12-14 handicap division will fire with the final group scheduled for a 12:25 tee-off time.

have moved into Santa Monica Bay. "There's about 20 or 30 fish to a bunch," reported North Coast correspondent Tom Collins. Santa Monica Pier's half-day boat Kiaora Friday hit into a school less than 10 minutes from the pier, hooked four tuna, then blew the hookups and the school; but the afternoon half-day run produced an 18-lber. Thursday an angler had picked off a 9½ lb. tuna directly in front of the pier from another half-day boat. Saturday produced still another tuna—a 12-lber. Flashy and every bit as unpredictable as the albacore, the incredibly swift tuna requires an extra measure of savvy and skill, including ultra-light tackle and a No. 10 size hook. Ocean temperature in the bay this week climbed past 72, which is just a few degrees removed from the normal wormth of Gulf of California waters. "This could mean we'll be getting a lot of strangers in the area—perhaps a skipjack or two," added Collins. About six years ago, the water got just about as warm and up from the south came triggerfish and assorted tropical fish. Could be interesting.

CATALINA: Figure on another slow year at Catalina. Charter boat skippers report little beyond an occasional barracuda flurry. "There are yellowtail around, but making them go is something else again," said one skipper. Some tuna have been sighted off Toyan, the first time in about five years. Ironically, despite the slow action there generally, a number of albacore have been taken just off the island.

ALBACORE Things are bound to get better for the local albacore hunters. Warming ocean temperatures have sent the elusive longfins scurrying outside into cooler depths, with even a school or two reported as far north as Morro Bay. In the meanwhile, San Diego boats are enjoying one of their best albacore harvests in years, checking dockside with daily counts frequently topping 1,000. "Since July 4, we've taken nearly 25,000," reported Wally Barsz of Pt. Loma. The Border City fleet hasn't overworked itself, either—they've hit into schools within five miles of the Coronado Islands. So if you're looking for albacore this year, better try San Diego.

CROWLEY CLOSED: Crowley Lake's regular three month fishing season is over. Reviewing the Crowley season, the DFC commented that fishing recently has been below par. Offsetting this, however, were two good features: the outstanding opening Crowley hadon April 30 and May 1, when 12,286 anglers caught some 54,000 trout with a total weight of 55,600 pounds—a spectacular 5.7 fish per man on Saturday and 4.4 fish per man on Sunday. The other good point about the Crowley season was an apparent abundance of trophy trout weighing between two and three pounds. Crowley Lake will reopen on September 15 for a special flyfishing season along a portion of the north shore.

Judo Clinic Held

Seventh women's judo clinic was held Sunday at Sawtelle Dojo. A potluck dinner followed a meeting at which time plans to invite Miss Keiko Fukuda, 5th degree black belt (highest honor attainable by a woman), to teach in southern California were discussed.

Tsukahara cops low n

Lightning fast and dried greens played havoc for some of the 256 golfers in the four flights of the Nisei Week golf tournament on Sunday at the Montebello Country Club course but many found the conditions to their liking.

Ed Nagao of Nisei American Realty was one of those who prospered. The six-handicapper out of So. Calif. Nisei Golf Association went out in 39 and came home with a blazing 36 to cop low gross championship with a 75 score. Second was Don Iwata of Top Notch with a 76.

Dr. Paul Tsukahara of Top Notch and Louie Iriye of Thunderbird, both carrying a nine handicap, tied for low net first in Championship Flight competition. Tsukahara won the play-off with a par on the 19th hole.

Fred Harada of Max Flite played steady ball to take honors in Aye Flight with a net 67 score, one stroke up on runner-up M. Hamasu of SCNGA.

L. Shimabukuro of Thunderbird and Stan Furuta of Top Notch, both 15 handicap players, tied in Cee Flight competition with net 69s. In the sudden death play-off, Shimabukuro won and nabbed first place.

Chick Kawasaki of Max Flite defeated Donald Dono of Top Notch with a par on the 19th hole after two of them had finished 18 holes of competition, deadlocked at net 69s. Kawasaki carried a 14 handicap and Dono a 13 handicap.

Eddie Nagao fired an even par backside to cop the top prize of the Nisei Week Golf Tournament yesterday at Montebello Country Club carding a four-over-par 99-36-75.

Top Notch's 6 handicap Don Iwata was second one stroke behind Nagao, with a 38-38-76.

Three sudden-death playoffs determined winners for the first prize low net trophy plus thirty dollars.

Paul Tsukahara in the Championship Flight bested Louis Iriye, Chick Kawasaki defeated Don Dono in the Bee Flight and L. Shimabukuro won over Stan Furuta in the Cee Flight. All were winners at the 19th hole with a par. Fred Harada captured the Aye Flight by one stroke over M. Hamasu.

Eddie Nagao 'NW' Victor With 75 Gross; Max Fliters Enjoy Home Course Edge

Eddie Nagao, a former member of Max Flite club, returned to his old home course and renewed acquaintanceship with Montebello CC 75 times to emerge the winner of the annual Nisei Week Golf Tournament.

Regarded as a "money" player despite an 8 handicap, Nagao negotiated the relatively uneventful 6640-yard course with 39-36 nines, tanking an all-important birdie putt on the 500-yard par 5 17th hole. Playing in the middle of the opening Championship Flight division, Nagao's biggest threat came from the 7:10 foursome which included a pair of Top Notchers, Don Iwata and Joe Kishi.

Kishi, a 6 handicapper, was one-over at the turn with only a bogey 4 on the short par 3 6th marring his card. But Joe blew himself right out of contention on the next four holes, losing six strokes to par with three bogeys and disastrous double on 11. Meanwhile, the long-belting youngster Iwata was putting together consistent scores of 38-38 for a 76. Three bogeys marred the front side with a bogey on 10 and muffed putt on 12 for a double bogey erasing a closing birdie 4 on the 18th. Paul Tsukahara, now down to a strong 9 handicap, also toured the front nine in 36 strokes to be in a menacing position but required 42 swings to complete the tour. Nevertheless, Dr. Paul's 78-9 was good for low net honors folowing an extra hole playoff with Louis Iriye (77-6). Tsukahara ousted Iriye with a par 4 on the 19th hole.

PAR OUT	4 4 5	4 4 3	4 4 3
Nagao	5 5 6	5 4 3	5 4 2	—39
Iwata	5 4 5	4 5 3	4 5 3	—38
Kishi	4 4 5	4 4 4	4 4 3	—36
PAR IN	4 4 4	4 3 4	3 5 5
Nagao	3 4 4	5 3 5	3 4 5	—36—75
Iwata	5 4 6	4 3 4	3 5 4	—38—76
Kishi	5 6 5	5 3 4	4 5 6	—42—78

Fred Harada, another Max Fliter putting course knowledge to good use, copped the Aye Flight competition with a fine 77-10—67 net score. Mas Hamasu, an assoociate member, carded a 78-10—68 for the runner-up spot.

Chick Kawasaki, yet another MFer, was deadlocked with Top Notcher Don Dono after 18 holes with identical 69s. Kawasaki then posted a par 4 on the first overtime hole to pull down the championship. Chick had a 43-40 (14) while Dono came up with a 40-42 (13).

Brookside

Tosh Hayakawa, Mr. Treasurer of the SCNGA, proved to be a money player, minting a superb final round to capture Brookside's annual 72-hole tournament.

Going into the final round five strokes off the pace, Hayakawa applied the pressure to the leaders with his patented putting finesse to post a sizzling 65 net, best of the lengthy tourney. (According to the Br reporter, the third round leaders gagged and faltered—"an affliction readily diagnosed as constriction of the throat").

Hayakawa, via his come-from-behind victory, wound up the proud recipient of a new set of woods generously donated (each year) by George Heaney, the Brookside golf pro. The final results:

1.	T. Hayakawa	67-72-73-65—277

Tsukahara cops low n

Lightning fast and dried greens played havoc for some of the 256 golfers in the four flights of the Nisei Week golf tournament on Sunday at the Montebello Country Club course but many found the conditions to their liking.

Ed Nagao of Nisei American Realty was one of those who prospered. The six-handicapper out of So. Calif. Nisei Golf Association went out in 39 and came home with a blazing 36 to cop low gross championship with a 75 score. Second was Don Iwata of Top Notch with a 76.

Dr. Paul Tsukahara of Top Notch and Louie Iriye of Thunderbird, both carrying a nine handicap, tied for low net first in Championship Flight competition. Tsukahara won the play-off with a par on the 19th hole.

Fred Harada of Max Flite played steady ball to take honors in Aye Flight with a net 67 score, one stroke up on runner-up M. Hamasu of SCNGA.

L. Shimabukuro of Thunderbird and Stan Furuta of Top Notch, both 15 handicap players, tied in Cee Flight competition with net 69s. In the sudden death play-off, Shimabukuro won and nabbed first place.

Chick Kawasaki of Max Flite defeated Donald Dono of Top Notch with a par on the 19th hole after two of them had finished 18 holes of competition, deadlocked at net 69s. Kawasaki carried a 14 handicap and Dono a 13 handicap.

BEAUTIES AND BEASTS—SCNGA President Freddie Ikeguchi manages a slight smirk (he lost) but the dark fellow seated in the golf cart had reason to smile. Associate member Eddie Nagao won the coveted low gross trophy of the Nisei Week Golf Tournament with a 75 at Montebello CC. Helping the former Max Flite member celebrate were Nisei Week Queen Ruby Komai (center) and princesses Barbara Endo and Georgianna Yamaguchi (to Nagao's left). Eddie Nagao fired an even par backside to cop the top prize of the Nisei Week Golf Tournament yesterday at Montebello Country Club carding a four-over-par 99-36-75.

Top Notch's 6 handicap Don Iwata was second one stroke behind Nagao, with a 38-38-76.

Three sudden-death playoffs determined winners for the first prize low net trophy plus thirty dollars.

Paul Tsukahara in the Championship Flight bested Louis Iriye, Chick Kawasaki defeated Don Dono in the Bee Flight and L. Shimabukuro won over Stan Furuta in the Cee Flight. All were winners at the 19th hole with a par. Fred Harada captured the Aye Flight by one stroke over M. Hamasu.

Eddie Nagao 'NW' Victor With 75 Gross; Max Fliters Enjoy Home Course Edge

Eddie Nagao, a former member of Max Flite club, returned to his old home course and renewed acquaintanceship with Montebello CC 75 times to emerge the winner of the annual Nisei Week Golf Tournament.

Regarded as a "money" player despite an 8 handicap, Nagao negotiated the relatively uneventful 6640-yard course with 39-36 nines, tanking an all-important birdie putt on the 500-yard par 5 17th hole. Playing in the middle of the opening Championship Flight division, Nagao's biggest threat came from the 7:10 foursome which included a pair of Top Notchers, Don Iwata and Joe Kishi.

Kishi, a 6 handicapper, was one-over at the turn with only a bogey 4 on the short par 3 6th marring his card. But Joe blew himself right out of contention on the next four holes, losing six strokes to par with three bogeys and disastrous double on 11. Meanwhile, the long-belting youngster Iwata was putting together consistent scores of 38-38 for a 76. Three bogeys marred the front side with a bogey on 10 and muffed putt on 12 for a double bogey erasing a closing birdie 4 on the 18th. Paul Tsukahara, now down to a strong 9 handicap, also toured the front nine in 36 strokes to be in a menacing position but required 42 swings to complete the tour. Nevertheless, Dr. Paul's 78-9 was good for low net honors folowing an extra hole playoff with Louis Iriye (77-6). Tsukahara ousted Iriye with a par 4 on the 19th hole.

Fred Harada, another Max Fliter putting course knowledge to good use, copped the Aye Flight competition with a fine 77-10—67 net score. Mas Hamasu, an associiate member, carded a 78-10—68 for the runner-up spot.

Chick Kawasaki, yet another MFer, was deadlocked with Top Notcher Don Dono after 18 holes with identical 69s. Kawasaki then posted a par 4 on the first overtime hole to pull down the championship. Chick had a 43-40 (14) while Dono came up with a 40-42 (13).

Brookside

Tosh Hayakawa, Mr. Treasurer of the SCNGA, proved to be a money player, minting a superb final round to capture Brookside's annual 72-hole tournament.

Going into the final round five strokes off the pace, Hayakawa applied the pressure to the leaders with his patented putting finesse to post a sizzling 65 net, best of the lengthy tourney. (According to the Br reporter, the third round leaders gagged and faltered—"an affliction readily diagnosed as constriction of the throat").

Hayakawa, via his come-from-behind victory, wound up the proud recipient of a new set of woods generously donated (each year) by George Heaney, the Brookside golf pro. The final results:

1.	T. Hayakawa	67-72-73-65—277
2.	D. Yamamoto	66-71-71-71—279

NISEI WEEK.....

Field of 251 Lined Up for Nisei Week Tournament, Aug. 21, at Montebello CC

After struggling through a maze of checks and late entries, the Southern California Nisei Golf Association tournament committee issued starting times to 251 for the upcoming Nisei Week golf tournament slated for Montebello CC, Sunday, Aug. 21.

Championship Flight, 69-strong, will launch play at 6 a.m. with Aye Flighters benefiting from the annual rotation of flights ot gain the "banker" time slots from 7:45 to 9:16. There will be 65 in the Aye, embracing golfers in the 10-11 handicap bracket. Championship flight goes from 9 handicap (44 all told) to Min Yoshizaki's low of 2.

Cee Flight lured 57 swingers in the unwieldy range from 15 to 23. They will fire away from 9:30 with the last foursome taking off at 10:54. Bee Flight gets the dubious honor of teeing off last. Starting at 11:08, a total of 12 fivesomes in the 12-14 handicap division will fire with the final group scheduled for a 12:25 tee-off time.

Bay. In the meanwhile, San Diego boats are enjoying one of their best albacore harvests in years, checking dockside with daily counts frequently topping 1,000. "Since July 4, we've taken nearly 25,000," reported Wally Barsz of Pt. Loma. The Border City fleet hasn't overworked itself, either—they've hit into schools within five miles of the Coronado Islands. So if you're looking for albacore this year, better try San Diego.

CROWLEY CLOSED: Crowley Lake's regular three month fishing season is over. Reviewing the Crowley season, the DFC commented that fishing recently has been below par. Offsetting this, however, were two good features: the outstanding opening Crowley hadon April 30 and May 1, when 12,286 anglers caught some 54,000 trout with a total weight of 55,600 pounds—a spectacular 5.7 fish per man on Saturday and 4.4 fish per man on Sunday. The other good point about the Crowley season was an apparent abundance of trophy trout weighing between two and three pounds. Crowley Lake will reopen on September 15 for a special flyfishing season along a portion of the north shore.

Lightning fast and dried greens played havoc for some of the 256 golfers in the four flights of the Nisei Week golf tournament on Sunday at the Montebello Country Club course but many found the conditions to their liking.

Ed Nagao of Nisei American Realty was one of those who prospered. The six-handicapper out of So. Calif. Nisei Golf Association went out in 39 and came home with a blazing 36 to cop low gross championship with a 75 score. Second was Don Iwata of Top Notch with a 76.

Dr. Paul Tsukahara of Top Notch and Louie Iriye of Thunderbird, both carrying a nine handicap, tied for low net first in Championship Flight competition. Tsukahara won the play-off with a par on the 19th hole.

Fred Harada of Max Flite played steady ball to take honors in Aye Flight with a net 67 score, one stroke up on runner-up M. Hamasu of SCNGA.

L. Shimabukuro of Thunderbird and Stan Furuta of Top Notch, both 15 handicap players, tied in Cee Flight competition with net 69s. In the sudden death play-off, Shimabukuro won and nabbed first place.

Chick Kawasaki of Max Flite defeated Donald Dono of Top Notch with a par on the 19th hole after two of them had finished 18 holes of competition, deadlocked at net 69s. Kawasaki carried a 14 handicap and Dono a 13 handicap.

Eddie Nagao 'NW' Victor With 75 Gross; Max Fliters Enjoy Home Course Edge

Eddie Nagao, a former member of Max Flite club, returned to his old home course and renewed acquaintanceship with Montebello CC 75 times to emerge the winner of the annual Nisei Week Golf Tournament.

Regarded as a "money" player despite an 8 handicap, Nagao negotiated the relatively uneventful 6640-yard course with 39-36 nines, tanking an all-important birdie putt on the 500-yard par 5 17th hole. Playing in the middle of the opening Championship Flight division, Nagao's biggest threat came from the 7:10 foursome which included a pair of Top Notchers, Don Iwata and Joe Kishi.

Kishi, a 6 handicapper, was one-over at the turn with only a bogey 4 on the short par 3 6th marring his card. But Joe blew himself right out of contention on the next four holes, losing six strokes to par with three bogeys and disastrous double on 11. Meanwhile, the long-belting youngster Iwata was putting together consistent scores of 38-38 for a 76. Three bogeys marred the front side with a bogey on 10 and muffed putt on 12 for a double bogey erasing a closing birdie 4 on the 18th. Paul Tsukahara, now down to a strong 9 handicap, also toured the front nine in 36 strokes to be in a menacing position but required 42 swings to complete the tour. Nevertheless, Dr. Paul's 78-9 was good for low net honors folowing an extra hole playoff with Louis Iriye (77-6). Tsukahara ousted Iriye with a par 4 on the 19th hole.

PAR OUT	4 4 5	4 4 3	4 4 3
Nagao	5 5 6	5 4 3	5 4 2	—39

Kishi	5 6 5	5 3 4	4 5 6	—42—78

Fred Harada, another Max Fliter putting course knowledge to good use, copped the Aye Flight competition with a fine 77-10—67 net score. Mas Hamasu, an assocciate member, carded a 78-10—68 for the runner-up spot.

Chick Kawasaki, yet another MFer, was deadlocked with Top Notcher Don Dono after 18 holes with identical 69s. Kawasaki then posted a par 4 on the first overtime hole to pull down the championship. Chick had a 43-40 (14) while Dono came up with a 40-42 (13).

Brookside

Tosh Hayakawa, Mr. Treasurer of the SCNGA, proved to be a money player, minting a superb final round to capture Brookside's annual 72-hole tournament.

Going into the final round five strokes off the pace, Hayakawa applied the pressure to the leaders with his patented putting finesse to post a sizzling 65 net, best of the lengthy tourney. (According to the Br reporter, the third round leaders gagged and faltered—"an affliction readily diagnosed as constriction of the throat").

Hayakawa, via his come-from-behind victory, wound up the proud recipient of a new set of woods generously donated (each year) by George Heaney, the Brookside golf pro. The final results:

1.	T. Hayakawa	67-72-73-65—277
2.	D. Yamamoto	66-71-71-71—279
	Sho Nomura	69-67-72-71—279

NISEI WEEK.....

Field of 251 Lined Up for Nisei Week Tournament, Aug. 21, at Montebello CC

After struggling through a maze of checks and late entries, the Southern California Nisei Golf Association tournament committee issued starting times to 251 for the upcoming Nisei Week golf tournament slated for Montebello CC, Sunday, Aug. 21.

Championship Flight, 69-strong, will launch play at 6 a.m. with Aye Flighters benefiting from the annual rotation of flights ot gain the "banker" time slots from 7:45 to 9:16. There will be 65 in the Aye, embracing golfers in the 10-11 handicap bracket. Championship flight goes from 9 handicap (44 all told) to Min Yoshizaki's low of 2.

Cee Flight lured 57 swingers in the unwieldy range from 15 to 23. They will fire away from 9:30 with the last foursome taking off at 10:54. Bee Flight gets the dubious honor of teeing off last. Starting at 11:08, a total of 12 fivesomes in the 12-14 handicap division will fire with the final group scheduled for a 12:25 tee-off time.

Lightning fast and dried greens played havoc for some of the 256 golfers in the four flights of the Nisei Week golf tournament on Sunday at the Montebello Country Club course but many found the conditions to their liking.

Ed Nagao of Nisei American Realty was one of those who prospered. The six-handicapper out of So. Calif. Nisei Golf Association went out in 39 and came home with a blazing 36 to cop low gross championship with a 75 score. Second was Don Iwata of Top Notch with a 76.

Dr. Paul Tsukahara of Top Notch and Louie Iriye of Thunderbird, both carrying a nine handicap, tied for low net first in Championship Flight competition. Tsukahara won the play-off with a par on the 19th hole.

Fred Harada of Max Flite played steady ball to take honors in Aye Flight with a net 67 score, one stroke up on runner-up M. Hamasu of SCNGA.

L. Shimabukuro of Thunderbird and Stan Furuta of Top Notch, both 15 handicap players, tied in Cee Flight competition with net 69s. In the sudden death play-off, Shimabukuro won and nabbed first place.

Chick Kawasaki of Max Flite defeated Donald Dono of Top Notch with a par on the 19th hole after two of them had finished 18 holes of competition, deadlocked at net 69s. Kawasaki carried a 14 handicap and Dono a 13 handicap.

BEAUTIES AND BEASTS—SCNGA President Freddie Ikeguchi manages a slight smirk (he lost) but the dark fellow seated in the golf cart had reason to smile. Associate member Eddie Nagao won the coveted low gross trophy of the Nisei Week Golf Tournament with a 75 at Montebello CC. Helping the former Max Flite member celebrate were Nisei Week Queen Ruby Komai (center) and princesses Barbara Endo and Georgianna Yamaguchi (to Nagao's left). Eddie Nagao 'NW' Victor With 75 Gross; Max Fliters Enjoy Home Course Edge

Eddie Nagao, a former member of Max Flite club, returned to his old home course and renewed acquaintanceship with Montebello CC 75 times to emerge the winner of the annual Nisei Week Golf Tournament.

Regarded as a "money" player despite an 8 handicap, Nagao negotiated the relatively uneventful 6640-yard course with 39-36 nines, tanking an all-important birdie putt on the 500-yard par 5 17th hole. Playing in the middle of the opening Championship Flight division, Nagao's biggest threat came from the 7:10 foursome which included a pair of Top Notchers, Don Iwata and Joe Kishi.

Kishi, a 6 handicapper, was one-over at the turn with only a bogey 4 on the short par 3 6th marring his card. But Joe blew himself right out of contention on the next four holes, losing six strokes to par with three bogeys and disastrous double on 11. Meanwhile, the long-belting youngster Iwata was putting together consistent scores of 38-38 for a 76. Three bogeys marred the front side with a bogey on 10 and muffed putt on 12 for a double bogey erasing a closing birdie 4 on the 18th. Paul Tsukahara, now down to a strong 9 handicap, also toured the front nine in 36 strokes to be in a menacing position but required 42 swings to complete the tour. Nevertheless, Dr. Paul's 78-9 was good for low net honors folowing an extra hole playoff with Louis Iriye (77-6). Tsukahara ousted Iriye with a par 4 on the 19th hole.

PAR OUT	4	4	5	4	4	3	4	4	3
Nagao	5	5	6	5	4	3	5	4	2	39

Kishi	5	6	5	5	3	4	4	5	6	42	78

Fred Harada, another Max Fliter putting course knowledge to good use, copped the Aye Flight competition with a fine 77-10—67 net score. Mas Hamasu, an associiate member, carded a 78-10—68 for the runner-up spot.

Chick Kawasaki, yet another MFer, was deadlocked with Top Notcher Don Dono after 18 holes with identical 69s. Kawasaki then posted a par 4 on the first overtime hole to pull down the championship. Chick had a 43-40 (14) while Dono came up with a 40-42 (13).

Thunderbird's Larry Shimabukuro broke the "horses for courses" stranglehold by Max Fliters when he downed TN's Stan Furuta in the Cee Flight. Both concluded regulation play with identical 84-15—69s.

Brookside

Tosh Hayakawa, Mr. Treasurer of the SCNGA, proved to be a money player, minting a superb final round to capture Brookside's annual 72-hole tournament.

Going into the final round five strokes off the pace, Hayakawa applied the pressure to the leaders with his patented putting finesse to post a sizzling 65 net, best of the lengthy tourney. (According to the Br reporter, the third round leaders gagged and faltered—"an affliction readily diagnosed as constriction of the throat").

Hayakawa, via his come-from-behind victory, wound up the proud recipient of a new set of woods generously donated (each year) by George Heaney, the Brookside golf pro. The final results:

Field of 251 Lined Up for Nisei Week Tournament, Aug. 21, at Montebello CC

After struggling through a maze of checks and late entries, the Southern California Nisei Golf Association tournament committee issued starting times to 251 for the upcoming Nisei Week golf tournament slated for Montebello CC, Sunday, Aug. 21.

Championship Flight, 69-strong, will launch play at 6 a.m. with Aye Flighters benefiting from the annual rotation of flights ot gain the "banker" time slots from 7:45 to 9:16. There will be 65 in the Aye, embracing golfers in the 10-11 handicap bracket. Championship flight goes from 9 handicap (44 all told) to Min Yoshizaki's low of 2.

Cee Flight lured 57 swingers in the unwieldy range from 15 to 23. They will fire away from 9:30 with the last foursome taking off at 10:54. Bee Flight gets the dubious honor of teeing off last. Starting at 11:08, a total of 12 fivesomes in the 12-14 handicap division will fire with the final group scheduled for a 12:25 tee-off time.

9. T. Hisamune, M. Matsumura, B. Moriyama, Y. Tatsumi, M. Miyamoto.

Kyodo's Vic Yamane had a 39-37—76 to lead the low gross brigade but his net 68 is only good for a third place tie as T. Hisamune parleyed a 38-40—78 with a 12 handicap to hold a slim one stroke advantage over T. Kataoka's 67 fashiond off a 78 gross effort. Knotted with Yamane at 68 is MF's Mike Matsumura.

Championship Flight standings at the halfway mark:

He came up with a sizzling 36 back nine at Rio last week to go with his opening 40 for a 76 gross and a 65 net, three ahead of six swingers in the 68 bracket. First round scores:

Bay. In the meanwhile, San Diego boats are enjoying one of their best albacore harvests in years, checking dockside with daily counts frequently topping 1,000. "Since July 4, we've taken nearly 25,000," reported Wally Barsz of Pt. Loma. The Border City fleet hasn't overworked itself, either—they've hit into schools within five miles of the Coronado Islands. So if you're looking for albacore this year, better try San Diego.

Tsukahara cops low n

Lightning fast and dried greens played havoc for some of the 256 golfers in the four flights of the Nisei Week golf tournament on Sunday at the Montebello Country Club course but many found the conditions to their liking.

Ed Nagao of Nisei American Realty was one of those who prospered. The six-handicapper out of So. Calif. Nisei Golf Association went out in 39 and came home with a blazing 36 to cop low gross championship with a 75 score. Second was Don Iwata of Top Notch with a 76.

Dr. Paul Tsukahara of Top Notch and Louie Iriye of Thunderbird, both carrying a nine handicap, tied for low net first in Championship Flight competition. Tsukahara won the play-off with a par on the 19th hole.

Fred Harada of Max Flite played steady ball to take honors in Aye Flight with a net 67 score, one stroke up on runner-up M. Hamasu of SCNGA.

L. Shimabukuro of Thunderbird and Stan Furuta of Top Notch, both 15 handicap players, tied in Cee Flight competition with net 69s. In the sudden death play-off, Shimabukuro won and nabbed first place.

Chick Kawasaki of Max Flite defeated Donald Dono of Top Notch with a par on the 19th hole after two of them had finished 18 holes of competition, deadlocked at net 69s. Kawasaki carried a 14 handicap and Dono a 13 handicap.

BEAUTIES AND BEASTS—SCNGA President Freddie Ikeguchi manages a slight smirk (he lost) but the dark fellow seated in the golf cart had reason to smile. Associate member Eddie Nagao won the coveted low gross trophy of the Nisei Week Golf Tournament with a 75 at Montebello CC. Helping the former Max Flite member celebrate were Nisei Week Queen Ruby Komai (center) and princesses Barbara Endo and Georgianna Yamaguchi (to Nagao's left). L.A. Free Methodist

Sunday School begins at 9:30 a.m. under the leadership of Mrs. Kiku Kaneko. There is a class for every age. We especially invite the adults to the Men's and Women's class for stimulating and helpful Bible study.

At the morning worship service, the Rev. Carl Yoshimine will deliver his first sermon topic, "The Gospel According to God." Tad Yokogawa is the chairman while James Sakato is head usher. Mrs. Doreen Iwata will be at the organ.

something about water and shady depth of the ocean (use your imagination, man!) on a summer day in the high nineties—and we never drank so much liquid crap all in one afternoon. The day wore on, our feet wore out and our little companion had more coupons to go. So did we.

Well, one has to be a good sport at times like this, so we asked her if she'd like to climb the Swiss family tree-house whatever and of course she did. We told her to go right ahead and get in line and climb that fool tree and we'd wait for her right over there in the shade where we had already spotted a fairly good sitting space. All in all, we had a lovely afternoon thinking—oh, to be in cool San Francisco right now! And what in hell possessed us to come here in the middle of summer, on the hottest day, with every kid in the U.S. and their stupid parents right on their heels using up what little breathing air there was?

Next time, just watch. We go to Disneyland after sundown. That way we can always stop in at a friendly pub on the way home before we collapse from too much excitement and anybody under 21 will just have to sit in the car and wait if they expect us to be in any shape or mood to drive all the way back to town. We love Disneyland but we can't stand that Santa Ana Freeway.

Min Yoshizaki Cops Senior Tourney; Garden City Sets State Tournament

"Oh, the days dwindle down, to a precious few . . ."

Which might be applicable to most without the stamina of Frank Sinatra, but "September Song" gives way when conversing in terms of the golfing game. ("Dating Game," yes, but golfing game, no).

And far from being disrespectful to our elders, the Seniors actually can teach the "hana-tares" a few tricks along the way.

With a record field of 109, the Sixth annual SCNGA Senior Championship was held Sunday at Rio Hondo Country Club with the venerable Min Frank Yoshizaki continuing to show the way despite having passed the half-century mark.

Min, the lowest handicapper in the Association with a 2, went one up on the perpetual low gross trophy with a beautiful 36-34—70 round. (Contrary to an earlier report, Max Flite's Jim Ihira did not enter this fall's renewal. By virtue of last year's win, his third, Ihira retired the original Rafu Shimpo perpetual trophy).

No Danger

The veteran Top Notch member was never in danger, from the field, and never in trouble, on the course. Par Flite's Dr. Sho Tarumoto was 37 going out but the 11 handicapper needed 38 coming home for a 75 and 64 net, a stroke behind Produce club's Bob Okamoto. Bob chartered a 44-40 (18) —63 to win the low net title in the Freshman (50-54) Flight. Seb Kimura also had a gross 75 and 66 net, good for a third place tie with TF's Dr. Wally Nagata.

George Seki of San Diego won the Sophomore Flight's low gross diadem with a steady 37-37—74. M. Okamoto of Jet Flite was the net winner in the 55-50 age bracket, his 41-53 (18)—66 edging a quartet of veterans in the 67 cluster.

Li'l Tokyo's Ed Matsuda closed with a rush to cop the 60 and over Junior Flight with a fine 40-36—76 effort. Earl Yusa upheld the honor of the golfing dentists with a 67 (42-37)—12) net count.

It might be noted that H. Toshiro Shimanouchi, merely "Hank" on the greensward, fired a net 69 in the Sophomore Flight—putting him in the 55 to 59 age bracket for those interested in such incidentals.

After 14 long and often frustrating years of playing golf, associate member Tom Hirano achieved his first hole-in-one last Sunday.

He aced the 161-yard par 3 second hole with a 7-iron in the company of Mark Murakami, Ted Fujimoto and Al Hatate at Fox Hills #1 course.

When pressed to relate the savings and loan executive's final gross score, Hatate reported Hirano had specifically stated "don't say anything."

State Tourney

Garden City Golf Club of San Jose is launching a concerted campaign to put its annual California State Nisei Golf Championship tournament back at the top in an attempt to lure back some of the disenchanted localites.

Since being bounced from the famed Pebble Beach locale, the "State" championship has fallen on hard times. But, according to tourney sponsors, the road to recovery is drawing nigh.

The 16th renewal will be held this year at Carmel Valley Golf and Country Club, a decided advancement from the previous site. The Monterey play will be held on the weekend of October 8-9.

Min Yoshizaki Cops Senior Tourney; Garden City Sets State Tournament

"Oh, the days dwindle down, to a precious few . . ."

Which might be applicable to most without the stamina of Frank Sinatra, but "September Song" gives way when conversing in terms of the golfing game. ("Dating Game," yes, but golfing game, no).

And far from being disrespectful to our elders, the Seniors actually can teach the "hana-tares" a few tricks along the way.

With a record field of 109, the Sixth annual SCNGA Senior Championship was held Sunday at Rio Hondo Country Club with the venerable Min Frank Yoshizaki continuing to show the way despite having passed the half-century mark.

Min, the lowest handicapper in the Association with a 2, went one up on the perpetual low gross trophy with a beautiful 36-34—70 round. (Contrary to an earlier report, Max Flite's Jim Ihira did not enter this fall's renewal. By virtue of last year's win, his third, Ihira retired the original Rafu Shimpo perpetual trophy).

No Danger

The veteran Top Notch member was never in danger, from the field, and never in trouble, on the course. Par Flite's Dr. Sho Tarumoto was 37 going out but the 11 handicapper needed 38 coming home for a 75 and 64 net, a stroke behind Produce club's Bob Okamoto. Bob chartered a 44-40 (18)—63 to win the low net title in the Freshman (50-54) Flight. Seb Kimura also had a gross 75 and 66 net, good for a third place tie with TF's Dr. Wally Nagata.

George Seki of San Diego won the Sophomore Flight's low gross diadem with a steady 37-37—74. M. Okamoto of Jet Flite was the net winner in the 55-50 age bracket, his 41-53 (18)—66 edging a quartet of veterans in the 67 cluster.

Li'l Tokyo's Ed Matsuda closed with a rush to cop the 60 and over Junior Flight with a fine 40-36—76 effort. Earl Yusa upheld the honor of the golfing dentists with a 67 (42-37)—12) net count.

The winners:

It might be noted that H. Toshiro Shimanouchi, merely "Hank" on the greensward, fired a net 69 in the Sophomore Flight—putting him in the 55 to 59 age bracket for those interested in such incidentals.

After 14 long and often frustrating years of playing golf, associate member Tom Hirano achieved his first hole-in-one last Sunday.

He aced the 161-yard par 3 second hole with a 7-iron in the company of Mark Murakami, Ted Fujimoto and Al Hatate at Fox Hills #1 course.

When pressed to relate the savings and loan executive's final gross score, Hatate reported Hirano had specifically stated "don't say anything."

State Tourney

Garden City Golf Club of San Jose is launching a concerted campaign to put its annual California State Nisei Golf Championship tournament back at the top in an attempt to lure back some of the disenchanted localites.

Since being bounced from the famed Pebble Beach locale, the "State" championship has fallen on hard times. But, according to tourney sponsors, the road to recovery is drawing nigh.

The 16th renewal will be held this year at Carmel Valley Golf and Country Club, a decided advancement from the previous site. The Monterey play will be held on the weekend of October 8-9.

The Sponsors

The 36-hole event will be limited to players with handicaps of 12 or less. (Players were recognized handicaps of more than 12 may play, but must sacrifice handicaps to an even dozen).

As in the past, Garden City of San Jose is sponsoring the statewide tournament, this year under the astute chairmanship of Rod Kobara. Assisting him are Jim Sakaguchi, secretary; Frank Shimada, treasurer; John Sumida, trophies and banquet; Bob Santo, starter; Vic Hayashi, Saku Taketa,

Lack Entries for 36-Hole Tournament; State Championship Deadline Sept. 19

With the 1966 SCNGA tournament schedule quickly drawing to a close, it's rather surprising to be informed that the Association's annual 36-hole edal Tournament in El Cajon is currently shy of entries.

Deadline for the September 17-18 weekend affair was Monday, Sept. 5, but when the entry box came up like Mother Hubbard's cupboard, the tournament committee decided to extend the cut-off date and hold up pairing proceedings at the same time.

It might just have been the long Labor Day weekend that disrupted SCNGA mailmen—the lack of entries couldn't have been because of the little misunderstanding which occurred during the last San Diego jaunt.

Be that as it may, the attractive 36-holer is still open so let's hit the entry box, men.

For the benefit of those who misplaced their blanks, the fee is $18 and the Saturday-Sunday rounds will be played at Singing Hills and Cottonwood courses. The mailed announcement read both starting times slated for 9:30 a.m. but last minute information reveals that Saturday (Singing Hills) the first tee will be at 11.

State Championship

The site for this year's annual 36-hole California Nisei Golf Championship has been changed to Carmel Valley Golf and Country Club as most SCNGAers are aware by now.

Scott Sagawa, publicity chairman for the Garden City Golf Club, sponsors of the tournament, has passed along some pertinent information concerning the Carmel layout—to let you know it's no replica of Pasatiempo.

The golf course is a fairly recent addition to the family of fine courses in the Monterey area The par 72 championship course, measuring 6820 yards from the back tees, first opened in September of 1964.

In addition to its testing length, Carmel features well laid-out fairways and strategically placed bunkers. There are nine (9) fresh water lakes and a river to test the golfer's strength as well. Ray Ricketts is Carmel Valley GCC's acting golf pro.

Localities planning to participate are reminded that the deadline for entries is Sept. 19. Entries may be sent through your club or directly to Rusty Nagakura, 1509 Princeton Drive, San Jose, Calif.

There will be a championship trophy presented to the winners of the two flights as well as merchandise prizes. Mitsuhiko Shimizu of Asahi Shoe is donating the Aye Flight trophy while Junior Narumi of L.A. Sporting Goods is putting up the ee Flight trophy. Eddie Nagao Posts 36-hole Victory; Prize Switch Causes Big Controversy

Eddie Nagao, riding a hot streak on the links, picked up his second consecutive SCNGA tournament win last weekend, a victory in the grueling 36-hole affair at Singing Hills and Cottonwood.

In staging back-to-back conquests, the affable associate member has become the innocent cause of a SCNGA tempest. One would think a Nisei Week victory paired with the final Association offering of the season would be highly palatable . . . not so. But first things first:

Nagao conquered Singing Hills in 38-41—79 Saturday and came back with a 39-41—80 Sunday at Cottonwood to hang up a fine 159 gross total. With his 8 handicap, his final net score was 143.

Joe Kishi of Top Notch had his difficulties on the Sabbath after a fine 76 on the par 72 Singing Hills course. The par 73, 6800 yard Cotonwood layout cost Kishi 84 strokes adding up to a 160 gross, one back of Nagao. OC's Richard Iwamoto, a 5 handicapper, had a miserable Saturday winding up with an 85. But he was a tiger Sunday with a 37-38—75 which brought him home in 160.

Clubmate Jim Kobayashi, with a 162-16, and El Patio's Dave Arakaki, with a 166-20, ended up the weekend with 146 net totals. And now comes the hang-up.

Nagao, prior to departing the scene (with the low gross trophy), informed Kishi he would trade trophies if Joe had a crack at the gross hardware.

Although Iwamoto and Kishi had identical 160s, Rich accepted a clock trophy as the second round low net winner—thereby eliminating himself from any other major prize consideration. This left Kishi the technical low gross winner.

But by virtue of the gross-net switch, Kobayashi and Arakaki found themselves in a second place deadlock instead of sharing in the top prize. (Are you still with us?).

CR has been the recipient of various opinions throughout the week. We've also checked with SCNGA President Freddie Ikeguchi and tournament committee members as well as old Crossroads issues to verify the claim that past winners had indeed exercised an option to pick either the gross or net titles.

This precedent was pointed out to substantiate the "trade"—but it ain't about to pacify the feelings acknowledged, pointing out that he, too, had been involved in a similar situation previously. "We (the SCNGA board) will be meeting shortly and will definitely take up the problem, determine an effective way to eliminate any future occurances, and bring it up for approval when we hold our annual club representatives meeting at the end of the year."

Ikeguchi also emphasized that the SCNGA will gladly accept any suggestions and proposals from association members—"not only on this specific problem but anything else that might be on the minds of our clubs," he added.

El Patio

First round play of El Patio's annual 54-hole tournament took two weeks to conclude (due to the S.D. tournament) with Fumio Kinoshita leading the pack after all the results were reported.

Kinoshita, last year's runner-up, carded an 80-10—70, to hold a one stroke lead over Al Keimi (82-11). The tightly bunched field guarantees a shuffling of standings until the final putt is sunk:

1. Fumio Kinoshita	80-10—70
2. Al Keimi	82-11—71
3. Francis Aoyama	81- 9—72
4. Dan Fujimoto	83-10—73
5. Al Nakata	78- 4—74
Ed Fujimoto	88-14—74

A funny thing happened when a musical quartet was having a "gig" last Thursday. The sax player had a hole-in-one.

Tets Bessho, playing a daytime date at the Harding course with three compadres, pulled out a 4-wood at the 190-yard 15th hole—like any good percussion man would.

His wood shot appeared to smack the green head-on and bounce over—but when the four gathered at the flag for a putting session, there was the little white pelota cradled in the cup.

Witnessing the feat were Richard Kauhi (who plays the piano Tuesday nights at Tokyo Kaikan), Gil Brown (who accompanies Nami at Grandview with the bass), and Jerry Valasco (another 88 performer).

And as the cats all agreed, the Ace and subsequent 76 gross round were real "touch" for a guy who hadn't touched the sticks in over a month.

Lack Entries for 36-Hole Tournament; State Championship Deadline Sept. 19

With the 1966 SCNGA tournament schedule quickly drawing to a close, it's rather surprising to be informed that the Association's annual 36-hole edal Tournament in El Cajon is currently shy of entries.

Deadline for the September 17-18 weekend affair was Monday, Sept. 5, but when the entry box came up like Mother Hubbard's cupboard, the tournament committee decided to extend the cutoff date and hold up pairing proceedings at the same time.

It might just have been the long Labor Day weekend that disrupted SCNGA mailmen—the lack of entries couldn't have been because of the little misunderstanding which occurred during the last San Diego jaunt.

Be that as it may, the attractive 36-holer is still open so let's hit the entry box, men.

For the benefit of those who misplaced their blanks, the fee is $18 and the Saturday-Sunday rounds will be played at Singing Hills and Cottonwood courses. The mailed announcement read both starting times slated for 9:30 a.m. but last minute information reveals that Saturday (Singing Hills) the first tee will be at 11.

State Championship

The site for this year's annual 36-hole California Nisei Golf Championship has been changed to Carmel Valley Golf and Country Club as most SCNGAers are aware by now.

Scott Sagawa, publicity chairman for the Garden City Golf Club, sponsors of the tournament, has passed along some pertinent information concerning the Carmel layout—to let you know it's no replica of Pasatiempo.

The golf course is a fairly recent addition to the family of fine courses in the Monterey area The par 72 championship course, measuring 6820 yards from the back tees, first opened in September of 1964.

In addition to its testing length, Carmel features well laid-out fairways and strategically placed bunkers. There are nine (9) fresh water lakes and a river to test the golfer's strength as well. Ray Ricketts is Carmel Valley GCC's acting golf pro.

Localities planning to participate are reminded that the deadline for entries is Sept. 19. Entries may be sent through your club or directly to Rusty Nagakura, 1509 Princeton Drive, San Jose, Calif.

There will be a championship trophy presented to the winners of the two flights as well as merchandise prizes. Mitsuhiko Shimizu of Asahi Shoe is donating the Aye Flight trophy while Junior Narumi of L.A. Sporting Goods is putting up the ee Flight trophy. Joe Ito of Joseph's Men's Wear has donated merchandise prizes for both flights.

Lack Entries for 36-Hole Tournament; State Championship Deadline Sept. 19

With the 1966 SCNGA tournament schedule quickly drawing to a close, it's rather surprising to be informed that the Association's annual 36-hole edal Tournament in El Cajon is currently shy of entries.

Deadline for the September 17-18 weekend affair was Monday, Sept. 5, but when the entry box came up like Mother Hubbard's cupboard, the tournament committee decided to extend the cutoff date and hold up pairing proceedings at the same time.

It might just have been the long Labor Day weekend that disrupted SCNGA mailmen—the lack of entries couldn't have been because of the little misunderstanding which occurred during the last San Diego jaunt.

Be that as it may, the attractive 36-holer is still open so let's hit the entry box, men.

For the benefit of those who misplaced their blanks, the fee is $18 and the Saturday-Sunday rounds will be played at Singing Hills and Cottonwood courses. The mailed announcement read both starting times slated for 9:30 a.m. but last minute information reveals that Saturday (Singing Hills) the first tee will be at 11.

State Championship

The site for this year's annual 36-hole California Nisei Golf Championship has been changed to Carmel Valley Golf and Country Club as most SCNGAers are aware by now.

Scott Sagawa, publicity chairman for the Garden City Golf Club, sponsors of the tournament, has passed along some pertinent information concerning the Carmel layout—to let you know it's no replica of Pasatiempo.

The golf course is a fairly recent addition to the family of fine courses in the Monterey area The par 72 championship course, measuring 6820 yards from the back tees, first opened in September of 1964.

In addition to its testing length, Carmel features well laid-out fairways and strategically placed bunkers. There are nine (9) fresh water lakes and a river to test the golfer's strength as well. Ray Ricketts is Carmel Valley GCC's acting golf pro.

Localities planning to participate are reminded that the deadline for entries is Sept. 19. Entries may be sent through your club or directly to Rusty Nagakura, 1509 Princeton Drive, San Jose, Calif.

There will be a championship trophy presented to the winners of the two flights as well as merchandise prizes. Mitsuhiko Shimizu of Asahi Shoe is donating the Aye Flight trophy while Junior Narumi of L.A. Sporting Goods is putting up the ee Flight trophy. Joe Ito of Joseph's Men's Wear has donated merchandise prizes for both flights.

'Only' 73 Signed Up for 36-Holer in San Diego; State Deadline Sept. 19

The annual Southern California Nisei Golf Association's 36-hole medal play tournament lured a disappointing field of 73 golfers for the two-day event in San Diego this weekend.

Eddie Nagao Posts 36-hole Victory; Prize Switch Causes Big Controversy

Eddie Nagao, riding a hot streak on the links, picked up his second consecutive SCNGA tournament win last weekend, a victory in the grueling 36-hole affair at Singing Hills and Cottonwood.

In staging back-to-back conquests, the affable associate member has become the innocent cause of a SCNGA tempest. One would think a Nisei Week victory paired with the final Association offering of the season would be highly palatable . . . not so. But first things first:

Nagao conquered Singing Hills in 38-41—79 Saturday and came back with a 39-41—80 Sunday at Cottonwood to hang up a fine 159 gross total. With his 8 handicap, his final net score was 143.

Joe Kishi of Top Notch had his difficulties on the Sabbath after a fine 76 on the par 72 Singing Hills course. The par 73, 6800 yard Cotonwood layout cost Kishi 84 strokes adding up to a 160 gross, one back of Nagao. OC's Richard Iwamoto, a 5 handicapper, had a miserable Saturday winding up with an 85. But he was a tiger Sunday with a 37-38—75 which brought him home in 160.

Clubmate Jim Kobayashi, with a 162-16, and El Patio's Dave Arakaki, with a 166-20, ended up the weekend with 146 net totals. And now comes the hang-up.

Nagao, prior to departing the scene (with the low gross trophy), informed Kishi he would trade trophies if Joe had a crack at the gross hardware.

Although Iwamoto and Kishi had identical 160s, Rich accepted a clock trophy as the second round low net winner—thereby eliminating himself from any other major prize consideration. This left Kishi the technical low gross winner.

But by virtue of the gross-net switch, Kobayashi and Arakaki found themselves in a second place deadlock instead of sharing in the top prize. (Are you still with us?).

CR has been the recipient of various opinions throughout the week. We've also checked with SCNGA President Freddie Ikeguchi and tournament committee members as well as old Crossroads issues to verify the claim that past winners had indeed exercised an option to pick either the gross or net titles.

This precedent was pointed out to substantiate the "trade"—but it ain't about to pacify the feelings of Kobayashi and Arakaki—nor a number of others who have vociferously voiced their displeasure.

So we went to President Freddie to get an official statement: ,

"The hassle has pointed up a shortcoming in the SCNGA's prize distribution procedures," Ikeguchi acknowledged, pointing out that he, too, had been involved in a similar situation previously. "We (the SCNGA board) will be meeting shortly and will definitely take up the problem, determine an effective way to eliminate any future occurances, and bring it up for approval when we hold our annual club representatives meeting at the end of the year."

Ikeguchi also emphasized that the SCNGA will gladly accept any suggestions and proposals from association members—"not only on this specific problem but anything else that might be on the minds of our clubs," he added.

El Patio

First round play of El Patio's annual 54-hole tournament took two weeks to conclude (due to the S.D. tournament) with Fumio Kinoshita leading the pack after all the results were reported.

Kinoshita, last year's runner-up, carded an 80-10—70, to hold a one stroke lead over Al Keimi (82-11). The tightly bunched field guarantees a shuffling of standings until the final putt is sunk:

1. Fumio Kinoshita	80-10—70
2. Al Keimi	82-11—71
3. Francis Aoyama	81- 9—72
4. Dan Fujimoto	83-10—73
5. Al Nakata	78- 4—74
Ed Fujimoto	88-14—74

A funny thing happened when a musical quartet was having a "gig" last Thursday. The sax player had a hole-in-one.

Tets Bessho, playing a daytime date at the Harding course with three compadres, pulled out a 4-wood at the 190-yard 15th hole—like any good percussion man would.

His wood shot appeared to smack the green head-on and bounce over—but when the four gathered at the flag for a putting session, there was the little white pelota cradled in the cup.

Witnessing the feat were Richard Kauhi (who plays the piano Tuesday nights at Tokyo Kaikan), Gil Brown (who accompanies Nami at Grandview with the bass), and Jerry Valasco (another 88 performer).

And as the cats all agreed, the Ace and subsequent 76 gross round were real "touch" for a guy who hadn't touched the sticks in over a month.

Gordon Kono Wins Third State Crown; Top Notchers Travel to Palm Springs

Gordy Kono, the pride of Oakland's Hi Fi Club, posted his third and record-breaking win in the California State Nisei Golf Championships over the weekend at the post Carmel Valley Country Club.

Although some localities might scoff at the effort, pointing out that SCNGAers haven't participated since the annual event was ousted from Pebble Beach, Kono's accomplishment can't be slighted.

The youthful Oaklander copped his first title (at Pasatiempo) in 1963 and was the first repeater ever, winning the following year. Frank Yoshioka of San Jose interrupted the skein in 1965.

Kono carded steady rounds of 75-79 for a 154 total, ten (10!) solid swings ahead of his nearest "competition," who happened to be Frank Shimada. The Garden City member posted scores of 81-83 for a distant 164 total.

In the low net race Lou Suzuki's 79-91 (24)—146 was the winner with Harlan Hayakawa the runner-up with an 83-83 (14)—152. Sacramento's Ben Sunahara took third low net in a playoff after a 153 effort.

Top Notch

Top Notchers made their annual sojourn to Palm Springs with 45 players (members and guests) swinging away at Indian Wells Country Club over the weekend.

Guest Harry Hankawa, carrying the colors of West L.A., wound up the winner with a 141 total net, one slim stroke better than J. Sarno, another invitee. Eddie Nagao, associate member, continued his strong stroking with a 145 finish, good for third place.

Hankawa, a 6 handicapper, had steady rounds of 70-71, his opening 70 good for Saturday low net and his final 71 runner-up to Sarno's sparkling 64 on Sunday. The Saturday-Sunday 76s by the pair were the best gross scores of the invitational. The prize winners:

1. H. Hankawa (6)	70-71—141
2. J. Sarno (12)	78-64—142
3. E. Nagao (8)	72-73—145

carded 82 gross scores. Bert had a 40-42 (11) for a 71 net while Isobe powered a 38 outgoing but slipped to a 44 back nine for a 72 net with his 10 handicap. Ted Naritoku also had a shot at the lead with his 15 handi but a backnine 46 after an opening 42 was his undoing. Ted wound up with a 73 net.

Wally Teramoto was fourth, followed by George Inouye, Frank Endow and Ken Hyosaka.

Pebble Beach

The Kishi-Nagao Pebble Beach affair is fast approaching and according to the latest tally, a full field is expected to make the trek for the Nov. 5-6 weekend.

"A few (very few) openings are yet available," according to co-host Eddie Nagao, "with the remaining spots to be scheduled on a first-come, first reserved, basis." Only restriction will be the entrant must have (or play to) a 12 handicap or less.

Anyone wishing to grab off a spot must call either Nagao (DU 8-0694) or Kishi (9-7787) as soon as possible.

El Patio

The newest member of the club, Hiro Harada, made sure he got right into the thick of things by notching his name on El Patio's perpetual trophy designating a triumph in the annual 54-hole tournament.

Although a swinger for only a year, Harada has been consistently up in the club standings. Just last week he shot his best 18 holes ever only to improve upon it another stroke this past Sunday.

He posted a steadily improving 77-70-69 (net)—216 to cop the coveted title by two strokes. Harada is now playing to a 15.

Francis Aoyama was the steadiest over the long haul but his 9 handicap wasn't good enough to catch the high-flying Harada. Aoyama had a 72-74-72 for a 218 total, Fumio Kinoshita (10) was the first round leader and then barely managed to hang onto a tie for third with Gene Arakaki (24) whose final round net 71 was the second low for the day. Kinoshita and Arakaki wound up at 222 net. The others:

Oakland golfer captures state Nisei laurels

10/13/66

MONTEREY. — Ideal weather greeted the golfers for the 16th annual California State Nisei golf championships at the plush Carmel Valley Country Club course and Gordy Kono, who carried a four handicap out of Hi Fli Club of Oakland, showed his appreciation by carding a 75 on Saturday and a 79 on Sunday to cop the state crown with a 154 total.

This was the third state crown for Kono of Oakland, who had copped in 1963 and 1964. Defending champion was Frank Yoshioka of San Jose.

Runner-up was Frank Shimada of Garden City. The eight-handicap golfer posted cards of 81 and 83 for a 164 total.

Third went to Tets Sumida of Peninsula Fairways who defeated Harlan Hayakawa of Spoon and Tee. Both had 166 totals.

Third net honors was taken by Lou Suzuki of the Cardinals who posted 79 91-24—146. Second was Hayakawa of Spoon and Tee with 83 83-14—152.

Ben Sunahara of Sacramento Nisei took third low net in a playoff with Jim Yokota of the same club. Sunahara's scores were 85 84-16—153.

Team championship was taken by Sacramento Nisei with net 621 with Peninsula Fairways second with 631.

Second day low net was won by Don Tsukamoto of Peninsula Fairways with a net 74.

El Patio, West LA Orange County in Tri-Club Affair

The annual Orange County-El Patio golf get-together was held Sunday with the West Los Angeles club joining the fun to make it a tri-club affair.

Using both courses at Jack Kramer's Los Serranos County Club in Chino, the boys went at it pretty good with the Aye Flite (12 handicap and under) playing the longer south course (par 73-7000 plus yards). The Bees (13 and over) played the older and short north course (par 70-6400 yards).

Occasional gusty winds periodically marred a hot day with the greens playing lightening fast. El Patio's Fumio Kinoshita's 73 was good for the Aye title by a slim stroke while WLA's Mas Okumura and Sam Kishimoto wound up the Bee bracket with identical 69s. (Okumura apparently "won" the top prize because he's listed as 1 while Sam is No. 2). The prize winners:

Aye Flight

1. Fumio Kinoshita, EP	83-10—73

7. Sam Waki, OC	88-13—75
8. Ed Fujimoto, EP	89-14—75

In carding his winning total, Kinoshita had only one birdie en route to his 44-39(10)—73. A near-disastrous triple bogie went along with a pair of doubles and four bogies—but yet he managed to slip past Yoshioka while the latter carded a 40-40 (6)—74.

Brookside

The fun tournament of the year was completed last Sunday after five long weeks of links madness.

Butch Tamura wound up Brookside's match play champion by whopping Bill Fujimoto, 5 and 4.

Tamura took the lead at the second hole and when he canned a birdie putt on the 9th green, it was a matter of time before he closed Fujimoto out. Butch was five up when he made the turn.

The veteran golfer then merely bided his time, winding up the lopsided match at the 1th hole. Second runners-up behind Fujimoto were Yas Mikuriya and Frank Iwata.

State Tourney

This weekend 62 golfers from Los Angeles to Sacramento will tee off in the 16th annual California State Nisei Championship tournament being staged at Carmel Valley Golf and Country Club.

The 36-hole test is returning to the Monterey Bay area after an absence of some four years.

Last year's tournament, played at Pasatiempo in Santa Cruz, was won by Frank Yoshioka with a a two-day total of 155. Yoshioka, representing the sponsoring Garden City Golf Club of San Jose, will again be on hand to defend his laurels.

Another perennial favorite, Gordy Kono of Hi Fli club of Oakland, was runner-up with a 162. Kono and Yoshioka are the two lowest handicappers in this year's replay, boasting a 4 and 5 respectively.

Others, based on handicaps, sure to be in strong contention if they can handle the long and testing Carmel layout, are Ralph Nishimi and Frank Shingu. Nishimi is from Sacramento and Shingu from Monterey, both with six handicaps.

Rod Kobara, tournament chairman, reports that tournament headquarters will be at the La Fonda Motel in Monterey. He added that there are plenty of electric carts and anyone wishing to rent one may do so without advance reservations.

Gordon Kono Wins Third State Crown; Top Notchers Travel to Palm Springs

Gordy Kono, the pride of Oakland's Hi Fi Club, posted his third and record-breaking win in the California State Nisei Golf Championships over the weekend at the post Carmel Valley Country Club.

Although some localities might scoff at the effort, pointing out that SCNGAers haven't participated since the annual event was ousted from Pebble Beach, Kono's accomplishment can't be slighted.

The youthful Oaklander copped his first title (at Pasatiempo) in 1963 and was the first repeater ever, winning the following year. Frank Yoshioka of San Jose interrupted the skein in 1965.

Kono carded steady rounds of 75-79 for a 154 total, ten (10!) solid swings ahead of his nearest "competition," who happened to be Frank Shimada. The Garden City member posted scores of 81-83 for a distant 164 total.

In the low net race Lou Suzuki's 79-91 (24)—146 was the winner with Harlan Hayakawa the runner-up with an 83-83 (14)—152. Sacramento's Ben Sunahara took third low net in a playoff after a 153 effort.

Air Flite

The Air Fliters also took an out-of-town journey — traveling to Lake San Marcos Country Club Sunday for a quick and enjoyable 18-holer.

Bert Nakamura edged Jim Isobe for first place honors as both carded 82 gross scores. Bert had a 40-42 (11) for a 71 net while Isobe powered a 38 outgoing but slipped to a 44 back nine for a 72 net with his 10 handicap. Ted Naritoku also had a shot at the lead with his 15 handi but a backnine 46 after an opening 42 was his undoing. Ted wound up with a 73 net.

Wally Teramoto was fourth, followed by George Inouye, Frank Endow and Ken Hyosaka.

(In answer to the question at the bottom of our little note, "no, I didn't get the results of the final round of AF's 54-hole ournament).

Pebble Beach

The Kishi-Nagao Pebble Beach affair is fast approaching and according to the latest tally, a full field is expected to make the trek for the Nov. 5-6 weekend.

"A few (very few) openings are yet available," according to co-host Eddie Nagao, "with the remaining spots to be scheduled on a first-come, first reserved, basis." Only restriction will be the entrant must have (or play to) a 12 handicap or less.

Anyone wishing to grab off a spot must call either Nagao (DU 8-0694) or Kishi (9-7787) as soon as possible.

El Patio

The newest member of the club, Hiro Harada, made sure he got right into the thick of things by notching his name on El Patio's perpetual trophy designating a triumph in the annual 54-hole tournament.

Although a swinger for only a year, Harada has been consistently up in the club standings. Just last week he shot his best 18 holes ever only to improve upon it another stroke this past Sunday.

He posted a steadily improving 77-70-69 (net)—216 to cop the coveted title by two strokes. Harada is now playing to a 15.

Francis Aoyama was the steadiest over the long haul but his 9 handicap wasn't good enough to catch the high-flying Harada. Aoyama had a 72-74-72 for a 218 total. Fumio Kinoshita (10) was the first round leader and then barely managed to hang onto a tie for third with Gene Arakaki (24) whose final round net 71 was the second low for the day. Kinoshita and Arakaki wound up at 222 net. The others:

5.	Dave Arakaki	225
	Ed Fujimoto	225
7.	Al Nakata	226
8.	Al Keimi	229
9.	Joji Shimabukuro	230
10.	Kats Yoshioka	231

Others included Dan Fujimoto, 235; Frank Sera, Nip Fujimoto, 242; Min Harada 259, and Byron Okinaka, the defending champion, withdrew after the first round

Oakland golfer captures state Nisei laurels

10/13/66

MONTEREY. — Ideal weather greeted the golfers for the 16th annual California State Nisei golf championships at the plush Carmel Valley Country Club course and Gordy Kono, who carried a four handicap out of Hi Fli Club of Oakland, showed his appreciation by carding a 75 on Saturday and a 79 on Sunday to cop the state crown with a 154 total.

This was the third state crown for Kono of Oakland, who had copped in 1963 and 1964. Defending champion was Frank Yoshioka of San Jose.

Runner-up was Frank Shimada of Garden City. The eight-handicap golfer posted cards of 81 and 83 for a 164 total.

Third went to Tets Sumida of Peninsula Fairways who defeated Harlan Hayakawa of Spoon and Tee. Both had 166 totals.

Third net honors was taken by Lou Suzuki of the Cardinals who posted 79 91-24—146. Second was Hayakawa of Spoon and Tee with 83 83-14—152.

Ben Sunahara of Sacramento Nisei took third low net in a playoff with Jim Yokota of the same club. Sunahara's scores were 85 84-16—153.

Team championship was taken by Sacramento Nisei with net 621 with Peninsula Fairways second with 631.

Second day low net was won by Don Tsukamoto of Peninsula Fairways with a net 74.

El Patio, West LA Orange County in Tri-Club Affair

The annual Orange County-El Patio golf get-together was held Sunday with the West Los Angeles club joining the fun to make it a tri-club affair.

Using both courses at Jack Kramer's Los Serranos County Club in Chino, the boys went at it pretty good with the Aye Flite (12 handicap and under) playing the longer south course (par 73-7000 plus yards). The Bees (13 and over) played the older and short north course (par 70-6400 yards).

Occasional gusty winds periodically marred a hot day with the greens playing lightening fast. El Patio's Fumio Kinoshita's 73 was good for the Aye title by a slim stroke while WLA's Mas Okumura and Sam Kishimoto wound up the Bee bracket with identical 69s. (Okumura apparently "won" the top prize because he's listed as 1 while Sam is No. 2). The prize winners:

Aye Flight

1.	Fumio Kinoshita, EP	83-10—73
2.	Kats Yoshioka, EP	80- 6—74
3.	Yas Yoshida, OC)	84- 9—75

7.	Richard Iwamoto, OC	81- 5—76
8.	Roy Ito, WLA	83- —76

Bee Flight

6.	Steve Abe, OC	89-14—75
7.	Sam Waki, OC	88-13—75
8.	Ed Fujimoto, EP	89-14—75

In carding his winning total, Kinoshita had only one birdie en route to his 44-39(10)—73. A near-disastrous triple bogie went along with a pair of doubles and four bogies—but yet he managed to slip past Yoshioka while the latter carded a 40-40 (6)—74.

handi Kishimoto. Okumura went around in 40-42 while Kishimoto had a 43-41.

Brookside

The fun tournament of the year was completed last Sunday after five long weeks of links madness.

Butch Tamura wound up Brookside's match play champion by whopping Bill Fujimoto, 5 and 4.

Tamura took the lead at the second hole and when he canned a birdie putt on the 9th green, it was a matter of time before he closed Fujimoto out. Butch was five up when he made the turn.

The veteran golfer then merely bided his time, winding up the lopsided match at the 1th hole. Second runners-up behind Fujimoto were Yas Mikuriya and Frank Iwata.

Instead of taking the Sutter bus and transferring on Van Ness, they boarded the Fillmore bus and got off at McAllister. This was the corner where there was some window-breaking in the early morning hours.

As they were waiting for a McAllister bus, a police patrol car drove up and one of the officers came out to ask them why they were out so close to curfew time.

One of the trio who spoke English explained that they were en route to the Veterans hall to see the Noh show.

"Well, in that case, we'll take you there," the officers said and opened the patrol car door for them.

Gordon Kono Wins Third State Crown; Top Notchers Travel to Palm Springs

Gordy Kono, the pride of Oakland's Hi Fi Club, posted his third and record-breaking win in the California State Nisei Golf Championships over the weekend at the post Carmel Valley Country Club.

Although some localities might scoff at the effort, pointing out that SCNGAers haven't participated since the annual event was ousted from Pebble Beach, Kono's accomplishment can't be slighted.

The youthful Oaklander copped his first title (at Pasatiempo) in 1963 and was the first repeater ever, winning the following year. Frank Yoshioka of San Jose interrupted the skein in 1965.

Kono carded steady rounds of 75-79 for a 154 total, ten (10!) solid swings ahead of his nearest "competition," who happened to be Frank Shimada. The Garden City member posted scores of 81-83 for a distant 164 total.

In the low net race Lou Suzuki's 79-91 (24)—146 was the winner with Harlan Hayakawa the runner-up with an 83-83 (14)—152. Sacramento's Ben Sunahara took third low net in a playoff after a 153 effort.

Top Notch

Top Notchers made their annual sojourn to Palm Springs with 45 players (members and guests) swinging away at Indian Wells Country Club over the weekend.

Guest Harry Hankawa, carrying the colors of West L.A., wound up the winner with a 141 total net, one slim stroke better than J. Sarno, another invitee. Eddie Nagao, associate member, continued his strong stroking with a 145 finish, good for third place.

Hankawa, a 6 handicapper, had steady rounds of 70-71, his opening 70 good for Saturday low net and his final 71 runner-up to Sarno's sparkling 64 on Sunday. The Saturday-Sunday 76s by the pair were the best gross scores of the invitational. The prize winners:

1. H. Hankawa (6)	70-71—141
2. J. Sarno (12)	78-64—142
3. E. Nagao (8)	72-73—145

Air Flite

The Air Fliters also took an out-of-town journey — traveling to Lake San Marcos Country Club Sunday for a quick and enjoyable 18-holer.

Bert Nakamura edged Jim Isobe for first place honors as both carded 82 gross scores. Bert had a 40-42 (11) for a 71 net while Isobe powered a 38 outgoing but slipped to a 44 back nine for a 72 net with his 10 handicap. Ted Naritoku also had a shot at the lead with his 15 handi but a backnine 46 after an opening 42 was his undoing. Ted wound up with a 73 net.

Wally Teramoto was fourth, followed by George Inouye, Frank Endow and Ken Hyosaka.

(In answer to the question at the bottom of our little note, "no, I didn't get the results of the final round of AF's 54-hole ournament).

Pebble Beach

The Kishi-Nagao Pebble Beach affair is fast approaching and according to the latest tally, a full field is expected to make the trek for the Nov. 5-6 weekend.

"A few (very few) openings are yet available," according to co-host Eddie Nagao, "with the remaining spots to be scheduled on a first-come, first reserved, basis." Only restriction will be the entrant must have (or play to) a 12 handicap or less.

Anyone wishing to grab off a spot must call either Nagao (DU 8-0694) or Kishi (9-7787) as soon as possible.

El Patio

The newest member of the club, Hiro Harada, made sure he got right into the thick of things by notching his name on El Patio's perpetual trophy designating a triumph in the annual 54-hole tournament.

Although a swinger for only a year, Harada has been consistently up in the club standings. Just last week he shot his best 18 holes ever only to improve upon it another stroke this past Sunday.

He posted a steadily improving 77-70-69 (net)—216 to cop the coveted title by two strokes. Harada is now playing to a 15.

Francis Aoyama was the steadiest over the long haul but his 9 handicap wasn't good enough to catch the high-flying Harada. Aoyama had a 72-74-72 for a 218 total. Fumio Kinoshita (10) was the first round leader and then barely managed to hang onto a tie for third with Gene Arakaki (24) whose final round net 71 was the second low for the day. Kinoshita and Arakaki wound up at 222 net. The others:

5. Dave Arakaki	225
Ed Fujimoto	225
7. Al Nakata	226
8. Al Keimi	229
9. Joji Shimabukuro	230
10. Kats Yoshioka	231

Others included Dan Fujimoto, 235; Frank Sera, Nip Fujimoto, 242; Min Harada 259, and Byron Okinaka, the defending champion, withdrew after the first round

El Patio, West LA Orange County in Tri-Club Affair

The annual Orange County-El Patio golf get-together was held Sunday with the West Los Angeles club joining the fun to make it a tri-club affair.

Using both courses at Jack Kramer's Los Serranos County Club in Chino, the boys went at it pretty good with the Aye Flite (12 handicap and under) playing the longer south course (par 73-7000 plus yards). The Bees (13 and over) played the older and short north course (par 70-6400 yards).

Brookside

10/28/66

The fun tournament of the year was completed last Sunday after five long weeks of links madness.

Butch Tamura wound up Brookside's match play champion by whopping Bill Fujimoto, 5 and 4.

Tamura took the lead at the second hole and when he canned a birdie putt on the 9th green, it was a matter of time before he closed Fujimoto out. Butch was five up when he made the turn.

The veteran golfer then merely bided his time, winding up the lopsided match at the 1th hole. Second runners-up behind Fujimoto were Yas Mikuriya and Frank Iwata.

Fred Ikeguchi Wins Bulk of Prizes At Wet Pebble Beach with Fine 77-87

Freddie Ikeguchi, our fine upstanding SCNGA president who goes into limbo like Gov. Brown at the end of the year, made sure he went out a winner unlike "Pat."

He defied the Pebble Beach field and elements and wound up carting home practically all the major prizes awarded by the tournament sponsors, Eddie Nagao and Joe Kishi.

Ikeguchi powered his way to a 77-87—164 low gross, brilliant shooting in view of the conditions. He not only walked away with gross honors both days but picked up the daily low net monies Saturday and Sunday as well as total low net. Not satisfied yet, the Long Beach belter carried his team (3-man) to a second place finish.

A Weekend At Pebble Beach

The golfers from Southern California were all over Pebble Beach last weekend.

El Bingo's Country Club had more to offer than just pebbles on the beach when the Joe Kishi and Eddie Nagao-sponsored tournament took place.

The tournament was for those golfers who have established handicaps of 12 or below, but regardless, if someone with a higher handicap desired playing (like me with a 19) they would have to play to a 12.

There are several apparent reasons why 12 and below handicappers are invited:

1. The course is rated 73, which means it is one of the toughest in the world. Its natural hazzards are beyond description. Anyone who is a "hacker" just don't have a chance.

2. The above average golfers who have been scoring well at local courses have a chance to test their abilities to the utmost as Pebble Beach offers them an opportunity to use every iron and wood in their bag and an opportunity to vie against the better golfers of the community.

3. The scenery is just like on T.V. only better, because you can feel the wind and rain and smell the salt air. Saturday was overcast and Sunday you won't believe. It was overcast with a slight breeze, then it started to blow with a slight drizzle, then it came down in buckets, and for a while it hailed. Only the seasoned golfer can "weather" such adverse natural elements.

4. The old-timers (and I use the term loosely) have a wonderful time comparing notes after a round of golf. It is no shame for anyone to say he shot in the 90's or 100's. This not too hilly course will flatten out any man's ego. Anyone can take a 9, a 10, an 11 or more on a hole. I took an 11 on the 14th par 5 hole, one out of bounds, 4 strokes in the biggest sandtrap that I ever knew existed.

The foursome that I played with, which included Dr. John Kuroda, Mareo Masunaka, Butch Tamura, on the first day wound up with scores in the 90's and 100's. I shot a 101 for the first time at Pebble and everyone complimented me on it. The second day I played with Dr. Henry Yamada and Dr. Harold Wakamatsu. They "weathered" through the 18 holes and I picked up after 7 holes for the lack of rain gear. Both dentists shot well considering the sleet and hail they went through.

5. The weekend offers a brief interlude and a change of pace that is most relaxing and refreshing. The Del Monte Lodge is warm, comfortable and sumptuous. The American plan of $23.50 per day per person includes a $7 dinner, a

Pebble Beach

The annual Eddie Nagao-Joe Kishi sponsored Pebble Beach Invitational is on the launching pad for its second renewal this weekend.

Fifty-seven SCNGAers and selected guests are on the scene for the Saturday-Sunday 36-holer with most of the invitees making the picturesque trek from midweek.

Since the resumption of Pebble Beach action last year, the Nagao-Kishi affair has more than found favor with the localities who have been chomping at the bit to return to one of the finest and most testing courses in the world.

And if all goes according to original schedule, once PB can accommodate more than the maximum 60, the Eddie-Joe combine is expected to turn over the operation to the Association as before.

As for the sporting action, no one completes with a handicap of more than 12. Listed in the field are such well known swingers as Harry Hankawa, Beach Morita, Joe Ito, Fred Ikeguchi, George Wada, Don Iwata and Babe Nomura.

Pairings for 10 a.m. Saturday:

1. Taro Uchizono, Frank Onishi, Roy Nagao, Yas Tatsumi.
2. George Fukushima, Fred Funakoshi, Tets Asato, Dave Yamamoto.
3. Frank Kishi, Kim Hatashita, Beach Morita, Dr. Morimoto.
4. Jim Mitsumori, Al Munari, Ken Osajima, Bob Nako.
5. Church Hirata, Yas Mikuriya, S. Hirashima, Henry Yamada.
6. Harold Wakamatsu, Hidemi Yamada, Pete Yamazaki, Genji Kawamura.
7. Fred Matsumoto, Joe Ito, Frank Nagai, Mitch Tanaka.
8. Harry Hankawa, Jerry Ross, Tosh Hayakawa, Fred Ikeguchi
13. Sus Takeshita, Art Kirita, Luis Aihara, Tom Kurumada.
14. John Kuroda, Bruce Kaji, Mareo Masunaka, Babe Nomura, Satsuki Shigekawa.

Three-man teams have also been selected for the weekend. The threesomes of Ito - Munari - Ross, Fukai-Takeshita - Uchizono, Hayakawa-Asato-Fukushima, and Iwata-Nagai-Yamamoto appear to be among the stronger vying for the team total.

Speaking of prizes, we don't have a complete rundown of the list but as usual the various categories are topped with the best prizes on the SCNGA tournament trail.

West Los Angeles club concluded its 36-holer at Fox Hills, according to Ben Hayashida.

Replacing the now-defunct match play tourney held this time of year, the West LAers' 36-hole medal wound up in a flatfooted tie between Mas Okumura and Roy Ito. Both carded identical 146s. In an 18-hole playoff, Mas emerged victorious and was awarded the WLA Club trophy while Ito took the runner-up hardware donated by Sam Kishimoto.

Jim Fukuhara and Mas Matsumura were deadlocked for third at 148 with Jim winding up the playoff victor. Harry Hankawa was a distant fiifth.

Club members are also reminded that its Turkey Shoot will be staged November 6 and 20.

SCNGA Schedules Election Meeting for Monday, Nov. 28, at New Moon

General election meeting of the Southern California Nisei Golf Association will be held Monday, Nov. 28, it was announced this week by SCNGA President Freddie Ikeguchi.

Presidents of all member clubs and a representative are asked to attend this single all-association gathering. It will be held in the banquet room of the New Moon Restaurant on South San Pedro street starting at 7 p.m. sharp.

(With many clubs holding elections and installations, it might be noted that either new or old club presidents should attend. The secrepresentative need not be an officer).

Biggest item on the agenda will be the election of new officers.

Since the inauguration of the two-year tenure in office, President Ikeguchi and his staff have served their terms. Outgoing cabinet members include Tosh Hayakawa, treasurer; Hank Yamada, secretary; Lou Aihara and Yas Tatsumi, tournament chairmen.

It was also pointed out that the controversial low gross-low net prize distribution hassle that flared up during the San Diego sojourn will be settled once and for all—the logical solution requiring official action and rules amendment.

John Ty Saito, the venerable handicap major domo, is expected to propose a major change in the compilation of handicap figures with Tosh Hayakawa currently preparing a financial statement to inform the membership of the SCNGA's monetary status.

Remember the important session is Monday, 7 p.m., Nov. 28, at New Moon!

Caesars Palace, Las Vegas' newest and most exciting resort, is making plans to host a 36-hole golf tournament for SCNGA members sometime in January.

Full details are not known at this time but word siphoned from the craps table reveals a fabulous prize list is in the offing (color tv set, etc.) with current plans calling for no entry fee whatsoever.

An attractive package deal for golfer and "companion of his choice" (meaning wife, smart guy) will be offered.

For the moment that's all we've got but we'd suggest you play your January dates by ear. The Caesars Palace Nisei Open will be something you'll not want to miss.

71—Jack Horikawa, Mits Motobo, Tom Hirano.
73—Paul Tsukahara, Min Yoshizaki, Tom Matsunaga.
74—Dave Hiura, John Ty Saito.
76—Frank Ota, Fujimoto, Mareo Masunaka.

Max Flite

The annual November Max Flite-Beverly Bowl 36-hole tournament goes into its final round this Sunday with Isao Kudow leading the pack by three strokes. Isao banged out a sizzling 76 to go with his 8 handicap for a 68 net.

A quartet of swingers is in the 71 bracket. They are Norm Kitahara (78-7); Yo Shimizu (79-8); Tom Inouye (81-10) and Tak Kitaoka (82-11).

Following the final 18, winners will receive prizes donated by Beverly Bowl's Frank DeMascio, Jimmy Thompson, Montebello pro shop, and George Koyama.

El Patio

El Patio's annual Turkey Shoot was held last Sunday with Hiro Harada shooting his best 18-holes ever, a 2-40 (14)—68, to walk away with the biggest turkey. Tied for second place was a traffic jam of no less than six with net 73s. They were Kats Yoshioka, Ed Fujimoto, Sy Saito, Francis Aoyama, Dan Fujimoto,and Frank Sera.

Because of the runner-up crowd, the losers were able to draw for only a single bird-with no less than Al Keimi coming up with the lucky digit.

Last week El Patio held its annual awards dinner at Tahitian Village in Downey. Trophies went to the champions and runners-up of the year's tourneys. They included (winners) Francis Aoyama, 18-hole presidential trophy;; Don Fujimoto and Hiro Harada, 36-hole partner best ball; Al Nakata, 36-holer; Kats Yoshiroka, match play; Hiro Harada, 54-holer.

The 1967 cabinet was also elected with Dave Aarakaki serving as teh 1967 president and tournament chairman. Others include Al Keimi, secretary-treasurer; Fumio Kinoshita, handicap chairman; Al Nakata, handicap cochairman.

Association Meeting Monday, Nov. 28 Harada, Chi Kubo Cop Monthly Prizes

The outgoing cabinet of the SCNGA hassled over a slate of nominees for the upcoming Association Election Meeting and will present its nominations when representatives gather for the annual ballot banquet.

Two delegates from each member SCNGA club are being invited to the New Moon session which will begin at 7 p.m. Monday, Nov. 28th. Although allowed to cast but one vote, the Board is requesting that the Club President and a representative be present to determine a number of other items in addition to the election.

"The importance of this once a year meeting can not be ever-emphasized," President Freddie Ikeguchi remarked, "especially in view of the fact that the cabinet will serve for two years. I have been fortunate to be surrounded by conscientious and able officers which made it a pleasure to head the Association for the past two years."

His staff included Tosh Hayakawa, treasurer; Henry Yamada, secretary; and Luis Aihara and Yas Tatsumi, tournament co-chairmen. John Ty Saito, the entrepreneur of the handicap board, hold sway for the upteenth consecutive year.

"We have come up with what we think is a solid and dependable prospective cabinet which will be able to work in harmony together," Ikeguchi added, "but the election ballots will naturally have space for write-ins and/or nominations accepted from the floor," he concluded.

Sweepstake Results

Elsewhere along golf row, winners of the Sweepstakes competition for the past two months have been revealed.

Fred Harada, long absent from the honor listings, topped the September scoring. The Max Fliter had a 75-10 for a 65 net and the top award. Despite better scores, a trio of 63s was designated the runner-up spot because of course rating allowances.

Tied for second were Frank Iwata (75-12) of Brookside, and Paul Sakaguchi (74-11) and James Kobayashi (71-8) or Orange County. Masshie Bessho, an Associate member, had a sizzling 70-7—63 posted, but was disqualified from the prize money because no SCNGA member was in the playing foursome.

October winner. His 72-9—63 squeezed out a victory margin over a pair of 64s and a 66.

Jim Nakayama and George Yamagata, a pair of Top Fliters, split second money with Tom Inouye of Max Flite. Yamagata had a fine 72-8 while Nakayama came up with a 78-14. Inouye carded a 76-10.

Other good scores during the 10th month were Bill Chambers (76-12) and Hisao Nakasuji (82-17) from Long Beach; Yas Saito (10-12) and Bessho (73-7), Associate members; TF's Doug Mizokami (74-9) and lefty Johnny Endo of Western, 75-8.

Max Flite

Sam Wada walked off with the top prize in the 36-hole Max Flite-Beverly Bowl tournament at Montebello CC last Sunday.

We don't have any scores available, but Sam apparently came out of the blue to garner the blue chips. We had Isao Kudow as the halfway leader (net 68) with four deadlocked in the 71 bracket and Wada nowhere in sight—except at the finish.

He was presented a trophy and set of irons by Tony Leone, general maanger of Beverly Bowl, for his productive efforts.

Tak Kitaoka, among the 71 group after 18, hung on for second place which was good for a set of woods. Norm Kitahara and Kudow wound up in a third place tie with Norm getting a $30 merchandise award an dpair of shoes donated by George Koyama. Isao had to be satisfied with $30 and a sweater donated by Jimmy Thompson.

Y. Shimizu ($40), Sammy Yamashita ($30 and Ed Yamada ($20) completed the money list for 4-5-6, with Min Sewake and Jake Ihara's 7th place finish good for 11 balls each. Bones Okutsu garnered 7 for his 8th place slot with every-

Fred Ikeguchi Wins Bulk of Prizes At Wet Pebble Beach with Fine 77-87

Freddie Ikeguchi, our fine upstanding SCNGA president who goes into limbo like Gov. Brown at the end of the year, made sure he went out a winner unlike "Pat."

He defied the Pebble Beach field and elements and wound up carting home practically all the major prizes awarded by the tournament sponsors, Eddie Nagao and Joe Kishi.

Ikeguchi powered his way to a 77-87—164 low gross, brilliant shooting in view of the conditions. He not only walked away with gross honors both days but picked up the daily low net monies Saturday and Sunday as well as total low net. Not satisfied yet, the Long Beach belter carried his team (3-man) to a second place finish.

1.	Fred Ikeguchi	77-87 (8)—148
2.	Taro Uchizono	82-94 (11)—154
3.	H. Hankawa	82-88 (7)—156
4.	H. Yamagata	87-88 (7)—16
	M. Masunaka	92-91 (11)—161
6.	Cy Yuguchi	88-90 (8)—162
	G. Fukushima	85-95 (9)—162
8.	Ken Osajima	89-96 (10)—165
9.	Frank Onishi	88-08 (10)—166
10.	T. Hayakawa	85-98 (8)—167
	M. Bessho	86-93 (6)—167
	John Kuroda	94-93 (10)—167

Saturday play was unhampered, other than the biting cold, but Sunday was something else again. Many of the 60 competitors calling it quits before completing the final 18. But not Freddie.

His 165 gross was worth a sterling silver plate; his 148 net meant a solid gold watch; daily low nets were worth pair of $50 certificates and the 1-2-3 teams members all received $35 gift ducats. All told quite a weekend for the rotund prexy.

Uchizono and Masunaka were second low net winners Saturday-Sunday, meaning $35 certificates for both. Hayakawa, Tets Asato and George Fukushima joined for a 502 team total, five up on Ikeguchi's trio which included Chuch Hirata and Art Kirita. Mas Fukai-Sus Takeshita and Taro Uchizono's 517 brought them into the $105 bracket, also.

Having gotten into trouble previous years reporting on "ee-lan-ko-toh" activities, we refrain in '66—having picked up enough "losers" along the way to make us wait until 1967.

Final Pebble Beach note—Some participants will be receiving bills from the motel for charges which weren't cleared up at time of checkout. Others will be tracked down by sponsor Kishi to erase other expenses still outstanding.

Max Flite

Montebello's Max Flite club, whom we haven't heard from it quite some time, reports its annual 36-hole tournament gets underway this Sunday, concluding on the 20th.

Dr. Richard Omori, a guest of Top Fliters Mark Miyamoto and Hi Higashi at Rio Hondo Country Club last Sunday, might well be considering tennis or bowling as an off-duty sport these days.

Omori and his partners put their clubs away for safekeeping in the trunk of the Doctor's Cadillac and returned to the clubhouse for a cup of coffee.

The safety measure served no protection as the culprit(s) broke into the car and unlocked the car trunk from the inside. Net result: three sets of golf clubs valued at $1000 looking for home-owners insurance.

Of dire importance is the fact that all players participating must be on the 1st tee by 5:30 a.m. or else suffer an automatic two-stroke penalty!

It might also be noted, as an added enticement to early risers, that the 13th action will also determine winners of the annual Turkey shoot. At least half the club roster will qualify for feathered birdies by merely finishing up the 18 hole route.

Orange County

Yas Yoshida and Jack Matsuda qualified for the annual tournament of champions with significant wins in September and October.

Club prexy Yoshida was the September qualifier with a blazing net 59. He was eight strokes ahead of the runner-up, Bill Morita, who would have won any of the previous monthly tournament's with his net 67. Third place net went to George Neishi.

It took Matsuda a tough and rough 54 holes before he emerged the October standard-bearer. Tied for two successive Sunday's, Matsuda finally outlasted Harry Masu with a final round 67 against Naru's 71. Third place went to Don Karimoto with a net 72.

A Weekend At Pebble Beach

The golfers from Southern California were all over Pebble Beach last weekend.

El Bingo's Country Club had more to offer than just pebbles on the beach when the Joe Kishi and Eddie Nagao-sponsored tournament took place.

The tournament was for those golfers who have established handicaps of 12 or below, but regardless, if someone with a higher handicap desired playing (like me with a 19) they would have to play to a 12.

There are several apparent reasons why 12 and below handicappers are invited:

1. The course is rated 73, which means it is one of the toughest in the world. Its natural hazzards are beyond description. Anyone who is a "hacker" just don't have a chance.

2. The above average golfers who have been scoring well at local courses have a chance to test their abilities to the utmost as Pebble Beach offers them an opportunity to use every iron and wood in their bag and an opportunity to vie against the better golfers of the community.

3. The scenery is just like on T.V. only better, because you can feel the wind and rain and smell the salt air. Saturday was overcast and Sunday you won't believe. It was overcast with a slight breeze, then it started to blow with a slight drizzle, then it came down in buckets, and for a while it hailed. Only the seasoned golfer can "weather" such adverse natural elements.

4. The old-timers (and I use the term loosely) have a wonderful time comparing notes after a round of golf. It is no shame for anyone to say he shot in the 90's or 100's. This not too hilly course will flatten out any man's ego. Anyone can take a 9, a 10, an 11 or more on a hole. I took an 11 on the 14th par 5 hole, one out of bounds, 4 strokes in the biggest sandtrap that I ever knew existed.

The foursome that I played with, which included Dr. John Kuroda, Marco Masunaka, Butch Tamura, on the first day wound up with scores in the 90's and 100's. I shot a 101 for the first time at Pebble and everyone complimented me on it. The second day I played with Dr. Henry Yamada and Dr. Harold Wakamatsu. They "weathered" through the 18 holes and I picked up after 7 holes for the lack of rain gear. Both dentists shot well considering the sleet and hail they went through.

5. The weekend offers a brief interlude and a change of pace that is most relaxing and refreshing. The Del Monte Lodge is warm, comfortable and sumptuous. The American plan of $23.50 per day per person includes a $7 dinner, a breakfast and a lunch. The food, everyone agreed, was good.

Freddy Ikeguchi was really on.

The defending champ, Mas Fukai, couldn't do much. He was trying so hard, but you know how it goes sometimes; the harder you try the worse it gets. There's always next time. The fellow that influenced me in my decision to go up is an avid golfer and the well known haberdasher, Joe Ito. He shot 105 the first day, and with my 101 I beat him scratch. That's quite an accomplishment, and for that I should get a free suit.

Eddie Nagao and Joe Kishi had some guests playing. They were the major officers of the new Caesar's Palace in Las Vegas. When I saw them, they seemed to be studying the countryside quite extensively, and I'll bet you dollars to doughnuts that they played well over most of the golf course.

The weekend at Pebble Beach was enjoyable. My traveling friends were Yuki Matsumoto of Mitchum, Jones and Templeton, and George Inouye, General Building Contractor of Gardena. My roommate, Tom Kurumada, sells life insurance for Equitable Life Insurance Co.

To them and the sponsors of the tournament and to the many participants, thank you for a most enjoyable weekend —a little wet—but most enjoyable.

Japan Golf Tour Entourage Returns; Pebble Beach Invitational This Week

The Japan Golf tour entourage is now safely home with each of the 46 making the SCNGA-sponsored Oriental sojourn filling in all the unlucky ones on the trip's highlights.

We have a detailed resume of the October 1-23 activities, thanks to the busy note-taking of John Ty Saito. But in order to give everyone a complete rundown, CR will shelve its Yellow Paper on the Japan Golf Tour until a later date when space allows us to give you the whole works.

Meanwhile, the travelers are traveling again . . .

Pebble Beach

The annual Eddie Nagao-Joe Kishi sponsored Pebble Beach Invitational is on the launching pad for its second renewal this weekend.

Fifty-seven SCNGAers and selected guests are on the scene for the Saturday-Sunday 36-holer with most of the invitees making the picturesque trek from midweek.

Since the resumption of Pebble Beach action last year, the Nagao-Kishi affair has more than found favor with the localities who have been chomping at the bit to return to one of the finest and most testing courses in the world.

And if all goes according to original schedule, once PB can accommodate more than the maximum 60, the Eddie-Joe combine is expected to turn over the operation to the Association as before.

As for the sporting action, no one completes with a handicap of more than 12. Listed in the field are such well known swingers as Harry Hankawa, Beach Morita, Joe Ito, Fred Ikeguchi, George Wada, Don Iwata and Babe Nomura.

Pairings for 10 a.m. Saturday:

1. Taro Uchizono, Frank Onishi, Roy Nagao, Yas Tatsumi.

2. George Fukushima, Fred Funakoshi, Tets Asato, Dave Yamamoto.

3. Frank Kishi, Kim Hatashita, Beach Morita, Dr. Morimoto.

4. Jim Mitsumori, Al Munari, Ken Osajima, Bob Nako.

5. Church Hirata, Yas Mikuriya, S. Hirashima, Henry Yamada.

6. Harold Wakamatsu, Hidemi Yamada, Pete Yamazaki, Genji Kawamura.

7. Fred Matsumoto, Joe Ito, Frank Nagai, Mitch Tanaka.

8. Harry Hankawa, Jerry Ross, Tosh Hayakawa, Fred Ikeguchi

13. Sus Takeshita, Art Kirita, Luis Aihara, Tom Kurumada.

14. John Kuroda, Bruce Kaji, Mareo Masunaka, Babe Nomura, Satsuki Shigekawa.

Three-man teams have also been selected for the weekend. The threesomes of Ito - Munari - Ross, Fukai-Takeshita - Uchizono, Hayakawa-Asato-Fukushima, and Iwata-Nagai-Yamamoto appear to be among the stronger vying for the team total.

Speaking of prizes, we don't have a complete rundown of the list but as usual the various categories are topped with the best prizes on the SCNGA tournament trail.

West Los Angeles club concluded its 36-holer at Fox Hills, according to Ben Hayashida.

In an 18-hole playoff, Mas emerged victorious and was awarded the WLA Club trophy while Ito took the runner-up hardware donated by Sam Kishimoto.

Jim Fukuhara and Mas Matsumura were deadlocked for third at 148 with Jim winding up the playoff victor. Harry Hankawa was a distant fiifth.

Club members are also reminded that its Turkey Shoot will be staged November 6 and 20.

A Weekend At Pebble Beach

The golfers from Southern California were all over Pebble Beach last weekend.

El Bingo's Country Club had more to offer than just pebbles on the beach when the Joe Kishi and Eddie Nagao-sponsored tournament took place.

The tournament was for those golfers who have established handicaps of 12 or below, but regardless, if someone with a higher handicap desired playing (like me with a 19) they would have to play to a 12.

There are several apparent reasons why 12 and below handicappers are invited:

1. The course is rated 73, which means it is one of the toughest in the world. Its natural hazzards are beyond description. Anyone who is a "hacker" just don't have a chance.

2. The above average golfers who have been scoring well at local courses have a chance to test their abilities to the utmost as Pebble Beach offers them an opportunity to use every iron and wood in their bag and an opportunity to vie against the better golfers of the community.

3. The scenery is just like on T.V. only better, because you can feel the wind and rain and smell the salt air. Saturday was overcast and Sunday you won't believe. It was overcast with a slight breeze, then it started to blow with a slight drizzle, then it came down in buckets, and for a while it hailed. Only the seasoned golfer can "weather" such adverse natural elements.

4. The old-timers (and I use the term loosely) have a wonderful time comparing notes after a round of golf. It is no shame for anyone to say he shot in the 90's or 100's. This not too hilly course will flatten out any man's ego. Anyone can take a 9, a 10, an 11 or more on a hole. I took an 11 on the 14th par 5 hole, one out of bounds, 4 strokes in the biggest sandtrap that I ever knew existed.

The foursome that I played with, which included Dr. John Kuroda, Mareo Masunaka, Butch Tamura, on the first day wound up with scores in the 90's and 100's. I shot a 101 for the first time at Pebble and everyone complimented me on it. The second day I played with Dr. Henry Yamada and Dr. Harold Wakamatsu. They "weathered" through the 18 holes and I picked up after 7 holes for the lack of rain gear. Both dentists shot well considering the sleet and hail they went through.

5. The weekend offers a brief interlude and a change of pace that is most relaxing and refreshing. The Del Monte Lodge is warm, comfortable and sumptuous. The American plan of $23.50 per day per person includes a $7 dinner, a

Pebble Beach

The annual Eddie Nagao-Joe Kishi sponsored Pebble Beach Invitational is on the launching pad for its second renewal this weekend.

Fifty-seven SCNGAers and selected guests are on the scene for the Saturday-Sunday 36-holer with most of the invitees making the picturesque trek from midweek.

Since the resumption of Pebble Beach action last year, the Nagao-Kishi affair has more than found favor with the localities who have been chomping at the bit to return to one of the finest and most testing courses in the world.

And if all goes according to original schedule, once PB can accommodate more than the maximum 60, the Eddie-Joe combine is expected to turn over the operation to the Association as before.

As for the sporting action, no one completes with a handicap of more than 12. Listed in the field are such well known swingers as Harry Hankawa, Beach Morita, Joe Ito, Fred Ikeguchi, George Wada, Don Iwata and Babe Nomura.

Pairings for 10 a.m. Saturday:

1. Taro Uchizono, Frank Onishi, Roy Nagao, Yas Tatsumi.
2. George Fukushima, Fred Funakoshi, Tets Asato, Dave Yamamoto.
3. Frank Kishi, Kim Hatashita, Beach Morita, Dr. Morimoto.
4. Jim Mitsumori, Al Munari, Ken Osajima, Bob Nako.
5. Church Hirata, Yas Mikuriya, S. Hirashima, Henry Yamada.
6. Harold Wakamatsu, Hidemi Yamada, Pete Yamazaki, Genji Kawamura.
7. Fred Matsumoto, Joe Ito, Frank Nagai, Mitch Tanaka.
8. Harry Hankawa, Jerry Ross, Tosh Hayakawa, Fred Ikeguchi.
9. George Wada, Fran Uyematsu, Mashie Bessho, Don Iwata.
10. Eddie Nagao, Charlie Resnick, Joe Kishi, J. Sarno.
11. Norm Kitahara, Henry Yamagata, Mas Fukai, Tets Bessho.
12. Yukio Matsumoto, Cy Yuguchi, George Yamagata, George Inouye.
13. Sus Takeshita, Art Kirita, Luis Aihara, Tom Kurumada.
14. John Kuroda, Bruce Kaji, Mareo Masunaka, Babe Nomura, Satsuki Shigekawa.

Three-man teams have also been selected for the weekend. The threesomes of Ito - Munari - Ross, Fukai-Takeshita - Uchizono, Hayakawa-Asato-Fukushima, and Iwata-Nagai-Yamamoto appear to be among the stronger vying for the team total.

Speaking of prizes, we don't have a complete rundown of the list but as usual the various categories are topped with the best prizes on the SCNGA tournament trail.

In an 18-hole playoff, Mas emerged victorious and was awarded the WLA Club trophy while Ito took the runner-up hardware donated by Sam Kishimoto.

SCNGA Schedules Election Meeting for Monday, Nov. 28, at New Moon

General election meeting of the Southern California Nisei Golf Association will be held Monday, Nov. 28, it was announced this week by SCNGA President Freddie Ikeguchi.

Presidents of all member clubs and a representative are asked to attend this single all-association gathering. It will be held in the banquet room of the New Moon Restaurant on South San Pedro street starting at 7 p.m. sharp.

(With many clubs holding elections and installations, it might be noted that either new or old club presidents should attend. The sec-representative need not be an officer).

Biggest item on the agenda will be the election of new officers.

Since the inauguration of the two-year tenure in office, President Ikeguchi and his staff have served their terms. Outgoing cabinet members include Tosh Hayakawa, treasurer; Hank Yamada, secretary; Lou Aihara and Yas Tatsumi, tournament chairmen.

It was also pointed out that the controversial low gross-low net prize distribution hassle that flared up during the San Diego sojourn will be settled once and for all—the logical solution requiring official action and rules amendment.

John Ty Saito, the venerable handicap major domo, is expected to propose a major change in the compilation of handicap figures with Tosh Hayakawa currently preparing a financial statement to inform the membership of the SCNGA's monetary status.

Remember the important session is Monday, 7 p.m., Nov. 28, at New Moon!

Association Meeting Monday, Nov. 28 Harada, Chi Kubo Cop Monthly Prizes

The outgoing cabinet of the SCNGA hassled over a slate of nominees for the upcoming Association Election Meeting and will present its nominations when representatives gather for the annual ballot banquet.

Two delegates from each member SCNGA club are being invited to the New Moon session which will begin at 7 p.m. Monday, Nov. 28th. Although allowed to cast but one vote, the Board is requesting that the Club President and a representative be present to determine a number of other items in addition to the election.

"The importance of this once a year meeting can not be ever-emphasized," President Freddie Ikeguchi remarked, "especially in view of the fact that the cabinet will serve for two years. I have been fortunate to be surrounded by conscientious and able officers which made it a pleasure to head the Association for the past two years."

His staff included Tosh Hayakawa, treasurer; Henry Yamada, secretary; and Luis Aihara and Yas Tatsumi, tournament co-chairmen. John Ty Saito, the entrepreneur of the handicap board, hold sway for the upteenth consecutive year.

"We have come up with what we think is a solid and dependable prospective cabinet which will be able to work in harmony together," Ikeguchi added, "but the election ballots will naturally have space for write-ins and/or nominations accepted from the floor," he concluded.

Sweepstake Results

Elsewhere along golf row, winners of the Sweepstakes competition for the past two months have been revealed.

Fred Harada, long absent from the honor listings, topped the September scoring. The Max Fliter had a 75-10 for a 65 net and the top award. Despite better scores, a trio of 63s was designated the runner-up spot because of course rating allowances.

Tied for second were Frank Iwata (75-12) of Brookside, and Paul Sakaguchi (74-11) and James Kobayashi (71-8) or Orange County. Masshie Bessho, an Associate member, had a sizzling 70-7—63 posted, but was disqualified from the prize money because no SCNGA member was in the playing foursome.

Among the other good scores reported were net 64s by three Long Beach members and Top Notch's Fred Ota. The LB swingers were Hisao Nakasuji, Jim Ryono and Nob Yasaki. In the 65 bracket were Lindy Kashiwabara, George Endo and Joe Kishi.

Air Flite's Chisato Kubo was the October winner. His 72-9—63 squeezed out a victory margin over a pair of 64s and a 66.

Jim Nakayama and George Yamagata, a pair of Top Fliters, split second money with Tom Inouye of Max Flite. Yamagata had a fine 72-8 while Nakayama came up with a 78-14. Inouye carded a 76-10.

Other good scores during the 10th month were Bill Chambers (76-12) and Hisao Nakasuji (82-17) from Long Beach; Yas Saito (10-12) and Bessho (73-7), Associate members; TF's Doug Mizokami (74-9) and lefty Johnny Endo of Western, 75-8.

Other good scores during the 10th month were Bill Chambers (76-12) and Hisao Nakasuji (82-17) from Long Beach; Yas Saito (10-12) and Bessho (73-7), Associate members; TF's Doug Mizokami (74-9) and lefty Johnny Endo of Western, 75-8.

He was presented a trophy and set of irons by Tony Leone, general maanger of Beverly Bowl, for his productive efforts.

Tosh Hayakawa Elected SCNGA Prexy; Caesars Palace Tourney Details Aired

Tosh Hayakawa, Brookside's (Pasadena) contribution to the SCNGA, was unanimously elected president of the Southern California Nisei Golf Association Monday at the organization's annual general meeting held at New Moon restaurant.

Hayakawa, the perennial treasurer, was elevated to the top spot being vacated by Freddie Ikeguchi after two years at the helm. The Pasadenan will also head the Association for two years, the double-term experiment started in 1964 seemingly satisfactory to all concerned.

Joining the lab technician on the 1967-69 cabinet will be Fred Matsumoto, treasurer; Yas Tatsumi, Luis Aihara, John Kuroda, tournament chairmen; John Ty Saito, handicap chairman; and Henry Yamada, secretary. The entire slate of officers, suggested by the nominations committee, was unanimously acclaimed following the move made by Top Notch representative Dr. Paul Tsukahara.

But before bowing out, the Ikeguchi regime had a number of items up for SCNGA acceptance. Among them were:

Final determination that low gross winner of any SCNGA tournament must accept low gross award. Ties will be played off. And in case of gross-net deadlock, low gross takes preference.

It was also pointed out to the 32 present, representing 13 clubs (only Max Flite was missing), that there will be no merchandise awards attached to either the low gross or low net trophies.

And one of the first moves of the new cabinet will be the awarding of low gross awards to the lower classification golfers in all SCNGA - sanctioned tournaments.

Additional details concerning what went on at the meeting will be presented in next week's issue of Crossroads. Meanwhile, more elaboration is in order concerning the Caesars Palace golf shindig we mentioned on previous weeks.

Altho everything is still rather nebulous, the CP Invitational (for wont of a better name) will be staged January 28-29 with a minimum field of 100 requested. (From a random show of hands at the meeting, this total should pose no problem whatsoever).

A "Shot Gun" affair, the two-day shindig will be held at the Dunes and Paradise Valley courses.

The question of entry fee, we're sorry to say, has not yet been determined, but as soon as anything definite is relayed, we'll headline it in the Crossroads.

Whatever the decision, it will most assuredly be reasonable and Caesars management emphasizes that the womenfolk are more than welcome.

The expected prize list will be something out of this world—with everything being put up by Caesars. (The "entry fee" will cover room/board/show/cocktail party during the golfers' stay—none of the monies going to the prize distribution).

According to our information some $5000 worth of merchandise will be given away at the conclusion of the tournament!!! Not to mention a new car to anyone fortunate enough to post a hole-in-one or an eagle on one par 5 hole!!

As mentioned previously, as soon as more definite information is received, we'll pass it along to you immediataely. So hold your breath . . .

Caesars Palace Invitational Tourney Definite; Entries Now Being Taken

The proposed Caesars Palace Invitational, slated to be held January 28-29 in Las Vegas is finally shaping up. A number of major/minor items are yet to be ironed out, but for the sake of the many SCNGAers who have shown an interest in the project, the following information is supplied post haste:

Entry fee for the 36-hole tournament has been definitely set. The tab will be $65. If a "companion of your choice" accompanies you, the extra charge will be a nondescript $25. (But keep in mind the "companion" has to be of the female variety, wife or not. The house will frown upon any guy carousing around in capris).

For the bargain-minded, the $65 will cover:

The Package

Lodging for Friday and Saturday nights; breakfast for Saturday and Sunday; a private cocktail party Saturday afternoon; dinner shows Saturday night.

It is being emphasized that this Las Vegas shindig is not a closed affair to SCNGA members only. Although a direct invitation has been extended to the Association membership, anyone is eligible to enter . . . if . . .

He possesses a registered handicap. If not, his entry will be considered only after the submission of his 15 most recent score.

cides on the total expenditure. As of now, and we emphasize it is unofficial altho pretty sure, the prize distribution will reach $3000 with $500 set aside for a hole-in-one and/or eagle on a specified par 5 hole.

And before it gets buried too far down in the story, let it be known that the 36-hole route will probably be a combination partner best ball and medal play tournament . . . so start hustling up a compadre (and inform the little woman).

Rather than stand the chance of confusing some of you, we'll halt our CP tourney information booth right about now—promising to fill you in next week if anything important comes up that you should know about.

In the meantime keep in mind that the sooner you enter officially, the better off you'll be if the field should get so unwieldy that a maximum number of participants should be designated.

Las Vegas Tournament Details Firmed; Guest Privileges Open to Non-Golfers

Much activity on the Caesars Palace Invitational front so let's get right into it . . .

It has been established that "a companion of your choice "needn't be a female spouse/friend after all. Nor need he be a golfer.

Caesars' Charlie Resnick informs that a tournament entrant ($65) may bring along a male companion for the extra $25 tab if he so desires. As far as that goes, a golfer can bring along his whole family entourage. For example:

An Example

Wimp Hiroto enters (cost, $65) and brings along wife ($25) and friend ($25) as well as three little house-apes ($10 each). His total tab, then, would amount to $145. As for room arrangement, if the friend can't fit, he will be assigned a room-mate or if he knows of a spare ahead of time, a reservation for the two in a double will be pre-arranged. (And in answer to the female inquiry, if a golfing couple brings along a female companion, the same arrangements may be made—with only a slight additional charge made if a single room is requested).

Getting along to the competitive aspect of the January 28-29 shindig, yes, the entry-fee does include the green fees for both rounds. As for the cart, that'll be extra.

Handicap Situation

For the non-SCNGAers, the handicap situation appears to be the only drawback. We've been informed that those without recognized handicaps will have to submit their latest twenty scores in order to compete. Although this may appear rather harsh, you gotta keep in mind that the sojourn is being made possible because of the SCNGA (altho not a sanctioned tournament) and a sandbagging outsider or two could throw the screws to the whole shebang. And what with the lucrative prize list up for grabs, the handicap committee is going to be awfully thorough. In deference to outsiders, let it be said that a fair evaluation will be made—and if dissatisfied, entry money will be refunded.

Other pertinent points to keep in mind:

The revised entry blank has space for a telephone number. Please use it in case we have to get in touch with you . . . Also designate if you have room partner if you're going alone and partner is going w/spouse. If not, you'll be paired up with another single . . . Suggestion was made to charter a bus. Membership is at a record high (400 plus) as president-elect Tosh Hayakawa prepares to take over the reins from Freddie Ikeguchi. Financially stable, the SCNGA appears to be at the peak of efficiency and operation.

Handicaps are now determined via computer; well-organized tournaments dot the monthly calendar; he senior division is blossoming under the tutelage of John Ty Saito and Bob Uragami, the first annual SCNGA golf tour to Japan occurred this year. All in all, as Frank S. says, "It was a very good year."

But rather than reminisce, you're probably more interested in the present. . . which means the upcoming Caesars Palace Invitational, the 36-hole partner best ball tourney set for January 28-29.

Although more than a month off, a surprising number of entries have already been received at the Crossroads headquarters—literally guaranteeing its success since a minimumof 100 participants was necessary to see it through.

An entry deadline was not attached to the tourney announcement but we would urge all interested parties to line up a partner and enter before the end of the year. This edition marks the final paper you'll be getting for three weeks so the next Caesars reminder and entry blank won't be available to you until Friday, Jan. 13.

All appears to be well in hand to this date.

A handicap committee has been organized to peruse the handis of all non-SCNGA entrants and a prize committee is also being developed to make up the initial prize distribution list.

On the former subject, handicap, this corner has not yet been informed whether year-end December handicaps will be in effect or November standings. This point will be satisfactorily cleared up prior to tee-off time, I'm sure.

As for the latter, prize distribution, total monies being put up by the Caesars Palace management will be dissected according to the total number of teams entering and the subsequent breakdown of flights for the individual medal play. Whatever the eventual field, you CP participants will be firing away for the finest prizes and merchandise you've ever ogled.

What with the hectic season and the subsequent lull in activities immediately after the first of the year, many tourney prospects will let things slide. In deference to all concerned making arrangements to guarantee a successful tournament, try to enter as soon as possible.

Heading into 1967, may we again remind all SCNGA Club secretaries that the up-to-date rosters should be mailed in as soon as possible. A complete revision of the Association mailing list is required this year (for zip coding) so the quicker each club complys, the sooner the rosters can be processed.

Send membership lists in triplicate, addresses zip coded and telephone numbers. Also denote club officers.

The question of entry fee, we're sorry to say, has not yet been determined, but as soon as anything definite is relayed, we'll headline it in the Crossroads.

Whatever the decision, it will most assuredly be reasonable and Caesars management emphasizes that the womenfolk are more than welcome.

The expected prize list will be something out of this world—with everything being put up by Caesars. (The "entry fee" will cover room/board/show/cocktail party during the golfers' stay—none of the monies going to the prize distribution).

According to our information some $5000 worth of merchandise will be given away at the conclusion of the tournament!!! Not to mention a new car to anyone fortunate enough to post a hole-in-one or an eagle on one par 5 hole!!

As mentioned previously, as soon as more definite information is received, we'll pass it along to you immediataely. So hold your breath . . .

Caesars Palace Invitational Tourney Definite; Entries Now Being Taken

The proposed Caesars Palace Invitational, slated to be held January 28-29 in Las Vegas is finally shaping up. A number of major/minor items are yet to be ironed out, but for the sake of the many SCNGAers who have shown an interest in the project, the following information is supplied post haste:

Entry fee for the 36-hole tournament has been definitely set. The tab will be $65. If a "companion of your choice" accompanies you, the extra charge will be a nondescript $25. (But keep in mind the "companion" has to be of the female variety, wife or not. The house will frown upon any guy carousing around in capris).

For the bargain-minded, the $65 will cover:

The Package

Lodging for Friday and Saturday nights; breakfast for Saturday and Sunday; a private cocktail party Saturday afternoon; dinner shows Saturday night.

It is being emphasized that this Las Vegas shindig is not a closed affair to SCNGA members only. Although a direct invitation has been extended to the Association membership, anyone is eligible to enter . . . if . . .

He possesses a registered handicap. If not, his entry will be considered only after the submission of his 15 most recent score.

A self-explanatory entry blank appears below. As of now, this will be the only method by which interested parties may enter the Caesars tourney. Checks should be made out to the Hotel.

Call Office

If there are some of you still a bit vague on any of the details, you're welcome to call any of the following for additional information:

Crossroads, MA 3-1213; Eddie Nagao, DU 8-0694; or Luis Aihara, MA 6-9625. (All entry blanks and/or information seeking correspondence should be mailed to Crossroads, 210 S. San Pedro Street, Los Angeles, Calif. 90012, attention: Golf).

Despite some premature, unofficial announcements in prior weeks, it has been learned that the final determination of prizes, wholly donated by the Hotel, will be designated once we firm up the field.

A prize committee will be formed by localities once the Hotel decides on the total expenditure. As of now, and we emphasize it is unofficial altho pretty sure, the prize distribution will reach $3000 with $500 set aside for a hole-in-one and/or eagle on a specified par 5 hole.

And before it gets buried too far down in the story, let it be known that the 36-hole route will probably be a combination partner best ball and medal play tournament . . . so start hustling up a compadre (and inform the little woman).

Rather than stand the chance of confusing some of you, we'll halt our CP tourney information booth right about now—promising to fill you in next week if anything important comes up that you should know about.

In the meantime keep in mind that the sooner you enter officially, the better off you'll be if the field should get so unwieldy that a maximum number of participants should be designated.

Air Flite

Thirteen turkeys were awarded after the conclusion of Air Flite's 36-hole tournament staged during the Sundays of the 13th and 20th. Dan Kawasaki assured his family table of a bird via his 136 net effort, tops for the two rounds. Tak Yanagi was a close second at 137.

In the 138 bracket were Joe Sakurai, Frank Endow and J. Tokouchi. Shig Nakano and Tak Kawasaki were bunched at 139 with Ken Hyosaka alone at 140, Kiyo Sugimoto and Bruce Uchino had 141s with Fred Ishimoto knocking out a 142. Kats Hazama and Wally Teramoto were 1 stroke off the leader and barely snuck into the "prize" listings.

SCNGA Tees Up Highly Successful Year; Las Vegas Tourney Entries Coming In

In winding up the SCNGA golf year of 1966, another annum has brought about another period of growth for the Association in all phases.

Membership is at a record high (400 plus) as president-elect Tosh Hayakawa prepares to take over the reins from Freddie Ikeguchi. Financially stable, the SCNGA appears to be at the peak of efficiency and operation.

Handicaps are now determined via computer; well-organized tournaments dot the monthly calendar; he senior division is blossoming under the tutelage of John Ty Saito and Bob Uragami, the first annual SCNGA golf tour to Japan occurred this year. All in all, as Frank S. says, "It was a very good year."

But rather than reminisce, you're probably more interested in the present. . . which means the upcoming Caesars Palace Invitational, the 36-hole partner best ball tourney set for January 28-29.

Although more than a month off, a surprising number of entries have already been received at the Crossroads headquarters—literally guaranteeing its success since a minimumof 100 participants was necessary to see it through.

An entry deadline was not attached to the tourney announcement but we would urge all interested parties to line up a partner and enter before the end of the year. This edition marks the final paper you'll be getting for three weeks so the next Caesars reminder and entry blank won't be available to you until Friday, Jan. 13.

All appears to be well in hand to this date.

A handicap committee has been organized to peruse the handis of all non-SCNGA entrants and a prize committee is also being developed to make up the initial prize distribution list.

On the former subject, handicap, this corner has not yet been informed whether year-end December handicaps will be in effect or November standings. This point will be satisfactorily cleared up prior to tee-off time, I'm sure.

As for the latter, prize distribution, total monies being put up by the Caesars Palace management will be dissected according to the total number of teams entering and the subsequent breakdown of flights for the individual medal play. Whatever the eventual field, you CP participants will be firing away for the finest prizes and merchandise you've ever ogled.

What with the hectic season and the subsequent lull in activities immediately after the first of the year, many tourney prospects will let things slide. In deference to all concerned making arrangements to guarantee a successful tournament, try to enter as soon as possible.

Heading into 1967, may we again remind all SCNGA Club secretaries that the up-to-date rosters should be mailed in as soon as possible. A complete revision of the Association mailing list is required this year (for zip coding) so the quicker each club complys, the sooner the rosters can be processed.

Send membership lists in triplicate, addresses zip coded and telephone numbers. Also denote club officers.

See you next year?

Tosh Hayakawa Elected SCNGA Prexy; Caesars Palace Tourney Details Aired

Tosh Hayakawa, Brookside's (Pasadena) contribution to the SCNGA, was unanimously elected president of the Southern California Nisei Golf Association Monday at the organization's annual general meeting held at New Moon restaurant.

Hayakawa, the perennial treasurer, was elevated to the top spot being vacated by Freddie Ikeguchi after two years at the helm. The Pasadenan will also head the Association for two years, the double-term experiment started in 1964 seemingly satisfactory to all concerned.

Joining the lab technician on the 1967-69 cabinet will be Fred Matsumoto, treasurer; Yas Tatsumi, Luis Aihara, John Kuroda, tournament chairmen; John Ty Saito, handicap chairman; and Henry Yamada, secretary. The entire slate of officers, suggested by the nominations committee, was unanimously acclaimed following the move made by Top Notch representative Dr. Paul Tsukahara.

But before bowing out, the Ikeguchi regime had a number of items up for SCNGA acceptance. Among them were:

Final determination that low gross winner of any SCNGA tournament must accept low gross award. Ties will be played off. And in case of gross-net deadlock, low gross takes preference.

It was also pointed out to the 32 present, representing 13 clubs (only Max Flite was missing), that there will be no merchandise awards attached to either the low gross or low net trophies.

And one of the first moves of the new cabinet will be the awarding of low gross awards to the lower classification golfers in all SCNGA - sanctioned tournaments.

Las Vegas

Additional details concerning what went on at the meeting will be presented in next week's issue of Crossroads. Meanwhile, more elaboration is in order concerning the Caesars Palace golf shindig we mentioned on previous weeks.

Altho everything is still rather nebulous, the CP Invitational (for wont of a better name) will be staged January 28-29 with a minimum field of 100 requested. (From a random show of hands at the meeting, this total should pose no problem whatsoever).

A "Shot Gun" affair, the two-day shindig will be held at the Dunes and Paradise Valley courses.

The question of entry fee, we're sorry to say, has not yet been determined, but as soon as anything definite is relayed, we'll headline it in the Crossroads.

Whatever the decision, it will most assuredly be reasonable and Caesars management emphasizes that the womenfolk are more than welcome.

As for room arrangement, if the friend can't fit, he will be assigned a room-mate or if he knows of a spare ahead of time, a reservation for the two in a double will be pre-arranged. (And in answer to the female inquiry, if a golfing couple brings along a female companion, the same arrangements may be made—with only a slight additional charge made if a single room is requested).

Getting along to the competitive aspect of the January 28-29 shindig, yes, the entry-fee does include the green fees for both rounds. As for the cart, that'll be extra.

Handicap Situation

For the non-SCNGAers, the handicap situation appears to be the only drawback. We've been informed that those without recognized handicaps will have to submit their latest twenty scores in order to compete. Although this may appear rather harsh, you gotta keep in mind that the sojourn is being made possible because of the SCNGA (altho not a sanctioned tournament) and a sandbagging outsider or two could throw the screws to the whole shebang. And what with the lucrative prize list up for grabs, the handicap committee is going to be awfully thorough. In deference to outsiders, let it be said that a fair evaluation will be made—and if dissatisfied, entry money will be refunded.

Other pertinent points to keep in mind:

The revised entry blank has space for a telephone number. Please use it in case we have to get in touch with you . . . Also designate if you have room partner if you're going alone and partner is going w/spouse. If not, you'll be paired up with another single . . . Suggestion was made to charter a bus. 1ST ANNUAL S.C.N.G.A. OCT

46 Nisei Golfers to Tour Japan

The last contingent of the largest group of Japanese American golfers to tour Japan from the mainland will depart from Los Angeles International Airport at 7:15 a.m. on Saturday, Oct. 1.

The United Air Lines Flight 502 will take them to San Francisco for Japan Air Lines Flight No. 5. Since Sept. 1, various small groups have departed, and the entire party of 46 members will meet in Tokyo on Oct. 2 to start the group travel. There are 28 golfers and their families in this 1966 Japan Golf Goodwill Tour and what is hoped to be an annual event. Handicaps of the traveling golfers range from 6 to 15, with the average around 12.

Founded in 1959

The Southern California Nisei Golf Assn. founded in 1959 with headquarters in Los Angeles, and comprised of 14 golf clubs with close to 500 members, is the sponsoring organization. The Japan Air Lines and the New Orient Express Travel Agency are handling all the travel and tour details.

Two Top-Flite Golf Club members, George Aratani of the American Commercial Co. and George Nakatsuka of the Japan Food Corp. have been in Japan several months preparing the trip for their fellow members. Through their efforts, special tours of Japan's leading industries, such as Kikkoman factory and the Suntory Distilleries have been arranged. Six of the finest courses in Japan, the Koganei C.C., Noda C.C., Kawana-Fuji course (Chiba), Aichi C.C. (Nagoya), Inagawa C.C. (Kyoto) and the Kasumigaseki C.C. have been reserved for the traveling SCNGA golfers during the 23-day tour.

Sister City Visit

Although not an official sister-city tour, the SCNGA golfers will pay a visit to Mayor Kiyoshi Sugito of Nagoya, who is an avid golfer, to extend greetings from Mayor Yorty. It is hoped that he will join the group for play at Nagoya's famed Aichi C.C., which at 7200 yards is one of the longest courses in Japan.

George Mizota, a Stanford University alumni, and a close golfing friend of Los Angeles Consul General Toshiro Shimanouchi, has been vitally helpful in securing exclusive Kasumigaseki Country Club, which is remembered as the site of the International Canada Cup matches. He is now busy preparing Japan senior golfers for their matches with the United Statees senior team late in October of this year at Kawana.

Tour headquarters will be the luxurious Otani Hotel in Tokyo. Departure from Tokyo is set for Sunday, Oct. 23. Several of the golfers are stopping in Hawaii to continue golf there for a few days.

1st General Confab Of Japan Golf Tour Families Slated

6/4/66

The first meeting of all families (approximately 60 signed up for the first SCNGA Japan Golf Tour on Oct. 1), will take place at the conference rooms (upstairs) of the Bank of Tokyo on Jefferson and Crenshaw on Thursday, June 9, at 8 p.m.

At this time arrangements will be made for those who wish to stay in Hawaii and for those desiring to extend the tour to Hong Kong.

Co-chairman George Aratani will report on the golf courses available (some of the finest in Japan) having just returned from a business trip there. Co-chairman George Nakatsuka has already secured the famous Ajinomoto course for the members who will be guest of the Ajinomoto Co. All interested members other than those who have already made a deposit with the Bank of Tokyo are welcome to attend.

The committee is indebted to the Bank of Tokyo for the meeting place and to Fugetsudo (Roy Kito) and Grace Pastry (George Izumi) for the refreshments. All other questions regarding the tour may be directed to Bob Uragami (RE 3-9816) or Ty Saito (RE 1-2121).

The reunion of Military Intelligence Service veterans may surpass any of the reunions held in the past the 442nd Vets.

This may surprise a lot of people since most of the post-war publicity has been for the 442nd vets. However, a lot of Nisei served in MIS during World War II but up to now have made no organized effort to hold a reunion.

One reason for this is that although a lot of the Nisei trained together at such MIS centers as Camp Savage, Camp Snelling and Camp Ritchie, they were separated as soon as they left the training camps.

As a rule there were no more than a handful of MIS-trained Nisei in one outfit overseas.

This is another reason why the "group reunions" planned during the affair in San Francisco next weekend, may be difficult.

There were really no "groups" as in 442nds with its various companys and battalions.

Nevertheless, the MIS boys will no doubt have a lot of fat to chew over during the three days get-together.

46 happy tourists return from Japan golf journey

11/4/66

"Tremendous trip," is the way John Ty Saito, chairman of the So. Calif. Nisei Golf Association's 1966 Japan golf tour summed up the trip.

"Many of us were visiting Japan for the first time and it is no exaggeration to say that the tremendous impact that the country as a whole had on us was life-long and the enjoyment of the golf courses was a definite part of the entire tour," stated Saito who was bedridden with illness part of the time.

It was the unanimous vote of the 46 making the extended Japan golf tour that the trip could not have been more enjoyable, related Saito. Perfect weather and cooperation of the congenial group added to the enjoyment of the safari.

Seventeen couples and 12 individual departed during September and on Oct. 1 and returned on Oct. 23.

Cities visited included: Tokyo, Nikko, Kinugawa, Chiba, Kamakura, Hakone Ito, Atami, Kawana, Nagoya, Kyoto, Nara, Osaka, and Yamazaki. Many of the members made side tours to Hiroshima and Hong Kong.

Six rounds of golf were enjoyed by 24 golfers on the beautiful courses at Koganei, Umesato (Kikkoman course in Chiba), Kawana Fujii, Aichi, Takarazuka, and Kasumigaseki.

"The unforgettable beauty of Japan's golf courses as well as the gracious experiences of women caddies is something none of us will ever forget," emphasized the real estate man Saito.

Satsuki Shigekawa of Top Notch and Hank Yamagata of Top Flite were two of the more consistent winners. Steve Takeuchi of Top Notch won the grand prize of a $250 pearl necklace, donated by the Japan Air Lines.

Each tournament was featured by a jackpot of at least 24,000 yen.

"We are deeply indebted to the Kikkoman Company and Mr. Mogi, its president, as well as to the Suntory Distillery for the tremendous reception at their respective courses. George Aratani of the American Commercial and George Nakatsuka of Japan Food Corporation were instrumental in securing the golf courses and it is to them, as well as George Mizota of the Taiyo Gyogyo Kabushiki Kaisha that the members must be grateful," added Saito.

The tour members were received in the City Hall Chambers of Nagoya by Mayor Kiyoshi Sugito (L.A.'s sister) and everyone received a suitable momento.

"Should any So. Calif. Nisei Golf Association member desire to ask about the Japan tour, those of us who made the 1966 trip will be most happy to recommend it. To Shig Yamada of the Japan Air Lines and to Giro Takahashi and Mr. Kuwamoto of the New Orient Express Travel Agency goes out profound appreciation for their excellent travel arrangements.

HAPPY 'SCNGAers' RETURN FROM JAPAN

11/4/66

BY JOHN TY SAITO
SCNGA Chairman

With all of the members of the Southern California Nisei Golf Assn. (SCNGA) having returned from Hawaii after the plane departure from Tokyo on Oct. 23, it was the unanimous vote of the 46 making the Japan golf tour that an extended foreign tour, such as this could not have been more enjoyed.

With perfect weather during the entire trip and the wonderful cooperation of a congenial group, the entire golf tour was enjoyed to the maximum by each and everyone.

Seventeen couples and twelve individuals, a total of 46, departed on varying days from Sept. 1 to Oct. 1, and all returned together on Oct. 23. Cities visited included Tokyo, Nikko, Kinugawa, Chiba, Kamakura, Hakone, Ito, Atami, Kawana, Nagoya, Kyoto, Nara, Osaka and Yamazaki with many of the members making side tours to Hiroshima, Hong Kong and other distant spots.

Six rounds of golf were enjoyed by 24 golfers on the courses at Koganei, Umesato (Kikkoman course in Chiba), Kawana-Fujii, Aichi, Takarazuka and Kasumigasaki. The unforgettable beauty of Japan's golf courses as well as the gracious experience of women caddies, is something none of us will ever forget.

Satsuki Shigekawa of the Top Notch and Hank Yamagata of Top Flite were two of the most consistent winners, although Steve Takeuchi of Top Notch won the grand prize of a $250 pearl necklace donated by the Japan Air Lines. Each tournament was featured by a jackpot of at least 24,000 yen. We are deeply indebted to the Kikkoman Co. and Mr. Mogi, its president, as well as to the Suntory Distillery for the tremendous reception at their respective courses.

George Aratani of the American Commercial and George Nakatsuka of the Japan Food Corporation and Top Flite members of the SCNGA, were instrumental in securing the golf courses and it is to them, as well as to George Mizota of the Taiyo Gyogyo Kabushiki Kaisha that the members are most grateful.

Received by Mayor of Nagoya

The tour members were received in the City Hall Chambers by the Mayor Kiyoshi Sugito of our Sister City Nagoya, and everyone received a memento.

Many of us were visiting Japan for the first time and it is not an exaggeration to say that the tremendous impact that the country as a whole had on us was life-long and the enjoyment of the golf courses was, but a small part of the entire tour.

We are quite sure that those who made this year's trip will be a living testimonial to others who are planning to go in the future. We might recommend that about 45 to 50 people, approximately 25 couples, is just about an ideal group size, inasmuch as getting more than 6 foursomes on their golf courses might prove difficult. The weather, food and general conditions in Japan were so favorable in October that we feel no other month is hardly possible.

At any rate, should any SCNGA member desire to ask about a Japan tour, we feel sure that we who took the 1966 tour will be most happy to recommend it. To Shig Yamada of the Japan Air Lines and to Giro Takahashi and Mr. Kawamoto of the New Orient Express Travel Agency goes our profound appreciation for their excellent travel arrangements. We are confident, that the members of the SCNGA will make the Japan golf tour an annual event.

The following are the SCNGA's 1966 Japan Golf Tour results:

1st ANNUAL S.C.N.G.A. OCT

46 Nisei Golfers to Tour Japan

9/21/66

The last contingent of the largest group of Japanese American golfers to tour Japan from the mainland will depart from Los Angeles International Airport at 7:15 a.m. on Saturday, Oct. 1.

The United Air Lines Flight 502 will take them to San Francisco for Japan Air Lines Flight No. 5. Since Sept. 1, various small groups have departed, and the entire party of 46 members will meet in Tokyo on Oct. 2 to start the group travel. There are 28 golfers and their families in this 1966 Japan Golf Goodwill Tour and what is hoped to be an annual event. Handicaps of the traveling golfers range from 6 to 15, with the average around 12.

Founded in 1959

The Southern California Nisei Golf Assn. founded in 1959 with headquarters in Los Angeles, and comprised of 14 golf clubs with close to 500 members, is the sponsoring organization. The Japan Air Lines and the New Orient Express Travel Agency are handling all the travel and tour details.

Two Top-Flite Golf Club members, George Aratani of the American Commercial Co. and George Nakatsuka of the Japan Food Corp. have been in Japan several months preparing the trip for their fellow members. Through their efforts, special tours of Japan's leading industries, such as Kikkoman factory and the Suntory Distilleries have been arranged. Six of the finest courses in Japan, the Koganei C.C., Noda C.C., Kawana-Fuji course (Chiba), Aichi C.C. (Nagoya), Inagawa C.C. (Kyoto) and the Kasumigaseki C.C. have been reserved for the traveling SCNGA golfers during the 23-day tour.

Sister City Visit

Although not an official sister-city tour, the SCNGA golfers will pay a visit to Mayor Kiyoshi Sugito of Nagoya, who is an avid golfer, to extend greetings from Mayor Yorty. It is hoped that he will join the group for play at Nagoya's famed Aichi C.C., which at 7200 yards is one of the longest courses in Japan.

George Mizota, a Stanford University alumni, and a close golfing friend of Los Angeles Consul General Toshiro Shimanouchi, has been vitally helpful in securing exclusive Kasumigaseki Country Club, which is remembered as the site of the International Canada Cup matches. He is now busy preparing Japan senior golfers for their matches with the United Statees senior team late in October of this year at Kawana.

Tour headquarters will be the luxurious Otani Hotel in Tokyo. Departure from Tokyo is set for Sunday, Oct. 23. Several of the golfers are stopping in Hawaii to continue golf there for a few days.

At this time arrangements will be made for those who wish to stay in Hawaii and for those desiring to extend the tour to Hong Kong.

Co-chairman George Aratani will report on the golf courses available (some of the finest in Japan).

Co-chairman George Nakatsuka has already secured the famous Ajinomoto Course for the members who will be guests of the Ajinomoto Company all day. All interested members other than those who have already made a deposit with the Bank of Tokyo are welcome to attend.

All other questions regarding the tour may be directed to Bob Uragami RE 3-9816 or Ty Saito RE 1-2121.

HAPPY 'SCNGAers' RETURN FROM JAPAN

11/4/66

BY JOHN TY SAITO
SCNGA Chairman

With all of the members of the Southern California Nisei Golf Assn. (SCNGA) having returned from Hawaii after the plane departure from Tokyo on Oct. 23, it was the unanimous vote of the 46 making the Japan golf tour that an extended foreign tour, such as this could not have been more enjoyed.

With perfect weather during the entire trip and the wonderful cooperation of a congenial group, the entire golf tour was enjoyed to the maximum by each and everyone.

Seventeen couples and twelve individuals, a total of 46, departed on varying days from Sept. 1 to Oct. 1, and all returned together on Oct. 23. Cities visited included Tokyo, Nikko, Kinugawa, Chiba, Kamakura, Hakone, Ito, Atami, Kawana, Nagoya, Kyoto, Nara, Osaka and Yamazaki with many of the members making side tours to Hiroshima, Hong Kong and other distant spots.

Six rounds of golf were enjoyed by 24 golfers on the courses at Koganei, Umesato (Kikkoman course in Chiba), Kawana-Fujii, Aichi, Takarazuka and Kasumigasaki. The unforgettable beauty of Japan's golf courses as well as the gracious experience of women caddies, is something none of us will ever forget.

Satsuki Shigekawa of the Top Notch and Hank Yamagata of Top Flite were two of the most consistent winners, although Steve Takeuchi of Top Notch won the grand prize of a $250 pearl necklace donated by the Japan Air Lines. Each tournament was featured by a jackpot of at least 24,000 yen. We are deeply indebted to the Kikkoman Co. and Mr. Mogi, its president, as well as to the Suntory Distillery for the tremendous reception at their respective courses.

George Aratani of the American Commercial and George Nakatsuka of the Japan Food Corporation and Top Flite members of the SCNGA, were instrumental in securing the golf courses and it is to them, as well as to George Mizota of the Taiyo Gyogyo Kabushiki Kaisha that the members are most grateful.

Received by Mayor of Nagoya

The tour members were received in the City Hall Chambers by the Mayor Kiyoshi Sugito of our Sister City Nagoya, and everyone received a memento.

Many of us were visiting Japan for the first time and it is not an exaggeration to say that the tremendous impact that the country as a whole had on us was life-long and the enjoyment of the golf courses was, but a small part of the entire tour.

We are quite sure that those who made this year's trip will be a living testimonial to others who are planning to go in the future. We might recommend that about 45 to 50 people, approximately 25 couples, is just about an ideal group size, inasmuch as getting more than 6 foursomes on their golf courses might prove difficult. The weather, food and general conditions in Japan were so favorable in October that we feel no other month is hardly possible.

At any rate, should any SCNGA member desire to ask about a Japan tour, we feel sure that we who took the 1966 tour will be most happy to recommend it. To Shig Yamada of the Japan Air Lines and to Giro Takahashi and Mr. Kawamoto of the New Orient Express Travel Agency goes our profound appreciation for their excellent travel arrangements. We are confident, that the members of the SCNGA will make the Japan golf tour an annual event.

The following are the SCNGA's 1966 Japan Golf Tour results:

It is hoped that he will join the group for play at Nagoya's famed Aichi C.C., which at 7200 yards is one of the longest courses in Japan.

George Mizota, a Stanford University alumni, and a close golfing friend of Los Angeles Consul General Toshiro Shimanouchi, has been vitally helpful in securing exclusive Kasumigaseki Country Club, which is remembered as the site of the International Canada Cup matches. He is now busy preparing Japan senior golfers for their matches with the United Statees senior team late in October of this year at Kawana.

Tour headquarters will be the luxurious Otani Hotel in Tokyo. Departure from Tokyo is set for Sunday, Oct. 23. Several of the golfers are stopping in Hawaii to continue golf there for a few days.

By George Yoshinaga

Ty over

Recently, in the rubble of news releases which pile up on the desk each morning, was found the results of the Southern California Nisei Golf Association's trek to Japan, which was concluded recently.

It was submitted by John Ty Saito, who served as chairman of the tour.

In the one-page report, Ty generously thanked various groups and individuals for their time and aid in making the tour the success that it developed into for the 46-members on the trip.

However, Ty made one glaring error ni his report. He over-looked the most important person in passing out bouquets.

He over-looked John Ty Saito.

I've talked with a few people who were on the tour and they all said that the untiring efforts of Ty accounted for the success, in no small measure, of the tour.

In fact, Ty worked so hard to keep everything humming along at a brisk pace that in the final few days of the tour he became very fatigued and could hardly move about.

Because of the success of the SCNGA tour, there will probably be efforts made to put together another project in the near future. And it would not surprise me one bit if some of those who were on the recent one sign to go again.

They talked glowingly of the picturesque courses on which they played but they ranted even more about Japan in general. It's the magic of the latter, I'm sure, which will attract the repeats, more than the fairways if and when SCNGA goes again.

One reason offered for the reluctance of the Dodgers in playing in Japan is that playing over there "ain't fun anymore." At least not like it used to be the last time the Dodgers made the trip. In those days the Japanese teams were real patsys for the Major Leaguers and they didn't have to go out on the playing field day after day to fight for their lives to save their reputation.

As the Dodgers are finding out, in blowing the last two games, the Japanese teams are out for blood and if the Los Angeles squad keeps looking out the window, they made indeed find out that "fun days" are over in Japan for touring American teams.

Another reason offered as to why the Dodgers' super stars failed to make the trip is that the people in Japan don't look upon the visiting stars as some sort of demi-god and present each with gifts which more than doubled what pay they receive for such a trip.

In the old days it was reported that players used to be able to bring back a household of expensive furniture just for giving out an autograph.

Now, they are looked upon with suspicion when they sign their dinner chit in the hotel restaurant.

No "day-before-the-election" column would be complete without mentioning the election.

Since enough has been written about the big California issues, I offer Colorado as a substitute for a passing word on election

The governor of Colorado named John Love.

Can you imagine what kind of fun a person could have promoting a candidate with a name like that.

For example, we could run head reading: "Kashu Mainichi endorses Love."

Besides, what kind of person would go around knocking love

The reunion of Military Intelligence Service veterans may surpass any of the reunions held in the past the 442nd Vets.

This may surprise a lot of people since most of the post-war publicity has been for the 442nd vets. However, a lot of Nisei served in MIS during World War II but up to now have made no organized effort to hold a reunion.

One reason for this is that although a lot of the Nisei trained together at such MIS centers as Camp Savage, Camp Snelling and Camp Ritchie, they were separated as soon as they left the training camps.

As a rule there were no more than a handful of MIS-trained Nisei in one outfit overseas.

This is another reason why the "group reunions" planned during the affair in San Francisco next weekend, may be difficult.

There were really no "groups" as in 442nds with its various companys and battalions.

Nevertheless, the MIS boys will no doubt have a lot of fat to chew over during the three days get-together.

In case anyone is wondering

Shuji Nozawa, who is more prominently known in Hollywood as the oft-time villainous "Fuji," is also known as the owner of Fuji Realty Company.

In more recent times, however, Nozawa has branched out into another field . . . that of being a wrestling promoter. He had a very successful opening at El Monte last week according to the Athletic Commissioner's office.

Wrestling is nothing new to Nozawa. He first gained fame for his role as a "valet" for Mr. Moto, when the gimmick was used extensively by pro wresters.

Due to the high degree of success of his first wrestling show, it is reported that Nozawa is also tinkering with the idea of promoting boxing.

He has applied for his license and if he is issued one, he will become the second Nisei in the state to earn his promoter's approval by the commission.

Shig Takahashi of Stockton was awarded a promoter's license two years ago to become the first Nisei in the field.

It was the unanimous vote of the 46 making the extended Japan golf tour that the trip could not have been more enjoyable, related Saito. Perfect weather and cooperation of the congenial group added to the enjoyment of the safari.

The tour members were received in the City Hall Chambers of Nagoya by Mayor Kiyoshi Sugito (L.A.'s sister) and everyone received a suitable momento.

46 Nisei Golfers to Tour Japan

9/27/66

The last contingent of the largest group of Japanese American golfers to tour Japan from the mainland will depart from Los Angeles International Airport at 7:15 a.m. on Saturday, Oct. 1.

The United Air Lines Flight 502 will take them to San Francisco for Japan Air Lines Flight No. 5. Since Sept. 1, various small groups have departed, and the entire party of 46 members will meet in Tokyo on Oct. 2 to start the group travel. There are 28 golfers and their families in this 1966 Japan Golf Goodwill Tour and what is hoped to be an annual event. Handicaps of the traveling golfers range from 6 to 15, with the average around 12.

Founded in 1959

The Southern California Nisei Golf Assn. founded in 1959 with headquarters in Los Angeles, and comprised of 14 golf clubs with close to 500 members, is the sponsoring organization. The Japan Air Lines and the New Orient Express Travel Agency are handling all the travel and tour details.

Two Top-Flite Golf Club members, George Aratani of the American Commercial Co. and George Nakatsuka of the Japan Food Corp. have been in Japan several months preparing the trip for their fellow members. Through their efforts, special tours of Japan's leading industries, such as Kikkoman factory and the Suntory Distilleries have been arranged. Six of the finest courses in Japan, the Koganei C.C., Noda C.C., Kawana-Fuji course (Chiba), Aichi C.C. (Nagoya), Inagawa C.C. (Kyoto) and the Kasumigaseki C.C. have been reserved for the traveling SCNGA golfers during the 23-day tour.

Sister City Visit

Although not an official sister-city tour, the SCNGA golfers will pay a visit to Mayor Kiyoshi Sugito of Nagoya, who is an avid golfer, to extend greetings from Mayor Yorty. It is hoped that he will join the group for play at Nagoya's famed Aichi C.C., which at 7200 yards is one of the longest courses in Japan.

George Mizota, a Stanford University alumni, and a close golfing friend of Los Angeles Consul General Toshiro Shimanouchi, has been vitally helpful in securing exclusive Kasumigaseki Country Club, which is remembered as the site of the International Canada Cup matches. He is now busy preparing Japan senior golfers for their matches with the United Statees senior team late in October of this year at Kawana.

Tour headquarters will be the luxurious Otani Hotel in Tokyo. Departure from Tokyo is set for Sunday, Oct. 23. Several of the golfers are stopping in Hawaii to continue golf there for a few days.

Ty overlooks Ty

11/7/66

Recently, in the rubble of news releases which pile up on the desk each morning, was found the results of the Southern California Nisei Golf Association's trek to Japan, which was concluded recently.

It was submitted by John Ty Saito, who served as chairman of the tour.

In the one-page report, Ty generously thanked various groups and individuals for their time and aid in making the tour the success that it developed into for the 46-members on the trip.

However, Ty made one glaring error ni his report. He over-looked the most important person in passing out bouquets.

He over-looked John Ty Saito.

I've talked with a few people who were on the tour and they all said that the untiring efforts of Ty accounted for the success, in no small measure, of the tour.

In fact, Ty worked so hard to keep everything humming along at a brisk pace that in the final few days of the tour he became very fatigued and could hardly move about.

Because of the success of the SCNGA tour, there will probably be efforts made to put together another project in the near future. And it would not surprise me one bit if some of those who were on the recent one sign to go again.

They talked glowingly of the picturesque courses on which they played but they ranted even more about Japan in general. It's the magic of the latter, I'm sure, which will attract the repeats, more than the fairways if and when SCNGA goes again.

One reason offered for the reluctance of the Dodgers in playing in Japan is that playing over there "ain't fun anymore." At least not like it used to be the last time the Dodgers made the trip. In those days the Japanese teams were real patsys for the Major Leaguers and they didn't have to go out on the playing field day after day to fight for their lives to save their reputation.

As the Dodgers are finding out, in blowing the last two games, the Japanese teams are out for blood and if the Los Angeles squad keeps looking out the window, they made indeed find out that "fun days" are over in Japan for touring American teams.

Another reason offered as to why the Dodgers' super stars failed to make the trip is that the people in Japan don't look upon the visiting stars as some sort of demi-god and present each with gifts which more than doubled what pay they receive for such a trip.

In the old days it was reported that players used to be able to bring back a household of expensive furniture just for giving out an autograph.

Now, they are looked upon with suspicion when they sign their dinner chit in the hotel restaurant.

No "day-before-the-election" column would be complete without mentioning the election.

Since enough has been written about the big California issues, I offer Colorado as a substitute for a passing word on elections.

The governor of Colorado is named John Love.

Can you imagine what kind of fun a person could have promoting a candidate with a name like that.

For example, we could run a head reading: "Kashu Mainichi endorses Love."

Besides, what kind of person would go around knocking love?

The reunion of Military Intelligence Service veterans may surpass any of the reunions held in the past the 442nd Vets.

This may surprise a lot of people since most of the post-war publicity has been for the 442nd vets. However, a lot of Nisei served in MIS during World War II but up to now have made no organized effort to hold a reunion.

One reason for this is that although a lot of the Nisei trained together at such MIS centers as Camp Savage, Camp Snelling and Camp Ritchie, they were separated as soon as they left the training camps.

As a rule there were no more than a handful of MIS-trained Nisei in one outfit overseas.

This is another reason why the "group reunions" planned during the affair in San Francisco next weekend, may be difficult.

There were really no "groups" as in 442nds with its various companys and battalions.

Nevertheless, the MIS boys will no doubt have a lot of fat to chew over during the three days get-together.

In case anyone is wondering how Ron Fujikawa is making out at Stanford University as a candidate for the freshman football team, it should be pointed out that the lack of playing time by the former Long Beach Wilson all-CIF star is caused by a broken bone in his right hand.

He is used only sparingly because of the injury.

The Stanford frosh team was clubbed over the weekend in Los Angeles by the UCLA peagreens. Fujikawa appeared long enough to score two points on a two-yard dash on a point-after-TD attempt.

Shuji Nozawa, who is more prominently known in Hollywood as the oft-time villainous "Fuji," is also known as the owner of Fuji Realty Company.

In more recent times, however, Nozawa has branched out into another field . . . that of being a wrestling promoter. He had a very successful opening at El Monte last week according to the Athletic Commissioner's office.

Wrestling is nothing new to Nozawa. He first gained fame for his role as a "valet" for Mr. Moto, when the gimmick was used extensively by pro wresters.

Due to the high degree of success of his first wrestling show, it is reported that Nozawa is also tinkering with the idea of promoting boxing.

He has applied for his license and if he is issued one, he will become the second Nisei in the state to earn his promoter's approval by the commission.

Shig Takahashi of Stockton was awarded a promoter's license two years ago to become the first Nisei in the field.

46 happy tourists return from Japan golf journey

11/4/66

"Tremendous trip," is the way John Ty Saito, chairman of the So. Calif. Nisei Golf Association's 1966 Japan golf tour summed up the trip.

"Many of us were visiting Japan for the first time and it is no exaggeration to say that the tremendous impact that the country as a whole had on us was life-long and the enjoyment of the golf courses was a definite part of the entire tour," stated Saito who was bedridden with illness part of the time.

It was the unanimous vote of the 46 making the extended Japan golf tour that the trip could not have been more enjoyable, related Saito. Perfect weather and cooperation of the congenial group added to the enjoyment of the safari.

Seventeen couples and 12 individual departed during September and on Oct. 1 and returned on Oct. 23.

Cities visited included: Tokyo, Nikko, Kinugawa, Chiba, Kamakura, Hakone Ito, Atami, Kawana, Nagoya, Kyoto, Nara, Osaka, and Yamazaki. Many of the members made side tours to Hiroshima and Hong Kong.

Six rounds of golf were enjoyed by 24 golfers on the beautiful courses at Koganei, Umesato (Kikkoman course in Chiba), Kawana Fujii, Aichi, Takarazuka, and Kasumigaseki.

"The unforgettable beauty of Japan's golf courses as well as the gracious experiences of women caddies is something none of us will ever forget," emphasized the real estate man Saito.

Satsuki Shigekawa of Top Notch and Hank Yamagata of Top Flite were two of the more consistent winners. Steve Takeuchi of Top Notch won the grand prize of a $250 pearl necklace, donated by the Japan Air Lines.

Each tournament was featured by a jackpot of at least 24,000 yen.

"We are deeply indebted to the Kikkoman Company and Mr. Mogi, its president, as well as to the Suntory Distillery for the tremendous reception at their respective courses. George Aratani of the American Commercial and George Nakatsuka of Japan Food Corporation were instrumental in securing the golf courses and it is to them, as well as George Mizota of the Taiyo Gyogyo Kabushiki Kaisha that the members must be grateful," added Saito.

The tour members were received in the City Hall Chambers of Nagoya by Mayor Kiyoshi Sugito (L.A.'s sister) and everyone received a suitable momento.

"Should any So. Calif. Nisei Golf Association member desire to ask about the Japan tour, those of us who made the 1966 trip will be most happy to recommend it. To Shig Yamada of the Japan Air Lines and to Giro Takahashi and Mr. Kuwamoto of the New Orient Express Travel Agency goes out profound appreciation for their excellent travel arrangements.

"We feel confident that the members of the SCNGA will make the Japan golf tour an annual event," concluded Saito.

HAPPY 'SCNGAers' RETURN FROM JAPAN

11/4/66

BY JOHN TY SAITO
SCNGA Chairman

With all of the members of the Southern California Nisei Golf Assn. (SCNGA) having returned from Hawaii after the plane departure from Tokyo on Oct. 23, it was the unanimous vote of the 46 making the Japan golf tour that an extended foreign tour, such as this could not have been more enjoyed.

With perfect weather during the entire trip and the wonderful cooperation of a congenial group, the entire golf tour was enjoyed to the maximum by each and everyone.

Seventeen couples and twelve individuals, a total of 46, departed on varying days from Sept. 1 to Oct. 1, and all returned together on Oct. 23. Cities visited included Tokyo, Nikko, Kinugawa, Chiba, Kamakura, Hakone, Ito, Atami, Kawana, Nagoya, Kyoto, Nara, Osaka and Yamazaki with many of the members making side tours to Hiroshima, Hong Kong and other distant spots.

Six rounds of golf were enjoyed by 24 golfers on the courses at Koganei, Umesato (Kikkoman course in Chiba), Kawana-Fujii, Aichi, Takarazuka and Kasumigasaki. The unforgettable beauty of Japan's golf courses as well as the gracious experience of women caddies, is something none of us will ever forget.

Satsuki Shigekawa of the Top Notch and Hank Yamagata of Top Flite were two of the most consistent winners, although Steve Takeuchi of Top Notch won the grand prize of a $250 pearl necklace donated by the Japan Air Lines. Each tournament was featured by a jackpot of at least 24,000 yen. We are deeply indebted to the Kikkoman Co. and Mr. Mogi, its president, as well as to the Suntory Distillery for the tremendous reception at their respective courses.

George Aratani of the American Commercial and George Nakatsuka of the Japan Food Corporation and Top Flite members of the SCNGA, were instrumental in securing the golf courses and it is to them, as well as to George Mizota of the Taiyo Gyogyo Kabushiki Kaisha that the members are most grateful.

Received by Mayor of Nagoya

The tour members were received in the City Hall Chambers by the Mayor Kiyoshi Sugito of our Sister City Nagoya, and everyone received a memento.

Many of us were visiting Japan for the first time and it is not an exaggeration to say that the tremendous impact that the country as a whole had on us was life-long and the enjoyment of the golf courses was, but a small part of the entire tour.

We are quite sure that those who made this year's trip will be a living testimonial to others who are planning to go in the future. We might recommend that about 45 to 50 people, approximately 25 couples, is just about an ideal group size, inasmuch as getting more than 6 foursomes on their golf courses might prove difficult. The weather, food and general conditions in Japan were so favorable in October that we feel no other month is hardly possible.

At any rate, should any SCNGA member desire to ask about a Japan tour, we feel sure that we who took the 1966 tour will be most happy to recommend it. To Shig Yamada of the Japan Air Lines and to Giro Takahashi and Mr. Kawamoto of the New Orient Express Travel Agency goes our profound appreciation for their excellent travel arrangements. We are confident, that the members of the SCNGA will make the Japan golf tour an annual event.

The following are the SCNGA's 1966 Japan Golf Tour results:

The first Tournament of EP's New Calander found 18 members journeying out to the Antelope Valley C.C. in Palmdale as guests of Dr. Henry Shibata (a former member) to hold the Annual 18 Hole Presidential Tournament. Under perfect weather conditions for penguins (cold and windy) the scores soared with the wind.

Proud papa of a new baby daughter a few weeks ago and still hot from the turkey shoot, Francis Aoyama tied for first place with the club's most experienced player (age 70 plus) Kasao "Pop" Karasawa with net 74's. Francis had rounds of 43-40-83 (9) and "Pop" shot a steady 51-51-102 (28). They split the prizes but will play-off for the trophy next week.

Pair tied for golf play lead

8/30/66

After 36 holes of play El Patio Golf Club's number one player Al Nakata and newest member Hiro Harada ended in a tie for first place. And in an 18-hole play-off they were still in a deadlock. So they divided the first and second place prizes and will have another 18 hole play-off for the two trophies.

EL PATIO GOLF CLUBBERS TREK TO VEGAS COURSE FOR MATCH WITH WEST'N

The El Patio Golf Club (with wives and guests - 29 strong) enjoyed a two day golf junket at the Riviera Hotel in Las Vegas with the Western Ave. Golf Club as hosts.

Saturday was dry, hot and windy at the Dunes "Emerald Green" C.C. but Steady Ed Fujimoto (who gave up the Seniors Tourney) took a four stroke lead with 89-15-74 over Hiro Harada 98-20-78. Ed is oldest member while Hiro is newest and youngest.

4. Joji Shimabukuro	94-13-81
Ted Okuno	94-13-81
6. Al Keimi	95-12-83

Sunday, also at the Dunes, was under ideal weather conditions. But most of the fellows just coming off the felt greens had barely enough time to change and make it out to the course. So under the hot sun the scores rose as the temperature went up.

2. Hiro Harada	97-20-77—78—155

El Patio in Second Round 54-Hole Medal Tourney

10/5/66

Dave Arakaki, coming off his fine rounds in the San Diego tournament, conitnued to stroke his way into first place in the second round of El Patio Golf Club's 54-hole tourney.

He started the day four strokes back, but his 38 front nine (two over par) gave him enough to coast in on the back nine with a six over 42 and a total to date of 144 (80-10-70-74).

Front runner Fumio Kinoshita scrambled the whole 18 holes to shoot 43-43-86-10-76-70—146.

Francis Aoyama started two strokes back, played good enough to catch Fumio but not good enough to stay ahead of Dave. His score was 43-40-83-9-74-72—146.

Hiro Harada had to shoot his best score ever to get within striking range of the leaders. His score, 43-42-85-15-70-77—147.

EL PATIO GOLFERS TEEOFF AT NEW HOME COURSE

2/15/66

Defending champions Byron Okinaka and Joji Shimabukuro carded a 7-under-par 29-36-65 to take a slim lead over other members of the El Patio Golf Club in the annual 36-hole Partner Best Ball tournament played over their new home course at Rancho San Joaquin.

Braving gusts of wind up to 40 miles per hour, the pair were four-under after three holes mainly through the efforts of Joji's 40 foot putt which dropped in for a birdie or an eagle with the handicap.

For Byron this was the first time he has played this course but this didn't stop him from shooting a 3 over par 39 for nine holes to help his team turn 7 under. But the back nine was scramble, scramble, scramble as all they could do was shoot even par for a total 7 under, 29-36-65.

2. Al Nakata, Gene Arakaki 34-32-66 tied
Fumio Kinoshita, Frank Sera 34-32-66
4. Kats Yoshioka-Min Harada	68
Dan Fujimoto, Hiro Harada	68
6. Francis Aoyama, Al Abe	69
7. Ted Okuno, Sy Saito	70
8. Dave Arakaki, Ed Fujimoto	71
Al Keimi, Nip Fujimoto	71

Final round will be played three weeks hence due to inter club tourney with the Western Golf Club the next two weeks. "A" Flite (lower handi) will play first round at Rancho San Joaquin. "B" Flite (higher handicappers) will start at Baldwin. All members playing be at courses by 6:00 a.m. sharp.

Hiro Harada Top Man in El Patio Turkey Shooot

1/5/67

Hiro Harada shot his best 18 holes (42-40) for an 82-14-68 score to walk away with the biggest turkey in El Paito Golf Club's annual turkey shoot Sunday.

Tied for second place were (would you beleive) six members with identical nets of 73. They were Kats Yoshioka, Ed Fujimoto, Sy Saito Francis Aoyama, Dan Fujimoto and Frank Sera.

Usually losers draw for two turkeys, but with so many birds going to second place winners, members drew for only one bird. Al Keimi turned out the winner.

The club held its annual awards dinner last week at the Tahitian Village in Downey. Trophies were won by the following:

Francis Aoyama, 18-hole Presidential trophy; Dan Fujimoto and Hiro Harada, 36-hole partner, best ball; Al Nakata, 36-holer; Kats Yoshioka, match and Hiro Harada, 54 holer.

chrmn.; and Al Nakata, co-chrmn.

New cobinet for 1967 was elected with the following results:

Dave Arakaki, president; Al Keimi, sec.-treas.; Fumio Kinoshita, handicap

Others in their order of finish are:

2. Francis Aoyama	218
3. Fumio Kinoshita	222
Gene Arakaki	222
4. Dave Arakaki	225
Ed Fujimoto	225
5. Al Nakata	226

8. Kats Yoshioka	231
9. Dan Fujimoto	235
10. Frank Sera	242
Nip Fujimoto	242
11. Min Harada	259

Byron Okinaka, defending champion, withdrew after the first round.

Results of El Patio Golffest Termed as 'Nip' and 'Tuck'

6/27/66

Results of the El Patio Golf Club's quarter-final match play tournament were, as follows:

In the championship bracket:

"Nip and Tuck" would be the proper phrase for the first match but Nip and Ed would be more appropriate as "Nip" Fujimoto was downed 1 up by papa Ed Fujimoto in a sudden death play-off on the 19th hole.

In another close match Francis Aoyama ousted Joji Shimabukuro 2 and 1. Turning point was the 16th hole as Joji evened the match on the 15th. Getting one of his best drives of the day on 16, Joji then proceeded to shank three eight iron shots out of bounds to loose the hole. Francis then parred the 17th for a win and the match.

Ina family match Older brother Min Harada shot the best round of his young golfing career for an easy 4 and 3 win over Hiro Harada.

Number two player Kats Yoshioka had an easy time downing Sam Hirasawa 4 and 3. Sam just couldn't get his game together to give Kats too much of a battle, mainly due to a sore foot.

Consolation Bracket:

Al Nakata drew a bye.

Dan Fujimoto defeated Al Keimi 3 & 1 bye shooting even par 36 on the back nine.

Frank Sera defeated Sy Saito by default.

Fumio Kinoshita defeated Ted Okuno by default.

THE GOLF SWING

Last Wednesday night I was visiting with Dr. Paul Tsukahara, a most swinging dentist, and we both watched a television program on KTLA Channel 5 at 8 p.m. It's listed as "You Can Break 80! Modern golf with Dave Hill and Hal Shideler."

Watching the program. I was quite impressed. The pointers given by Dave Hill was aptly executed and explained. The commentator, Hal Shideler, I remember well as the race announcer at Gardena Stadium when the Jalopy Derby was being telecast every Sunday from 1:30 to 4 p.m., some years ago. Hal did a magnificent job of reporting the races to the fans on hand.

The television station that carried the program was coincidentally Channel 5 in the old days with Dick Lane doing the honors. I had wondered what had happened to Hal Shideler and up he popped on the television golf program. (I used to keep the books for the Gardena Stadium, checking out the tickets, taking the money in balancing the daily receipts, paying the racing association and banking the balance for the owners, Tom Haynes and Harry Schooler).

Hal Shideler used to make $25 for a full day of announcing in the Jalopy Derby days. Now on the "You Can Break 80" program, he has changed his style of reporting to golf and has apparently played a lot of golf or has learned a lot about it in making this golf series, and no doubt has improved his economic stature many fold from days gone by.

For golfers, this is a must. For S.C.N.G.A. members this is a golf clinic of sorts. All should arrange for their club secretary to pass the word around. Tosh Hayakawa, the new S.C.N.G.A. president, please take note.

I like the title of the program, "You Can Break 80." It builds confidence in one when they're shooting in the 100's, 90's and 80's. The only way I'll break 80 is to live a long time. Statistically, I have a better chance if my attempts are spread over a longer base period. Maybe 60 more years would be fine. Then I'll be 100, and during those 60 years you will definitely hear about it, if I break 80.

Golf at Forty

The pressures of every day living are enormous. Everyone should have a hobby, avocation or participate in an activity that will immerse him completely and hence let him forget his problems of business and living in this jet age.

Having reached the age where everyone says "Life Begins," I have decided to seriously begin living. Golf has made the difference.

I joined the Airflite Golf Club that plays out of Alondra Golf Course in Torrance. The initiation fee was $15.00 plus $10.00 for the quarter October through December, plus $12.00 for the SCNGA for 1967, total paid out—$37.00. The club has the first tee off time. This means that we tee off even before the sun rises. Every Sunday around 5:00 a.m. I arise, get dressed, drive to the course, eat breakfast with the wide-eyed, happy members and tee off into the darkness.

It's amazing what you can find out over the course of 18 holes. Here are some of my observations.

It usually takes about two holes before the sun rises. You can hit the ball better in the dark because you don't bother looking up because you can't see your ball fly. What my old girlfriend used to say in the morning is true, "My metabolism isn't up to par."

There's really no gambling on the golf courses, only handicap, "pushes," "skins," partner best ball and adjust after nine holes. The members, I notice, all walk too fast. I decided after the first marathon that an electric cart was more my speed. (Have to break into the game gradually, you know). Another thing I discovered was that a "banana" is not something you eat on the golf course. It applies to my tee shot which inevitably slices in a large arc to the right, forming a banana shape flight over the out of bounds stakes. Oh yes, out of bounds means that your score increases by two strokes, too. I've never head the expression used except in Army parlance about twenty years ago, but you learn something new everyday. "Out of bounds" means the same thing, you've headed for trouble.

Another thing is that you must be able to develop the proper swing. This is not a fast thing to develop as you have many problems to overcome. The proper grip, address, backswing, hip movement, shift of weight, head stationary, swing through and follow through and it helps if one is slightly coordinated.

Anyway, I'm telling you golf is the answer. I'm really living!

RECEIVING A $102,001 BONUS check is Ludlow Flower, Jr., president of the Los Angeles City Recreation and Park Commission (on the left), from Joe H. Kishi, president of the E. J. Nisei servicing carts for municipal golf courses

A recently formed Nisei corporation has ventured into a different field of endeavor—that of furnishing and operating golf cars on municipal courses.

A $102,001 check, bonus for the privilege of operating golf cars on municipal courses, was presented last Thursday to the Los Angeles City Recreation and Park Commission.

Just prior to the presentation of the check, Commission president Ludlow Flower, Jr., signed a five-year contract previously authorized by the E. J. Elliot Company.

The firm submitted the best of six proposals received for the project by the commission last Mar. 3.

Joe H. Kishi, president of the company, E. J. Elliot, executive vice-president, and John Elliot, vice-president and general manager were on hand for the occasion.

Other Nisei members of the corporation include Sho Iino, Joe Uematsu, Tom Matsunaga, Eddie Tsuruta, and George Ozawa.

The company will operate a minimum of 145 two-passenger golf cars and any additional number of single-passenger cars they desire at Sepulveda Dam Recreation's Encino and Balboa courses, Griffith Park's Harding and Wilson courses, and the 18-hole Rancho Park golf course. The plan takes in all nine-hole Municipal courses and future City courses.

Installation of pads and other necessary construction will be funded from $130,000 posted by J. Elliot. The $130,000 will be amortized from the 40 per cent of year gross revenue due the City for the operation.

E. J. Elliot Company will purchase and maintain all equipment, the cost of which will not be amortized.

Because the contract was for more than a three-year period, it was submitted to the City Council for ratification.

Richard Iwamoto of Orange County outscored a host of veteran duffers Sunday at Ojai Valley, where he posted a two-over-par 72 to annex top honors in a field of 100 players.

Iwamoto had a front side of 5-under-par 30 highlighted by an eagle on the 330-yd. par-4 4th hole. His drive hit the green and a 1-put gave him a two-under 2.

Yas Tatsumi and Sus Takeshita, both Top Flite members, won the low net honors in the Championship and Aye flights, respectively.

He is so keen on seeing the Nisei and Sansei golfers play a sound game that he has offered to undertake tutoring promising divoteers, free of charge, in the evenings from 7 to 8 p.m.

He will teach both fundamentals and technical aspects of golf, using the methods of Ben Hogan, Sam Snead, Doug Sander, Jack Burke, Arnold Palmer, Billie Casper and Bob Goalby.

He wants no beginners. The golfer must have at least one year of play under his belt. He will accept groups and he plans to teach in groups of not less than four.

Interested golfers were asked to call RE 2-3774 or write to 1333 2nd Ave., L.A. 19, for appointments.

J-A Jaycees Plan Golf Putting Contest at Montebello July 19, Hailed as First Local Meet with National Finals

6/17/66

The Japanese American Junior Chamber of Commerce announced that a putting contest will be held at Montebello Municipal Golf Course, on Sunday, July 19, starting at 9 a.m.

This will be the first golf putting contest held locally. However, there is a strong movement indicating that this will be carried to the state and national levels in the years to come.

The players will use only putters and will go through all 18 holes. The ones who finish with the least amount of putting points are the winners. The Jaycee members will teach beginners how to play. Therfore, this should be interesting not only to veteran golf players but also to juniors, lidies, and others with no experience but a desire to try.

According to Takuji Masuko, who is the putting contest committee chairman for the Japanese American Jaycee, "The response among the golf lovers is great and many people are expected to show up." The contest fee will be $1.25 per person, and lots of prizes will be given to the winners, according to Masuko.

Three Nisei Duffers Are Victimized

Three Nisei golfers didn't feel quite up to par last Sunday when they returned to the car of one of the trio and found their golf clubs stolen from the trunk where they had placed them while they went to have coffee.

Mart Miyamoto, Hi Higashi and Dr. Richard Omori were the victims of the theft when the latter's Cadillac was broken into at the Rio Hondo Club parking lot.

The clubs were put into the trunk for safe-keeping but the culprit or culprits broke into the front of the car and pushed a switch which operates the lock on the truck.

All the clubs were high price sets and the loss was estimated at $1000.

Pro Golfers to Conduct Free Golf Clinic in Lil Tokio

11/14/66

For the first time in many years two of Southland's top golf professionals will visit Li'l Tokio to conduct a golf clinic under the auspices of the Downtown Chapter, JACL.

On Thursday, Nov. 17, at 12 noon at the Tokyo Kaikan there will be a luncheon and the entire meeting will be devoted to golf. Assisting him will be the young pro Neil Sandberg of the Western Hills Country Club.

These top notch professionals have received much acclaim for their entirely new and fast method of teaching golf. For months they have been booked solid with numerous appearances before clubs and organizations.

Chairman Frank Tsuchiya who arranged to have these professionals appear at this meeting said, "We would like to have all golfers come whether they be JACL members or not. Everybody is invited to attend and get some valuable pointers on how to improve your golf swing all for the price of a lunch."

Richard Iwamoto of O.C. Pasadenan Wins Contractor

6/28

Richard Iwamoto of Orange County outscored a host of veteran duffers Sunday at Ojai Valley, where he posted a two-over-par 72 to annex top honors in a field of 100 players.

Iwamoto had a front side of 5-under-par 30 highlighted by an eagle on the 330-yd. par-4 4th hole. His drive hit the green and a 1-put gave him a two-under 2.

Yas Tatsumi and Sus Takeshita, both Top Flite members, won the low net honors in the Championship and Aye flights, respectively.

J-A Jaycees Plan Golf Putting Contest at Montebello July 19, Hailed as First Local Meet with National Finals

6/17/66

The Japanese American Junior Chamber of Commerce announced that a putting contest will be held at Montebello Municipal Golf Course, on Sunday, July 19, starting at 9 a.m.

This will be the first golf putting contest held locally. However, there is a strong movement indicating that this will be carried to the state and national levels in the years to come.

The players will use only putters and will go through all 18 holes. The ones who finish with the least amount of putting points are the winners. The Jaycee members will teach beginners how to play. Therfore, this should be interesting not only to veteran golf players but also to juniors, lidies, and others with no experience but a desire to try.

According to Takuji Masuko, who is the putting contest committee chairman for the Japanese American Jaycee, "The response among the golf lovers is great and many people are expected to show up." The contest fee will be $1.25 per person, and lots of prizes will be given to the winners, according to Masuko.

GOLFER HOWARD SMITH WILL BE GUEST OF JACL DOWNTOWN CHAPTER

11/12/66

Howard Smith, "Professional Golfer of the Year" and head pro at Diamond Bar Country Club will demonstrate his simple method of learning to play golf well at a golf clinic to be held in conjunction with a luncheon.

Sponsored by the Downtown chapter of JACL, the luncheon-clinic is set for November 17, noon, at the Tokyo Kaikan.

Smith will be assisted in this session by Neil Sandburg, young pro of the Western Hills Country Club.

Frank Tsuchiya, program chairman for the event, welcomes all golfers, regardless of membership, to attend the meeting.

Three Nisei Duffers Are Victimized

Three Nisei golfers didn't feel quite up to par last Sunday when they returned to the car of one of the trio and found their golf clubs stolen from the trunk where they had placed them while they went to have coffee.

Mart Miyamoto, Hi Higashi and Dr. Richard Omori were the victims of the theft when the latter's Cadillac was broken into at the Rio Hondo Club parking lot.

The clubs were put into the trunk for safe-keeping but the culprit or culprits broke into the front of the car and pushed a switch which operates the lock on the truck.

All the clubs were high price sets and the loss was estimated at $1000.

THE GOLF SWING

Last Wednesday night I was visiting with Dr. Paul Tsukahara, a most swinging dentist, and we both watched a television program on KTLA Channel 5 at 8 p.m. It's listed as "You Can Break 80! Modern golf with Dave Hill and Hal Shideler."

Watching the program. I was quite impressed. The pointers given by Dave Hill was aptly executed and explained. The commentator, Hal Shideler, I remember well as the race announcer at Gardena Stadium when the Jalopy Derby was being telecast every Sunday from 1:30 to 4 p.m., some years ago. Hal did a magnificent job of reporting the races to the fans on hand.

The television station that carried the program was coincidentally Channel 5 in the old days with Dick Lane doing the honors. I had wondered what had happened to Hal Shideler and up he popped on the television golf program. (I used to keep the books for the Gardena Stadium, checking out the tickets, taking the money in balancing the daily receipts, paying the racing association and banking the balance for the owners, Tom Haynes and Harry Schooler).

Hal Shideler used to make $25 for a full day of announcing in the Jalopy Derby days. Now on the "You Can Break 80" program, he has changed his style of reporting to golf and has apparently played a lot of golf or has learned a lot about it in making this golf series, and no doubt has improved his economic stature many fold from days gone by.

For golfers, this is a must. For S.C.N.G.A. members. this is a golf clinic of sorts. All should arrange for their club secretary to pass the word around. Tosh Hayakawa, the new S.C.N.G.A. president. please take note.

I like the title of the program, "You Can Break 80." It builds confidence in one when they're shooting in the 100's. 90's and 80's. The only way I'll break 80 is to live a long time. Statistically, I have a better chance if my attempts are spread over a longer base period. Maybe 60 more years would be fine. Then I'll be 100, and during those 60 years you will definitely hear about it, if I break 80.

Golf at Forty

The pressures of every day living are enormous. Everyone should have a hobby, avocation or participate in an activity that will immerse him completely and hence let him forget his problems of business and living in this jet age.

Having reached the age where everyone says "Life Begins," I have decided to seriously begin living. Golf has made the difference.

I joined the Airflite Golf Club that plays out of Alondra Golf Course in Torrance. The initiation fee was $15.00 plus $10.00 for the quarter October through December, plus $12.00 for the SCNGA for 1967, total paid out—$37.00. The club has the first tee off time. This means that we tee off even before the sun rises. Every Sunday around 5:00 a.m. I arise, get dressed, drive to the course, eat breakfast with the wide-eyed, happy members and tee off into the darkness.

It's amazing what you can find out over the course of 18 holes. Here are some of my observations.

It usually takes about two holes before the sun rises. You can hit the ball better in the dark because you don't bother looking up because you can't see your ball fly. What my old girlfriend used to say in the morning is true, "My metabolism isn't up to par."

There's really no gambling on the golf courses, only handicap, "pushes," "skins," partner best ball and adjust after nine holes. The members, I notice, all walk too fast. I decided after the first marathon that an electric cart was more my speed. (Have to break into the game gradually, you know). Another thing I discovered was that a "banana" is not something you eat on the golf course. It applies to my tee shot which inevitably slices in a large arc to the right, forming a banana shape flight over the out of bounds stakes. Oh yes, out of bounds means that your score increases by two strokes, too. I've never head the expression used except in Army parlance about twenty years ago, but you learn something new everyday. "Out of bounds" means the same thing, you've headed for trouble.

Another thing is that you must be able to develop the proper swing. This is not a fast thing to develop as you have many problems to overcome. The proper grip, address, backswing, hip movement, shift of weight, head stationary, swing through and follow through and it helps if one is slightly coordinated.

Anyway, I'm telling you golf is the answer. I'm really living!

Nisei servicing carts for municipal golf courses

A recently formed Nisei corporation has ventured into a different field of endeavor—that of furnishing and operating golf cars on municipal courses.

A $102,001 check, bonus for the privilege of operating golf cars on municipal courses, was presented last Thursday to the Los Angeles City Recreation and Park Commission.

Just prior to the presentation of the check, Commission president Ludlow Flower, Jr., signed a five-year contract previously authorized by the E. J. Elliot Company. The firm submitted the best of six proposals received for the project by the commission last Mar. 3.

Joe H. Kishi, president of the company, E. J. Elliot, executive vice-president, and John Elliot, vice-president and general manager were on hand for the occasion.

Other Nisei members of the corporation include Sho Iino, Joe Uematsu, Tom Matsunaga, Eddie Tsuruta, and George Ozawa.

The company will operate a minimum of 145 two-passenger golf cars and any additional number of single-passenger cars they desire at Sepulveda Dam Recreation's Encino and Balboa courses, Griffith Park's Harding and Wilson courses, and the 18-hole Rancho Park golf course. The plan takes in all nine-hole Municipal courses and future City courses.

Installation of pads and other necessary construction will be funded from $130,000 posted by J. Elliot. The $130,000 will be amortized from the 40 per cent of year gross revenue due the City for the operation.

E. J. Elliot Company will purchase and maintain all equipment, the cost of which will not be amortized.

Because the contract was for more than a three-year period, it was submitted to the City Council for ratification.

Richard Iwamoto of Orange County outscored a host of veteran duffers Sunday at Ojai Valley, where he posted a two-over-par 72 to annex top honors in a field of 100 players.

Iwamoto had a front side of 5-under-par 30 highlighted by an eagle on the 330-yd. par-4 4th hole. His drive hit the green and a 1-put gave him a two-under 2.

Yas Tatsumi and Sus Takeshita, both Top Flite members, won the low net honors in the Championship and Aye flights, respectively.

J-A Jaycees Plan Golf Putting Contest at Montebello July 19, Hailed as First Local Meet with National Finals

6/17/66

The Japanese American Junior Chamber of Commerce announced that a putting contest will be held at Montebello Municipal Golf Course, on Sunday, July 19, starting at 9 a.m.

This will be the first golf putting contest held locally. However, there is a strong movement indicating that this will be carried to the state and national levels in the years to come.

The players will use only putters and will go through all 18 holes. The ones who finish with the least amount of putting points are the winners. The Jaycee members will teach beginners how to play. Therfore, this should be interesting not only to veteran golf players but also to juniors, lidies, and others with no experience but a desire to try.

According to Takuji Masuko, who is the putting contest committee chairman for the Japanese American Jaycee, "The response among the golf lovers is great and many people are expected to show up." The contest fee will be $1.25 per person, and lots of prizes will be given to the winners, according to Masuko.

Three Nisei Duffers Are Victimized

Three Nisei golfers didn't feel quite up to par last Sunday when they returned to the car of one of the trio and found their golf clubs stolen from the trunk where they had placed them while they went to have coffee.

Mart Miyamoto, Hi Higashi and Dr. Richard Omori were the victims of the theft when the latter's Cadillac was broken into at the Rio Hondo Club parking lot.

The clubs were put into the trunk for safe-keeping but the culprit or culprits broke into the front of the car and pushed a switch which operates the lock on the truck.

All the clubs were high price sets and the loss was estimated at $1000.

3 Tied for Lead In Japan Open

By KATSUNDO MIZUNO

Three golfers including 53-year-old Toichiro Toda tied for the lead after the first 36 holes of contest Wednesday in this year's Japan Open Golf Championship at Sodegaura Country Club outside Chiba.

Toda, a big name in Japanese golf before the war, shot a 36-36—72 to go with his first day five-under-par 67 for 139. He was tied by Seiichi Sato who has the advantage of playing at his home course, and unheralded Tomigoro Oshima. Sato fired a three-under-par 34-35—69 following Tuesday's 70 while Oshima carded a 35-35—70 to go with the opening round of 69.

The original field of 143 who took part in the second day play at the 7,075-yard par 72 rolling course was cut to 50.

Three amateurs including national amateur champion Ginjiro Nakabe survived elimination for today's final 36 holes of contest.

Toda had three birdies and three bogeys while 33-year-old Sato scored six birdies against three bogeys. Oshima, 26, with three years of pro career, had four birdies against two bogeys.

Bunched together at 140, one stroke behind the leaders, were the first day leader Hiroshi Ishii, whose putter turned cold Wednesday, to go two over par 74 following the first day's 66, Susumu Arai who carded 38-33—71 to go with the first round 69 and Haruo Yasuda, 71-69.

Four golfers shared seventh place with 141. They were Chen Ching-po of Taiwan, 70-71, Fujio Ishii, 69-72 and Makoto Ioka, 71-70.

Masao Chikuma carded a 68, the best score of the day with a pair of 34s. It pushed him up from the 40th to tie for seventh.

Hideyo Sugimoto, one of the two Canada Cup players of Japan this year, wound up even par 72 (34-38) following Tuesday's 73 to move up from 40th to 24th place. Another Canada Cupper Mitsutaka Kono got a second straight round of 73 to settle for 31st place with 10 others to barely qualify for the final round.

Defending champion Tadashi Kitta is four strokes off the leaders with 143. He had a 34-38—72 following the first day 71.

Two members of the four-man Japanese team to the World Amateur Golf Team Championship also qualified. They are Nakabe, 72-73—145 and Shohei Nishida, 71-75—146. The other two, Akihiro Teramoto and Yoshikuni Hirose were eliminated with 152s.

The other amateur to survive was this year's national collegiate champion Seiichi Numazawa who carded a second straight 72 for an even par 144 to place 19th.

It's tough to alibi when one loses.

It's tougher when one has a legitimate alibi.

Paul Takeshi Fuji, the two-fisted slugger from Honolulu, would have had a good alibi if he blew his fight the other night to Rocky Alarde of the Philippines in the Orient junior welterweight tussle but as it turned out, he didn't need it.

Fuji, who has an alergy at this time of the year, was ill for a week before the fight and couldn't train at all. He loosened up for a few rounds the day before the fight and that was it.

No one in the turn-away audience sensed anything about Fuji's condition because he started the fight as if he meant to end it early.

Had the fight gone more than the three rounds that it did, Fuji might have been in trouble.

Fuji and his manager-trainer Eddie Townsend kept his condition a pretty well-guarded secret because they didn't want people to think they were making up excuses in the event they had lost.

In the States Townsend could have asked for, and gotten a postponement but it's almost an unheard of thing here in Japan.

There is nothing as sweet as victory and it must have been particularly sweet for Townsend, who like many other managers, spend their entire career looking for a champion aim for the last plateau . . . the world's junior welterweight crown, presently held by Sandro Lopopolo of Italy.

If hard work and perserverance are nesessary ingredients for a world championship, then Townsend and Fuji have a good chance.

First, however, the two will be returning to Honolulu for a pair of fights there. This is a good move as it will give Fuji needed experience against all types of opponents. Then too, there are really no more worlds to conquer in the Orient.

This writer has just signed Yoshio Nakane for a fight with the world's No. 2-ranked bantamweight Jesus Pimintel of Mexico in a fight in San Antonio, Texas on Nov. 23.

Pimentel is also slated to meet Katsuo Saito in the same Texas arena a month earlier on Oct. 26.

The natural question is, "How will the two Japanese fighters stack up against the hard-hitting Pimentel, who has scored more knockouts than any other boxer active today. He's got 50 knockouts, which is amazing for a bantamweight.

To begin with, let's analyze Pimentel's offensive machine.

The Mexican, who is nicknamed "Little Poison," is a devastating body puncher.

He concentrates his attack to the body for the first four or five rounds before he turns on the heat to the head.

Indianapolis Racers Here for Fuji Event

By The Associated Press

All 32 drivers of Indianapolis-style racing cars flew into Tokyo Wednesday to participate in Japan's first high-speed race modeled on the American classic.

The favorites in the 200-mile race on the Fuji Speedway Sunday were non-Americans, England's Graham Hill and Scotland's Jim Clark.

British auto ace Hill nursing a cold predicted that the Indianapolis car race at Fuji Speedway will be a fairly slow paced and safe affair.

But, he said, "I shall be trying to win the race."

Hill and 31 other Indianapolis drivers met the press at a Tokyo hotel two hours after landing here for the 80-lap 200-mile race Oct. 9 at the Fuji Speedway sprawling at the foothills of Mt. Fuji.

"I have got a filthy cold and can't hear very well," Hill told a reporter. "The flight over here made me deaf." But, he added, "it is not that serious" and he hoped to be well in time for the race.

Hill said he will be using at Fuji the same car he drove to victory in this year's 500-mile race at Indianapolis.

His car has four gears "and it is a little bit of an advantage" over the cars that have only two gears, when racing over the sloping Fuji circuit. "These cars have a lot of power and the disadvantage would not be quite so great," Hill added.

Ronnie Duman of Indianapolis, however, said the multi-geared cars will have "a definite advantage." He drives a two-gear job. "I can't shift at all," he said.

Besides Hill, Scotland's Clark and Jackie Stewart, America's Lloyd Ruby, Jerry Grant, Carl Williams, Bob Harkey, Mario Andretti and Canada's Billy Foster, have gear boxes, Duman said.

All 32 racing cars are now in Japan, Harry McQuinn, chief Steward of the United States Auto Club (USAC) championship division said. Twenty-two crated cars arrived by plane Tuesday night.

USAC public relations director Jim Smith said they will have to be uncrated in Tokyo before being trucked to Fujj Speedway—some 100 kilometers west of Tokyo—because Japanese road regulations don't permit shipment of 10-foot wide crates.

Alston Calmest In Pennant Race

ST. LOUIS—His sixth pennant in 13 years as the Dodger manager was so close that Walter Emmons Alston could have pursed his tight lips and blown a smoke ring right around it. But heaven help those of us who doubted him so many seasons ago, this introverted man sat on the bench and discussed whether a pool hall hustler could sufficiently master billiards in one long night to beat an expert at the tricky game.

He talked about Paul Newman and Jackie Gleason playing Minnesota Fats and the way the different angles of a straight pool table are wider than the angles at the pockets of a snooker table and how more difficult it is to play position at snooker and then he gave his answer to the completely irrelevant question that had been asked of him.

"I think a pool player could learn to play billiards good enough but not as fast as they did it in 'The Hustler.'"

Imagine Herman Franks or Harry Walker or Leo Durocher or Ralph Houk listening to a query so foreign to the business at hand, thinking on it and replying seriously to it. But this is Alston—remember how the headlines read: "Alston, Who He?" when he was appointed to succeed Charley Dressen back in Brooklyn in 1954.

Not even Hollywood would have had the effrontery to cast the man from Darrtown, Ohio, as a big league manager—this one-time school teacher who carves furniture and hunts and plays with his grandchildren, but Buzzy Bavasi did and was going to quit the Dodgers one year when Walter O'Malley wanted to fire Alston because he wasn't Hollywood enough for L.A.

Now it is time to clear up some of the fictitious stories about this guy who has been managing one club longer than any other pilot currently active in the majors. Some of them are bolder-faced fantasies than Alston is bald.

For example, his quietness, his serenity, his reticence, his uncertainty, his pedestrianism, his obsession with percentage, his dependence upon the advice of others and, perhaps, the greatest lie of all—how little his players think of him as a manager.

"I've played for a lot of guys," says Dick Stuart, who hasn't done too much playing for Alston, "And they'd go absolutely fruity on the bench if something went wrong. This guy doesn't say anything, but dammit, he sees everything and he knows everything and when he's got to say something he says it. Maybe he'll just wave his hand if a man's playing out of position, but the guy jumps when he does it because the s.o.b. is always right."

There was, for instance, the recent tangle between Maury Wills and Tommy Davis, who resented Wills' reaction when Tommy didn't respond to the Dodger captain's signal that two were out.

"I didn't do a thing about it. I didn't say a thing about it," said Alston. "The other fellows stopped it, but the next day that was the last thing I talked about at a meeting. I said, 'It's over; forget it.' It's a normal thing that proves everybody's on edge."

This is a man who can swear like a truck driver and does in the normal course of conversation. He's a guy, whose

CAB Examiner Urges KAL Route to Seattle

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Civil Aeronautics Board (CAB) examiner recommended Tuesday that Korean Air Lines (KAL) be granted a route to Seattle, Wash. by way of Tokyo.

Examiner Joseph L. Fitzmaurice said the Republic of Korea designated KAL in 1963 to operate a route to the United States, and at the same time withdrew the previous designation of a private company, Korean National Airlines, made in 1957. The private concern went bankrupt, and Fitzmaurice said its U.S. permit should be canceled.

The examiner said that although KAL is not a member of the International Air Transport Association, it plans to affiliate at an appropriate time in the future, and has agreed to new higher limits of liability for passenger death or injury now recognized by major airlines.

Fitzmaurice said KAL expects to carry about 4,000 passengers in its first full year of operation. It plans to operate one round trip a week between Seoul and Seattle, by way of Tokyo, with a propeller-driven DC4 airplane.

It plans to provide fares 25 per cent below the current jet economy fare, and expects a first-year operating revenue of almost $1,200,000 and an operating profit of just under $19,000.

The examiner said that because of the piston-engine type of service it proposes, KAL is unlikely to divert much traffic from other airlines, but rather will generate new traffic.

The airlines hopes to appeal largely to the 800 Korean students who come to the U.S. each year, and to servicemen and their dependents, and other Americans associated with aid programs, who are stationed in Korea.

In addition to the DC4, KAL has two DC9 medium range jets, two F27 propjets, and two twin-engine propeller-driven DC3s. It plans to acquire two long-range jets.

The CAB will consider the examiner's findings in submitting its own decision to President Lyndon B. Johnson for approval.

Plans Bared For Japan's Pavilion

Plans for the ¥450 million Japan pavilion to be set up at the world exposition in Montreal from April to October 1967 were announced Wednesday by the Japan External Trade Organization (JETRO).

The announcement said "Burgeoning Japan" will be the central theme of the 2,599-square-meter Japan pavilion.

The first section, "Harmony With Environment," will introduce life in Japan, the second section, "Harmony With Tradition," will display new types of homes and the third section, "Harmony With Science," will show Japan's electronics industry, which ranks among the highest in the world.

Japan will be the first among the 69 participating nations to complete its pavilion sometime before the end of the year.

In announcing plans for the Japan pavilion, Kogoro Uemura, the Government representative to the Montreal exposition and vice president of the Federation of Economic Organizations (Keidanren), said the Finance Ministry had approved the allocation of ¥87 million in next year's budget for sending a Kabuki troupe to the exposition.

The 70 Kabuki actors to be sent with this fund will include 20 star performers such as Shoroku Onoe and Utaemon Nakamura.

U.S. Approves Sending Isotope to E. Germany

The announcement said, "The license was issued to New England Nuclear Corp., Boston, for the export of 5 millicuries of TIN-119M to be used for research purposes by the German Academy of Science in Berlin.

"It was determined that the export of this material would not be inimical to common defense and security."

Farm Households' Income Increases

The cash income of all farming households during the January-June period this year averaged ¥245,000 per homestead, the Agriculture-Forestry Ministry reported Wednesday.

The figure was an increase of 14.3 per cent over the comparable period of last year.

Their spending during the period under review averaged ¥260,000 or 12.8 per cent over the comparable period of last year.

The income and expenditure of the average farming household was still 23 per cent less than that of the average family of wage-earners in urban areas.

The marked increase shown in the cash income of farming households in the January-June period was attributed to the increase in the prices of fruit, dairy products and rice.

The increased spendings were caused by higher costs for education, housing and recreation.

Gov't Aid To Hike YS11 Production

The Government will extend financial aid to the Nihon Aeroplane manufacturing Co. (NAMC) to increase its production capacity to three YS11 turboprop airlines a month, or double the present rate, by the summer of next year.

This was decided Tuesday by the Ministry of International Trade and Industry.

The monthly output of the plane will be boosted further to five planes monthly during fiscal 1968, beginning April of that year.

MITI also decided to have NAMC draft designs for an improved version of the present YS11 plane during fiscal 1967.

These steps were decided on by MITI in view of the many inquiries received for the airliner from American and Latin American local airlines.

A YS11 is now making demonstration flights in the United States.

As a result of the demonstration flights conducted so far in San Francisco and other American cities, NAMC already has received inquiries for 43 YS11s.

Atsushi Miyamoto, executive vice president of NAMC who has been in the United States supervising the demonstration flights, returned to Tokyo last week to study plans for boosting the production capacity for the planes.

Output of the YS11 is now limited to 1.3 planes per month.

U.S. Executive Hails Japan Diesel Trucks

A leading U.S. truck leasing executive has found Japanese diesel engine trucks best suited for use in the Metropolitan New York area because of similarities in traffic conditions and operation requirements here and in Manhattan.

Katz

William Katz, board chairman of Manhattan Motor Rental, Inc. is currently in Japan on a two-week inspection tour of Japanese diesel truck and engine manufacturing facilities. Katz' firm leases or rents trucks on contracts ranging from six months to five years in duration to clients in the trucking business in the Metropolitan New York areas.

In an interview with The Japan Times at the Palace Hotel Monday Katz outlined the specific purpose of his trip to Japan. He explained that the trucks leased by his company at present were all powered by conventional gasoline engines.

He pointed out that since Manhattan Motor Rental trucks operated on a day-in, day-out, stop-and-go schedule within a 50-mile radius of midtown Manhattan, U.S. made diesel engines were not economically desirable for his company's trade.

He determined that Japanese diesel trucks, particularly in the medium-size output range, were made to order for the type of work required by his clients. This conclusion, he said, was based on the fact that many diesel-powered medium-size trucks are used daily in downtown Tokyo traffic which roughly approximates urban driving conditions in Manhattan.

He said that the average life span of his gasoline-powered trucks was from four to seven years, with about 20,000 miles added to the speedometer yearly. Using the same-sized diesel engines he estimates that the life span of his vehicles could be doubled, or even better.

After closely scrutinizing the various types of diesel engines available here, Katz said he plans to purchase initially a "year's supply" of Japanese diesel trucks from 20 to 40 trucks. Then, as he described it in his own words, "if my dream doesn't turn out to be a nightmare," he plans to increase the number of Japanese diesel trucks used.

Marubeni-Iida Sells Sugar Refinery to P.I.

Marubeni-Iida Co. Wednesday signed with a Philippine sugar refining company a contract for the sale of sugar refining facilities capable of a daily output of 300 tons on a deferred payment basis.

The contract was the first large lot deal of its kind to have been awarded to a Japanese private company by the Philippines under President Ferdinand E. Marcos who has just completed a goodwill state tour of Japan.

The Philippine party of the contract is Agro Industrial Development Co. of Silay Saravia Inc. (AIDSIISA). The contract entails a sum of $10,500,000 (¥3,780 million).

Of this sum, the portion to be paid for machinery will be settled in 10 years after a 10 per cent down payment, and the remaining to cover engineering services is payable in six years after a 20 per cent down payment.

Under the contract Marubeni will also train indigenous personnel in plant operation. Hitachi Zosen K.K. will construct the plant.

Ministry Bares 5-Yr. Shipbuilding Project

The Transportation Ministry Tuesday came up with a long-term ocean fleet buildup plan calling for the construction of 8,970,000 gross tons of ships in five years beginning in fiscal 1967.

The plan was referred immediately to the economic council, an advisory organ of the Government now mapping out the nation's new long-range economic program.

The ships to be built under the ministry's plan are all above 3,000 gross tons. They include ships to replace old ones currently in service.

By type, regular liners account for 1,560,000 gross tons, trampers 2,020,000, coal and ore carriers 2,230,000 and tankers 3,160,000.

The new shipbuilding plan was mapped out on the basis of an estimate that the loading ratio of Japanese shipping in the goal year of fiscal 1971 would improve to 55 per cent for exports and 64.9 per cent for imports from 37.6 and 43.6 per cent, respectively, for fiscal 1965.

The ministry figured that the nation would thus require 21,990,000 gross tons of ocean-going ships in fiscal 1971.

Funds necessary for the execution of the new shipbuilding program are estimated at ¥630,000 million, of which ¥421,000 million is to be accommodated to shipowners in the form of treasury loans.

Complaint Filed Against ROK Firm

SEOUL (AP) — Economic Planning Minister Key Young Chang Wednesday filed a complaint with the prosecution office against the Korea Fertilizer Co. in connection with a controversial smuggling case.

Chang said he made the move because it became apparent that the firm had used part of its commercial loan from Japan in smuggling saccharine in violation of the foreign investment introduction law.

The fertilizer company headed by business tycoon Byung Chul Lee has been under investigation on charges of smuggling $111,000 worth of saccharine from Japan under the camouflage of tax-free construction material for a fertilizer plant it is building near Pusan.

Two Cabinet ministers have been dismissed and seven persons, including Lee's son who is an executive of the firm, arrested in connection with the smuggling scandal, which stalled deliberation of the Government's 1967 budget bill for over three weeks at the National Assembly.

Malaysia, Japan Plan Joint Firm

OSAKA—A new joint venture firm will be established in Malaysia next year by a Malaysian company and three Japanese companies for the production of polypropylene, Tetoron and mixed textiles.

The three Japanese firms are Marubeni-Iida Co. Daiwa Spinning Co. and Tokai Senko Co.

The new firm, to be called United Textile Industry (Malaya) Co., will be capitalized at 3 million Malaysian dollars, or about ¥360 million.

Forty per cent of the capital will be put up by the Malaysian firm and the remainder by the Japanese firms in equal amounts.

Some 200 weaving facilities, dyeing and finishing machines and about 10,000 spindles will be sent from Japan to a plant to be built in the neighborhood of Kuala Lumpur.

The firm is expected to go into operation by the end of next year.

Chrysler, GE Strikes Idle Thousands

CHICAGO (UPI)—Layoffs triggered by a strike at a key stamping plant spread rapidly through the Chrysler Corp. Tuesday. Four thousand Chevrolet production workers walked off their jobs in St. Louis, Missouri, and the strike idled 3,000 Fisher Body workers.

More than 3,000 General Electric employes remained on strike at plants in Massachusetts and Michigan while the Johnson Administration labored in Washington to fend off a threatened nationwide strike of 120,000 GE workers.

Chrysler closed four big car factories, boosting layoffs to 25,935 at the end of Tuesday's shifts, as a strike of 4,200 United Auto Workers members at a Twinsburg, Ohio, stamping plant put a pinch on parts supplies.

The company said 17 factories with a total of 57,500 workers could be affected by the end of the week and warned that it might have to lay off its entire automotive work force of 110,000.

At Twinsburg, Sherwood Weissman, president of UAW Local 122, said talks Tuesday had produced no progress toward resolving grievances on health, safety and production standards which triggered the strike last Thursday. Weissman said negotiations would continue Wednesday.

Some 800 of the 1,100 workers at General Electric's Carboloy Products division, Warren, Michigan, granted a request from UAW president Walter P. Reuther and voted to return to work with the midnight shift Tuesday night.

Picket lines were up for the second day in a row around a General Electric plant in Ashland, Massachusetts. Some 2,000 members of the United Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers Union (UE) were striking over terms of a local contract.

Thousands of other GE workers at plants in Pittsfield, Mass., and Schenectady and Syracuse, New York, returned to work following a one-day strike over local issues.

In New York, members of the Transport Workers Union (TWU) voted by margins of 5 to 1 to accept a new contract with American Airlines, ending the threat of a walkout that came within 30 minutes of a strike one week ago.

Matthew Guinan, TWU international president, announced the results Tuesday. The new contract, arrived at shortly before the strike deadline Sept. 28, "is the best in airline history and our membership knows it," Guinan said.

Business Highlight

Pressures on the French Franc

Recently there has been an active movement of short-term capital from the countries of continental Europe to the United States. As the result, the continental European countries are experiencing dollar shortages in their exchange markets, and the values of continental European currencies against the U.S. dollar are generally trending downward.

A boost in the level of interest rates in the United States is taken as the major factor encouraging the flow of short-term funds into the United States.

The dollar shortage has hit the French franc particularly hard. In fact, the franc-dollar rate turned down about the middle of August and continued to fall acceleratedly in September to reach its lowest level since 1961.

Here it should be noted, however, that the franc-dollar rate had previously continued high for several years past, and that the recent development represented no more than a decline in the value of the franc bringing it close to its dollar parity.

Moreover, the franc usually weakens early in the autumn for seasonal reasons. Understandably, the recent decline in the franc-dollar rate is not of the kind that suggests a basic change in the strength of the franc.

Nevertheless, it is worth particular attention because the size of decline was the largest in five years.

France has been running a substantial surplus in its international accounts in each of the past several years with the result that its reserves for external settlement have mounted year by year.

While limiting its foreign currency reserves to the minimum, that country has been using the remaining part of its foreign currency earnings for the purchase of gold from policy considerations.

Such being the case, there seems to be no ground for any weakening in the franc, at least, in the long run. When viewed in a short perspective, however, there has always been a possibility of the franc weakening its strength; for, the holding of foreign currencies by residents is restricted and official foreign currency holdings are held down to the minimum.

Against this background there has been a brisk flow of short-term capital from France owing to the rising interest rates in other European countries and the United States, causing the current dollar shortage in that country. The dollar shortage seems to have been intensified by additional subscription to the International Monetary Fund and repayments on debts to the United States ahead of schedule.

Equally important is the seasonal factor involved in the balance of merchandise trade. Exports in July rose appreciably to exceed imports, but fell in August below the level of imports, bringing about substantial changes in the supply-demand situation for foreign exchanges.

Sales by foreign banks of French francs in Paris from late August to early September—francs spent by French tourists in neighboring countries—formed another seasonal factor. Externally, moreover, the Bank of England has drawn the franc credit under the swap agreement with the Bank of France, adding to pressures on the franc in consequence.

As noted already, the present weakness of the French franc is basically ascribable to the interest rate hikes in the United States. In view of the apparent isolation seen in the nature of the financial market in France, however, the influence of rising interest rates outside the country on the strength of the franc has its own limit. Hence, the current weakening seems to have stemmed in part from temporary factors such as Government's capital transactions and seasonal variations.

It is paradoxical that the dollar value of the French franc has moved down in the process in which, while the United States is running a payments deficit with its gold flowing out of the country in consequence, France is earning a surplus in its international accounts and absorbing the gold finding its way out of the United States. This paradox may be understandable if the current pressures on the franc are taken as a short-lived development.

AMC Announces Hike in Car Prices

DETROIT (UPI) — American Motors Corp. (AMC) Tuesday announced prices for its 1967 cars showing increases ranging from $56 to $98 over comparable 1966 models.

AMC was the last of the big American automakers to announce prices and again claimed the lowest priced U.S.-built car, the American.

The American 220, a two-door hardtop was priced at $2,073 up $56 from a year ago.

Increases of $81 were in the intermediate Rebel series, which replaced the Classic series of 1966.

The AMC price increases were similar to those posted earlier by General Motors Corp., Ford Motor Co. and Chrysler Corp.

which say that Pimentel is a "slow starter."

Since the average Japanese fighter, including Saito and Nakane, is weaker in the body than in the upper portion of the body, it follows that Pimentel should win against both Japanese opponents.

But both the Japanese fighters have a good chance because Pimentel is the nervous type. He is a worrier and before each fight he worries so much he gets an upset stomach which generally slows up his training.

Under these conditions, the two Japanese might be able to catch the Mexican in a weakened condition to score a triumph.

Pimentel's manager Harry Kabakoff is anxious to fight the two Japanese because he feels he will not get a chance at the Japanese fighter he wants the most . . . Fighting Harada.

The pair were slated to meet once before but because of Pimentel's stomachache, the fight never came off.

One of these days, however, if Harada still holds the world crown, he will have to meet Pimentel in a title match.

Kabakoff has vowed that if such an opportunity presents itself, Pimentel will climb in the ring, upset stomach and all to bid for the elusive world crown.

equanimity is supposed to be beyond human understanding, but he's also a man who can get so mad that he must force himself to control himself. On two different occasions, early in his Dodger career, he closed the door to his clubhouse and offered to fight a player he felt was inordinately disrespectful and creating dissension. He did not particularly care whether or not the player liked him. He wanted to show he was the boss. In neither case would the player take the challenge.

Ordinarily he completely disregards what is written in the papers about him, but once he took such violent exception that he called a newspaperman, easily 20 years his junior, every vile name he could think of, hoping to make the writer mad enough to come at him. Wisely the guy did not.

I know about that one personally because I sat on the bench after a spring training game had begun trying to placate Alston, whose voice still was quivering in rage. "What would you gain beating him up?" I asked.

"He'd never do it again," Alston said, still convinced that his only recourse in this instance would have been violence.

Only the other day I discussed that moment of rage with him and then we discussed another day when the rumors were out that Alston was to be fired and Leo Durocher, then a coach, was to replace him.

"Goddamit," Alston said at that time, "they can fire me if they want to, but I know I can manage this club as good, no, better, than any other s.o.b. around. I'm a good manager."

He was a busher who had had one swing of a bat in the major leagues. When he came to the Dodgers he had Robinson and Reese and Campanella and Snider and Hodges and Furillo, who were more than a baseball team. Each was a legend in his own right. Alston was kind of a wraith summoned from nowhere to command them and he had to be scared.

"I wasn't," he told me. "I'm a helluva lot more cocky in my heart than people think I am or thought I was. Look, I can play you marbles or pool or gin and deep inside I got to feel I got a good chance of beating you."

His smile is not quite a smile. It almost seems apologetic. Around his eyes are lines that could have come from the years of tension and derision and indetermination, but he is a man of 55, who is as straight and tall and rugged as some of his young ball players.

They used to deride him. They don't any more. "All my life," says Maury Wills, "I don't think I've ever met a man who seemed to take tension so easily. I don't think I ever met a man I respect more. In this whole pennant race he was the calmest person around. I'm supposed to be daring, but he's the one who made me that way. He's the one who's daring. He makes up his mind about something, baby, nothing's going to change it, except Walter Alston." (NANA)

Mrs. King, Santana Gain No. 1 Rankings in Tennis

LONDON (UPI)—Manuel Santana of Spain and Billie-Jean King of the United States Tuesday were ranked No. 1 in the men's and women's lists respectively of the annual "Daily Telegraph" tennis rankings.

Telegraph tennis correspondent Lance Tingay, one of the most widely traveled and knowledgeable writers on the sport, said the pattern of the 1966 season was less tidy than in recent years, adding: "Among neither the men nor the women was there outstanding claim for the status as leader."

Santana and Mrs. King gained the No. 1 ranking because they won the most difficult singles titles—Wimbledon.

The rankings:

Men—1. Manuel Santana, Spain: 2. Fred Stolle, Australia: 3. Roy Emerson, Australia: 4. Tony Roche, Australia: 5. Dennis Ralston, United States: 6. John Newcombe, Australia: 7. Arthur Ashe, United States: 8. Istvan Gulyas, Hungary: 9. Cliff Drysdale, South Africa: 10. Ken Fletcher, Australia.

Smith said "the basic purse is $40,000 plus $12,7000 in posted accessory money for a total of $52,700.

He said the winner of the race would receive $7,000 of the $40,000 purse plus about $3,000 of the accessory money. Even the last man will receive about $400, he said.

Weather will play a role in the race. Fall is a fickle time in Japan and the Central Meteorological Agency predicted cloudy weather for Oct. 8 in the Fuji area when the qualifications are to be held, and occasional rain on Oct. 9, the day of the race.

Hill said the Indianapolis cars' tires were only made for dry weather. "It would be ridiculous to race in rain," Hill said.

Chief stewart McQuinn said there would be no start in case of rain but the race might be continued if a drizzle begins after the start.

USAC officials said the average speed would be in the 100 to 125 miles per hour range with maximum speeds of more than 200 mph.

The race will be run counterclock wise because Indianapolis cars are geared to make only left turns. The Fuji Speedway, however, was designed for clockwise traffic. This means the cars will be traveling uphill on the homestretch and some other curves. The shorter 4.3 track, which eliminates the 30-degree bank, will be used.

Asked whether he thought the Fuji race would be a dangerous one, Hill tersely replied "no!" He said he saw the Fuji event as "a link" in the growing trend in the world in auto racing.

USAC officials said there will be 32 cars in the Fuji race. A 33rd driver, A. J. Foyt's car was not ready. "But he may hop on a plane and join us for the qualification Saturday," one official said.

The 32 drivers now in Tokyo are:

AUSTRALIAN AND ASIAN GOLF PROS TO SHOOT FOR BIGGEST CASH PRIZES

BY LESLIE NAKASHIMA
UPI Sports Editor for Asia

TOKYO, Jan. 13—(UPI)—Asian and Australian professional golfers will begin shooting next month for the greatest cash prizes, totaling some $90,000 ever offered in the Far East golf circuit.

The addition of the Taiwan Open tournament to make it a real Asian international event has guaranteed that.

Thailand joined the circuit last year to boost the total prize money to $77,300. Here's how the tournaments were worth: Philippine Open, $17,500; Singapore Open $13,300; Malayan Open, $10,000; Thailand Open, $10,000; Hong Kong Open, $11,500; and Yomiuri (Japan) Open $15,000.

Prize monies should total at least $10,000 in the newly added Taiwan Open at Taipei.

Beginning with the Philippine Open which is scheduled Feb. 24-27 in Manila, golfers on the circuit will be playing every week for seven weeks.

The schedule follows:

Philippine Open, Manila, Feb. 24-27; Singapore Open, Singapore March 3-6; Malaya Open, Kuala Lumpure March 10-13; Thailand Open, Bangkok March 17-20; Hong Kong Open, Hong Kong, March 24-27; Taiwan Open, Taipei March 31-April 3; and Yomiuri International Tokyo, April 7-10.

Some 30 Japanese pros participated in the circuit last year but the number should be even more this year. The Japanese government has eased travel restrictions and all that a professional golfer needs is to raise the cash for the cost of transportation and some pocket money to make the trip as a tourist.

$500 Allowed

Aside from transportation, the Japanese government permits each traveler abroad for pleasure to take out $500 in foreign exchange.

Until April 1, 1964, the Japanese government only allowed persons on business to go abroad. Others had to have foreign sponsors. But effective April 1, 1964 a Japanese was permitted to go abroad once a year for pleasure.

The law has been changed, effective Jan. 1 this year a person may go abroad as many times as he wants for pleasure but that he will be allowed only $500 in foreign exchange for each trip.

One of the Youngest

Fujio Ishii, 24, was one of the young Japanese pros who made the Far East circuit for the first time last year. He didn't make much of a showing but he gained enough experience and poise to win the Kanto (East Japan) professional golfers championship in May last year with a one over part 289 for 72 holes.

Ishii said he would use most of his first prize money of ¥550,000 ($1,530) to go on this year's Far East golf tour.

Japanese professional golfers have come to recognize the importance of the tour as one of the finest means to improve their standard of play.

Lefthander

Bob Charles of New Zealand, who drew world attention several years ago as a lefthander to win the British Open, had his start in the Far East golf circuit. So did Australia's Bruce Delvin, who has been winning money in the U.S.

Then, of course, there is the one and only Peter Thomson of Australia, who is a regular participant in the Far East circuit. Because he is a great shotmaker and a gentleman, he always draws a big gallery in Asia. He again won the British Open last year to demonstrate he is one of the finest golfers in the world.

Split Honors

Asian and Australian golfers split honors in the Far East golf circuit last year.

Nationalist China's Lu Liang Huan won the Philippines Open, Japan's Tomoo Ishii the Malayan Open and China's Hsieh Yung Yo the Thailand Open, but Thomson took the Hong Kong Open and Frank Phillips the Singapore Open and the International Open in Tokyo.

Hsieh Yung Yo won the Japan Dunlop Rubber Co.'s overall circuit prize of $2,000.

The Far East golf circuit should also be good training ground for the Canada Cup tourney which will be held this October at the Tokyo Yomiuri County Club.

AUSTRALIAN AND ASIAN GOLF PROS TO SHOOT FOR BIGGEST CASH PRIZES

BY LESLIE NAKASHIMA

TOKYO, Jan. 13—(UPI)—Asian and Australian professional golfers will begin shooting next month for the greatest cash prizes, totaling some $90,000 ever offered in the Far East golf circuit.

The addition of the Taiwan Open tournament to make it a real Asian international event has guaranteed that.

The golfers are top, left to right, Billy Casper and Gene Littler, bottom left to right, Al Geiberger and Jack Nicklaus. The winner of the 36-hole event will pocket $50,000. Second place is worth $15,000 while the man who finishes third will collect $7,500. For just showing up, the golfer who comes in at the bottom of the pile will be rewarded with a check for $5,000.

AUSTRALIAN AND ASIAN GOLF PROS TO SHOOT FOR BIGGEST CASH PRIZES

BY LESLIE NAKASHIMA
UPI Sports Editor for Asia

TOKYO, Jan. 13—(UPI)—Asian and Australian professional golfers will begin shooting next month for the greatest cash prizes, totaling some $90,000 ever offered in the Far East golf circuit.

The addition of the Taiwan Open tournament to make it a real Asian international event has guaranteed that.

Thailand joined the circuit last year to boost the total prize money to $77,300. Here's how the tournaments were worth: Philippine Open, $17,500; Singapore Open $13,300; Malayan Open, $10,000; Thailand Open, $10,000; Hong Kong Open, $11,500; and Yomiuri (Japan) Open $15,000.

Prize monies should total at least $10,000 in the newly added Taiwan Open at Taipei.

Beginning with the Philippine Open which is scheduled Feb. 24-27 in Manila, golfers on the circuit will be playing every week for seven weeks.

The schedule follows:

Philippine Open, Manila, Feb. 24-27; Singapore Open, Singapore March 3-6; Malaya Open, Kuala Lumpure March 10-13; Thailand Open, Bangkok March 17-20; Hong Kong Open, Hong Kong, March 24-27; Taiwan Open, Taipei March 31-April 3; and Yomiuri International Tokyo, April 7-10.

Some 30 Japanese pros participated in the circuit last year but the number should be even more this year. The Japanese government has eased travel restrictions and all that a professional golfer needs is to raise the cash for the cost of transportation and some pocket money to make the trip as a tourist.

$500 Allowed

Aside from transportation, the Japanese government permits each traveler abroad for pleasure to take out $500 in foreign exchange.

Until April 1, 1964, the Japanese government only allowed persons on business to go abroad. Others had to have foreign sponsors. But effective April 1, 1964 a Japanese was permitted to go abroad once a year for pleasure.

The law has been changed, effective Jan. 1 this year a person may go abroad as many times as he wants for pleasure but that he will be allowed only $500 in foreign exchange for each trip.

One of the Youngest

Fujio Ishii, 24, was one of the young Japanese pros who made the Far East circuit for the first time last year. He didn't make much of a showing but he gained enough experience and poise to win the Kanto (East Japan) professional golfers championship in May last year with a one over part 289 for 72 holes.

Ishii said he would use most of his first prize money of ¥550,000 ($1,530) to go on this year's Far East golf tour.

Japanese professional golfers have come to recognize the importance of the tour as one of the finest means to improve their standard of play.

Lefthander

Bob Charles of New Zealand, who drew world attention several years ago as a lefthander to win the British Open, had his start in the Far East golf circuit. So did Australia's Bruce Delvin, who has been winning money in the U.S.

Then, of course, there is the one and only Peter Thomson of Australia, who is a regular participant in the Far East circuit. Because he is a great shotmaker and a gentleman, he always draws a big gallery in Asia. He again won the British Open last year to demonstrate he is one of the finest golfers in the world.

Split Honors

Asian and Australian golfers split honors in the Far East golf circuit last year.

Nationalist China's Lu Liang Huan won the Philippines Open, Japan's Tomoo Ishii the Malayan Open and China's Hsieh Yung Yo the Thailand Open, but Thomson took the Hong Kong Open and Frank Phillips the Singapore Open and the International Open in Tokyo.

Hsieh Yung Yo won the Japan Dunlop Rubber Co.'s overall circuit prize of $2,000.

The Far East golf circuit should also be good training ground for the Canada Cup tourney which will be held this October at the Tokyo Yomiuri County Club.

AUSTRALIAN AND ASIAN GOLF PROS TO SHOOT FOR BIGGEST CASH PRIZES

BY LESLIE NAKASHIMA
UPI Sports Editor for Asia

TOKYO, Jan. 13—(UPI)—Asian and Australian professional golfers will begin shooting next month for the greatest cash prizes, totaling some $90,000 ever offered in the Far East golf circuit.

The addition of the Taiwan Open tournament to make it a real Asian international event has guaranteed that.

Thailand joined the circuit last year to boost the total prize money to $77,300. Here's how the tournaments were worth: Philippine Open, $17,500; Singapore Open $13,-300; Malayan Open, $10,000; Thailand Open, $10,000; Hong Kong Open, $11,500; and Yomiuri (Japan) Open $15,000.

Prize monies should total at least $10,000 in the newly added Taiwan Open at Taipei.

Beginning with the Philippine Open which is scheduled Feb. 24-27 in Manila, golfers on the circuit will be playing every week for seven weeks.

The schedule follows:

Philippine Open, Manila, Feb. 24-27; Singapore Open, Singapore March 3-6; Malaya Open, Kuala Lumpure March 10-13; Thailand Open, Bangkok March 17-20; Hong Kong Open, Hong Kong, March 24-27; Taiwan Open, Taipei March 31-April 3; and Yomiuri International Tokyo, April 7-10.

Some 30 Japanese pros participated in the circuit last year but the number should be even more this year. The Japanese government has eased travel restrictions and all that a professional golfer needs is to raise the cash for the cost of transportation and some pocket money to make the trip as a tourist.

$500 Allowed

Aside from transportation, the Japanese government permits each traveler abroad for pleasure to take out $500 in foreign exchange.

Until April 1, 1964, the Japanese government only allowed persons on business to go abroad. Others had to have foreign sponsors. But effective April 1, 1964 a Japanese was permitted to go abroad once a year for pleasure.

The law has been changed, effective Jan. 1 this year a person may go abroad as many times as he wants for pleasure but that he will be allowed only $500 in foreign exchange for each trip.

One of the Youngest

Fujio Ishii, 24, was one of the young Japanese pros who made the Far East circuit for the first time last year. He didn't make much of a showing but he gained enough experience and poise to win the Kanto (East Japan) professional golfers championship in May last year with a one over part 289 for 72 holes.

Ishii said he would use most of his first prize money of ¥550,000 ($1,530) to go on this year's Far East golf tour.

Japanese professional golfers have come to recognize the importance of the tour as one of the finest means to improve their standard of play.

Lefthander

Bob Charles of New Zealand, who drew world attention several years ago as a lefthander to win the British Open, had his start in the Far East golf circuit. So did Australia's Bruce Delvin, who has been winning money in the U.S.

Then, of course, there is the one and only Peter Thomson of Australia, who is a regular participant in the Far East circuit. Because he is a great shotmaker and a gentleman, he always draws a big gallery in Asia. He again won the British Open last year to demonstrate he is one of the finest golfers in the world.

Split Honors

Asian and Australian golfers split honors in the Far East golf circuit last year.

Nationalist China's Lu Liang Huan won the Philippines Open, Japan's Tomoo Ishii the Malayan Open and China's Hsieh Yung Yo the Thailand Open, but Thomson took the Hong Kong Open and Frank Phillips the Singapore Open and the International Open in Tokyo.

Hsieh Yung Yo won the Japan Dunlop Rubber Co.'s overall circuit prize of $2,000.

The Far East golf circuit should also be good training ground for the Canada Cup tourney which will be held this October at the Tokyo Yomiuri County Club.

AUSTRALIAN AND ASIAN GOLF PROS TO SHOOT FOR BIGGEST CASH PRIZES

BY LESLIE NAKASHIMA
UPI Sports Editor for Asia

TOKYO, Jan. 13—(UPI)—Asian and Australian professional golfers will begin shooting next month for the greatest cash prizes, totaling some $90,000 ever offered in the Far East golf circuit.

The addition of the Taiwan Open tournament to make it a real Asian international event has guaranteed that.

Thailand joined the circuit last year to boost the total prize money to $77,300. Here's how the tournaments were worth: Philippine Open, $17,500; Singapore Open $13,300; Malayan Open, $10,000; Thailand Open, $10,000; Hong Kong Open, $11,500; and Yomiuri (Japan) Open $15,000.

Prize monies should total at least $10,000 in the newly added Taiwan Open at Taipei.

Beginning with the Philippine Open which is scheduled Feb. 24-27 in Manila, golfers on the circuit will be playing every week for seven weeks.

The schedule follows:

Philippine Open, Manila, Feb. 24-27; Singapore Open, Singapore March 3-6; Malaya Open, Kuala Lumpure March 10-13; Thailand Open, Bangkok March 17-20; Hong Kong Open, Hong Kong, March 24-27; Taiwan Open, Taipei March 31-April 3; and Yomiuri International Tokyo, April 7-10.

Some 30 Japanese pros participated in the circuit last year but the number should be even more this year. The Japanese government has eased travel restrictions and all that a professional golfer needs is to raise the cash for the cost of transportation and some pocket money to make the trip as a tourist.

$500 Allowed

Aside from transportation, the Japanese government permits each traveler abroad for pleasure to take out $500 in foreign exchange.

Until April 1, 1964, the Japanese government only allowed persons on business to go abroad. Others had to have foreign sponsors. But effective April 1, 1964 a Japanese was permitted to go abroad once a year for pleasure.

The law has been changed, effective Jan. 1 this year a person may go abroad as many times as he wants for pleasure but that he will be allowed only $500 in foreign exchange for each trip.

One of the Youngest

Fujio Ishii, 24, was one of the young Japanese pros who made the Far East circuit for the first time last year. He didn't make much of a showing but he gained enough experience and poise to win the Kanto (East Japan) professional golfers championship in May last year with a one over part 289 for 72 holes.

Ishii said he would use most of his first prize money of ¥550,000 ($1,530) to go on this year's Far East golf tour.

Japanese professional golfers have come to recognize the importance of the tour as one of the finest means to improve their standard of play.

Lefthander

Bob Charles of New Zealand, who drew world attention several years ago as a lefthander to win the British Open, had his start in the Far East golf circuit. So did Australia's Bruce Delvin, who has been winning money in the U.S.

Then, of course, there is the one and only Peter Thomson of Australia, who is a regular participant in the Far East circuit. Because he is a great shotmaker and a gentleman, he always draws a big gallery in Asia. He again won the British Open last year to demonstrate he is one of the finest golfers in the world.

Split Honors

Asian and Australian golfers split honors in the Far East golf circuit last year.

Nationalist China's Lu Liang Huan won the Philippines Open, Japan's Tomoo Ishii the Malayan Open and China's Hsieh Yung Yo the Thailand Open, but Thomson took the Hong Kong Open and Frank Phillips the Singapore Open and the International Open in Tokyo.

Hsieh Yung Yo won the Japan Dunlop Rubber Co.'s overall circuit prize of $2,000.

The Far East golf circuit should also be good training ground for the Canada Cup tourney which will be held this October at the Tokyo Yomiuri County Club.

Palmer and Nicklaus take whopping Canada Cup lead

11/13/66

By TED SMITS

TOKYO, (AP). — The mighty American combination of Arnold Palmer and Jack Nicklaus surged toward the team championship today on the third day of the Canada Cup Classic at the windy Yomiuri course.

Canada's George Knudson again shattered par to stretch his lead on Palmer to four strokes at the end of the third round of the international cup competition.

Nicklaus shot a five under par 67, his best round of the international show thus far, and Palmer a 69 as they posted a combined team total of 406 strokes for 54 holes.

Knudson, 29-year old professional from Toronto, who has previous rounds of 64-68 and added a 66 for 198 to lead Palmer by four strokes.

Knudson shot 32-34—66 over the chilly, windy Yomiuri course. Palmer shot 34-35—69 for 202 as he saw his one-stroke defiict of Friday widen disastrously. Par for the 6962 yard hilly course is 72.

Knudson led off with a bogey 5 on the first hole but birdied the third, sixth and ninth while sandwiching an eagle 3 on the 508-yard fourth hole. He made the turn in 32 and came home in even figures.

The American team leads the second place Australian duo of Bruce Devlin and Kel Nagle by seven strokes going into the final round Sunday.

Formosa's Chen Ching-Po and Lu Liang Huan had 416 for third spot.

Still in individual contention was Hideyo Sugimoto, the big Japanese professional who is playing his home course. He shot 32-36—68 for 66-69-68—203.

And surging up was Jack Nicklaus who has his best round yet, 33-34—67. This gave him 69-68-67—204.

TOKYO, (AP).—George Knudson of Canada, a handsome golfing ambassador who shot a sensational, record breaking 64 Thursday, slipped behind Arnold Palmer of the United States in the second day of the Canada Cup play Friday and then surged back into the lead again with birdies on the 16th and 17th holes. He saved the day on the 18th by sinking a tricky, twisting uphill putt of 12 feet.

Knudson's total was 132. Palmer with 34-33—67 had a 133 total. Tied for third in individual honors was Lu Liang Huan of Nationalist China with Hideyo Sugimoto of Japan with 69-66—135.

TOKYO, (AP). — The mighty American team of Jack Nicklaus and Arnold Palmer captured the team championship in record breaking fashion in the Canada Cup international golf matches which wound up Sunday at the Yomiuri course.

Canada's own George Knudson won the individual title in a sudden death play-off with Japan's Hideyo Sugimoto.

The two had tied at 272—16 under par—for the regulation 72 holes and the 29-year old Knudson dropped in a birdie putt deuce on the second play-off hole to give Canada its first championship in the 14 years of the tournament.

Knudson, the leader from the start, staved off the threat of the great Palmer and Nicklaus in a head-on confrontation in the final round.

The Canadian's 74 for 272 edged Nicklaus and his 69 by one stroke, while Palmer fell back to 73 for 275. Sugimoto had a 68 to tie Knudson.

Both finalists had par 4s on the first hole.

On the second, Sugimoto's drive landed 15 feet past the pin and Knudson's eight feet in front.

Sugimoto's putt went one foot past the cup and Knudson knocked his straight into the hole.

Nicklaus made a brilliant charge at the pace-setting Canadian, coming from six shots behind at the start to two at the turn and tying at the 12th.

But, Nicklaus's chances collapsed when he took a double bogey on the 15th. Nicklaus finished with a 273.

The team victory was the third for Nicklaus and Palmer and their combined score of 548, 28 under par, bettered the record 554 set by these same players in Hawaii in 1964.

The Americans made it clear from the outset they were primarily interested in winning the Canada Cup team title.

But in individual play, the battle was fierce. It started under clear skies at the par 36-36—72 Tokyo Yomiuri Country Cub. The sun left quickly and the tournament was finished in a cold rain.

"We came to win this Canada Cup as a team. We're glad we can take it back home," agreed Palmer and big Jack who have taken it home on three previous occasions.

Gary Player of So. Africa, the 1965 champion, shot a final 68 for 277. His teammate Harold Henning, had a 70 to 276. The two, who won the team title last year, were second this time with 553.

Nationalist China was third with L. Liang Huan's 273 and C. Ching-Po's 281 for a 554 total. Australia followed with B. Devin's 277 and K. Nagle's 279 for a 556.

Japan was sixth with 561, made up of Sugimoto's 272 and Mitsutaka Kono's 289. Canada was next with 564.

Nicklaus primes for Canada Cup, has 68 at Sagami

11/8/66

TOKYO, (AP).—Jack Nicklaus of Columbus, Ohio fired a three-under-par 68—including a sensational five-under-par 30 on the par-35 front nine—at the Sagami Country Club today playing in an exhibition warmup for the Canada Cup International Golf Tournament.

His performance against South African Gary Player and Arnold Palmer of Latrobe, Pa., was something of a warning to other Canada Cup competitors who were practicing at the nearby Yomiuri Country Club while the threesome was being played at Sagami.

The Canada Cup—the 14th edition of this major world tournament—will be played at Yomiuri Nov. 10-13.

Player had a 35-35 — 70, and Palmer a 36-39—75. Both will have only one day of practice at the 6962-yard, par-72 Yomiuri layout before competition begins.

Seventy-two golfers from 36 countries are entered. Nicklaus and Palmer will represent the United States in the team competition.

Nicklaus, Palmer and Player said they would use the small ball 1.62 inches in diameter for the Canada Cup "because it's easier to use."

"We'd prefer to use the large ball 1.68 inches in diameter but since most everyone will be using the small ball, we'd be giving away too much by using the large," Nicklaus explained.

Tournament officials say the Tokyo Yomiuri course is the hilliest on which the Canada Cup has been played, with the advantage in favor of straight power hitters.

Since the first tournament at Montreal in 1953, the Canada Cup has been played in every hemisphere. Thirty-eight nations will be represented at this years tournament at the famed Yomiuri Country Club in Tokyo. Next year the Canada Cup will be played in Mexico City with dates to be announced later.

Golfers traveling to the Canada Cup will find that nowhere in the world is the game played with such enthusaism. Most of Japans 350 courses have been built within the past decade. And, since the country has little unused and along its relatively level coastal areas, the new golf layouts have been carved out of rugged mountainous land. The result is some of the worlds most challenging and beautiful golf terrain.

The Japanese caddies, attractive and efficient young girls, are talked about by golfers all over the world. And whats more, the Japanese golfing caddie is one of the best golfing luxuries for the oney—usually $1 per round.

Golf Identity Card

The visiting golfer is welcomed almost everywhere in Japan.

Golfers wishing to play in Japan may stop at the Pan American ticket office in Tokyo and receive a free complete package containing the latest details on courses in the area. To obtain the golf package a Pan Am Golf Identity Card is required, which may be obtained free of cost by writing to Pan American Airways, Box 2212, Dept. 620, Boston, Mass. 02101.

Of all the courses in Japan, the one considered the finest is Hirono Golf Club, which is an hour away from Kobe. Every one of its 18 holes is patterned after an internationally famous hole. Another fine course is the Fiji Course situated between the Pacific Ocean and Fuji, the highest mountain in Japan.

The climate in Japan is similar to that of the middle belt of the United States. Since it seldom gets either too hot or too cold, golf is played almost the year around.

Western Style Hotels

Excellent western style hotels are available in Tokyo with rates averaging $10.50 single, $16 double. There are the Imperial Hotel, New Otani, Tokyo Prince, Tokyo Hilton and the Okura, to name but a few. United States visitors, however, are often delighted with ryokan, Japanese-style inns, where rooms are usually entire suites with private verandahs; interior walls are sliding paper screens, beds are thick mats and meals are served in the suite. Rates range from $9 to $17 for one, including breakfast and dinner, plus 15 percent service charge and tips.

Excellent golf courses near Tokyo are the Tsukuba Course, Adachi-ku, Tokyo (35 minutes by car); Fuji Course (15 minutes by

Canada Cup Sets Record Low Scores

11/15/66

TOKYO—The formidable duo of Arnold Palmer and Jack Nicklaus won the Canada Cup Sunday for the eighth U.S. victory in 14 tourneys, while George Kundson of Canada won the International Trophy for the best individual score by beating Japan's Hideyo Sugimoto in a sudden-death play off with a birdie two on the second hole.

Both the winning team score of 548 and the individual low 272 were the lowest in the tournament's history.

The Americans finished the four-day, 72-hole tourney with a two-man total regulation figure, and five strokes ahead of runner-up South Africa. The score was five strokes better than the previous low of 553 strokes, also marked by the Palmer-Nicklaus combination in the 1964 Hawaii Tournament.

Taiwan placed third with 554, followed by Australia with 556 and the host team of Japan in fifth place with 561.

Palmer and Nicklaus, two of the golf's "Big Three," have teamed up three times, including the current tourney, and won each time. They faltered a bit on the final round, however.

In anaward ceremony after the tournament, the U.S. team was presented with the Canada Cup and $2,000 in prize money. Knudson was awarded the International Trophy plus $1,000.

Japan champ falters in LA Open first round

—Kamai photos by Eiji Yoshimoto

Japan Open champion Mitsutaka Kono, obviously puzzled by the surpisingly tough Rancho Park greens, fired a 37-38-75 in the opening round of the $70,000 Los Angeles Open to fall far off the pace set by the two leaders Dave Ragan and Steve Oppermann, who fired 67s.

Kono, who had to qualify to make the starting list, couldn't come close to the form he displayed in carding a 69 in the qualifying round.

The fast greens, which tripped up such steady performers as Arnold Palmer, confused the Japanese champion.

Teeing off from the 10th hole Thursday, Kono birdied the outgoing 4th hole (13th) but ran into trouble on the 6th (15th) with a double bogey 6 when he sliced into the rough and missed a putt.

He was one-over-par on the front nine and three-over-par on the back, scoring pars except for three bogeys. The Japanese pro misjudged putts of five feet on the tricky greens.

JAPAN PRO GOLFER TO VIE IN L.A. OPEN

12/21/65

Mitsutaka Kono, 23-year old champion of Japan golf, who recently carded a 15 under par at the Hodogaya course, will arrive tonight to participate in the L.A. Open.

As former vice president Richard Nixon used to say, "let's look at the records."

1/14/66

In this case, the records show that this corner made a remark concerning the personality of Japanese professional golfer Mitsutaka Kohno.

He was described as being "cocky."

Moreover, the report said that he thought pretty highly of his ability and didn't care who knew it.

All these things are being reviewed so that we can say that the report about Kohno is wrong.

This description of him, as reported here, was given to us by one of our reporters who covered the recent L.A. Open.

However, the other day one of Niseidom's top golfers, Min Yoshizaki, dropped by the Kamai office to tell us that we were wrong in our appraisal of Kohno's personality.

"If anything," Yoshizaki said, "Kohno is a very humble person."

He added, "I was with him for the entire four days of the qualifying and tournament play and he displayed great humility."

Yoshizaki was the only one, during the L.A. Open, to be permitted to talk to Kohno on the course.

He served as his interpreter on the occasion.

In citing his case, Yoshizaki said, "Several times during the tournament he sought my advice on the type of club he might use for a particular shot."

"If he was a cocky sort," Yoshizaki emphasized, "he would have just gone ahead and hit the ball without seeking advice."

As for Kohno's talents, Yoshizaki thought he displayed great potentials.

He played poorly because of the pressures, Yoshizaki felt.

"His putting, especially," Yoshizaki commented, "hurt any chance he might have had in making the cut-off limit."

Okay, so now the records are in order.

Kohno is a wonderful golfer and a very humble individual.

HOLE-IN-ONE HONOR PAGE!

UPI Sports Writer Nakashima Makes Hole-In-One After 20 Years Golfing

BY LESLIE NAKASHIMA
UPI Sports Editor for Asia

TOKYO, Feb 16 —(UPI)— At long last I have finally joined that select circle of golfers who have been lucky enough to achieve that rare, rare thing—a hole-in-one.

Millions of people have played golf for as many as 50 years and have never had the ecstasy of shooting a hole-in-one. They've come close to it with the ball siting on the lip of the cup on a fine shot from the tee on a short par 3 hole. But the ball had refused to drop in.

Started in 1945

I started golf in Japan in 1945 when the Pacific war ended and this sport once considered the past time of only the rich and diplomats in this country, began to become "democratized" with American enlisted men playing on the courses commandered by the occupation forces from the exclusive Japanese golf clubs.

I had played some golf years ago when a group of friends on the island of Kauai, Hawaii took it up at the Waialua course. I remember that it was considered to be a foolish sport in which you hit a little ball as far as you can, then walk up to the ball and hit it again, and walk again.

But I was coaxed to take it up again here in Japan during the occupation period. I became a member of the Kawasaki Kokusai Country Club at Noborito in the Tokyo suburbs shortly after its establishment some 20 years ago. It has more than 2,000 members.

The Kawasaki Kokusai is popular because it is an interesting course, with every one of the 18 holes different in terrain, and it is with an hour's ride by train from Tokyo. It is probably the closest golf course from downtown Tokyo, excepting the city-owned practice course on the waterfront.

Nothing to Boast About

My golf is nothing to boast about. I am just a little bit better than a duffer.

I read somebody's column the other day saying that golf is not an easy game, that out of every 100 who take it up, 95 quit it within a very few years without ever breaking 100.

Well, I have managed to break 100 now and then and have broken 90 only once in my lifetime.

I called up the Japan Golf Assn. the other day and was told that front nine I had a double bogey 7 on the 10th hole and bogeys on the 11th and 12th par 4 holes. This isn't too bad for my kind of golf.

I stepped up on the 13th tee, a par three 175 yard hole. You hit down toward the green which is not visible if you stand on the extreme left of the tee.

I took out my No. 3 iron and hit a fine shot, aiming it a foot or two to the left of the green. The ball went up nice and high. Suddenly, my caddy, a Miss Kie Konuma, who was looking at the flight of the ball from the mound about 20 yards to the right of the tee, shouted, "hairimashita" (it has dropped into the cup).

90 only once in my lifetime.

I called up the Japan Golf Assn. the other day and was told that there are some 3,000,000 golfers in Japan today. The number of holes-in-ones must be very small, indeed.

It was a nice day, unusually warm for a winter day. And there was little wind. It was a week day. The Noborito course wasn't crowded and I was playing alone.

A horrendous 9 on the second par 4 hole gave me a 50 on the front nine I had a double bogey 7 on the 10th hole and bogeys on the 11th and 12th par 4 holes. This isn't too bad for my kind of golf.
